34 O generations of vipers, how can you ſpeake good things, when ye are euil? For of the abundance of the heart the mouth ſpeaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treaſure of his heart bringeth forth the good things: & an euil man out of an euil treaſure, bringeth forth the euil things.

36 But I ſay vnto you, that of euerie idle worde that men ſhal ſpeake, they ſhal giue accounte thereof at the day of iudgement.

37 For by thy wordes thou ſhalt be iuſtified, and by thy wordes thou ſhalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then answered certeine of the Scribes & of the Pharisees, ſaying, Maſter, we wolde ſee a ſigne of thee.

39 But he answered, and ſaid to them, An euil and adulterous generacion ſeketh a ſigne, but no ſigne ſhal be giuen vnto it, ſaue the ſigne of the Prophet Ionas.

40 ¶ For as Ionas was thre dayes, and thre nights in the whales bellic: ſo ſhal the Son of man be thre dayes and thre nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineue ſhal riſe in iudge-ment with this generacion, and condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Ionas: and beholde, a greater then Ionas is here.

42 ¶ The Quene of the South ſhal riſe in iudgement with this generacion, and ſhal condemne it: for ſhe came from the vtmoſt parties of the earth to heare the wiſdome of Solomon: and beholde a greater then Solomon is here.

43 ¶ Now whē the vncleane ſpirit is gone out of a man, he walketh throughout drye places, ſeking reſt, and findeth none.

44 Then he ſaith, I wil returne into mine houſe, fro whence I came: & when he is come, he findeth it empty, ſwept & garniſhed.

45 ¶ Then he goeth, & taketh vnto him ſeuen other ſpirits worſe then him ſelf, and they entre in, and dwell there: & the end of that man is worſe then the beginning. Euen ſo ſhal it be with this wicked generacion.

46 ¶ While he yet ſpake to the multitude, beholde, his mother, & his brethren ſtoode without, deſiring to ſpeake with him.

47 The one ſaid vnto him, Beholde, thy mother and thy brethren ſtand without, deſi-ring to ſpeake with thee.

48 But he answered, and ſaid to him that tolde him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he ſtretched forth his hand toward his diſciples, & ſaid; Beholde my mother and my brethren.

50 For whoſoeuer ſhal do my Fathers wil which is in heauen, the ſame is my brother and ſiſter and mother.

THe same day went Iesus out of the house, and sate by the sea side.

And a great multitudes resorted vnto hi, so that he went into a ship, and sate downe: and the whole multitude stode on the shore.

Then he spake many things to them in parables, saying, Beholde, a sower went forth to sowe.

And as he sowed, some fel by the wayes side, and the foules came and deuoured them vp.

And some fel vpon stonie grounde, where they had not muche earth, and anone they sprong vp, because they had no depth of earth.

And when the sunne rose vp, they were parched, and for lacke of rooting, withred away.

And some fel among thornes, & the thornes sprong vp, and choked them.

Some againe fel in good grounde, and brought forth frute, one corne an hundred fold, some sixtie folde, and another thirtie folde.

He that hathe cares to heare, let him heere.

¶ Then the disciples came, and said to him, Why speakest thou to them in parables?

And he answered and said vnto them, Because it is giuen vnto you, to knowe the secrets of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not giuen.

¶ For whosoever hathe, to him shal be giuen, and he shal haue abundance: but whosoever hathe not, from him shal be taken away, euen that he hathe.

Therefore speake I to them in parables, because they seeing, do not see: and hearing, they heare not, neither vnderstand.

So in them is fulfilled the prophecie of Esaias, which prophecie saith, * By hearing, ye shal heare, and shal not vnderstand, and seeing ye shal see, and shal not perceiue.

¶ For this peoples heart is waxed fatte, and their eares are dul of hearing, and with their eyes they haue winked, lest they shulde see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and shulde vnderstand with their hearts, and shulde returne, that I might heale them.

But blessed are your eyes, for they see: & your eares, for they heare.

¶ For verely I say vnto you, that many Prophetes, & righteous men haue desired to see those things which ye see, & haue not sene them, and to heare those things which ye heare, & haue not heard them.

Luk. 8. 15.*

Whensoever a man heareth the worde of the kingdome, and vnderstandeth it not, the euil one cometh, and catcheth away that which was sowed in his heart: & this is he which hathe receiued the fede by the way side.

And he that receiued fede in the stonie grounde, is he which heareth the worde, & incontinently with ioye receiueh it.

Yet hathe he no roote in him self, & dureth but a season: for as sone as tribulation or persecution cometh because of the worde, by and by he is offended.

And he that receiueh the fede among thornes, is he that heareth the worde: but the care of this worlde, and the deceitfulnes of riches choke the worde, and he is made vnfruteful.

But he that receiueh the fede in the good grounde, is he that heareth the worde, and vnderstandeth it, which also beareth frute, & bringeth forth, some an hundred folde, some sixtie folde, & some thirtie folde.

¶ Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man which sowed good seed in his field.

But while men slept, there came his enemy, and sowed tares among the wheat, & went his way.

And when the blade was sprong vp, and brought forth frute, then appeared the tares also.

Then came the seruants of the householder, and said vnto him, Master, sowedst not thou good fede in thy field? fro whence then hathe it tares?

And he said to them, The enuious man hathe done this. Then the seruants said vnto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them vp?

But he said, Nay, lest while ye go about to gather the tares, ye plucke vp also with them the wheat.

¶ Let bothe growe together vntil the haruest, and in time of haruest I wil say to the reapers, Gather ye first the tares, and binde them in sheaues to burne them: but gather the wheat into my barne.

¶ Another parable he put forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a graine of mustard fede, which a man taketh and sowerh in his field:

Which in dede is the least of all sedes: but when it is growen, it is the greatest among herbes, and it is a tre, so that the birdes of heauen come and buylde in the branches thereof.

¶ Another parable spake he to the, The

h He teacheth that the good and the bad shal be mixte together in the Church to the end that the faithful may arme the selues with patience and constancie.

i Christ meaneth onely the Church shal neuer be without some wicked men: although they be neuer so sharpely punished by such means as he hathe left to purge his Church.

34 ¶ All these things spake Iesus vnto the multitude in parables, and without parables spake he not to them,

35 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, I wil open my mouth in parables, & wil vtter the things which haue bene kept secret from the fundacion of the worlde.

36 Then sent Iesus the multitude away, and went into the house. And his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the field.

37 Then answered he, and said to them, He that soweth the good sēde, is the Sonne of man,

38 And the field is the worlde, & the good sēde, they are the children of the kingdome, and the tares are the children of the wicked,

39 And the enemie that soweth them, is the deuil, & the haruest is the end of the worlde, and the reapers be the Angels.

40 As then the tares are gathered and burned in the fyre, so shal it be in the end of this worlde.

41 The Sonne of man shal send forth the his Angels, and they shal gather out of his kingdome all things that offend, & them which do iniquitie, 42 And shal cast the into a furnais of fyre. There shalbe wailing and gnashsing of teeth.

43 ¶ Then shal the iust men shine as the sunne in the kingdome of their Father. He that hathe eares to heare, let him heare.

44 ¶ Againe the kingdome of heauē is like vnto a treasure hid in y field, which whē a man hathe founde, he hideth it, & for ioye thereof departeth and selleth all that he hathe, and byeth that field.

45 ¶ Againe the kingdome of heauē is like to a marchāt man, that seketh good perles, 46 Who hauing founde a perle of great price, went and solde all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Againe the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a drawe net cast into the sea, that gathereth of all kindes of things.

48 Which, whē it is ful, men drawe to land, and sit and gather the good into vessels, and cast the bad away.

49 So shal it be at the end of the worlde. The Angels shal go forth, and seuer the bad from among the iust, 50 And shal cast them into a furnais of fyre: there shal be wailing, and gnashsing of teeth.

51 ¶ Iesus said vnto them, Vnderstand ye all these things? They said vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he vnto the, Therefore euerie scribe which is taught vnto the kingdome of heauen, is like vnto an householder, which bringeth forth the out of his treasure things bothe new and olde.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Iesus had ended these parables, he departed thence,

54 ¶ And came into his owne countrey, and taught them in their Synagoge, so that they were astonied, and said, Whence cometh this wisdom and great workes vnto this man?

55 Is not this the carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Marie, & his brethren Iames and Ioses, and Simon and Iudas?

56 And are not his sisters all with vs? Whence then hathe he all these things?

57 And they were offended with him. Then Iesus said to the, ¶ A Prophet is not without honour, save in his owne countrey, & in his owne house.

58 And he did not many great workes there, for their vnbeliefes sake.

1 ¶ At that time Herode the Tetrarche heard of the fame of Iesus, And said vnto his seruants, This is Iohn Baptift. He is risen againe from the dead, and therefore great workes are wrought by him.

2 ¶ For Herode had take Iohn, and bounde him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife.

3 For Iohn said vnto him, It is not lawful for thee to haue her.

4 And whē he wolde haue put him to death, he feared the multitude, because thei counted him as a Prophet.

5 But when Herodes birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before the, and pleased Herode.

6 Wherefore he promised with an othe, that he wolde giue her whatsoeuer she wolde aske.

7 And she being before instructed of her mother, said, Giue me here Iohn Baptift head in a platter.

8 And the King was sorie: neuertheles because of the othe, and them that sate with him at the table, he commanded it to be giuen her,

9 And sent, and beheaded Iohn in the prison.

10 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the maide, and she brought it vnto her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and toke vp his bodie, and buried it, and went, and tolde Iesus.

13 *And when Iesus heard it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place aparte. And when the multitude had heard it, thei followed him a fore out of the cities.

14 And Iesus went forth, and sawe a great multitude, and was moued with compassion toward them, and he healed their sicke.

15 ¶ And when euen was come, * his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the houre is alreadie paste: let the multitude departe, that they may go into the townes, and bye them vitayles.

16 But Iesus said to them, They haue no neede to go away: giue ye them to eat.

17 Then said they vnto him, We haue here but five loaues, and two fishes.

18 And he said, Bring them hether to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the grasse, and toke the five loaues and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen and blessed, and brake, and gaue the loaues to his disciples, & the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were sufficed, and they toke vp of the fragments that remained, twelue baskets full.

21 And thei that had eaten, were about five thousand men, beside women & litle children.

22 ¶ And straight waye Iesus compelled his disciples to enter into a ship, and to go ouer before him, while he sent the multitude away.

23 And as sone as he had sent the multitude away, he went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: * and when the euening was come, he was there alone.

24 And the ship was now in the middes of the sea, and was tossed with waues: for it was a contrarie winde.

25 And in the fourth watche of the night, Iesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when his disciples sawe him walkig on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and cryed out for feare.

27 But straight waye Iesus spake vnto them, saying, Be of good comfort. It is I: be not afraid.

28 Then Peter answered him, & said, Master, if it be thou, byd me come vnto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Iesus.

30 But when he sawe a mightie winde, he was afraid: and as he beganne to sinke, he cryed, saying, Master, saue me.

31 So immediatly Iesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said to him,

O thou of litle faith, wherefore didest thou dout?

32 And as sone as they were come into the ship, the winde ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a trueth thou art the sonne of God.

34 ¶ And when they were come ouer, thei came into the land of Gennefaret.

35 And when the men of that place knewe him, they sent out into all that countrey rounde about, and brought vnto him all that were sicke,

36 And besought him, that they might touche the hemme of his garment onely: & as manie as touched it, were made whole.

Then came to Iesus the Scribes and Pharises, which were of Ierusalem, saying,

1 * Why do thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the Elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

2 But he answered & said vnto them, Why do ye also transgresse the commandement of God by your tradicion?

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharises require a token. 6 Iesus warneth his disciples of the Pharises doctrine. 16 The confession of Peter. 19 The keyes of heauen. 24 The faithful must beare the crosse. 25 To winne or lose the life. 27 Christs coming.

1. THEN * came the a Pharises and Sadduces, and did b tempt him, desiring him to shewe them a signe from heauen.

2. But he answered, and said vnto them, When it is euening, ye say, Fayre wether: for the skie is red.

3. And in the morning ye say, To day shal be a tempeste: for the skie is red and lowring. O hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the skie, and can ye not discern the c<sup>c</sup> signes of the times?

4. * The wicked generacion, and adulterous seketh a signe, and there shal no signe be giuen it, but the d<sup>d</sup> signe of the Prophet * Ionas: so he left them, and departed.

5. ¶ And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had * forgotten to take bread with them.

6. Then Iesus said vnto them, Take hede and beware of the leauen of the Pharises and Sadduces.

7. And they thought in them selues, saying, It is because we haue broght no bread.

8. But Iesus * knowing it, said vnto them, O ye of litle faith, why thinke you thus in your selues, because ye haue broght no bread?

9. Do ye not yet perceiue, nether remember the fiue loaves, when there were * fiue thousand men, and how manie baskets toke ye vp?

10. Nether the seuen loaves when there were * foure thousand men, and how manie baskets toke ye vp?

vnto you concerning bread, that ye shulde beware of the leauen of the Pharises & Sadduces.

13 Then vnderstode they that he had not said that they shulde beware of the leauen of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharises, and Sadduces.

14 ¶ Now when Iesus came into the coastes of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whome do men say that I, the Sonne of man am?

15 And thei said, Some say, Iohn Baptiste: and some, Elias: & others, Jeremias, or one of the Prophetes.

16 He said vnto them, But whome say ye that I am?

17 Then Simon Peter answered, and said, *Thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

18 And Iesus answered, & said to him, Blessed art thou, Simon, the sonne of Ionas: for flesh & blood hath not reueiled it vnto thee, but my Father which is in heauen.

19 And I say also vnto thee, that thou art *Peter, and vpon this rocke I wil buylde my Church: and the gates of hel shal not ouercome it.

20 ¶ And I wil giue vnto thee the keyes of the kingdome of heauen, and whatsoever thou shalt binde vpon earth, shalbe bound in heauen: and whatsoever thou shalt lose on earth, shalbe lost in heauen.

21 Then he charged his disciples, that they shulde tell no man that he was Iesus the Christ.

22 ¶ From that time forth Iesus began to shewe vnto his disciples, that he must go vnto Ierusalem, and suffer manie things of the Elders, and of the hie Priests, and Scribes, and be slaine, and rise againe the thirde day.

23 Then Peter toke him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, Master, pitie thy self: this shal not be vnto thee.

24 Then he turned backe, and said vnto Peter, Get thee behinde me, *Satan: thou art an offence vnto me, because thou vnderstandest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

25 Iesus then said to his disciples, *If any man wil followe me, let him forsake him self, & take vp his crosse, and followe me.

26 For *whosoever wil save his life, shal lose it: and whosoever shal lose his life for my sake, shal finde it.

27 ¶ For what shal it profite a man though he shulde winne the whole worlde, if he lose his owne soule? or what shal a man giue for recompense of his soule?

28 For the Sonne of man shal come in the glorie of his Father with his Angels, and p. That is, whosoever thinketh to saue him self by forsaking

*then shal he giue to euerie mā according to his dedes.

29 ¶ Verely I say vnto you, there be some of them that stand here, which shal not taste of death, til they haue sene the Sonne of man come in his kingdome.

CHAP. XVII.

The transfiguration of Christ upon the mountaine of Thabor. 5 Christ ought to be heard. 11. 13 Of Elias and Iohn Baptiste. 15 He healeth the lunatike. 20 The power of faith. 21 Prayer & fasting. 22 Christ telleth the before of his passion. 27 He payeth tribute.

And *after six dayes, Iesus toke Peter, and Iames, and Iohn his brother, and brought them vp into an hie mountaine aparte,

3 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sunne, and his clothes were as white as the light.

4 And beholde, there appeared vnto them Moses, and Elias, talking with him.

5 Then answered Peter, and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: if thou wilt, let vs make here thre tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 While he yet spake, beholde, a bright cloude shadowed them: and beholde, there came a voyce out of the cloude, saying, *This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am wel pleased: heare him.

7 And when the disciples heard that, they fel on their faces and were sore afrayed.

8 Then Iesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

9 And when they lifted vp their eyes, they sawe no man, saue Iesus onely.

10 ¶ And as they came downe from the mountaine, Iesus charged them, saying, Shewe the vision to no man, vntil the Sonne of man rise againe from the dead.

11 ¶ And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that *Elias must first come?

12 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Certainely Elias must first come, & restore all things.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come already, and they knewe him not, but haue done vnto him whatsoever they wolde: likewise shal also the Sonne of man suffer of them.

14 Then the disciples perceiued that he spake vnto them of Iohn Baptiste.

15 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certeine man, and kneled downe to him,

16 And said, Master, haue pitie on my sonne: for he is lunatike, and is sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fyre, and oft times into the water.

17 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they colde not heale him.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The greatest in the kingdome of heauen. 2 He teacheth his disciples to be humble and harmeles, 6 To auoide occasions of euil, 10 Not to contemne the litle-ones. 11 Why Christ came. 13 Of brotherlie correction. 17 Of the autoritie of the Church. 19 The com-mendacion of prayer and godlie assemblies. 21 Of bro-therlie forgiveness.

1 The same time the disciples came vnto Iesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen?

2 And Iesus called a litle childe vnto him, and set him in the middes of them,

3 And said, Verely I say vnto you, except ye be conuerted, & become as litle children, ye shal not enter into the kingdome of heauen.

4 Whosoever therefore shal humble himself as this litle childe, the same is y greatest in the kingdome of heauen.

5 And whosoever shal receiue suche a litle childe in my Name, receiuerh me.

6 But whosoever shal offende one of these litle ones which beleue in me, it were better for him, that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Wo be vnto the worlde because of offences: for it must nedes be that offences shal come, but wo be to that man by whome the offence cometh.

8 Wherefore, if thine hand or thy fore cause thee to offende, cut the of, & cast the from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life, halt, or maimed, then hauing two hands or two fete, to be cast into cuerlasting fyre.

9 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, & cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hel
fyre.

10 Se that ye despise not one of these litle-ones: for I say vnto you, that in heauen their Angels alwayes beholde the face of my Father which is in heauen.

11 For the Sonne of man is come to saue that which was lost.

12 How thinke ye? If a man haue an hundred shepe, & one of the be gone astray, doeth he not leaue ninetie & nine, and go into the mountaines, and seke that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he finde it, verely I say vnto you, he reioyceth more of that shepe, then of the ninetie and nine which went not astray.

14 So is it not the wil of your Father which is in heauen, that one of these litle ones shulde perish.

15 Moreover, if thy brother trespase against thee, go, and tell him his faute be-twene thee & him alone: if he heare thee, thou hast wonne thy brother.

16 But if he heare thee not, take yet with thee one or two, that by y mouth of two or thre witnesses euerie worde may be cō-firmed.

17 And if he wil not vouchesaue to heare the, tel it vnto the Church: & if he refuse to heare the Church also, let him be vnto thee as an heathen man, and a Publicane.

18 Verely I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer ye binde on earth, shal be bounde in heauen:
and whatsoeuer ye lose on earth, shal be losed in heauen.

19 Againe, verely I say vnto you, that if two of you shal agre in earth vpon any thing, whatsoeuer they shal desire, it shal be giue to reforme maners, and execute discipline. This assemble represented the Church, which had appointed them to this charge: 1 In the 16. chap. 19.

23 Therefore is the kingdome of heauen likened vnto a certeine King, which wolde take a countes of his seruants.

27 Then that seruants master had compassion, and losed him, and forgaue him the dette.

28 But when the seruant was departed, he founde one of his felowes, which oght him an hundreth <sup>o</sup>pence, & he layed hands on him, and toke him by the throte, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 Then his fellow fel downe at his fete, and besoght him, saying, Appease thine angre towards me, and I wil pay thee all.

30 Yet he wolde not, but went and cast him into prison, til he shulde pay the dette.

31 And whē his other felowes sawe what was done, they were very sorie, and came, and declared vnto their master all y<sup>e</sup> was done.

32 Then his master called him, and said to him, O euil seruant, I forgaue thee all that dette, because thou prayedst me.

33 Oghrest not thou also to haue had pitie on thy fellow, euen as I had pitie on thee?

34 So his master was wroth, and deliuered him to the iaylers, til he shulde pay all that was due to him.

35 So likewise shal mine heauēlie Father do vnto you, except ye forgiue <sup>p</sup> from your hearts, eche one to his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

3 Christ sheweth for what cause a woman may be diuorced. 11 Continence is a gift of God. 14 He receiueth litle babes. 16 To obtaine life everlasting. 24 That riche men can scarcely be saved. 28 He promiseth them which haue left all to followe him life everlasting.

1 And it came to passe, that whē Iesus had finished those sayings, he departed from Galile, and came into the coastes of Iudea beyonde Iordan.

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 ¶ Then came vnto him the Pharises tēpting him, and saying to him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife for cuerie <sup>o</sup>faute?

4 And he answered and said vnto them, Haue ye not red, * that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And said, * For this cause, shal a man leaue father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife, and they <sup>a</sup> twaine shalbe one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twaine, but one flesh. Let not man therefore put a sūdre that, which God hath coupled together.

7 They said to him, Why did then * Moses commaūde to giue a bil of diuorcemēt, and to put her away?

8 He said vnto them, Moses, because of the <sup>b</sup> hardnes of your heart, suffered you to put away your wiues: but <sup>c</sup> from the beginning it was not so.

9 I say therefore vnto you, * that whosoeuer shal put away his wife, except <sup>it be</sup> for whoredome, and marie another, <sup>d</sup> committeth adulterie: and whosoeuer marieth her which is diuorced, doeth commit adulterie.

10 Then said his disciples to him, If the matter be so betwene man and wife, it is not good to marie.

11 But he said vnto them, All men can not receiue this thing, saue they to whome it is giuen.

12 For there are <sup>e</sup> some chaste, which were so borne of their mothers bellie: and there be some chaste, which be made chaste by men: & there be some chaste, <sup>g</sup> which haue made them selues chaste for the kingdome of heauen. He <sup>h</sup> that is able to receiue this, let him receiue it.

13 ¶ The were brought to him litle childre, that he shulde put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Iesus said, Suffer the litle children, and forbid them not to come to me: for of such is the kingdome of heauen.

15 And whē he had put his hands on them, he departed thence.

16 ¶ And beholde one came, and said vnto him, Good Master, what good thing shal I do, that I may haue eternal life?

17 And he said vnto him, <sup>i</sup> Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, euen God: but if thou wilt entre into life, <sup>k</sup> kepe the commandements.

18 He said to him, Which? And Iesus said, * These, Thou shalt not kil: Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnes.

19 Honour thy father and mother: and thou shalt love me, Iesus Christ but his manhood, he leadeth him to the intent, that his doctrine might better take place. <sup>k</sup> He spake this that he might learne to knowe him self: * Exod 20, 11. deu 5, 16 rom 13, 9.

23 Then Iesus said vnto his disciples, Verely I say vnto you, that a riche man shal hardely enter into the kingdome of heauen.

2 And he agreed with y laborers for a penie a day, and sent them into his vineyarde.

3 And he went out about the thirde houre, and sawe other standing ydle in the market place,

4 And said vnto them, Goye also into my vineyarde, & whatsoeuer is right, I wil giue you: and they went their way.

5 Againe he went out about the sixth and ninth houre, and did likewise.

6 And he went about the eleuenth houre, and founde other standing ydle, and said vnto them, Why stand ye here all the day ydle?

7 They said vnto him, Because no man hath hired vs. He said to them, Goye also into my vineyarde, & whatsoeuer is right, that shal ye receiue.

8 ¶ And when euen was come, the master of the vineyard said vnto his steward, Call y laborers, and giue them their hier, beginning at the last, til thou come to the first.

9 And they which were hired about the eleuenth houre, came and receiued euerie man a penie.

10 Now when the first came, they supposed that they shulde receiue more, but they likewise receiued euerie man a penie.

11 And when they had receiued it, they murmured against the master of the house,

12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equal vnto vs, which haue borne the burden, & heat of the day.

13 And he answered one of them, saying, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agre with me for a penie? Or, fellow.

14 Take that which is thine owne, and go thy way: I wil giue vnto this last, as muche as to thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do as I wil with mine owne? Is thine eye euil because I am good?

16 * So d the last shalbe first, and the first last: * for manie are called, but fewe chosen.

17 ¶ And Iesus went vp to Ierusalem, and toke the twelue disciples aparte in the way, and said vnto them,

18 Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and the Sonne of man shalbe deliuered vnto the chief Priests, and vnto the Scribes, & they shal condemne him to death,

19 And shal deliuer him to the Gentiles, to mocke, and to scourge, and to crucifie him: but the thirde day he shal rise againe.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zebedeus children with her sonnes, worshipping him, & desiring a certeine thing of him.

21 And he said vnto her, What woldest thou? She said to him, Grante that these my two sonnes may sit, the one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy kingdome.

22 And Iesus answered and said, Ye knowe not what ye aske. Are ye able to drinke of the * cup that I shal drinke of, and to be baptized with the baptisme that I shalbe baptized with? They said to him, We are able.

23 And he said vnto them, Ye shal drinke in dede of my cup, and shalbe baptized with y baptisme, that I am baptized with, but to sit at my right hand, and at my left hand,

AND * when they drew nere to Ierusalem, and were come to Bethphage, vnto the mount of the oliues, then sent Iesus two disciples,

2 Saying to them, Go into the towne that is ouer against you, and anone ye shal finde an asse bounde, and a colte with her: lose them, and bring them vnto me.

3 And if anie man say ought vnto you, say ye, that the Lord hath the nede of them, and straight way he wil let them go.

4 All this was done that it might be fulfilled w<sup>as</sup> spoken by the Prophet, saying,

5 *Tel ye the daughter of Siō, Beholde, thy King cometh vnto thee, meke and sitting vpon an asse, and a colte, the sole of an asse vsed to the yoke.

6 So the disciples wēt, and did as Iesus had commanded them,

7 And brought the asse & the colte, & put on them their clothes, and set him thereon.

8 And a great multitude spred their garments in the way: and other cutte downe brāches from the trees, and strowed them in the way.

9 Moreover, the people that went before, and they also that followed, cryed, saying, *Hosanna the sonne of Dauid: blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna thou which art in the hieft heauens.

10 *And when he was come into Ierusalem, all y<sup>e</sup> citie was moued, saying, Who is this?

17 *So he left them, and went out of the citie vnto Bethania, and lodged there.

18 And *in the morning as he returned into the citie, he was hungrie,

19 And seeing a figge tre in the way, he came to it, and founde nothing thereon, but leaues onely, and said to it, Neuer frute grow on thee hence forwardes. And anone the figge tree withered.

20 And when his disciples sawe it, they marueiled, saying, How sone is the figge tre withered!

21 And Iesus answered and said vnto them, *Verely I say vnto you, if ye haue faith, and dout not, ye shal not onely do that, which I haue done to the figge tree, but also if ye say vnto this mountaine, Take thy self away, and cast thy self into the sea, it shalbe done.

34 And when the time of the frute drewe nere, he sent his seruants to the housbandmen to receiue the frutes thereof.

35 And the housbandmē toke his <sup>f</sup> seruants and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other seruants, mo<sup>t</sup> the first: and they did the like vnto them.

37 But last of all he sent vnto the his owne <sup>s</sup> sonne, saying, They wil reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the housbandmen sawe the sonne, they said among them selues, * This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, & let vs take his inheritance.

39 So they toke him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slewe him.

40 When therefore the Lord of the vineyard shal come, what wil he do to those housbandmen?

41 They said vnto him, He wil cruelly destroye those wicked men, and wil let out his vineyard vnto other housbandmen, which shal deliuer him the frutes in their seasons.

2 The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a certeine King which married his sonne,

3 And sent forth his seruants, to call the that were bid to the wedding, but they wolde not come.

4 Again he sent forth the other seruants, saying, Tel the which are bidden, Beholde, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are readie: come vnto the mariage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his ferme, & another about his marchandise.

6 And the remnant toke his seruants, & intreated them sharply, and slewe them.

7 But when y<sup>e</sup> King heard it, he was wroth, & sent forth his warriors, & destroyed those murtherers, and burnt vp their citie.

8 Then said he to his seruants, Truly the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden, were not worthie.

9 Go ye therefore out into the high wayes, and as manie as ye finde, bid them to the mariage.

10 So those seruants went out into the high wayes and gathered together all that euer they founde, bothe <sup>d</sup> good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with ghestes.

11 The King came in, to se the ghestes, and saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment.

12 And he said vnto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, & hast not on a wedding garment? And he was speechles.

13 Then said the King to the seruants, Bind him hand and fore: take him away, and cast him into vtter darkenes: * there shal be weping and gnashing of teeth.

how they might tangle him in talke.

16 And they sent vnto him their disciples with the <sup>b</sup> Herodians, saying, Master, we knowe that thou art true, and teachest the way of God truly, nether carest for anie man: for thou considerest not the persone of men.

17 Tell vs therefore, how thinkest thou? Is it lawful to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or not?

18 But Iesus perceiued their wickednes, & said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shewe me the tribute money. And they brought him a <sup>k</sup> penie.

20 And he said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They said vnto him, Cefars. Then said he vnto them, *Giue therefore to Cesar, the things which are Cefars, and giue vnto God, those which are Gods.

22 And when they heard it, they marueiled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day the Sadduces came to him (which say that there is no resurrection) and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, * Moses said, If a man dye, hauing no children, let his brother marie his wife, and raise vp sede vnto his brother.

25 Now there were with vs seuen brethren, and the first married a wife, and deceased: and hauing none yssue, left his wife vnto his brother.

26 Likewise also the seconde, & the third, vnto the seuenth.

27 And last of all the woman dyed also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shal she be of the seuen? for all had her.

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto the, Ye <sup>m</sup> are deceiued, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they nether marie wiues, nor wiues are bestowed in marriage, but are as the <sup>a</sup> Angels of God in heauen.

31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, haue ye not red what is spoken vnto you of God, saying,

32 * I am the God of Abraham, & the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the liuing.

33 And when the people heard it, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharises had heard, that he had put the Sadduces to silence, they assembled together.

35 And one of them, which was an expounder of the Law, asked him a question, repeating him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the Law?

37 Iesus said to him, * Thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the first and the great commandment.

39 And the seconde is like vnto this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

40 On these two commandements hageth the whole Law, and the Prophetes.

41 ¶ While the Pharises were gathered together, Iesus asked them,

42 Saying, What thinke ye of Christ? whose sonne is he? They said vnto him, Dauids.

43 He said vnto them, How then doeth Dauid in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 * The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand, til I make thine enemies thy fote stole?

45 If then Dauid call him Lord, how is he his sonne?

46 And none colde answer him a worde, nether durst anie from that daye forthe aske him anie mo questions.

13 ¶ Wo therefore be vnto you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites, because ye shut vp the kingdome of heauen before men: for ye your selues go not in, nether suffer ye them that wolde enter, to come in.

14 ¶ Wo be vnto you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye deuoure widdowes houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers: wherefore ye shal receiue the greater damnacion.

15 Wo be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye compass the sea and land to make one of your profession: and when he is made, ye make him two folde more the childe of hel, then you your selues.

16 Wo be vnto you blinde guides, which say, Whosoever sweareth by the Tēple, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the golde of the Temple, he offendeth.

17 Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the golde, or the Tēple that sanctifieth the golde?

18 And whosoever sweareth by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the offering that is vpon it, offendeth.

19 Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the offering, or the altar which sanctifieth the offering?

20 Whosoever therefore sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 ¶ And whosoever sweareth by the Temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 ¶ And he that sweareth by heauen, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 ¶ Wo be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye tythe mynt, & annyse, & cōmyn, and leaue the weightier matters of the Law, as iudgement, and mercie, & fidelitie. These ought ye to haue done, & not to haue left the other.

24 Ye blinde guides, which straine out a gnatte, and swallow a camel.

25 ¶ Wo be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye make cleane the vter side of the cup, and of the platter: but within they are ful of briberie & excesses.

26 Thou blinde Pharise, cleanse first the inside of the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be cleane also.

27 Wo be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are like vnto whited tombes, which appeare beautiful outwarde, but are within ful of dead mē's bones, and of all filthines.

28 So are ye also: for outwarde ye appeare righteous vnto men, but within ye are ful of hypocrisie and iniquitie.

29 ¶ Wo be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye buylde the tombes of the Prophetes, & garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had bene in the dayes of our fathers, we wolde not haue bene parteners with them in the blood of the Prophetes.

31 So the ye be witnesses vnto your selues, that ye are the children of them that murdered the Prophetes.

32 Fulfil ye also the measure of your fathers.

33 O serpents, the generacion of vipers, how shulde ye escape the damnacion of hell?

34 Wherefore beholde, I send vnto you Prophetes, and wise mē, and Scribes, & of them ye shal kil and crucifie: and of the shal ye scourge in your Synagogues, and persecute from citie to citie,

35 That vpon you may come all the righteous blood that was shed vpon the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous vnto the blood of Zacharias the sonne of Barachias, whome ye slewe betwene the Temple and the altar.

36 Verely I say vnto you, all these things shal come vpon this generacion.

37 ¶ Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophetes & stonest them which are sent to thee, how often wolde I haue gathered thy children together, as the henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings, and ye wolde not!

38 Beholde, your habitation shalbe left vnto you desolate.

39 For I saye vnto you, ye shal not see me hence forth the til that ye say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

7 For nation shal rise against nation, and realme against realme, & there shal be pestilence, and famine, and earthquakes in diuers places.

8 All these are but the beginning of sorowes.

9 *Then shal they deliuer you vp to be afflicted, and shal kill you, and ye shal be hated of all nations for my Names sake.

10 And then shal manie be offended, & shal betray one another, and shal hate one another.

11 And manie false prophetes shal arise, & shal deceiue manie.

12 And because iniquitie shal be increased, the loue of manie shal be colde.

13 *But he that endureth to the end, he shal be sau'd.

14 And this Gospel of the kingdome shal be preached through the whole worlde for a witnes vnto all nations, and then shal the end come.

15 ¶ When ye therefore shal see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the Prophet, standing in the holie place, (let him that readeth consider it.)

16 Then let them which be in Iudea, flee into the mountaines.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come downe to fetch any thing out of his house.

18 And he that is in the field, let not him returne backe to fetch his clothes.

19 And wo shalbe to them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

20 But pray that your flight be not in the winter, nether on the Sabbath day.

21 For then shal be great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the worlde to this time, nor shal be.

22 And except those dayes shulde be shortened, there shulde no flesh be sau'd: but for the electes sake those dayes shal be shortened.

23 *Then if any shal say vnto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there, beleue it not.

24 For there shal arise false Christs, & false prophetes, and shal shewe great signes and wonders, so that if it were possible, they shulde deceiue the verie elect.

25 Beholde, I haue tolde you before.

26 Wherefore if they shal say vnto you, Beholde, he is in the desert, go not forth: Beholde, he is in the secret places, beleue it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the East, and shineth in to the West, so shal also the comming of the Sonne of man be.

28 *For where soeuer a dead carke is, thither wil the egles resort.

29 *And immediatly after the tribulation of those dayes, shal the sunne be darkened, & the moone shal not giue her light, and the starres shal fall from heauen, & the powers of heauen shal be shaken.

30 And then shal appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heauen: and then shal all the kinreds of the earth mourne, and they shal see the Sonne of man come in cloudes of heauen with power and great glorie.

31 *And he shal send his Angels with a great sounde of a trumpet, and they shal gather together his elect, from the foure windes, & from the one end of the heauen vnto the other.

32 Now learne the parable of the figge tree: when her bough is yet tender, & it bringeth forth the leaues, ye knowe y summer is nere.

33 So likewise ye, when ye see all these things, knowe that the kingdome of God is nere, euen at the doores.

34 Verely I say vnto you, this generation shal not passe, til all these things be done.

35 *Heauen and earth shal passe away: but my wordes shal not passe away.

36 But of that day and houre knoweth no man, no not the Angels of heauen, but my Father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so likewise shal the comming of the Sonne of man be.

38 *For as in the dayes before the flood they did eat and drinke, marry and giue in marriage, vnto the day that Noe entred into the Arke, 39 And knewe nothing, til the flood came and toke them all awaye, so shal also the comming of the Sonne of man be.

40 *¶ The two men shal be in the fields, the one shal be receiued, and the other shal be refused.

41 Two women shal be grinding at the mill: the one shal be receiued, & the other shal be refused.

42 *Wake therefore: for ye knowe not what houre your master wil come.

43 Of this be sure, that if the good man of the house knewe at what watche the thief wolde come, he wolde surely watche, and not suffre his house to be digged through.

44 Therefore be ye also readie: for in the houre that ye thinke not, wil the Sonne of man come.

45 *Who then is a faithful seruant & wise, whome his master hath made ruler ouer his householde, to giue the meat in season?

46 Blessed is that seruāt whome his master, when he cometh, shal finde so doing.

47 Verely I say vnto you, he shal make him ruler ouer all his goods.

48 But if that euil seruāt shal say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his coming,

49 And begin to smite his felowes, and to eat and to drinke with the drunken,

50 That seruants master wil come in a day, when he loketh not for him, & in an houre

2 And fīue of the were wise, & fīue foolish.

3 The foolish toke their lāpes, but toke none oyle with them.

4 But fī wise toke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Now while the bridegrome taryed long, all slombred and slept.

6 And at midnight therē was a crye made, Beholde, the bridegrome cometh: go out to mete him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, & trimmed their lampes.

c Manie seke that w they haue concernēd, but it is to late.

8 And the foolish said to the wise, Giue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are out.

d This was spoken in reproche, because they made not provision in time.

9 But the wise answered, saying, We feare lest there wil not be ynough for vs & you: but go ye rather to them that sel, and bie for your selues.

10 And while they went to bie, the bridegrome came: & they that were readie, wēt in with him to the wedding, and the gate was shut.

11 Afterwardes came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But he answered, and said, Verely I say vnto you, I knowe you not.

e I wil not open to you because you haue failed in fī midde way.

15 And vnto one he gaue fīue s talents, and to another two, & to another one, to euerie man after his owne habilitie, and straight way went from home.

16 Then he that had receiued the fīue talents, went and occupied with them, and gained other fīue talents.

17 Likewise also, he that receiued two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that receiued that one, wēt & digged it in fī earth, & hid his masters money.

19 But after a long season, fī master of those seruants came, and rekened with them.

20 Then came he that had receiued fīue talents, and broght other fīue talents, saying, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me fīue talents: beholde, I haue gained with them

21 Then his master said vnto him, It is wel done good seruāt and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in litle, I wil make thee ruler ouer much: entre in into thy masters ioy.

23 His master said vnto him, It is wel done good seruāt, and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in litle, I wil make thee ruler ouer much: enter in into thy masters ioye.

24 Then he which had receiued the one talent, came and said, Master, I knewe that thou wast an hard mā, which reapest where thou sowedst not, and gatherest where thou strawdest not:

25 I was therefore afraide, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: beholde, thou hast thine owne.

1 Conspiracie of the Priests against Christ. 10 He excuseth Magdalene. 26 The institution of the Lords supper. 31 The disciples weakenes. 48 The treason of Iudas. 62 The sword. 64 Because Christ calleth him self the Sonne of God, he is iudged worthe to dye. 69 Peter denieth, and repenteth.

1 AND * it came to passe, whē Iesus had finished all these sayings, he said vnto his disciples,
 2 Ye knowe that within two dayes is the Pascheouer, and the Sonne of man shalbe deliuered to be crucified.
 3 * Then assembled together y<sup>e</sup> chief Priests and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people into the hall of the high Priest, called Caiaphas,
 4 And consulted how they might take Iesus by subtiltie, and kill him.
 5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest anie vprore be among the people.
 6 * And when Iesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came vnto him a womā, which had a boxe of verie costelie ointment, & powred it on his head, as he sate at the table.
 8 And whē his disciples sawe it, thei had indignation, saying, What neded this waste?
 9 For this ointment might haue bene solde for muche, and bene giuen to the poore.
 10 And Iesus knowing it, said vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good worke vpon me.
 11 * For ye haue the poore alwayes with you, but me shal ye not haue alwayes.
 12 For in that she powred this ointment on my bodie, she did it to burye me.
 13 Verely I say vnto you, Wheresoeuer this Gospel shalbe preached throughout all y<sup>e</sup> worlde, there shal also this that she hath done, be spoken of for a memorial of her.

 14 * Then one of the twelue, called Iudas Iscariot, went vnto the chief Priests, 15 And said, What wil ye giue me, and I wil deliuer him vnto you? and they appointed vnto him thirtie pieces of siluer.
 16 And from that time, he sought opportunitie to betraye him.
 17 * Now on y<sup>e</sup> first day of the feast of vnleauened bread y<sup>e</sup> disciples came to Iesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the Pascheouer?
 18 And he said, Go into the citie to suche a man, & say to him, The master saith, My time is at hand: I wil kepe the Pascheouer at thine house with my disciples.
 19 And the disciples did as Iesus had giuen them charge, and made ready the Pascheouer.
 20 * So when the euen was come, he sate downe with the twelue.
 21 And as they did eat, he said, Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betraye me.
 22 And they were exceeding sorowful, and began euerie one of them to say vnto him, Is it I, Master?
 23 And he answered and said, He that dip-peth his hand with me in the dish, he shal betraye me.
 24 Surely the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but wo be to that man, by whome the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that mā, if he had neuer bene borne.
 25 Then Iudas which betrayed him, answered, and said, Is it I, Master? He said vnto him, Thou hast said it.
 26 * And as they did eat, Iesus toke the bread: and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat: this is my bodie.
 27 Also he toke y<sup>e</sup> cup, & when he had giuen thanks, he gaue it them, saying, Drinke ye all of it.
 28 For this is my blood of the Newe testament, that is shed for manie, for the remission of sinnes.
 29 I say vnto you, that I wil not drinke hence forth of this frute of the vine vntil that day, when I shal drinke it newe with you in my Fathers kingdome.
 30 And when they had sung a psalme, they went out into the mount of oliues.
 31 * Then said Iesus vnto them, All ye shal be offended by me this night: for it is written, I wil smite the shepherd, and the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattred.
 32 But * after I am risen againe, I wil go before you into Galile.
 33 But Peter answered, and said vnto him, Though that all men shulde be offended by thee, yet wil I neuer be offended.

37 And he toke Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and bega to waxe sorowful, and grievously troubled.

38 Then said Iesus vnto them, My soul is verie heauie, euen vnto the death: tarie ye here, and watche with me.

39 So he went a litle further, and fel on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: neuertheles, not as I wil, but as thou wilt.

40 After he came vnto the disciples, and founde the a slepe, & said to Peter, What colde ye not watche with me one houre?

41 Watch, and pray, that ye enter not into tentation: the spirit in dede is readie, but the flesh is weake.

42 Again he wet away the secōde time & prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup can passe away from me, but that I must drinke it, thy wil be done.

43 And he came, and founde them a slepe againe: for their eyes were heauie.

44 So he left them and went away againe, and prayed the third time, saying the same wordes.

45 Then came he to his disciples, and said vnto them, Slepe henceforth, and take your rest: beholde, the houre is at hand, and the Sonne of man is giuen into the hands of sinners.

46 ¶ Rise, let vs go: beholde, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Iudas, one of the twelue, came, and with him a great multitude with swordes and stauers, from the high Priests and Elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whome soeuer I shall kisse, that is he, lay holde on him.

49 And forthewith he came to Iesus, and said, God saue thee, Master, & kissed him.

50 Then Iesus said vnto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? The came they, and laid hands on Iesus, and toke him.

51 And beholde, one of them which were with Iesus, stretched out his hand, & drewe his sworde, and stroke a seruant of the high Priest, and smote of his eare.

52 Then said Iesus vnto him, Put vp thy sworde into his place: for all that take the sworde, shall perishe with the sworde.

53 Ether thinkest thou, that I can not now pray to my Father, and he wil giue me more then twelue legions of Angels?

54 How then shulde the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say, that it must be so?

55 The same houre said Iesus to the multitude, Ye be come out as it were against a thief, with swordes and stauers, to take me: I sate daily teaching in the Temple among you, and ye toke me not.

56 But all this was done, that the Scriptures of y<sup>e</sup> Prophetes might be fulfilled. ¶ The all the disciples forsoke him, and fled.

57 ¶ And they toke Iesus, and led him to Caiaphas the hie Priest, where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled.

58 And Peter followed him a farre off vnto the hie Priests hall, and went in, & sate with the seruants to se the end.

59 Now the chief Priests & the Elders, and all the whole council sought false witness against Iesus, to put him to death.

60 But they founde none, and thogh many false witness came, yet founde they none: but at the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This man said, I can destroy the Temple of God, and buyld it in thre dayes.

62 Then the chief Priest arose, and said to him, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these men witness against thee?

63 But Iesus helde his peace. Then the chief Priest answered, and said to him, I charge thee by the liuing God, that thou tell vs, if thou be the Christ the Sonne of God.

64 ¶ Iesus said to him, Thou hast said it: neuertheles I say vnto you, hereafter shall ye se the Sonne of man, sitting at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of the heauen.

65 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath blasphemed: what haue we any more nede of witnesses? beholde, now ye haue heard his blasphemie.

66 What thinke ye? They answered, & said, He is worthie to dye.

67 ¶ Then spat they in his face, and buffeted him: and other smote him with their roddes, 68 Saying, Prophecie to vs, O Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ Peter sate without in y<sup>e</sup> hall: & a maide came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Iesus of Galile.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I wot not what thou saist.

71 And when he went out into the porche, another maide sawe him, and said vnto them that were there, This man was also with Iesus of Nazaret.

72 And againe he denyed with an othe, saying, I knowe not the man.

Iudas vaine repentance. Chap. XXVII. Barabbas quit. 16

73 So after a while, came vnto him thei that stode by, and said vnto Peter, Surely thou art also one of them: for euen thy speache bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse him self, and to sweare, saying, I knowe not the man. And immediatly the cocke crewe.

75 Then Peter remembred the wordes of Iesus, which had said vnto him, Before the cocke crowe, thou shalt deny me thrise. So he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. 1 Iudas hangeth him self. 24 Christ is pronounced innocent by the iudge, and yet is condemned, and crucified among thieues. 46 He prayeth vpon the crosse. 51 The vaille is rent. 52 The dead bodies arise. 57 Ioseph buryeth Christ. 64 Watchmen kepe the graue.

WHen * the morning was come, all the chief Priests, & the Elders of the people toke counsel against Iesus, to put him to death,

And led him away bounde, and deliuered him vnto Pontius Pilate the gouernour.

¶ Then when Iudas which betrayed him, sawe that he was condemned, <sup>b</sup> he repented him self, and broght againe the thirtie pieces of siluer to the chief Priests, and Elders, Saying, I haue <sup>c</sup> sinned betraying the innocent blood. But they said, What is that to vs? <sup>d</sup> se thou to it.

And whē he had cast downe the siluer pieces in the Temple, he departed, and went, * and hanged him self.

And the chief Priests toke the siluer pieces, and said, It is not <sup>e</sup> lawfull for vs to put them into the <sup>f</sup> treasure, because it is the price of blood.

And they toke counsel, and bought with them a potters field, for the buryal of strangers.

Wherefore that field is called, * the field of blood, vntil this day.

(Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Ieremias the Prophet, saying, * And they toke thirtie siluer pieces, the price of him that was valued, whome they of the children of Israel valued.

And thei gaue them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

¶ And Iesus stode before the gouernour, and the gouernour asked him, saying, Art thou the King of <sup>g</sup> Iewes? Iesus said vnto him, Thou saist it.

And when he was accused of the chief Priests and Elders, he answered nothing.

The said Pilate, vnto him, Hearest thou not how many things they laye against thee?

But he answered him not to one worde, in so muche that the gouernour marvelled greatly.

Now at the feast, <sup>h</sup> gouernour was wont to <sup>i</sup> deliuer vnto the people a prisoner, whome they wolde.

And they had the a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

* When they were then gathered together, Pilate said vnto them, Whether wil ye that I let loose vnto you Barabbas, or Iesus which is called Christ?

(For he knewe wel, that for enuie they had deliuered him.)

Also whē he was set downe vpon the iudgemēt seat, his wife sent to him, saying, <sup>j</sup> Haue thou nothing to do with that iuste man: for I haue suffered many things this day in a dreame by reason of him.)

* But the chief Priests & the Elders had perswaded the people that thei shulde aske Barabbas, and shulde destroy Iesus.

Then the gouernour answered, and said vnto them, Whether of the twaine wil ye that I let loose vnto you? And they said, <sup>k</sup> Barabbas.

Pilate said vnto them, What shal I do then with Iesus which is called Christ? Thei all said to him, Let him be crucified.

Then said the gouernour, But what euil hath he done? Then thei cryed the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

When Pilate sawe that he auailed nothing, but that more tumulte was made, he toke water and wasshed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this <sup>l</sup> iust man: loke you to it.

Then answered all the people, and said, His <sup>m</sup> blood be on vs, and on our children.

Thus let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and scourged Iesus, and deliuered him to be crucified.

* The the souldiours of the gouernour toke Iesus into the commune hall, and gathered about him the whole bande.

And thei stripped him, & put vpon him a <sup>n</sup> skarlet robe,

And platted a crowne of thornes, and put it vpon his head, and a rede in his right hand, and bowed their knees before him, and mocked him, saying, God saue thee King of the Iewes,

And spitted vpon him, and toke a rede, and smote him on the head.

Thus when they had mocked him, they toke the robe from him, and put his owne raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

* And as they came out, they founde a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they compelled to beare his crosse.

* And when they came vnto the place called Golgotha, (that is to say, the place of dead mens skulles.)

Thei gaue him <sup>o</sup> vineger to drinke, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted the-

39 And they that passed by, reuiled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, * Thou that destroyest the Temple, and buydest it in thre dayes, saue thy self: if thou be the Sonne of God, come downe from the crosse.

41 Likewise also the hie Priests mocking him, with the Scribes, and Elders, and Pharises, said, 42 He saued others, but he can not saue him self: if he be the King of Israel, let him now come downe from the crosse, and we wil beleue him.

44 That same also the thieues which were crucified with him, cast in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth houre was there darkenes ouer all the land, vnto the ninth houre.

46 And about the ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, sayig, * Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani: that is, * My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 And some of them that stode there, whē thei heard it, said, This man calleth Elias.

48 And straight way one of them ran, and toke a sponge, and filled it with vineger, and put it on a rede, and gaue him to drinke.

49 Other said, Let be: let vs se, if Elias wil come and saue him.

50 Then Iesus cryed againe with a loude voyce, and yelded vp the ghost.

55 ¶ And many women were there, beholding him a farre of, which had followed Iesus from Galile, ministring vnto him.

56 Among whome was Marie Magdalene, and Marie the mother of Iames & Ioses, and the mother of Zebedeus sonnes.

57 ¶ And when the euen was come, there came a riche man of Arimathea, named Ioseph, who had also him self bene Iesus disciple.

58 He went to Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus. Then Pilate commanded the bodie to be deliuered.

59 So Ioseph toke the bodie, and wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth, 60 And put it in his newe tombe, which he had hewen out in a rocke, & rolled a great stone to the dore of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie sitting ouer against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day that followed the Preparation of the Sabbath, the hie Priests and Pharises assembled to Pilate, 63 And said, Sir, we remember that that deceiuer said, while he was yer aliuē, Within thre dayes I wil rise.

64 Commande therefore, that the sepulchre be made sure vntil the thirde day, lest his disciples come by night, & steale him away, and say vnto the people, He is risen from the dead: so shal the last error be worse then the first.

65 Then Pilate said vnto them, Ye haue a watche: go, and make it sure as ye knowe.

66 And they went, and made the sepulchre sure with the watche, and sealed the stone.

 cleanseth the leper, and healeth diuers others.

In the beginning of the Gospel of Iesus Christ, the Sonne of God:

As it is written in the Prophetes, * Beholde, I send my <sup>b</sup> messenger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee.

3 * The voyce of him that cryeth in <sup>y</sup> wil-dernes is, <sup>c</sup> Prepare the way of the Lord:
 make his paths straight.

4 * Iohn did baptize in the wildernes, and <sup>d</sup> preache the baptisme of amendement of life, for remission of sinnes.

5 And all the countrey of Iudea, and they of Ierusalem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the riuier Iordan, confessing their sinnes.

6 Now Iohn was clothed with camels heere, and with a girdle of a skinne about his loines: and he did eat * locustes & wilde honie,

7 * And preached, saying, A stronger then I, cometh after me, whose shoes latcher I am not worthie to stoup downe, & vnlose.

8 Trueth it is, I haue * baptized you with <sup>e</sup> water: but he wil baptize you with the holie Gost.

9 ¶ * And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazaret a citie of Galile, and was baptized of Iohn in Iordan.

10 And as sone as <sup>h</sup> he was come out of the water, Iohn sawe the heauens clouen in twaine, and the <sup>f</sup> holie Gost descending vpon him like a doue.

11 Then there was a voyce from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued <sup>g</sup> Sonne, in whome I am wel pleased.

12 * And immediatly the <sup>h</sup> Spirit driueth him into the wildernes.

13 And he was there in the wildernes fortie daies, and was <sup>h</sup> tempted of Satan: he was also with the wilde beasts, and the Angels ministred vnto him.

14 ¶ * Now after that Iohn was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galile, preaching the Gospel of the kingdome of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent and beleue the Gospel.

16 ¶ * And as he walked by the <sup>h</sup> sea of Ga-lile, he sawe Simon, and Andrewe his brother, casting a nette into the sea, (for they were fishers.)

and I wil make you to be <sup>k</sup>fishers of men.
18 And straight waye they forsoke their nettes, and followed him.
19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, he sawe Iames the sonne of Zebe-deus, and Iohn his brother, as they were in the shippe, mending their nettes.
20 And anone he called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the ship with his hyred seruants, and went their way after him.
21 ¶ So *they entred into Capernaum, and straight way on the Sabbath daye he en-tred into the Synagogue and taught.
22 And they were astonied at his doctrine:
*for he taught them as one that had auto-ritie, and <sup>l</sup>not as the Scribes.
23 ¶ And there was in their Synagogue a mā which had an vncleane spirit, & he cryed, 24 Saying, Ah, what haue we to do with thee, o Iesus of Nazaret? Art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe thee what thou art, euen that holie one of God.
25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, <sup>m</sup> Holde thy peace, and come out of him.
26 And the vncleane spirit tare him, and cryed with a loude voyce, and came out of him.
27 And they were all amased, so that they demanded one of another, saying, What thing is this? what <sup>n</sup> new doctrine is this?
for he commandeth the foule spirits with authoritie, and they obey him.
28 And immediatly his fame spred abroad throughout all the region bordering on Galile.
29 ¶ And anone as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrewe, with Iames & Iohn.
30 And Simons wiues mother in law laye sicke of a feuer, and anone they tolde him of her.
31 And he came & toke her by the hand, & lift her vp, and the feuer forsoke her by & by, and she ministred vnto them.
32 And when euen was come, and the sunne was downe, they brought to him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with deuils.
33 And the whole citie was gathered together at the dore.
34 And he healed manie that were sicke of diuers diseases: and he cast out manie deu-ils, & <sup>o</sup> suffred not the deuils to say that they knewe him.
35 And in the morning verie earely, <sup>o</sup> before day Iesus arose and went out into a soli-tarie place, and there praied.
36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.
37 And when they had founde him, they said vnto him, All men seke for thee.

38 Then he said vnto them, Let vs go into the next townes, that I may preache there also: for I came out for that purpose.
39 And he preached in their Synagogues, throughout all Galile, and cast the deuils out.
40 ¶ *And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneled downe vnto him, & said to him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.
41 And Iesus had compassion, and put for-the his hand, and touched him, and said to him, I wil be thou cleane.
42 And anone as he had spoken, immediatly the leprosie departed from him, and he was made cleane.
43 And after he had giuen him a streict <sup>p</sup> commandement, he sent him away for-thewith,
44 And said vnto him, Se thou say nothing to anie man, but get thee hence, & shewe thy self to <sup>q</sup> the * Priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things, which Moses commanded, for a <sup>r</sup> testimonial vnto them.
45 But when he was departed, * he beganne to tel manie things, and to publish the matter: so that Iesus <sup>r</sup> colde no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from euerie quarter.

CHAP. II.

3 He healeth the man of the palsie. 5 He forgiveth finnes.
14 He calleth Levi the customer. 16 He eateth with sinners. 18 He excuseth his disciples, as touching fasting, and keeping the Sabbath daye.

Capernaum againe, and it was noysed that he was in the <sup>a</sup> house.
2 And anone, manie gathered together, in so much that the places about the dore colde not receiue anie more: and he preached the worde vnto them.
3 And there came vnto him, that brought one sicke of the palsie, borne of foure men.
4 And because they colde not come nere vnto him for the multitude, they vncovered the rofe of the house where he was:
and when they had broken it open, they let downe the bed, wherein the sicke of the palsie laye.
5 Now when Iesus sawe their faith, he said to the sicke of the palsie, Sonne, thy <sup>b</sup> sin-nes are forgiven thee.
6 And there were certeine of the Scribes, sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, phemies? * who can forgie sinnes, but 9 Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the palsey, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, and take vp thy bed, and walke?

10 And that ye may knowe, that the Sonne of man hath the autoritie in earth to forgive sinnes, (he said vnto y<sup>e</sup> sicke of the palsey.)

11 I say vnto thee, Arise & take vp thy bed, and get thee hence into thine owne house.

12 And by and by he arose, and toke vp his bed, and went forth before them all, in-fomuche that they were all amased, and glorified God, saying, We neuer sawe suche a thing.

13 ¶ Then he went againe toward the sea, and all the people resorted vnto him, and he taught them.

14 *And as Iesus passed by, he sawe Leui the sonne of Alphaeus sit at the receite of cus-tome, & said vnto him, Followe me. And he arose and followed him.

15 ¶ And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at table in his house, many Publicanes & sinners sate at table also wth Iesus, & his disciples: for there were many y<sup>e</sup> followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharises sawe him eat with y<sup>e</sup> Publicanes & sinners, they said vnto his disciples, How is it, that he eateth and drinketh with Publicanes and sinners?

17 Now when Iesus heard it, he said vnto them, The whole haue no nede of the physicion, but the sicke. I came not to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

18 *And the disciples of Iohn, & the Phari-ses did fast, and came and said vnto him, Why do the disciples of Iohn and of the Pharises fast, and thy disciples fast not?

19 And Iesus said vnto them, Can the children of the mariage chamber fast, whiles the bridegrome is with them? as long as they haue the bridegrome with them, they can not fast.

20 But the dayes wil come, when the bridegrome shalbe taken from them; and then shal they fast in those dayes.

21 Also no mā soweth a piece of new cloth in an olde garment: for els the new piece taketh away the filling vp from the olde, and the breache is worse.

22 Likewise, no man putteth new wine into olde vessels: for els the new wine breaketh the vessels, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels are lost: but new wine must be put into new vessels.

23 ¶ And it came to passe as he wēt through the corne on the Sabbath day, that his disciples, as they went on their way, began to plucke the eares of corne.

24 And the Pharises said vnto him, Beholde, why do they on the Sabbath day, that which is not lawful?

25 And he said to them, Haue ye neuer red what * Dauid did, when he had nede, and was an hungred, bothe he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God, in the dayes of Abiathar the hie Priest, and did eat the shewe bread, which were not lawful to eat, but for the * Priests, and gaue also to them which were with him?

27 And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

28 Wherefore the Sonne of man is Lord, euen of the Sabbath.

1 And he entred againe into the Synagogue, and there was a man which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he wolde heale him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.

3 Then he said vnto the man which had the withered hand, Arise: stand forth in the middes.

4 And he said to them, Is it lawful to do a good dede on the Sabbath day, or to do euill, to saue y<sup>e</sup> life, or to kill? But thei helde their peace.

5 Then he looked rounde about on them bangerly, mourning also for the hardenes of their hearts, and said to the man, Stretch forth the thine hād. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored, as whole as the other.

6 ¶ And the Pharises departed, & straight waye gathered a councel with the Herodians against him, that they might de-stroye him.

7 But Iesus auoyded with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude followed him from Galile, and from Iudea,

8 And from Ierusalem, and from Idumea, and beyonde Iordan: and they that dwelled about Tyrus and Sidon, when thei had heard what great things he did, came vnto him in great number.

9 And he commanded his disciples, that a ship shulde waite for him, because of the multitude, lest they shulde throng him.

10 For he had healed many, in-fomuche that they preassed vpon him, to touche him as many as had * plagues.

11 And when the vnleane spirits sawe him, they fel downe before him, and cryed, say-

13 ¶ Then he went vp into a mountaine, & called vnto him whome he wolde, & they came vnto him.

14 And he appointed twelue that they shulde be with him, and that he might send the to preache, 15 And that they might haue power to heale sickennes, and to cast out deuils.

16 And the first was Simon, & he named Simon, Peter.

17 Then Iames the sonne of Zebedeus, and Iohn, Iames brother (& named them Boanerges, which is the sonnes of thunder.)

18 And Andrew, and Philippe, and Bartlemew, and Matthewe, & Thomas, and Iames, the sonne of Alpheus, and Thaddeus and Simon the Cananite.

19 And Iudas Iscariot, who also betrayed him, and they came home.

20 And the multitude assembled againe, so that they colde not somuche as eat bread.

21 And whē his kinsfolkes heard of it, they went out to lay holde on him: for they thought he had bene beside him self.

22 ¶ And the Scribes which came from Ierusalem, said, He hathe Beelzebub, and through the prince of deuils he casteth out deuils.

23 But he called them vnto him, and said vnto the in parables, How can Satan driue out Satan?

24 For if a kingdome be deuided against it self, that kingdome can not stand.

25 Or if a house be deuided against it self, that house can not continue.

26 So if Satan make insurrectio against him self, & be deuided, he can not endure, but is at an end.

27 No mā can entre into a strong mans house, and take away his goods, except he first binde that strong man, and then spoile his house.

28 ¶ Verely I say vnto you, all sinnes shal be forgiuen vnto the children of men, and blasphemies, wherewith they blaspheme:

29 But he that blasphemeth against the holy Gost, shal neuer haue forgiuenes, but is culpable of eternal damnation,

30 Because they said, He had an vnclane spirit.

31 ¶ Then came his brethren and mother, and stode without, and sent vnto him, and called him.

32 And the people sate about him, and they said vnto him, Beholde, thy mother, & thy brethren seke for thee without.

33 But he answered the, saying, Who is my mother and my brethren?

34 And he looked rounde about on the, which sate in compasse about him, and said, Beholde my mother and my brethren.

35 For whosoeuer doeth the wil of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAP. IIII.

By the parables of the fede, and the mustarde corne, Christ sheweth the state of the kingdome of God. 11 A special gift of God to knowe the mysteries of his kingdome. 37 He stilleth the tempests of the sea which obeyed him.

1 And he begā againe to teache by the sea side, & there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, and sate in the sea, and all the people was by the sea side on the land.

2 And he taught them many things in parables, and said vnto them in his doctrine.

3 Harken: Beholde, there went out a sower to sowe.

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, that some fel by the way side, & the foules of the heauen came and deuoured it vp.

5 And some fel on stonie grounde, where it had not muche earth, & by and by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

6 But aslone as the sunne was vp, it caught heate, and because it had not roote, it withered away.

7 And some fel among the thornes, and the thornes grewe vp and choked it, so that it gaue no frute.

8 Some againe fel in good grounde, and did yelde frute that sprong vp, and grew, and it broght forth, some thirtie folde, some sixtie folde, and some an hundreth folde.

9 Then he said vnto them, He that hathe beares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, asked him of the parable.

11 And he said vnto them, To you it is giuen to knowe the mysterie of the kingdome of God: but vnto them that are without, all things be done in parables,

12 That they seing, may se, and not discern: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderstand, lest at any time they shulde turne, and their sinnes shulde be forgiuen them.

13 Againe he said vnto them, Perceiue ye not this parable? how the shulde ye vnderstand all other parables?

14 The sower soweth the worde.

15 And these are they that receiue the fede by the wayes side, in whome the worde is sown: but when they haue heard it, Satan cometh immediatly, and taketh away the worde that was sown in their hearts.

16 And likewise they that receiue the fede in stonie grounde, are they, which when they haue heard the worde, straight wayes receiue it with gladnes.

17 Yet haue they no roote in them selues, and endure but a time: for when trouble and persecution ariseth for the worde, immediatly

18 Also they that receiue the fede among the thornes, are suche as heare the worde:

19 But the cares of this worlde, and the *disceifulnes of riches, and the lustes of other things entre in, & choke the worde, and it is vnfruteful.

20 But they that haue receiued fede in good grounde, are they that heare the worde and receiue it, and bring forth the frute, one corne thirtie, another sixtie, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ Also he said vnto them, * Is e the candle light to be put vnder a bushel, or vnder the table, and not to be put on a candlestick?

22 * For there is nothing hid, that shal not be opened: nether is there a secret, but that it shal come to light.

23 If any man haue cares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he said vnto them, Take hede what ye heare. * With what measure ye mette, it shalbe measured vnto you: & vnto you that heare, shal more be giuen.

25 * For vnto him that hathe, shal it be giue, and from him that hathe not, shalbe taken away, euen that he hathe.

26 ¶ Also he said, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man shulde<sup>k</sup> cast fede in the grounde,

27 And shulde slepe, and rise vp night and day, and the fede shulde spring and grow vp, he not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth the frute of her self, first the blade, then the eares, after that ful corne in the eares.

29 And as sone as the frute sheweth it self, anone he putteth in the sickel, because the haruest is come.

30 ¶ He said moreouer, Whereunto shal we liken the kingdome of God? or with what comparison shal we compare it?

31 It is like a graine of mustarde fede, which when it is sown in the earth, is the least of all feedes that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sown, it groweth vp, and is greatest of all herbes, and beareth great braches, so that the foules of heauen may buyld vnder the shadow of it.

33 And *with many suche parables he preached the worde vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake he nothing vnto them: but he expounded all things to his disciples aparte.

35 ¶ Now the same day when euen was come, he said vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side.

36 And they left the multitude, and<sup>l</sup> took him as he was in the ship: and there were also with him other shippes.

37 And there arose a great storme of winde,

& the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was now ful.

38 And he was in the sterne<sup>m</sup> a slepe on a pillowe: and they awoke him, and said to him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he rose vp, and rebuked the winde, and said vnto the sea, Peace, and be stil. So the winde ceased, and it was a great calme.

40 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye so feareful? how is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, & said one to another, Who is this, that bothe the winde and the sea obey him?

19 Howbeit, Iesus wolde not suffre him, but said vnto him, Go thy way home to thy friends, and shewe the what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and how he hath had compassion on thee.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, what great things Iesus had done vnto him: and all men did marueile.

21 ¶ And when Iesus was come ouer againe by ship vnto the other side, a great multitude gathered to him, and he was nere vnto the sea.

22 ¶ And beholde, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Jairus: and when he sawe him, he fel downe at his fete,

31 And his disciples said vnto him, Thou seest the multitude throng thee, & sayest thou, Who did touche me?

33 And the woman feared and trembled: for she knewe what was done in her, & she came and fel downe before him, & tolde him the whole trouth.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the same ruler of the Synagogues house certeine which said, Thy daughter is dead: why distepest thou the Master anie further?

36 Allone as Iesus heard that worde spoken, he said vnto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid: onely beleue.

37 And he suffered no man to followe him, saue Peter and Iames, and Iohn the brother of Iames.

38 So he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and sawe the tumulte, & them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And he went in, & said vnto them, Why make ye this trouble, and wepe? the childe is not dead, but slepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorne: but he put them all out, and toke the father, and the mother of the childe, and them that were with him, & entred in where the childe laye,

12 ¶ And they went out and preached, that men shulde amende their liues.

13 And they cast out manie deuils: and they anointed manie that were sicke, with oyle and healed them.

14 ¶ Then King Herode heard of him (for his name was spred abroade) & said, Iohn Baptist is risen againe frō the dead & therefore great workes are wrought by him.

15 Other said, It is Elias: and some said, It is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophetes.

16 ¶ So when Herode heard it, he said, It is Iohn whome I beheaded: he is risen frō the dead.

17 For Herode him self had sent for the, & had taken Iohn, and bounde him in prison for Herodias sake, which was his brother Philippes wife, because he had married her.

18 For Iohn said vnto Herode, ¶ It is not lawful for thee to haue thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarel against him, & wolde haue killed him, but she coulde not:

20 For Herode feared Iohn, knowing that he was a iuste man, and an holie, and reuerenced him, & when he heard him, he did manie things, and heard him gladly.

21 But the time being conuenient, when Herode on his birth day made a banquet to his princes & captaines, and chief estates of Galile:

22 And the daughter of the same Herodias came in and danced, and pleased Herode and them that sate at table together, the King said vnto y<sup>e</sup> maide, Aske of me what thou wilt, and I wil giue it thee.

23 And he sware vnto her, What soeuer thou shalt aske of me, I wil giue it thee, euen vnto the halfe of my kingdome.

24 ¶ So she went forthe, and said to her mother, What shal I aske? And she said, Iohn Baptists head.

25 The she came in straight way with haste

vnto the King, and asked, saying, I wolde that thou shuldest giue me euen now in a charger the head of Iohn Baptist.

26 Then the King was verie sorye: yet for his othes sake, and for their sakes which sate at table with him, he wolde not refuse her.

27 And immediatly the King sent the hāgman, and gaue charge that his head shulde be brought. So he went & beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the maide, and the maide gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard it, they came and toke vp his bodie, and put it in a tombe.

30 ¶ And the Apostles gathered them selues together to Iesus, and tolde him all things, bothe what they had done, & what they had taught.

31 And he said vnto them, Come ye aparte into the wilderness, and reste a while: for there were manie commers & goers, that they had not leasure to eat.

33 But the people saw the when they departed, & manie knewe him, & ranne a foote thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and assembled vnto him.

34 ¶ Then Iesus went out, and sawe a great multitude, and had cōpassion on them, because they were like shepe which had no shepherd: and he began to teache them manie things.

35 ¶ And when the day was now farre spent, his disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is farre passed.

36 Let them departe, that they may go into the villages and townes about, & bye the bread: for they haue nothing to eat.

37 But he answered, & said vnto them, Giue ye them to eat. And they said vnto him, Shal we go and bye two hundreth penie worthe of bread, and giue them to eat?

38 ¶ Then he said vnto them, How manie loaues haue ye? go and loke. And whē they knewe it, they said, Fiue, and two fishes.

39 So he commanded them, to make them all sit downe by companies vpon the grene grasse.

40 Then they sate downe by rowes, by hundredths, and by fifties.

41 ¶ And he toke the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, & looked vp to heauen, & gaue thākes & brake the loaues, & gaue them to his disciples to set before them, and the two fishes he deuided among them all.

Mat. 15. 10.

15 There is nothing without a man, that can defile him, when it entreth into him: but the things which procede out of him, are they which defile the man.

g There is no outward or corporal thing, w<sup>ch</sup> entreth into man, that can defile him: meaning chiefly of meats, which if they be takē excessively, it cometh of the inordinate lust of the heart, and so the lust is euil.

16 If anie haue eares to heare, let hi heare.

17 And when he came into an house away from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he said vnto the, What are ye without vnderstanding also? Do ye not knowe that whatsoeuer thing from without entreth into a man, can not defile him, 19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the bellie, and goeth out into the draught which is y<sup>e</sup> purging of all meates?

20 Then he said, That which cometh out of man, that defileth man.

21 *For fro<sup>o</sup> within, euen out of the heart of men, procede euil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murthers,

25 For a certeine woman, whose litle daughter had an vncleane spirit, heard of him, and came, and fell at his feete.

26 (And the woman was a Greke, a Syrophenissian by nacion) & she besoght him that he wolde cast out the deuill out of her daughter.

27 But Iesus said vnto her, Let the children first be fed: for it is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it vnto whelpes.

28 Then she answered, and said vnto him, Trueth, Lord: yet in dede the whelpes eat vnder the table of the childrens crommes.

29 Then he said vnto her, For this saying go thy way: the deuill is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come home to her house, she founde the deuill departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.

31 ¶ And he departed againe from the coasts of Tyrus and Sidon, and came vnto the sea of Galilee, through the middes of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they broght vnto him one that was deafe, and stambred in his speache, and prayed him to put his hand vpon him.

33 Then he toke him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers in his eares, and did spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And looking vp to heauen, he sighed, & said vnto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straight way his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plaine.

36 And he comanded them, that thei shulde tell no man: but how muche soeuer he forbad them, the more a great deale they published it,

37 And were beyonde measure astonied, saying, * m He hath done all things wel: he maketh bothe the deafe to heare, and the domme to speake.

2 The miracle of the seven loaves. 11 The Pharises aske a signe. 15 The leauen of the Pharises. 22 The blinde receiveth his sight. 29 He was known of his disciples. 33 He reproveth Peter. 34 And sheweth how necessarie persecution is.

1 IN those dayes, when there was a verie great multitude, and had nothing to eat, Iesus called his disciples to him, and said vnto them,

2 I haue a compassio on the multitude, because they haue now continued with me thre daies, and haue nothing to eat.

3 And if I send them away fasting to their owne houses, they wolde faint by the way:

for some of them came from farre.

4 Then his disciples answered him, ¶ How can a man satisfie these with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How manie loaves haue ye? And they said, Seuen.

6 Then he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the ground: and he toke the seuen loaves, & gaue thanks, brake them, & gaue to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.

7 Thei had also a fewe smale fishes: & when he had giuen thanks, he commanded the also to be set before them.

8 So they did eat, and were suffised, and they toke vp of the broken meat that was left, seuen baskets full,

9 (And thei that had eaten, were about foure thousand) so he sent them away.

10 ¶ And anone he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parties of Dalmanutha.

11 ¶ And the Pharises came forthe, and beganne to dispute with him, seeking of him a signe from heauen, and tempting him.

12 Then he sighed diepely in his spirit, & said, Why doeth this generation seke a signe? Verely I say vnto you, ¶ a signe shal not be giuen vnto this generacion.

13 ¶ So he left them, & went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.

14 ¶ And thei had forgottē to take bread, nether had thei in the ship with them, but one loafe.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, and beware of the leauen of the Pharises, and of the leauen of Herode.

16 And they thought among them selues, saying, It is, because we haue no bread.

17 And when Iesus knewe it, he said vnto them, Why reason you thus because ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, nether vnderstand ye haue ye your hearts yet hardened?

18 Haue ye eyes and se not: and haue ye eares, and heare not: & do ye not remeber?

19 ¶ When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how manie baskets ful of broken meat toke ye vp? They said vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how manie baskets of the leauiugs of broken meat toke ye vp? And thei said, Seuen.

21 Then he said vnto them, ¶ How is it that ye vnderstand not?

22 And he came to Bethsaida, & thei broght a blinde man vnto him, and desired him to touche him.

23 Then he toke the blinde by the hand, & led him out of the towne, and spit in his eyes, and put his hands vpon him, & asked him, if he sawe ought.

18 ¶ And one of the companie answered, & ſaid, Maſter, I haue broght my ſonne vnto thee, which hath a domme ſpirit:

¶ When ſpi- rit cometh vpon him, he re- ceiveth him with inward ſorrow & pangs as in a colike a man ſeeleth ſuche grief, as if his bowels were rent a ſunder.

20 ¶ Then he answered him, and ſaid, ¶ O faithles generacion, how long now ſhal I be with you! how long now ſhal I ſuffer you! Bring him vnto me.

¶ It ſemeth y- this man deſer- ued not ſo ſharpe an an- ſwer: but Chriſt ſpeaketh in his perſone to the phariſes, & were ſubburne & deſperate.

21 ¶ So they broght him vnto him: & aſſone as the ſpirit ſawe him, he tare him, and he fel fel downe on the grounde, wallowing and foming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since he hath bene thus? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times he casteth him into y<sup>e</sup> fyre, and into the water to destroye him: but if thou canst do anie thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus said vnto him, If <sup>k</sup> thou canst beleue it, all things are possible to him that beleueth.

24 And straight way the father of the childe crying with teares, said, Lord, I beleue: helpe my vnbelief.

25 When Iesus sawe that the people came running together, he rebuked the vncleane spirit, saying vnto him, Thou domme & deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and entre no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cryed, and rent him sore, and came out, and he was as one dead, in so much that manie said, He is dead.

27 But Iesus toke his hand and lift him vp and he rose.

28 And whē he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why coulde not we cast him out?

29 And he said vnto them, This kinde can by no other meanes come forth, but by prayer, and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and went through Galile, & he wolde not that anie shulde haue knowen it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said vnto them, The Sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the hands of men, and they shal kil him, but after that he is killed, he shal rise againe the third day.

32 But they vnderstode not that saying, and were afraide to aske him.

33 ¶ After he came to Capernaum: and whē he was in the house, he asked them, What was it y<sup>e</sup> ye disputed amōg you by the way?

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they reasoned among them selues, who shulde be the chiefe.

35 And he sate downe, and called the twelve, and said to them, If anie man desire to be first, the same shalbe last of all, and seruant vnto all.

36 And he toke a litle childe and set him in the middes of them, and toke him in his armes, and said vnto them,

37 Whosoever shal receiue one of such litle children in my Name, receiue me: and whosoever receiue me, receiue me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ Then Iohn answered him, saying, Master, we sawe one casting out deuils by thy Name, which followeth not vs, & we forbade him, because he followeth vs not.

39 ¶ But Iesus said, Forbid him not: for the re is no man that can do a miracle by my Name, that can lightly speake euil of me.

40 For whosoever is not against vs, is on our parte.

41 ¶ And whosoever shal giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because ye belong to Christ, verely I say vnto you, he shal not lose his reward.

42 ¶ And whosoever shal offend one of these litle ones, that beleue in me, it were better for him rather, that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea.

43 ¶ Wherefore if thine hand cause thee to offende, cut it of: it is better for thee to entre into life, maimed, than hauing two hands, to go into hel into the fyre that neuer shal be quenched,

44 ¶ Where their worme dyeth not, & the fyre neuer goeth out.

45 Likewise, if thy foote cause thee to offende, cut it of: it is better for thee to go halt into life, then hauing two feete to be cast into hel into the fyre that neuer shalbe quenched,

46 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fyre neuer goeth out.

47 And if thine eye cause thee to offende, plucke it out: it is better for thee to go into the kingdome of God with one eye, than hauing two eyes, to be cast into hel fyre,

48 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fyre neuer goeth out.

49 For euerie man shalbe salted with fyre: and ¶ euerie sacrifice shalbe salted with salte.

50 ¶ Salte is good: but if the salte be vnauerie, wherewith shal it be seasoned? Haue salte in your selues, and haue peace, one with another.

11 And he said vnto the, *Whosoever shall put away his wife and marie another,<sup>b</sup> committeth adulterie against her.

12 And if a woman put away her husband, & be married to another, she committeth adulterie.

13 ¶ Then they brought litle childre to him that he shulde touche them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Iesus sawe it, he was displeased; and said to them, Suffre the litle childre to come vnto me, & forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

15 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoever shall not receiue the kingdome of God as <sup>c</sup>a litle childe, he shal not entre therein.

16 And he toke them vp in his armes, & put his hands vpon them, and <sup>d</sup>blesed them.

17 ¶ And when he was gone out on the way, there came one *running, and knied to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shal I do, that I may possesse eternal life?

18 Iesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none <sup>e</sup>good but one, euen God.

19 Thou knowest the comandements, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kil. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witness. Thou shalt hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.

20 Then he answered, and said to him, Master, all these things I haue obserued from my youth.

21 And Iesus behelde him, and <sup>f</sup>loued him, and said vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee; Go & sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, followe me, and take vp the crosse.

22 But he was sad at that saying, and went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 And Iesus looked rounde about, and said vnto his disciples, How hardely do they that haue riches, entre into the kingdome of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his wordes. But Iesus answered againe, and said vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to entre into the kingdome of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for a <sup>h</sup>riche man to entre into the kingdome of God.

26 And they were muche more astonied, saying with them selues, Who then can be saued?

27 But Iesus looked vpon them, & said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ The Peter began to say vnto him, Lo, we haue forsake all, & haue followed thee.

29 Iesus answered, and said, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house or brethren or sisters, or father or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels,

30 But he shal receiue an hundredfold now at this present: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with <sup>k</sup>persecutions, & in the worlde to come, eternal life.

31 *But manie that are <sup>i</sup>first, shalbe last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going vp to Ierusalem, and Iesus went before them, & they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraide, & Iesus toke the twelue againe, and began to tel them what things shulde come vnto him,

33 saying, Beholde we go vp to Ierusalem, and the Sonne of man shalbe deliuered vnto the high Priests, & to the Scribes, and they shal condemne him to death, and shal deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shal mocke him, and scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kil him: but the thirde day he shal rise againe.

35 ¶ The Iames and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, we wolde that thou shuldest do for vs that that we desire.

36 And he said vnto them, What wolde ye I shulde do for you?

37 And they said to him, Grante vnto vs, that we may sit one at thy right hand, & the other at thy left hand in thy glorie.

38 But Iesus said vnto them, Ye knowe not what ye aske. Can ye <sup>m</sup>drinke of the cup that I shal drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme that I shalbe baptized with?

44 And whosoever wil be chief of you, shal be the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the raunsome of manie.

46 ¶ Then they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, Bartimeus the sonne of Timeus a blinde man, sate by the wayes side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazaret, he began to crye and to say, Iesus the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

48 And manie rebuked him, because he shulde holde his peace: but he cryed muche more, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

49 Then Iesus stode stil, and commanded him to be called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threwe away his cloke, and rose & came to Iesus.

51 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, What wilt thou that I do vnto thee? And the blinde said vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Iesus said vnto him, Go thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by, he receiued his sight, and followed Iesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

11 Christ rideth to Ierusalem. 13 The figge tree dryeth vp. 15 The biers and sellers are cast out of the Temple. 24 He declareth the vertue of faith and how we shulde pray. 27 The Pharises question with Christ.

1 And when they came nere to Ierusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of oliues, he sent forthe two of his disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Go your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and as sone as ye shal entre into it, ye shal finde a colte bounde, whereon neuer man sate: lose him and bring him.

3 And if anie man say vnto you, Why do ye this? Say that the Lord hath nede of him, and straight way he wil send him hither.

4 And they went their way and founde a colte tied by the dore without, in a place where two wayes met, and thei losed him.

5 Then certeine of them, that stode there, said vnto the, What do ye losing y colte?

6 And they said vnto them, as Iesus had commanded them. So they let them go.

7 ¶ And they broght the colte to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he saate vpon him.

8 And manie spred their garments in the way: other cut downe braches of the trees and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna: blessed be he y cometh in the Name of the Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdome that cometh in the Name of the Lord of our father Dauid: Hosanna, o thou which art in the hieft heauens.

11 ¶ So Iesus entred into Ierusalem, and into the Temple: and when he had looked about on all things, & now it was euenig, he wet forthe vnto Bethania with the twelue.

12 ¶ And on the morow when they were come out from Bethania, he was hungrie.

13 And seeing a figge tre a farre of, that had leaues, he went to se if he might finde any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, he founde nothing but leaues: for the time of figges was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, & said to it, Neuer man eat frute of thee hereafter while the worlde standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they came to Ierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde & bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, & the seates of them that solde doves.

16 Nether wolde he suffer that any man shulde cary a vessel through the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not writte, Mine House shalbe called the House of prayer vnto all nacions: but you haue made it a denne of theues.

18 And the Scribes and hie Priests heard it, and soght how to destroye him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonied at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the citie.

20 ¶ And in the morning as they passed by, they sawe the figge tre dried vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembred, and said vnto him, Master, beholde, the figge tre which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Haue faith in God.

23 For verely I say vnto you, that whosoever shal say vnto this mountaine, Take thy self away, and cast thy self into the sea, and shal not wauer in his heart, but shal beleue that those things which he saith, shal be done to him.

24 ¶ Therefore I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye desire when ye pray, beleue that ye shal haue it, and it shal be done vnto you.

25 ¶ But when ye shal stand, and pray, forgive, if ye haue any thing against any man, y your Father also which is in heauen, may forgive you your trespases.

26 For if you wil not forgive, your Father which is in heauē, wil not pardon you your trespases.

18 Pray therefore that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For there shalbe in those dayes suche tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created vnto this time, nether shalbe.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no flesh shulde be sau'd: but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Then if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or, lo, he is there, beleue it not.

22 For false Christs shal rise, and false Prophetes, & shal shewe signes and wonders, to deceiue if it were possible, the very elect.

35 Watch therefore, (for ye knowe not when the Master of the house wil come, at euen, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dauning)

36 Left if he come suddenly, he shulde finde you sleeping.

1 And two dayes after followed the feast of the Pasche, and of vneleavened bread: and the hie Priests, and Scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not in the feast day, lest there be any tumult among the people.

3 And when he was in Bethania in the house of Simon the leper, as he sate at table, there came a womā hauing a boxe of ointment of spikenarde, verie costlie, and she brake the boxe, and powred it on his head.

4 Therefore some disdeined among them seies, and said, To what end is this waste of ointment?

5 For it might haue bene solde for more than thre hundred pence, & bene giuen vnto the poore, & they grudged against her.

6 But Iesus said, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue the poore with you alwayes, and when ye wil ye may do them good, but me ye shal not haue alwayes.

8 She hath done that she coulde: she came afore hand to anoint my bodie to the burying.

9 Verely I say vnto you, where soeuer this Gospel shalbe preached throughout the whole worlde, this also that she hath done, shalbe spoken of in remembrance of her.

10 ¶ The Iudas Iscariot, one of the twelue whet away vnto the hie Priests, to betray him vnto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, & promised that they wolde giue him money: therefore he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ Now y first day of vneleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Pasche, his disciples said vnto him, Where wilt thou that we go & prepare, that thou maist eat the Pasche?

13 Then he sent forth the two of his disciples, and said vnto them, Go ye into the citie, and there shal a man meete you bearing a pitcher of water: followe him.

14 And whither soeuer he goeth in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Where is y lodging where I shal eat the Pasche with my disciples?

60 Then the hie Priest stode vp amongs them, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is the matter that the- se beare witnes against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered no- thing. Againe the hie Priest asked him, & said vnto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the Blessed?

62 And Iesus said, I am he, * and ye shal se the a Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, & come in the clou- des of heauen.

63 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes and said, What haue we anie more nede of witnesses?

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthie of death.

65 And some began to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fy- stes, and to say vnto him, Prophecie. And the b sergeants smote him with their rods.

66 * And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maides of the hie Priest.

67 And when she sawe Peter warming him self, she looked on him, and said, Thou wast also with Iesus of Nazaret.

68 But c he denied it, saying, I knowe him not, nether wor I what thou saiest. Then he went out into the d porche, & the cocke crewe.

69 * Then a maide sawe him againe, & be- gan to say to them that stode by, This is one of them.

70 But he denied it againe: & anone after, they that stode by, said againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galile, and thy speache is like.

71 And he began to curse, & sweare, saying, I knowe not this mā of whome ye speake.

72 * Then the secōde time the cocke crewe, and Peter remembred the worde that Ie- sus had said vnto him, Before the cocke crowe twise, thou shalt denie my thrise, & waying that with him self, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

1 Iesus is led to Pilate. 15 He is condemned, reuiled and put to death. 46 And is buried by Ioseph.

Mat. 27, 1. Luk. 22, 66. Joh. 18, 20. a For the Ro- mains gaue the no autoritie to put anie man to death.

1 And * anone in the dawning, the hie Priests helde a cōsēl with the El- ders, and the Scribes, & the whole Coun- cil, and bounde Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered, and said vnto him, Thou saiest it.

3 And the hie Priests accused him of ma- nie things.

4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, Mat. 27, 12. saying, Answerest thou nothing? beholde Luk. 23, 3. how manie things thei witnes agaisf thee. Joh. 18, 31.

5 But Iesus answered b no more at all, so that Pilate marueiled. b He wolde not defend his cause, but pre- sētēd him self willingly to be cōdemned.

6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a pri- soner vnto them, whome soeuer thei wol- de desire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, w was boude with his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murther.

8 And the people cryed a loude, & began to desire that he wolde do as he had c euer done vnto them. c The people alwaies man- teine their cus- tomes, although thei be wōrth nothing.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Wil ye that I let lose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

10 For he knewe that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuie.

11 But the hie Priests had moued the peo- ple to desire that he wolde rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto the, What wil ye then that I do with him, whome ye call the King of the Iewes?

13 And thei cryed againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euil hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate d willing to contēt the people, losed them Barabbas, and deliuered Iesus when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified. d When a iudge hath the res- pect to men, he quite forget- teth iustice.

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the e commune hall, and called together the whole band, e Or, Pretoria.

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, & put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, f did him reuerence. f Or, adora- tion.

20 And when they had mocked him, they toke the purple of him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to cruci- fie him. Mat. 27, 31. Luk. 23, 25. e It was y cu- stom to make him that was condemned, to carie his crosse, but Iesus was not able for weakenes.

21 * And they e compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the cōnreie, and was father of A- lexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 * And they broght him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretacion, the place of dead mens skulles.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled f with myrrhe: but he receiued it not. f Which was to hasten his death: but he wolde not drinke it, because he wolde waite for the ho- nor y his Father had appointed, that he might render vnto him perfect o- bedience.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lottes for them, them, what euerie man shulde haue.

25 And it was the thirde houre, when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was writte aboue, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, & saying, * Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, & buyldest it in thre dayes,

30 Saue thy self, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priests mocking, said among the selues with the Scribes, He saued other men, him self he can not saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that we may se, and beleue. <sup>b</sup> They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 ¶ Now when y<sup>e</sup> sixt houre was come, darkenes arose ouer <sup>i</sup> all the land vntil the ninth houre.

34 And at the <sup>k</sup> ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, * Eloi, Eloi, lama-sabachthani: which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stode by, when they heard it, said, <sup>l</sup> Beholde, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a <sup>m</sup> sponge ful of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs se if Elias wil come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the goft.

38 ¶ And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the <sup>n</sup> Centurion, which stode ouer against him, sawe that he thus crying gaue vp the goft, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which behelde a farre of, amog whome was Marie Magdalene, and Marie (the mother of Iames the lesse, and of Ioses) and Salome, 41 Which also when he was in Galile, <sup>o</sup> followed him and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ And now whē night was come (because it was the day of the preparacion that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an <sup>p</sup> honorable Counsellour, which also looked for y<sup>e</sup> kingdome of God, came, & went in <sup>q</sup> boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marueiled, if he were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had bene any while dead.

45 And whē he knewe the trueth of the Centurion, he gaue the bodie to Ioseph,

46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and toke him downe, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and layd him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, & rolled a stone vnto the dore of the sepulchre:

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses mother behelde where he shulde be layd.

<sup>6</sup> But he said vnto them, Be not afrayed: ye seke Iesus of Nazaret, which hath bene crucified: he is risen, he is not here: beholde the place, where they put him.

<sup>8</sup> And they went out quickly and fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled and were amased: nether said they any thing to any man: for they were afrayed.

Or as muche as many things, whereof we are

As they haue deliue-

and were ministers of the word,

It seemed good also to me (moste noble Theophilus) as sone as I had searched out perfetely all things fro y beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,
That thou mightest acknowledge the certeintie of those things, whereof thou hast bene instructed.

IN the time of Herode King of Iudea, there was a certeine Priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: & his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabet.

Bothe were iust before God, and walked in all the commandements & ordinances of the Lord, without reprove.

And thei had no childe, because that Elisabet was barren: & bothe were wel stricke in age.

And it came to passe, as he executed the Priests office before God, as his course came in order,

According to the custome of the Priests office, his lot was to burne incense, when he went into the Temple of the Lord.

And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, while the incense was burning.

Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

And when Zacharias sawe him, he was troubled, and feare fel vpon him.

But the Angel said vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shal beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Iohn.

And thou shalt haue ioye and gladnes, & many shal reioyce at his birth.

For he shal be great in the sight of the Lord, & shal nether drinke wine, nor strōg drinke: and he shal be filled with the holie Gost, euen from his mothers wombe.

* And many of the children of Israel shal
he turne to their Lord God.

* For he shal go before him in the spirit & power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to y children, & the disobedient to the wisdom of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lord.

Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shal I knowe this? for I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.

And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speake vnto thee, & to shewe thee these good tidings.

And beholde, thou shalt be domme, and not be able to speake, vntil the day that these things be done, because thou beleuedst not my wordes, which shal be fulfilled in their season.

Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marueiled that he taried so long in the Temple.

And whē he came out, he colde not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had sene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remained domme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elisabet conceived, and hid her selfe sixe moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from me my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixt moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgine affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, & the virgins name was Marie.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, & said, Haile thou that art freely beloued: y Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among womē.

29 And when she sawe him, she was troubled at his saying, & thought what maner of salutation that shulde be.

30 Then y Angel said vnto her, Feare not, Marie: for thou hast founde fauour with God.

31 ¶ For lo, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.

32 He shalbe great, & shalbe called the Sonne of the moste High, and the Lord God shal giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.

33 ¶ And he shal reigne ouer y house of Iacob for euer, & of his kingdome shalbe no end.

34 Then said Marie vnto the Angel, How shal this be, seing, I know no man?

35 And the Angel answered, and said vnto her, The holie Gost shal come vpon thee, & the power of the most High shal ouer shadowe thee: therefore also that y holie thing which shalbe borne of thee, shalbe called the Sonne of God.

36 And beholde, thy cousin Elisabet, she hath also conceived a sonne in her olde age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shal nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Marie said, Beholde, the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy worde. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Marie arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste to a citie of Iuda:

40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabet heard the salutation of Marie, the babe sprang in her bellie, & Elisabet was filled with the holie Gost.

42 And she cryed with a loude voyce, and said, Blessed art thou among women, because the frute of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence cometh this to me, that the mother of my Lord shulde come to me?

44 For lo, allone as the voyce of thy salutiō sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my bellie for ioye.

45 And blessed is she that beleued: for those things shalbe performed, which were tolde her from the Lord.

46 Then Marie said, My soule magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirit reioyceth in God my Sauour.

48 For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for beholde, from hence forth shal all ages call me blessed.

49 Because, he that is mightie, hath done for me great things, & holie is his Name.

50 And his mercie is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 ¶ He hath shewed strength with his arme: he hath scattered the proude in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put downe the mightie from their seates, and exalted the of lowe degree.

53 ¶ He hath filled the hungrie with good things, and sent away the riche emptie.

54 ¶ He hath vpholden Israel his seruant, being mindeful of his mercie

55 (* As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham and his fede) for euer.

56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about thre moneths: after, she returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabets time was fulfilled, that she shulde be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, & cousins heard tell how the Lord had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, & called him Zacharias, after the Name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and said, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred, y is named with this Name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he wolde haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, & wrote, saying, His name is Iohn, and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediarly, and his tongue loosed, and he spake & praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt nere vnto them, and all these wordes were noised abroad throughout all the hill countrey of Iudea.

76 And thou, babe, shalt be called the Prophet of the moste High: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes,

1 AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a comandement frō Augustus Cesar, that all the<sup>a</sup> worlde shulde be<sup>b</sup> taxed.

2 (This first<sup>b</sup> taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to be taxed euerie mā to his owne citie.

4 And<sup>c</sup> Ioseph also went vp from Galile out of a citie called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of* Dauid, which is called Beth-lehem (because he was of the house and linage of Dauid,)

5 To be taxed with Marie that was giuen him to wife, which was with childe.

6 ¶ And so it was, that while thei were there, the daies were accomplished that she shulde be deliuered.

7 And she broght forth her<sup>d</sup> first begotten sonne, & wrapped him in swadling clothes and laid him in a<sup>e</sup> cratche, because there was no rowme for them in the ynne.

8 ¶ And there were in the same countrey shepherds, abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glorie of the Lord shone about them, and they were fore afraide.

10 Then the Angel said vnto them, Be not afraide: for beholde, I bring you tidings of great ioye, that shalbe to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of<sup>f</sup> Dauid, a Sauour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And<sup>g</sup> this shalbe a signe to you, Ye shal finde y<sup>e</sup> childe swaddled, & laid in a cratch.

13 And straight way there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenlie souldiers, praying God, and saying,

14 Glorie be to God in the high heuens, and peace in earth, & towards men<sup>h</sup> good wil.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that y<sup>e</sup> shepherds said one to another, Let vs go then vnto Beth-lehem, and se this thig that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, & founde bothe Marie and Ioseph, and the babe laid in the cratch.

17 And when they had sene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wōdred at y<sup>e</sup> things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

19 But Marie kept all those sayings & pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard & sene, as it was spoken vnto them.

21 ¶ And whē the eight daies were accomplished, that they shulde circumsise the childe, his name was then called* I E S V S, which was named of the Angel, before he was conceived in the wombe.

22 *And when the dayes of* her purification after the Law of Moses were accomplished, they broght him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord.

45 And whē they founde him not, they turned backe to Ierusalem, and sought him.

46 And it came to passe thre dayes after, that they founde him in the Temple, sitting in the middes of the doctours, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him, were astonied at his vnderstanding, and answers.

48 So when thei saw him, they were amased, and his mother said vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? beholde, thy father and I haue sought thee with heauie hearts.

49 Then said he vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knewe ye not that I must go about my fathers busines?

50 But they vnderstode not the worde that he spake to them.

51 Then he wet downe with them, & came to Nazaret, and was subiect to them: & his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Iesus increased in wisdom, & stature, and in fauour with God and men.

2 (*When Annas and Caiaphas were the high Priests) the worde of God came vnto Iohn, the sonne of Zacharias in the wildernes.

3 *And he came into all the coastes about Iordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sinnes,

4 As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Esaias the Prophet, which saith, *The voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

5 Euerie valley shalbe filled, and euerie mountaine, and hil shalbe brought lowe, & croked things shalbe made straight, & the rough wayes shalbe made smothe.

6 And all flesh shal see the saluation of God.

7 Then said he to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, *O generations of vipers, who hathe forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

2 * And was there fourtie dayes tempted of the deuil, and in those dayes he did eat nothing: but when they were ended, he afterwarde was hungrie.

3 Then the deuil said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, commande this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shal not liue by bread onely, but by euerie worde of God.

5 Then the deuil toke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the worlde, in the twinkeling of an eye.

6 And the deuil said vnto him, All this power wil I giue thee, and the glorie of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: & to whome soeuer I wil, I giue it,

8 But Iesus answered him, and said, "Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone thou shalt serue."

9 Then he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy self downe from hence,

10 For it is written, * That he wil giue his Angels charge over thee to kepe thee:

11 And with their hands they shall lift thee vp, lest at anie time thou shuldest dash thy fore against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered and said vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuill had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ And Iesus returned by the power of his spirit into Galile: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region rounde about.

15 For he taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

16 * And he came to Nazaret where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stode vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, he founde the place, where it was written,

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anointed me, that I shulde preache the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent me, that I shulde heale the broken hearted, that I shulde preache deliuerance to the captiues, and recovering of sight to the blinde, that I shulde set at libertie them that are bruised,

19 And that I shulde preache the acceptable yere of the Lord.

20 And he closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sat downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then he began to say vnto them, This daye is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all bare him witnes, & wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he said vnto them, Ye wil surely saye vnto me this prouerbe, Physicion, heale thy self: what soeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, do it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And he said, Verely I saye vnto you, * No Prophet is accepted in his owne country.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, manie widowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut thre yeres and six moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land,

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a cite of Sidon, vnto a certaine widdowe.

27 Also manie lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath, and rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their cite was buylt, to cast him downe headlong.

29 But he passed through the middes of them, and went his way,

30 ¶ * And came downe into Capernaum a cite of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

31 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his worde was with autoritie.

32 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loude voyce, 33 Saying, Oh, what haue we to do with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe who thou art, euen the Holie one of God.

34 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

35 So feare came on them all, and they spake among them selues, saying, What thing is this? for with autoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out?

36 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey rounde about.

37 ¶ * And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, & entered into Simons house. And Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

38 Then he stode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministred vnto them.

39 Now when the sunne was downe, all they which had sicke folks of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he laied his hands on euery one of them, and healed them.

40 ¶ * And deuils also came out of manie, crying, and saying, * Thou art the Christ the Sonne of God: but he rebuked them, & suffered them not to say that they knewe him to be the Christ.

g Hereby he shewed them that he wolde not transgress the Law, and thei shulde be inexcusable, who seig y miracle wrought, wolde not beleue Christ.

15 But so muche more went there a same abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept him self aparte in the wilderness, and praied.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certeine daye, as he was teaching, that the Pharises & doctours of the Law sate by, which were come out of euerie towne of Galilee, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, & the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 *Then beholde, men broght a man lyig in a bed, which was taken with a palseie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to laie him before him.

Mat. 9. 1.
mar. 2. 3.

19 And when they colde not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the preasse, they went vp on the house, & let him downe through the tiling, bed & all, in the middes before Iesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he said vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

h Christ toucheth the principal cause of all our euils.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? who can forgiue sinnes, but God onelie?

22 But when Iesus perceiued their thoughts, he answered, and said vnto them, What thinke ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to say, Rise and walke?

i Forasmuche as his diuinitie was sufficiently shewed by this miracle, he gaue them hereby to vnderstand y he had power to forgiue sinnes.

24 But that ye may knowe that the Sonne of man hath autoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth, (he said vnto the sicke of the palseie) I say to thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, & go to thine house.

25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, and toke vp his bed whereon he laie, and departed to his owne house, praising God.

26 And they were all amased, and praised God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubteles we haue sene strange things to daye.

32 *I came not to call the *righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ Then they said vnto him, Why do the disciples of Iohn fast often, and pray, and the disciples of the Pharises also, but thine eat, and drinke?

34 And he said vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegrome is with them?

35 But the dayes wil come, euen when the bridegrome shal be taken away frō them: then shal they fast in those dayes.

36 Againe he spake also vnto the a parable, No mā putteth a piece of a newe garmēt into an olde vesture: for then the newe retereth it, and the piece taken out of the new, agreeth not with the olde.

37 ¶ Also no man powreth newe wine into olde vessels: for then the newe wine wil breake the vessels, and it wil runne out, & the vessels wil perish.

38 But newe wine must be powred into newe vessels: so bothe are preserued.

39 Also no man that drinketh olde wine, straight way desireth newe: for he saith, The olde is better.

CHAP. VI.

Christ standeth in his disciples defence and his owne, as touching the breache of the Sabbath. 12 After watching and prayer he electeth his Apostles. 18 He healeth and teacheth the people. 20 He sheweth who are blessed. 27 To loue our enemies. 37 Not to iudge rashly. 41 And to auoide hypocrisie.

And it came to passe on the seconde Sabbath, after the first, that he went through the corne fields, and his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, and rubbe them in their hands.

2 And certeine of the Pharises said vnto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath dayes?

3 Then Iesus answered them, & said, *Hau ye not red this, that Dauid did when he him self was an hungred, & they which were with him,

4 How he went into the house of God, and toke, and ate the shewe bread, & gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawful to eate, but for the *Priests onely?

5 And he said vnto them, The Sonne of mā is Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the Synagogue & taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether he wolde heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knewe their thoghts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, & stand vp in the middes. And he arose, and stode vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto the, I wil aske you a question, Whether is it lawful on the Sabbath dayes to do good, or to do euil: to saue life, or to destroye it?

10 And he behelde them all in compasse, & said vnto the mā, Stretch forth the thine hād. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled ful of madnes, & communed one with another, what they might do to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, y he went into a mountaine to pray, & spent the night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And whē it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue, which also he called Apostles.

14 (Simon whome he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, Iames and Iohn, Philippe, and Bartlemewe:

15 Matthewe, and Thomas: Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon called zelous,

17 Then he came downe with them, and stode in a plaine place, with the companie of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus & Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude soght to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted vp his eyes vpō his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye *poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 *Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shal be satisfied: blessed are ye that *wepe now: for ye shal laugh.

22 *Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you, and reuile you, & put out your name as euil, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for beholde, your rewarde is great in heauen: for after this maner their fathers did to the Prophetes.

24 *But wo be to you that are riche: for ye haue receiued your consolation.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Nain, and manie of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when he came nere to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead man carryed out, who was the onelie begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widowe, & muche people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord sawe her, he had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Wepe not.

14 And he went and touched the coffin (and they that bare him, stood stil) and he said, Young man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat vp, & began to speake, & he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Thē there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all the region rounde about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certeine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that shulde come, or shal we waite for another?

20 And when the mē were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptiste hathe sent vs vnto thee, sayig, Art thou he that shulde come, or shal we wait for another?

21 And at that time, he cured manie of their sickenes, and plagues, and of euil spirits, and vnto manie blinde men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto thē, Go your wayes and shewe Iohn, what things ye haue sene and heard: y<sup>e</sup> the blinde se, the halte go, the lepers are clensed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, & the poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is he, that shal not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What wēt ye out into the wilderness to se? A rede shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out to se? A man clothed in soft raiment? beholde, they which are gorgeously appparelled, and liue delicately, are in Kings courtes.

26 But what wēt ye forth to se? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, & greater thē a Prophet.

27 This is he of whome it is writē, Beholde, I send my messenger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater

Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuertheles, he that is the least in y<sup>e</sup> kingdome of God is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes iustified God, being baptized with the baptisme of Iohn.

30 But the Pharises & the expōnders of the Law despised the counsel of God against them selues, & were not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto shal I liken the men of this generacion? & what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto childre sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, & ye haue not danced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptiste came, nether eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hathe the deuil.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eateth and drinketh: and ye say, Beholde, a man which is a glotten, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdom is iustified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharises desired him that he wolde eat with him: and he went into the Pharises house, and sat downe at table.

37 And beholde, a womā in the citie, which was a sinner, when she knewe that Iesus sat at table in y<sup>e</sup> Pharises house, she broght a boxe of ointment.

38 ¶ And she stood at his fete behinde him weping, and began to wash his fete with teares, and did wipe them with the heeres of her head, & kissed his fete, & anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharise which bade him, sawe it, he spake within him self, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he wolde surely haue knowen who, and what maner of woman this is which toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certeine lender which had two detters: the one oght fise hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles go from towne to towne and preache. 3 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 5 He sheweth the parable of the sēde. 21 He telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 He stilleth the raging of the lake. 27 He deliuereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the heard of swine. 41 He healeth the sicke woman, and Iairus daughter.

1 AND it came to passe afterwarde, that he him self went through euerie citie and towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdome of God, & the twelue were with him.

2 And certeine women, which were healed of euil spirits, and infirmities, as <sup>a</sup> Marie which was called Magdalene, out of whome went seuen deuils,

3 And Ioanna the wife of Chuza Herodes stewarde, & Susanna, & manie other which <sup>a</sup> ministred vnto him of their substance.

4 <sup>a</sup> Now whē muche people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a parable,

5 A sower went out to sowe his seed, and as he sowed, some fel by the way side, and it was troden vnder fete, and the foules of heauen deuoured it vp.

6 And some fel on the stones, and when it was sprong vp, it withered away, because it lacked moistnes.

7 And some fel among thornes, and <sup>y</sup> thornes sprang vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fel on good grounde, and sprāg vp, and bare frute, an hundreth folde. And as he said these things, he cryed, He that hath eares to <sup>b</sup> heare, let him heare.

9 Thē his disciples asked him, demāding, what parable that was?

10 And he said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to othē in <sup>c</sup> parables, that when <sup>a</sup> they se, they shulde not se, and when they heare, they shulde not vnderstand.

11 <sup>a</sup> The parable is this, The sēde is the worde of God.

12 And thei that are beside the way, are thei that heare: afterwarde commeth the deuil, and taketh away the worde out of their hearts, lest they shulde beleue, & be saued.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the worde with ioye: but they haue no rootes, which for a while <sup>d</sup> beleue, but in the time of tentation go away.

14 And that which fel among thornes, are they which haue heard, and <sup>e</sup> after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, and voluptuous liuing, and bring forth no frute.

15 But that which fel in good ground, are they which with an honest & good heart heare the worde, and kepe it, & bring forth the frute with patience.

16 ¶ No <sup>f</sup> man when he lighteth a candel, couereth it vnder a vessel, nether putteth it vnder the table, but setteth it on a candlesticke, that they that entre in, may see the light.

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, <sup>m</sup> Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besoght him, that he wolde not commande them to go out into the <sup>n</sup> deepe.

32 And there was there by, an herd of many swine, feeding on an hil, and the deuils besoght him, that he wolde suffre the to entre into them. So he suffred them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was caryed with violence from a stepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdmen sawe what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they tolde it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to se what was done, and came to Iesus, & founde the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the fete of Iesus, clothed, & in his right minde: and they were afraid.

36 They also which sawe it, tolde them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besoght him, <sup>y</sup> he wolde departe fro them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, besoght him that he might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

39 <sup>o</sup> Returne into thine owne house, and shewe what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached through out all <sup>p</sup> citie, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that <sup>y</sup> people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ And beholde, there came a man named Iairus, and he was the ruler of the <sup>q</sup> Synagogue, who fel downe at Iesus fete, and besoght him that he wolde come into his house.

46 And Iesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe that she was not hid, she came trembling, & fel downe before him, & tolde him before all <sup>y</sup> people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he said vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy <sup>f</sup> faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.)

49 While he yet spake, there came one fro the ruler of the Synagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: disease not the Master.

50 When Iesus heard it, he answered <sup>t</sup> him, saying, Feare not: beleue onely, & she shall be made whole.

51 And when he went into the house, he suffred no man to go in with him, saue Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and the father & mother of the maide.

52 And all wept, and sorowed for her: but he said, Wepe not: for she is not <sup>u</sup> dead, but slepeth.

4 And whatsoever house ye entre into, there abide, and thence departe.

5 And whosoever wil not receiue you, whē ye go out of that citie, shake of the very dust from your fete for a testimonie against them.

6 And they went out, and went through euerie towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euerie where.

7 ¶ Now Herode the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he doubted, because that it was said of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: & of some, that one of the olde Prophetes was risen againe.

9 Then Herode said, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this of whome I heare suche things? and he desired to se him.

10 ¶ And whē the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. ¶ Then he toke them, & went aside into a solitarie place, nere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knewe it, they followed him: and he receiued them, & spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, & healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 ¶ And whē the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may go into the townes and villages rounde about, & lodge, and get meat: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said vnto them, ¶ Giue ye them to eat. And they said, We haue no mo but five loaves & two fishes, except we shulde go and bye meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. Then he said to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a companie.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he toke the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake, and gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 So they did all eat, and were satisfied: & there was take vp of that remained to the, twelue baskets full of broken meat.

18 ¶ And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked the, saying, Whome say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and said, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: & some say, that one of the olde Prophetes is risen againe.

20 And he said vnto them, But whome say ye that I am? Peter answered, & said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, and commanded them, that they shulde tell that to no man,

22 Saying, ¶ The Sonne of man must suffre

many things, and be reprobued of the Elders, & of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the thirde day rise againe.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man wil come after me, let him denye him self, and take vp his crosse daily, and followe me.

24 For whosoever wil saue his life, shal lose it: and whosoever shal lose his life for my sake, the same shal saue it.

25 For what avenge it a man, if he winne the whole worlde, and destroye him self, or lose him self?

26 ¶ For whosoever shalbe ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shal the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shal come in his glorie, and in the glorie of the Father, and of the holie Angels.

27 ¶ And I tell you of a suretie, there be some standing here, which shal not taste of death, til they haue sene the kingdome of God.

28 ¶ And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he toke Peter, & Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the facion of his countenance was changed, & his garment was white and glistered.

30 And beholde, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias,

31 Which appeared in glorie, and tolde of his departing, which he shulde accomplishe at Ierusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him, were heauie with slepe, and when they awooke, they sawe his glorie, and the two men standing with him.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make thre tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wilt not what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloude & ouersadowed them, & they feared when these were entring into the cloude.

35 ¶ And there came a voyce out of the cloude, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was founde alone: and they kept it close, and tolde no man in those dayes any of those things which they had sene.

37 ¶ And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, muche people met him.

38 ¶ And beholde, a man of the companie cryed out, saying, Master, I beseeche thee, beholde my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

40 Now I have besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and said, O generation faithles, and crooked, how long now shall I be with you, & suffer you! bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet coming, the devil rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: & while they all wondered at all things, which Iesus did, he said vnto his disciples, 44 " Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they vnderstode not that worde: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that worde.

46 ¶ Then there arose a disputacion among them, which of them shulde be the greatest.

47 When Iesus sawe the thoughts of their hearts, he toke a litle childe, and set him by him,

48 And said vnto them, Whosoever receiuet this litle childe in my Name, receiuet me: and whosoever shall receiue me, receiuet him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 ¶ And Iohn answered, & said, Master, we sawe one casting out devils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because he followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus said vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the dayes were accomplished, that he shulde be receiued vp, he setteled him self fully to go to Ierusalem,

52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritans, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they wolde not receiue him, because his behauiour was, as though he wolde go to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and Iohn sawe it, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we commande, that fyre come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about, & rebuked them, and said, Ye knowe not of what spirit ye are.

56 ¶ For the Sonne of man is not come to destroye mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe that as they went in the way, a certeine man said vnto him,

I wil followe thee, Lord, whether soeuer thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nestes, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to laie his head.

59 But he said vnto another, Followe me. And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to go and burye my father.

60 And Iesus said vnto him, Let the dead burye their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I wil followe thee, Lord: but let me first go bid the fare wel, which are at mine house.

<sup>30</sup> And Iesus answered, and said, A certeine man went downe from Ierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, & departed, leauing him halfe dead.

<sup>31</sup> And by chance there came downe a certeine Priest that same way, and when he sawe him, he passed by on the other side.

<sup>32</sup> And likewise also a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and loked <sup>on</sup> him, and passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup> Then a certeine <sup>u</sup> Samaritan, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him,

<sup>34</sup> And went to him, & bounde vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and broght him to an ynne, and made prouision for him.

<sup>35</sup> And on the morowe when he departed, he toke out <sup>x</sup> two pence, and gaue them to the holte, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I wil recompense thee.

<sup>37</sup> And he said, He that shewed mercie on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Go, <sup>y</sup> and do thou likewise.

<sup>38</sup> ¶ Now it came to passe as they wēt, that he entred into a certeine towne, and a certeine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

<sup>39</sup> And she had a sister called Marie, which also sate at Iesus fete, and heard his preaching.

<sup>40</sup> But Martha was combred about muche seruing, and came to him, & said, Master, doeest thou not care that my silter hathe left me to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

Mat. 6. 9.

3 Our daily bread giue vs<sup>a</sup> for the day:
 4 And "forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that is indetted to vs:
 And lead vs not into temptacion: but de-liuer vs from euil.
 5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto them,<sup>b</sup> Which of you shal haue a friend, and shal go to him at midnight, & say vnto him, Friend, lend me thre loaves?
 6 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:
 7 And he within shulde answer, and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I can not rise and giue them to thee.
 8 I say vnto you, thogh he wolde not arise and giue him, because he is his friend, yet douteles because of his " importunitie, he wolde rise, and giue him as many as he neded.
 9 ¶ And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shal be giuen you: seke, and ye shal finde: knocke, and it shal be opened vnto you.
 10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: & he that seketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shal be opened.
 11 ¶ If a sonne shal aske bread of any of you that is a father, wil he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fishe, wil he for a fishe giue him a serpent?
 12 Or if he aske an egge, wil he giue him a scorpion?
 13 If ye then which are euil, can giue good giftes vnto your children, how muche more shal your heauēlie Father giue<sup>c</sup> the ho-lie Gost to them, that desire him?
 14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuil which was domme: and when the deuil was gone out, the domme spake, and the people wondered.
 15 But some of them said, He casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chief of the deuils.
 16 And others tempted him, seking of him
 a signe from heauen.
 17 But he knewe their thoghtes, and said vnto them, ¶ Euery kingdome deuided against it self, shalbe desolate, and an house deuided against an house, fallerh.
 18 So if Satan also be deuided against him self, how shal his kingdome stand, because ye say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?
 19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome do your<sup>d</sup> children cast them out? Therefore shal they be your iudges.
 20 But if I by the "finger of God cast out deuils, douteles the kingdome of God is come vnto you.
 21 When a strong man armed, kepeth his palace, the things that he possesseth, are in peace.

22 But when a stronger then he, commeth vpon him, and ouercommeth him: he tak-eth from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and deuiderh his spoiles.
 23 He that is not<sup>e</sup> with me, is against me:
 and he that gathereth not with me, scat-tereth.
 24 ¶ When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through drye places, seking<sup>f</sup> rest: and when he findeth none, he saith, I wil returne vnto mine house whence I came out.
 25 And when he commeth, he findeth it swept and<sup>g</sup> garnished.
 26 Then<sup>h</sup> goeth he, and taketh to him<sup>i</sup> seuen other spirits worse then him self: and they entre in, and dwell there, " so the last state of that man is worse then the first.
 27 ¶ And it came to passe as he said these things, a certeine woman of the cōpanie lifted vp her voyce, & said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which thou hast sucked.
 28 But he said,<sup>m</sup> Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the worde of God, and ke-pe it.
 29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is a wicked generacion: they seke a signe, and there shal no signe be giuen them, but the signe of " Ionas the Prophet.
 30 For as Ionas was a signe to the Nineuites, so shal also the Sōne of man be to this generacion.
 31 ¶ The Quene of the South shal rise in iudgement, with the men of this generation, and shal condemne them: for she came from the vtmost partes of the earth to heare the wisdom of Solomon, and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here.
 32 The men of Nineue shal rise in iudge-ment with this generacion, and shal condemne it: for they<sup>n</sup> repented at the preaching of Ionas: and beholde, a greater then Ionas is here.
 33 ¶ No man lighteth a candel, & putteth it in a priuie place, nether vnder a bushel:
 but on a candlesticke, that thei which come in, may se the light.
 34 ¶ The light of the bodie is the<sup>o</sup> eye: therefore when thine eye is<sup>p</sup> single, then is thy whole bodie light: but if thine eye be euil, then thy bodie is darke.
 35 Take hede therefore, that y<sup>q</sup> light which is in thee, be not darkened.
 36 If therefore thy whole bodie shalbe light, hauing noparte darke, the shal all be light, euen as when a candel doeth light thee with the brightnes.
 37 ¶ And as he spake, a certeine Pharise besoght him to dyne with him: & he went in, and sate downe at table.

The keye of knowledge. S. Luke. The leauen of the Pharises.

CHAP. XII.

Mat. 23, 25.

veiled that he had not first washed before dyner.

39 And the Lord said to him, In dede ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup, and of the platter: but the inwarde parte is ful of rauening and wickednes.

40 Ye fooles, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore, giue almes of those things which are within, and beholde, all things shalbe cleane to you.

42 But wo be to you, Pharises: for ye tithe the mynt and the rewe, and all maner herbes, and passe ouer iudgement and the loue of God: these ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other vndone.

43 Wo be to you, Pharises: for ye loue the vppermost seates in the Synagogues, and gretings in the markets.

44 Wo be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, & the men that walke ouer the, perceiue not.

45 Then answered one of the expounders of the Lawe, and said vnto him, Master, thus saying thou putttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And he said, Wo be to you also, ye interpreters of the Lawe: for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye your selues touche not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo be to you: for ye buylde the sepulchres of the Prophetes, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye beare witnes, and allow the dedes of your fathers: for they killed the, and ye buylde their sepulchres.

49 Therefore said the wisdom of God, I wil send them Prophetes and Apostles, & of them they shal slay and persecute, That the blood of all the Prophetes, shed fro the fundacion of the worlde, may be required of this generacion,

50 From the blood of Abel vnto the blood of Zacharias, which was slaine betwene the altar and the Temple: verely I say vnto you, it shalbe required of this generacion.

51 Wo be to you, interpreters of the Law: for ye haue take away the keye of knowledge: ye entred not in your selues, and the that came in, ye forbade.

52 And as he said these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharises began to vrge him sore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things, 53 Laying wait for him, and seking to catch some thing of his mouth, whereby they might accuse him.

1 Christ commandeth to auoide hypocrisie. 4 That we shulde not feare man but God. 5 To confesse his Name. 10 Blasphemie against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to comenous care of this life. 32 But to righteousness, almes, watching, patients, wisdom and concord.

IN the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: & he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take hede to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

2 For there is nothing couered, that shal not be reueiled: nether hid, that shal not be knownen.

3 Wherefore whatsoever ye haue spoken in darkenes, it shalbe heard in the light: and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shalbe preached on the houses.

4 And I say vnto you, my friends, be not afraid of them that kil the bodie, and after that are not able to do any more.

5 But I wil forewarne you, whome ye shal feare: feare him which after he hathe killed, hathe power to cast into hel: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not siue sparowes bought for two farthings, & yet not one of them is forgottē before God?

7 Yea, and all the heeres of your head are nombred: feare not therefore: ye are more of value then many sparowes.

8 Also I say vnto you, Whosoever shal confesse me before men, him shal the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shal denye me before men, shalbe denyed before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoever shal speake a worde against the Sonne of man, it shalbe forgiven him: but vnto him that shal blaspheme the holie Gost, it shal not be forgiven.

11 And when they shal bring you vnto the Synagogues, & vnto the rulers & princes, take no thought how, or what thing ye shal answer, or what ye shal speake.

12 For the holie Gost shal teache you in y same houre, what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the companie said vnto him, Master, bid my brother deuide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a deuider ouer you?

15 Wherefore he said vnto them, Take hede, and beware of couetousnes: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The grounde of a certeine riche man brought forth the frutes plenteously.

17 The-p Christ here requireth two things: first y we come truly by our meate and drinke: and next that we distribute parte to y pore: for charitie is the perfection of the Lawe.

Eccle. 1, 2.

17 Therefore he thoght with him self, saying, What shal I do, because I haue no volume, where I may lay vp my frutes?

18 And he said, This wil I do, I wil pul downe my barnes, and buyld greater, & therein wil I gather all my frutes, and my goods.

19 And I wil say to my soule, Soule, thou hast muche goods laid vp for many yeres: liue at ease, eat, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But God said vnto him, O foole, this night wil they fetch away thy soule from thee: the whose shal those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to him self,
and is not riche in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, * Take no thoght for your life, what ye shal eat: nether for your bodie, what ye shal put on.

23 The life is more then meat: and the bodie more then the raiment.

24 Consider the rauens: for they nether sowe nor reape: which nether haue store house nor barne, & yet God fedeth them:
how muche more are ye better the foules?

25 And which of you with taking thoght, can adde to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do the least thing, why take ye thoght for the remnant?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, nether spin they: yet I say vnto you, y<sup>e</sup> Solomon him self in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, & to morow is cast into the ouē, how muche more wil he clothe you,
O ye of litle faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shal eat, or what ye shal drinke, nether stand in doute.

30 For all suche things the people of the worlde seke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue nede of these things.

31 But rather seke ye after the kingdome of God, & all these things shalbe ministred vnto you.

32 Feare not, litle flocke: for it is your Father's pleasure, to giue you the kingdome.

33 * Sel that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which waxe not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no these commeth, nether moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there wil your hearts be also.

35 * Let your loines be girde about, and your lights burning,

36 And ye your selues like vnto men that wait for their master, when he wil returne from the wedding, that when he commeth and knocketh, they maye open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whome the Lord when he cometh shal finde waking:
verely I say vnto you, he wil<sup>m</sup> girde him self about, and make them to sit downe at table, and wil come forth, & serue them.

38 And if he come in the seconde watche, or come in the thirde watche, & shal finde them so, blessed are those seruants:

39 * Now vnderstande this, that if the good man of y<sup>e</sup> house had knowen at what houre the these wolde haue come, he wolde haue watched, and wolde not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man wil come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, tel-lest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithful steward, & wise, whome the master shal make ruler ouer his housholde, to giue them their<sup>n</sup> portion of meat in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whome his master when he cometh, shal finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that he wil make him ruler ouer all that he hathe.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his comming, and shal beginne to smite the seruants, and maidens, and to eat, and drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruāt wil come in a day whē he thinketh not, & at an houre whē he is not ware of, and wil cut him of, & giue him his portion with the vnbeleuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his masters wil, and prepared not him self, nether did according to his wil, shalbe beate with manie stripes.

48 But he that knewe it not, and yet did commit things<sup>o</sup> worthie of stripes, shalbe beaten with fewe stripes: for vnto whome soeuer<sup>p</sup> muche is giue, of him shalbe muche required, and to whome men muche commit, the more of him wil they aske.

49 ¶ I am come to put fyre on the earth, &
what is my desire, if it be all ready kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must be<sup>t</sup> baptized w<sup>t</sup> a baptisme, and how am I griued, til it be ended?

51 * Thinke ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tel you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from hence forth there shalbe fure in one house deuided, thre against two, & two against thre.

53 The father shalbe deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against y<sup>e</sup> daughter, & the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, & the daughter in law, against her mother in law.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The crueltie of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to be wicked men which suffre. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the croked woman, 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 Also that the number of them which shal be saued, is smale. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldelie policie or force can let the worke and counsel of God.

1 There were certeine men present at the same season, that shewed him of y Galileas, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Suppose ye, y these Galileans were b greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered suche things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except c ye amende your liues, ye shal all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whome the towre in d Siloam fel, & slewe them, were e sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amede your liues, ye all shal likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certeine mā had a figge tre planted in his vineyarde: and he came and soght frute thereon, and founde none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyarde, Beholde, e this thre yeres haue I come and soght frute of this figge tre, and finde none: f cut it downe: why kepeth it s also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, & said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yere also, til I digge round about it, and dongue it.

9 And if it beare frute, wel: if not, the after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a h spirit of infirmitie eightene yeres, h Whome Satan had broken with a disease, as the spirit of couetousnes is that spirit, that maketh a man couetous.

a He murdered them as they were sacrificing: & so their blood was mingled with y blood of the beastes which were sacrificed.

b For y Iewes toke occasion hereby to condemne them as most wicked men.

c He warneth the rather to consider their owne estate, the to reprove other mens.

d Which towre Rode by the riuer Siloe or fispoole in Ierusalem.

e Or, deterr.

f By this similitude is declared the great patience that God vseth toward sinners in looking for their amendment: but this delay auailleth them nothing, when they stil remaine in their corruption.

g We see our state, if we bring not forth frute.

h For bothe it is vnfruitful it self, and doeth hurt to the ground where it groweth.

& was i bowed together, and colde not lift vp herself in anie wise.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art l loosed from thy disease.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, & said vnto the people, There are six dayes in which men ought to worke: in the therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doeth not eiche one of you on the Sabbath day lose his ox or his asse fro the stall, & lead him away to y water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whome Satā had bounde, lo, eightene yeres, be loosed from this bonde on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, What is the k kingdome of God like? or whereto shal I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustarde seed, which a man toke and sowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tre, and the foules of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe he said, Whereunto shal I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a womā toke, and hid in thre peckes of floure, til all was leauened.

22 ¶ And he went through all cities and townes, teaching, & journeying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lord, are there fewe y shal be saued? And he said vnto the,

24 * I Striue to entre in at the straite gate: for manie, I say vnto you, wil seke to enter in, and shal not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the dore, and ye beginne to stand without, and to knocke at the dore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he shal answer and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence ye are,

26 m Then shal ye beginne to say, We haue eaten and drunke in thy presence, & thou hast taught in our stretes.

27 * But he shal say, I tel you, I know you not whence ye are: departe from me, all ye workers of iniquitie.

28 There shal be weping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shal see Abraham and Isaac, and Iacob, and all the Prophetes in the kingdome of God, and your selues thruste out

31 The same day there came certeine Pharises, and said vnto him, Departe, and go hence: for Herode wil kil thee.

32 The said he vnto the, Go ye & tell that foxe, Beholde, I p cast out deuils, and wil heale stil to day, and to morowe, and the third day I shalbe perfited.

33 Neuertheles I must walke to daye, and to morowe, and the day following: for it can not be, that a Prophet shulde perish out of Ierusalem.

34 * O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophetes, and stonest them that are sent to thee, how often wolde I haue gathered thy children together, as the henne gathered her broode vnder her wings, & ye wolde not!

CHAP. XIII.

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise. 4 Healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath. 8 Teacheth to be lowlie & to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great supper. 28 He warneth them that wil followe him, to lay their accountes before, what it wil cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

1 And it came to passe that whē he was entred into the house of one of the chief Pharises on the Sabbath day, to eat bread, they watched him.

2 And beholde, there was a certeine mā before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then he toke him, and healed him, and let him go,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shal haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and wil not straightway pul him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they colde not answer him againe to those things.

7 He spake also a parable to the ghefts, when he marked how they chose out the chief rouses, and said vnto them,

8 When thou shalt be bidden of anie mā to a weddig, set not thy self downe in the chiefest place, lest a more honorable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade bothe him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man rounge, and thou then beginne with shame to take the lowest rounge.

10 * But whē y art bidden, go & sit downe in the lowest rounge, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp hier: the shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 * For whosoever exalteth him self, shalbe brought low, and he that humbleth him self, shalbe exalted.

12 ¶ The said he also to him that had bidden him, * When thou makest a dynor or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nether thy kinsmen, nor the riche neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, & the blind,

14 And thou shalt be blessed, because they can not recōpense thee: for thou shalt be recōpensed at the resurrection of the iuste.

15 ¶ Now whē one of them that sate at table, heard these things, he said vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, * A certeine man made a great supper, and bade manie,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde begā to make excuse: The first said vnto him, I haue boght a ferme, and I must nedes go out & se it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another said, I haue boght fiue yoke of oxen, and I go to proue them: I pray thee, haue me excused.

20 And another said, I haue married a wife, and therefore I can not come.

21 So y seruant returned, & shewed his master these things. The was the good mā of the house angrie, & said to his seruāt, Go out quickly into y places & stretes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, & the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast cōmāded, & yet there is rounge.

23 Then the master said to the seruant, Go out into the hie wayes, and hedges, and compel them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shal taste of my supper.

25 Now there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and said vnto them,

26 If anie man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, & wife, & children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, he can not be my disciple.

2 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiuet sin ners. 4 The losing mercie of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundreth shepe. 7 Ioye in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigal sonne.

1 Then resorted vnto him all the Publi canes, and sinners, to heare him.
2 Therefore the Pharises and scribes mur mured, saying, He receiuet sinners, & ea teth with them.
3 Then spake he this parable to them, saying,
4 *What man of you hauing an hundreth shepe, if he loose one of them, doeth not leauē ninetie and nine in the wilderness, & go after that which is lost, vntil he finde it?
5 And when he hath founde it, he laieth it on his shulders with ioye.
6 And whē he cometh home, he calleth to gether his friends and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde my shepe, which was lost.
7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioye shal be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine iuste men,
which nede none amendement of life.
8 Either what woman hauing ten pieces of siluer, if she loose one piece, doeth not light a candel, & swepe the house, and seke diligently til she finde it?
9 And when she hath founde it, she calleth her friends, and neighbours, saying, Re ioyce with me: for I haue founde the piece which I had lost.
10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioye in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He said moreouer, A certeine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of the said to his father, Father, giue me the portion of the goods that faileth to me. So he deuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the yonger son ne had gathered all together, he toke his iorney into a farre countrey, and there he wasted his goods with riotous liuing.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claued to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his far me, to feede swine.

16 And he wolde faine haue filled his bel lie with y huskes, that the swine ate: but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to him self, and said, How manie hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I dye for hunger?

18 I wil rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthie to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

20 So he arose and came to his father, and whē he was yet a great way of, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and ran & fel on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, Father,
I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthie to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete,

23 And bring the fat calf, and kil him, and let vs eat, and be merie.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue

And they began to be merie.

25 Now the Elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drewe nere to the 26 And called one of his seruants, & asked what those things ment.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fat ted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and founde.

28 Thē he was angrie, & wolde not go in:
therefore came his father out and entrea

29 But he answered & said to his father, Lo

30 But whē this thy sonne was come, which hathe deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, <sup>k</sup> Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue, is thine. It was mere that we shulde make mery, & be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is founde.

CHAP. XVI.

Christ exhorteth his to wisdom and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproveth the couetous and hypocrisie of the Pharises. 16 Of the end and force of the Law. 18 Of the holie state of marriage. 19 Of the riche and Lazarus.

1 And he said also vnto his disciples, <sup>a</sup> There was a certeine riche man, which had a stewarde, and he was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou maiest be no longer stewarde.

3 Then the stewarde said within him self, What shal I do: for my master wil take away from me the stewardship: I can not digge, & to begge I am ashamed.

4 I knowe what I wil do, that when I am put out of the stewardship they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euerie one of his masters detters, & said vnto the first, How muche owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hūdreth measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then said he to another, How muche owest thou? And he said, An hūdreth measures of wheat. Then he said to him, Take thy writing, and write foure score.

8 And the Lord commended <sup>b</sup> the vniust stewarde, because he had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this worlde are in their generacion wiser thē the children of light.

9 And I saye vnto you, Make you friends with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye shal want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitacions.

10 He that is faithful in the least, he is also faithful in muche: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in muche.

11 If thē ye haue not bene faithful in <sup>d</sup> the wicked riches, who wil trust you in <sup>e</sup> true treasure?

12 And if ye haue not bene faithful in another mans goods, who shal giue you that which is <sup>f</sup> yours?

13 *No seruant can serue two masters: for either he shal hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shal leane to the one, & despise the other. Ye can not serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they <sup>g</sup> mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they, which <sup>h</sup> iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed amōg men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 * The Law and the Prophetes endured vntil Iohn: and since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and euerie man <sup>i</sup> preasseth into it.

17 * Now it is more easie that heauen and earth shulde passe away, then that one tittle of the Law shulde fall.

18 * Whosoever putteth away his wife, & marieth another, committeth adulterie: & whosoever marieth her that <sup>k</sup> is put away from her housband, committeth adulterie.

19 * There was a <sup>l</sup> certeine riche mā, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared wel and delicately euerie day.

20 Also there was a certeine begger named Lazarus, which was laied at his gate full of sores,

21 And desired to be refreshed with the crommes that fell from the riche mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, and was caryed by the Angels into <sup>m</sup> Abrahams <sup>n</sup> bosome. The riche man also dyed and was buried.

23 And being in hel in torments, he lift vp his eyes, and sawe Abraham a farre of, & Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cryed, and said, Father Abraham, haue mercie on me, and send Lazarus that he may dippe <sup>o</sup> typ of his <sup>p</sup> finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, <sup>p</sup> Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betwene you and vs there is a great <sup>q</sup> gulfe set, so that they which wolde go from hence to you, can not, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore father, that thou woldest send him to my fathers house,

28 (For I haue five brethre) that he may testifie vnto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said vnto him, They haue Moses & the <sup>r</sup> Prophetes: let them <sup>s</sup> heare them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham:

**Or, good things. *Or, euil things. *Or, following pit. q Which declareth that it is to late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they can not profite by the liuelie worde of God. r As faith cometh by Gods worde, so is it maintained by the same. So that neither we ought to loke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onlie the worde of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.*

<sup>o</sup> Christ describeth spiritual things by such maner of speache, as is moste propre to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue ne ther fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirstie or speake: but y Lord as it were in a table, painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

<sup>p</sup> In calling him sonne, he toucheth his vaine boasting, who in his life vnted him self to be the sonne of Abraham: warning vs also hereby how little glorious titles auale.

<sup>q</sup> Which declareth that it is to late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they can not profite by the liuelie worde of God. r As faith cometh by Gods worde, so is it maintained by the same. So that neither we ought to loke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onlie the worde of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.

but if one came vnto the from the dead, they wil amend their liues.

31 Then he said vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophetes, nether wil thei be perswaded, thogh one rise from the dead againe.

And he spake also a parable vnto the, to this end, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to waxe fainte,

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certeine citie, which feared not God, nether reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widowe in y<sup>e</sup> citie, which came vnto him, saying, " Do me iustice against mine aduersarie.

4 And he wolde not for a time: but afterwarde he said with him self, Thogh I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widowe troubleth me, I wil do her right, lest at the last she come and make me wearie.

6 And the Lord said, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

7 Now shal not God aduenge his elect, w<sup>ch</sup> crye day and night vnto him, yea, thogh he suffer long for them?

8 I tel you he wil aduenge the quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shal he finde faith on the earth?

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certeine which trusted in them selues that they were iuste, and despised other,

10 Two men wet vp into y<sup>e</sup> Tēple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publican.

11 The Pharise stood & prayed thus with him self, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other me, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publican.

12 I fast twise in the weke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing a farre of, wolde not lift vp so muche as his eyes to heauē, but smote his brest, saying, O God, be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tel you, this man departed to his house iustified, rather then the other: * for euerie man that exalteth him self, shalbe brought low, & he that humbleth him self, shalbe exalted.

15 ¶ They brought vnto him also babes, that he shulde touche them. And when his disciples sawe it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called sth them vnto him and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, & forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whosoever receiveth not the kingdome of God as a babe, he shal not enter therein.

18 ¶ The a certeine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to do, to inherit eternal life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnes: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now whē Iesus heard that, he said vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sel all y<sup>e</sup> euer thou hast, & distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me.

23 But when he heard those things, he was verie heauie: for he was marueilous riche.

24 And when Iesus sawe him sorowful, he said, With what difficultie shal they that haue riches, entre into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, then for a riche man to entre into the kingdome of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

27 And he said, The things which are vnpossible with me, are possible with God.

28 ¶ Then Peter said, Lo, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he said vnto the, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or childre for the kingdome of Gods sake,

30 Which shal not receiue muche more in this worlde, and in the worlde to come life euerlasting.

31 ¶ Then Iesus toke vnto him the twelue, and said vnto them, Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and all things shalbe fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophetes.

32 For he shalbe deliuered vnto the Gētiles and shalbe mocked, and shalbe spitefully entreated, and shalbe spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they wil put him to death: but the third day he shal rise againe.

34 But they vnderstode none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, nether perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

Of Zaccheus. 12 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth to Ierusalem, & wepe for it. 41 He chaseth out the marchants, 47 And his enemies seke to destroy him.

NOW when Iesus entred and passed through Iericho,

2 Beholde, there was a mā named Zaccheus, which was the chief receiuer of the tribute, and he was riche.

3 And he sought to se Iesus, who he shulde be, and colde not for the preasse, because he was of a lowe stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tre, that he might se him: for he shulde come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked vp, and sawe him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they sawe it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a sinneful man.

8 And Zaccheus stode forth, & said vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken frō anie man by forged cauillation, I restore him foure folde.

9 Then Iesus said to him, This day is saluation come vnto this house, forasmuche as he is also become the sonne of Abraham.

10 * For the Sonne of man is come to seke, and to saue that which was lost.

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because he was nere to Ierusalem, and because also they thoght that the kingdome of God shulde shortly appeare.

18 And the seconde came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath encreased fīue pieces.

20 So the other came and said, Lord, beholde thy piece, which I haue laid vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man: thou takest vp, that thou laidest not downe, and feapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne mouth wil I iudge thee, o euil seruāt. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore the gauest not thou my money into the bāke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he said to them that stode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went forth, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when he was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of oliues, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye to the towne which is before you, wherein, as sone as ye are come, ye shal finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man sate: lose him, and bring him hither.

36 And as he went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to the going downe of the mount of oliues, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, & to praise God with a loude voice, for all the great workes y<sup>e</sup> thei had sene,

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glorie in the hiest places.

39 Then some of the Pharises of the companie said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

4 Christ stoppeth his aduersaries mouthes by another question. 9 Sheweth their destruction by a parable. 22 The autoritie of princes. 27 The resurrection, & his diuine power. 45 He reproveth the ambition of the Scribes.

And * it came to passe that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospel, the high Priests & the Scribes came vpon him with the Elders,

And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what autoritie thou doest these things, or who is he that hath giuen thee this autoritie?

3 And he answered and said vnto them, I also wil aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of Iohn was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within them selues, saying, If we shal say from heauen, he wil say, Why then beleued ye him not?

6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people wil stone vs: for thei be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they colde not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, Nether tell I you, by what autoritie I do these things.

9 ¶ Thē began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certeine man planted a vineyarde, & let it forth to housbandmen, and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a seruant to the housbandmen, that they shulde giue him of the frute of the vineyarde, but the housbandmen did beat him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: and they did beat him, and fowle entreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyarde, What shal I do? I wil send my beloued sonne: it may be that thei wil do reuerence, when they se him.

14 But when the housbandmen sawe him, they reasoned with them selues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kil him, that the enheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyarde, & killed him. What shal the Lord of the vineyarde therefore do vnto them?

16 He wil come & destroy these housbandmen, and wil giue out his vineyarde to others. But when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he behelde them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the buylders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shal fall vpon that stone, shalbe broken: & on whome soeuer it shal fall, it wil grinde him to powder.

CHAP. XXI.

Christ commendeth the poore widdowe. 6 He forewarneth of the destruction of Ierusalem. 8 Of false teachers. 9 Of the tokens and troubles to come. 27 Of the end of the worlde. 37 And of his daylie exercise.

And * as he behelde, he sawe the riche Amen, which cast their giftes into the treasure,

Mar. 12. 41.

And he sawe also a certeine poore widdowe, which cast in thither two mites,

And he said, Of a trueth I say vnto you, that this poore widdowe hathe cast in more then they all.

For they all haue of their superfluitie cast into the offrings of God: but she of her penurie hathe cast in all the liuing that she had.

a God esteemeth not the gift, or almes by the quantitie or value, but by the heart & affection.

* Now as some spake of the Temple, how it was garnished with goodlie stones and with consecrat things, he said,

Are these the things that ye loke vpon? the dayes wil come wherein a stone shal not be left vpon a stone, that shal not be throwen downe.

Then they asked him, saying, Master, but when shal these things be? and what signe shal there be when these things shal come to passe?

* And he said, Take hede, that ye be not deceiued: for many wil come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, & the time draweth nere: followe ye not them therefore.

b Christ then maketh answer of that which was more necessarie for them, and not to the question they demanded.

And when ye heare of warres and seditions, be not afrayed: for these things must first come, but the end followeth not by and by.

Then said he vnto them, Nacion shal rise against nacion, and kingdome against kingdome,

* And great earthquakes shalbe in diuers places, and hunger, and pestilence, and fearful things, and great signes shal there be from heauen.

Mat. 24. 8. Mar. 13. 8.

But before all these, they shal lay their hands on you, & persecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into prisonnes, sones, and bring you before Kings and rulers for my Names sake.

13 And this shall turne to you, for a testimonial.

14 *Lay it vp therefore in your hearts, that ye premeditate not, what ye shall answer.

15 For I wil giue you a mouth and wisdom, where against all your aduersaries shall not be able to speake, nor resist.

16 Yea, ye shall be betrayed also of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinsmen, and friends, and some of you shall they put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake.

18 *Yet there shall not one heere of your heades perish.

19 By your patience possesse your soules.

20 ¶ And when ye see Ierusalem besieged with souldiers, then vnderstand that the desolation thereof is nere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, departe out: and let not them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance, to fulfil all things that are written.

23 But wo be to them that be with childe, & to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shall be great distresse in this land, & wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sworde, and shall be led captiue into all nations, and Ierusalem shall be troden vnder fote of the Gentiles, vntil the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 *Then there shall be signes in the sunne, and in the moone, and in the starres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations with perplexitie: the sea and the waters shall roare.

26 And mens hearts shall faile them for feare, and for looking after those things which shall come on the worlde: for the powers of heauen shall be shaken,

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloude, with power and great glorie.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then loke vp, and lift vp your heads: * for your redemption draweth nere.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Beholde, the figge tre, and all trees,

30 When they now shote forth, ye seeing them, knowe of your owne selues, that sommer is then nere.

31 So likewise ye when ye see these things come to passe, knowe ye that the kingdom of God is nere.

32 Verely I say vnto you, This age shall not passe, til all these things be done.

33 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my wordes shall not passe away.

34 Take hede to your selues, lest at any time your hearts be oppressed with surfeiting and drunkennes, and cares of this life, and lest that day come on you at vnwares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watche therefore, & pray continually, that ye may be counted worthie to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and that ye may stand before the Sonne of man.

37 ¶ Now in the day time he taught in the Temple, & at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of oliues.

38 And all the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in the Temple.

1 Now the feast of vnleauened bread drewe nere, which is called the Passeeuer.

2 And the hie Priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way, and comuned with the hie Priests & captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented, and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ The came y day of vnleauened bread when the Passeeuer must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Go, and prepare vs the Passeeuer, that we may eat it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou, that we prepare it?

10 Then he said vnto them, Beholde, when ye be entred into the citie, there shall a man mete you, bearing a pitcher of water: folowe him into y house that he entred in,

11 And say vnto the good man of the house, The Master saith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Passeeuer with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shewe you a great hie chamber trimmed: there make it readie.

13 So they went & founde as he had said vnto them, and made readie the Passeeuer.

14 *And when the *houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.
15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pasche with you before I suffre.
16 For I say vnto you, Hence forth I wil not eat of it any more, vntil it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.
17 And he toke the cup, and gaue thanks, and said, Take this, and deuide it among you.
18 For I say vnto you, I wil not drinke of the frute of the vine, vntil the kingdome of God be come.
19 *And he toke bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, This is my bodie, which is giuen for you: do this in the remembrance of me.
20 Likewise also after supper he toke the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
21 *Yet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.
22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe be to that man, by whome he is betrayed.
23 Then they began to enquire among the selues which of the it shulde be, that shulde do that.
24 *And there arose also a strife among the, which of them shulde seme to be the greatest.
25 But he said vnto them, The Kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer the, are called Gracious lords.
26 But ye shal not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: & the chiefest as he that serueth.
27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.
28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.
29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed to me,
30 *That ye may eat, and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.
31 *And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, beholde, *Satan hath desired you, to wynn you, as wheat.
32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.
33 *And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee into prison, and to death.
34 But he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shal not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knewest me.
35 *And he said vnto the, *Whē I sent you without bagge, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then he said to them, But now he that hath a bagge, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sel his coate, and bye a sworde.

37 For I say vnto you, That yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, *Euen with the wicked was he nombred: for douteles those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, beholde, here are two swordes. And he said vnto them, It is ynough.

39 *And he came out, and went (as he was wonte) to the mounte of oliues: and his disciples also followed him.

40 *And when he came to the place, he said to them, Pray, lest ye enter into tentation.

41 And he gate him self from them, about a stones cast, and kneled downe, & prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from me: neuertheles, not my wil, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an agonie, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweate was like droppes of blood, trickling downe to the grounde.

45 And he rose vp from prayer, & came to his disciples, and founde them sleping for heauines.

46 And he said vnto them, Why slepe ye? rise and pray, lest ye entre into tentation.

47 *And while he yet spake, beholde a companie, and he that was called Iudas one of the twelue, went before them, and came nere vnto Iesus to kisse him.

48 And Iesus said vnto him, Iudas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, sawe what wolde followe, they said vnto him, Lord, shal we smite with sword?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and strake of his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered, and said, Suffre them thus farre: and he touched his eare, & healed him.

52 Then Iesus said vnto the hie Priests, & captaines of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a thefe with swordes and staues?

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the power of darkenes.

54 *Then toke they him, and led him, and brought him to the hie Priests house. And Peter followed a farre of.

55 *And whē they had kindled a fyre in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sate downe among the.

56 And a certeine maide behelde him as he sate by the fyre, and hauing wel looked on him,

1 THEN * the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto * Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue founde this man peruertering the people, and forbidding to paye tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou saist it.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no faute in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching through out all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knewe that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, he <sup>b</sup> sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those daies.

8 And when Herode sawe Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was <sup>c</sup> desirous to se him of a long season, because he had heard manie things of him, and trusted to haue sene some <sup>d</sup> signe done by him.

9 Then questioned he with him of manie things: but he answered him <sup>e</sup> nothing.

10 The hie Priests also and Scribes stode forth and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his <sup>f</sup> men of warre, despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in <sup>g</sup> white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 * And the same daye Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerterd the people: and beholde, I haue examined him before you, and haue founde no faute in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: and lo, nothing worthie of death is done <sup>h</sup> to him.

16 I wil therefore chastise him, and let him lowse.

17 (For of <sup>i</sup> necessitie he must haue let one lowse vnto them at the feast.)

18 Then all the multitude cryed at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs Barabbas:

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus lowse.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euil hath he done? I finde <sup>j</sup> no cause of death in him: I wil therefore chastise him, and let him lowse.

23 But they were instant with loude voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them and of the hie Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it shulde be as they required.

25 And he let lowse vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whome thei desired, and deliuered Iesus to do with him what they wolde.

45 And the sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and said, * Father, into thine hands I commēd my spirit. And when he thus had said, He gaue vp the gost.

47 ¶ Now whē the * Cēturion sawe what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a suretie this man was iuste.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things, which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stode a farre of, & the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ * And beholde, there was a mā named Ioseph, which was a counsellor, a good mā and a iust.

51 He did not consent to the counsel and dede of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of y Iewes: who also him self * r wai- red for the kingdom of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus, 53 And toke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, & laid it in a tomb hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

54 And that day was the ¶ Preparacion, & the Sabbath * drewe on.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him frō Galile, behelde the sepulchre, & how his bodie was laid.

56 And thei returned and prepared odores, and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandement.

The iourney to Emmaus. Chap. XXIIII. The eyes opened. 42

8 And they remembred his wordes,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, & tolde all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Marie Magdalene & Ioanna, & Marie the mother of Iames, & other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their wordes semed vnto them, as a fained thing, nether beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes laid by them selues, & departed wondering in him self at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem aboute thre score furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus him self drewe nere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they colde not knowe him.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And he said vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in dede and in worde before God, and all the people,

20 And how the hie Priests, and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bene he that shulde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.

22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And whē they founde not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also sene a visiō of Angels, which said that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as the women had said, but him they sawe not.

25 Then he said vnto them, O fooles and slowe of heart to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken,

26 Oght not Christ to haue suffred these things, and to enter into his glorie?

27 And he began at Moses, & at all the Prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drewe nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he made as thogh he wolde haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towardes night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he toke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Thē their eyes were opened, & thei knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betwene them selues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and founde the Eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which said, The Lord is risen in dede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how he was knowen of thei in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus him self stode in the middes of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed & afraid, supposing that they had sene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do doutes arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine hands and my fete: for it is I my self: handle me, and se: for a spirit hath not flesh & bones, as ye se me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and fete.

41 And while they yet beleued not for ioye, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a peece of a broiled fish, and of an honie combe, 43 And he toke it, & did eat before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, that all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behoued Christ to suffre, & to rise againe from the dead the thirde day,

47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes shulde be preached in his Name among all nacions, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

the Worde, and the Worde was with<sup>a</sup> God and that Worde was God.

The same was <sup>b</sup> in the beginning w<sup>c</sup> God.

3 All things were made by it, & without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was <sup>d</sup> life, and the life was the <sup>e</sup> light of men.

5 And the light shineth in <sup>f</sup> y darkenes, & the darkenes comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent frō God, whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnes, to beare witnes of the light, that all mē through him might beleue.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnes of the light.

9 That was the true light, which lighteth euerie man that cometh into the worlde.

10 He was in the worlde, and the worlde was * made by him: & the worlde sknewe him not.

11 He came vnto <sup>b</sup> his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them
he gaue power to be the sonnes of God,
euen to them that beleue in his Name,

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the wil of the flesh, nor of the wil of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Worde was made <sup>k</sup> flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we * sawe the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father) * ful of grace and trueth.

15 ¶ Iohn bare witnes of him, & cryed, saying, This was he of whome I said, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me: for he was <sup>l</sup> before me.

16 And of his fulnes haue all we receiued, and grace for grace.

17 For the Lawe was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.

18 ¶ No man hathe sene God at any time: <sup>1. Tim. 6. 16.</sup>

is more dea-

but also in nature and vnion n And so God that before was inuisible, was made, as it were, visible in Christ.

19 ¶ Then this is the recorde of Iohn, whē the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denyed not, and said plainly, I * am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What the? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what saist thou of thy self?

23 He said, I * am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of <sup>y</sup> Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias. <sup>Isa. 40. 3.</sup>

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharises. <sup>mat. 3. 3.</sup>

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, nether Elias, nor the Prophet? <sup>luk. 3. 4.</sup>

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whome ye knowe not.

27 ¶ He it is that commeth after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe latcher
I am not worthie to vnlose. <sup>Mat. 3. 11.</sup>

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where Iohn did baptize. <sup>mar. 1. 7.</sup>

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and saith, Beholde the lambe of God, which taketh away the <sup>p</sup> sinne of the worlde. <sup>luk. 3. 16.</sup>

30 This is he of whome I said, After me cometh a mā, which is preferred before me:
for he was before me. <sup>ad. 1. 5.</sup>

31 And I knewe <sup>q</sup> him not: but because he shulde be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water. <sup>& 11. 16.</sup>

32 So Iohn bare recorde, saying, I sawe * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him. <sup>& 19. 4.</sup>

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, he said vnto me, Vpon whome thou shalt se the Spirit come downe, & tary stil on him, that is he which

34 And I sawe, and bare recorde that this is the Sonne of God.

35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stode againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he behelde Iesus walking by, and said, Beholde the lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and sawe them followe, & said vnto them, What seke ye? And they said vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretation, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 He said vnto them, Come, and se. They came and sawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

40 Andrewe, Simō Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard it of Iohn, & that followed him.

41 The same founde his brother Simon first, and said vnto him, We haue founde the Messias, which is by interpretation, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Iesus. And Iesus behelde him, & said, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus wolde go into Galile, and founde Philippe, and said vnto him, Followe me.

44 Now Philippe was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrewe and Peter.

45 Philippe founde Nathanael, and said vnto him, We haue founde him, of whom * Moses did write in the Law, and the * Prophetes, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazaret? Philippe said to him, Come, and se.

47 Iesus sawe Nathanael coming to him, & said of him, Beholde, in dede an Israelite, in whome is no guile.

48 Nathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, & said vnto him, Before that Philippe called thee, whē thou wast vnder the figge tre, I sawe thee.

49 Nathanael answered, & said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the figge tre, beleuest thou? thou shalt see greater things then these.

51 And he said vnto him, Verely, verely, I say vnto you, hereafter shal ye see heauen open, & the Angels of God * ascending, and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driueth the byers, and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He converteth many, and distrusteth man.

And the thirde day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, & the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother said vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, do it.

6 And there were set there, six waterpottes of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or thre firkins a peece.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fil the waterpottes with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then he said vnto them, Drawe out now & beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now whē the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drew the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forthe good wine, and when men haue wel drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntil now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forthe his glorie: & his disciples beleued on him.

12 After this he went downe into Capernaū, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not manie dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passecouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 * And he founde in the Temple those that solde oxen, and shepe, and doues, and changers of money, sitting there.

15 Thē he made a scourge of smale cordes, & draue them all out of the Temple with the shepe, and oxen & powred out the chāgers money, and ouerthrewe the tables,

16 And said vnto them that solde doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of marchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, * Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fortie and six yeres was this Temple a buylding, and wilt thou reate it vp in thre dayes?

He alludeth to the Paschal lambe, which was a figure of Christ.

Or where is the lodging? or whether good thou? For he dwelled in Nazaret, and was there as a stranger. That was, two houres before night. How Iohn said, that Iesus was the lambe of God.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration. 15 Of faith. 16 Of the loue of God towards the worlde. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn. 28 And the witness that he beareth of Christ.

1 THere was now a mā of y<sup>e</sup> Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of y<sup>e</sup> Iewes.

2 He came to Iesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man colde do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he can not<sup>a</sup> see the<sup>b</sup> kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of<sup>c</sup> water and of the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: & that that is borne of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Matueile not that I said to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The<sup>d</sup> winde bloweth where it listeth, & thou hearest the sounde thereof, but canst not tel whence it cometh, and whether it goeth: so is euerie man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and<sup>e</sup> knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, we speake that we<sup>f</sup> knowe, & testifie, that we haue sene: but ye<sup>g</sup> receiue not our witness.

12 If when I tel you<sup>h</sup> earthlie things, ye beleue not, how shulde ye beleue, if I shal tell you of heauenlie things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in<sup>i</sup> heauen.

14 *And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be<sup>k</sup> lift vp,

15 That whosoever beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue eternal life.

16 *For God so loued the worlde, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sone, that whosoever beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 *For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he shulde<sup>l</sup> condemne the worlde, but that the<sup>m</sup> worlde through him might be saued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shal not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in y<sup>e</sup> Name of the onely begottē Sone of God.

22 ¶ After these things, came Iesus and his disciples into the<sup>q</sup> land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and<sup>r</sup> baptized.

1 The communication of Christ with the woman of Samaria. 34 His zeale towards his Father & his harvest. 39 The conuersion of the Samaritans, 45 And Galileans. 47 How he healeth the rulers sonne.

NOW when the Lord knewe, how the Pharises had heard, that Iesus made and baptized mo disciples then Iohn,

3 (Thogh Iesus him self baptized not: but his disciples)

4 He left Iudea, and departed againe into Galile.

5 And he must nedes go through Samaria.

6 Then came he to a citie of Samaria called Sychar, nere vnto the possession that Iacob gaue to his sonne Ioseph.

7 And there was Iacobs well. Iesus the wearied in the iorney, sate thus on the well: it was about the sixth houre.

8 There came a woman of Samaria to drawe water. Iesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.

9 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to bye meat.

10 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritans.

11 Iesus answered & said vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Giue me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he wolde haue giuen thee water of life.

12 The woman said vnto him, Syr, thou hast nothing to drawe with, & the well is depe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

13 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, & he him self drake thereof, & his children, and his cattell?

14 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shal thirst againe:

15 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shal giue him, shal neuer be more thirsty: but the water that I shal giue him, shal be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

16 The woman said vnto him, Syr, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, nether come hither to drawe.

17 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine housband, and come hither.

18 The woman answered, and said I haue no housband. Iesus said to her, Thou hast wel said, I haue no housband.

19 For thou hast had fve housbands, and he whome thou now hast, is not thine housband: that saidest thou truly.

20 The womā said vnto him, Syr, I se that thou art a Prophet.

21 Our fathers worshiped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

22 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre cometh, when ye shal nether in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

23 Ye worship that which ye knowe not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Iewes.

24 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shal worshippe the Father in spirit, & trueth: for the Father requireth euen suche to worship him.

25 *God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit & trueth.

26 The woman said vnto him, I know wel that Messias shal come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he wil tell vs all things.

27 Iesus said vnto her, I am he, that speake vnto thee.

28 And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

29 The woman then left her waterpot, and wet her way into the citie, & said to her me,

30 Come, se a mā which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not he the Christ?

31 Then they went out of the citie, & came vnto him.

32 In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

33 But he said vnto the, I haue meat to eat, that ye knowe not of.

34 Then said the disciples betwene the selues, Hath anie man brought him meat?

35 Iesus said vnto them, My meat is that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

36 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, & then cometh haruest? Beholde, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and loke on the regions: for they are white already vnto haruest.

37 And he that reapeth, receiueeth wages, & gathereth frute vnto life eternal, that both he that soweth, & he that reapeth, might reioyce together.

38 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth.

39 I sent you to reape that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, & ye are entred into their labours.

40 Now manie of the Samaritans of the citie beleued in him, for the saying of the womā which testified, He hath tolde me all things that euer I did.

49 The ruler said vnto him, Sir, go downe before my sonne dye.

50 Iesus said vnto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleued the worde that Iesus had spoken vnto him, & went his way.

52 Then enquired he of the houre whē he began to amende. And they said vnto him, Yesterday the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father knewe, that it was the same houre in the which Iesus had said vnto him, Thy sonne liueth. And he beleued, and all his household.

1 After that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus wēt vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the shepe, a poole called in Ebrewe Bethesda, hauing fīue porches:

3 Which signifieth the house of powring out, because the water ranne out by conduits.

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halte, & withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certeine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certeine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that he now long time had bene diseased, he said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into y poole: but while I am coming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly the mā was made whole, and toke vp his bed, and walked: & the same day was the Sabbath.

e. This was, to the end that the miracle might be so euident, that no mā coulde speake against it.

10 The Iewes therefore, said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carie thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, & walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed him self away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus founde him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

d. The afflictions that we endure, are chastisements for our finnes.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, & soght to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered the, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes soght the more to kil him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but said also that God was his Father, and made him self equal with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, & said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of him self, saue that he seeth y Father do: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth y Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, & sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he him self doeth, and he wil shewe him greater workes then these, that ye shulde marueile.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all <sup>b</sup> iudgement vnto the Sonne,

23 Because that all men shulde honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoreth not the Sonne, the same honoreth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, he that heareth my worde, & beleueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, & shal not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, the houre shal come, and now is, when the dead shal heare the voyce of the Sone of God: and they that heare it, shal liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in <sup>h</sup> him self, so likewise hath he giue to the Sonne to haue life in him self,

27 And hath giuen him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sone of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shal come in the which all that are in the graues, shal heare his voyce.

29 And they shal come forth, * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euil, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can do nothing of mine owne self: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne wil, but the wil of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I * shulde beare witness of my self, my witness were not <sup>m</sup> true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me, and I knowe that the witness, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 * Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witness vnto the trueth.

34 But I receiue not the recorde of man: neuertheles these things I say, <sup>y</sup> ye might be saued.

35 He was a burning, and a shining " candle: and ye wolde for a * season haue reioyced in his light.

36 But I haue greater witness then the witness of Iohn: for the workes which the Father hath giuen me to finish, the same workes that I do, beare witness of me, that the Father sent me.

37 And the * Father him self, which hath sent me, * beareth witness of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at anie time, * nether haue ye sene his shape.

38 And his worde haue ye not abiding in you: for whome he hath sent, him ye beleue not.

39 * Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternal life, & they are they which testifie of me.

40 But ye wil not come to me, <sup>y</sup> ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praise of men.

42 But I knowe you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers Name, and ye receiue me not: if <sup>p</sup> another shal come in his owne name, him wil ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleue, which I receiue * honour one of another, and seeke not the honour that cometh of God alone!

45 Do not thinke that I wil accuse you to my Father: there is one that <sup>r</sup> accuseth you, <sup>euen</sup> Moses, in whome ye trust.

46 For had ye beleued Moses, ye wolde haue beleued me: * for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleue not his writings, how shal ye beleue my wordes!

14 Then the men when they had sene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a trueth the Prophet that shulde come into the worlde.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they wolde come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a mountaine him self alone.

16 ¶ Whē euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea,

17 * And entred into a ship, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, & Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about five & twentie, or thirtie<sup>h</sup> furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afraied.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afraied.

24 Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, nether his disciples, thei also toke shipping, & came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had founde him on the other side of the sea, thei said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

52 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Sone of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you.

53 Whosocuer eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

58 These things spake he in the Synagogue as he taught in Capernaum.

59 Manie therefore of his disciples (when thei heard this) said, This is an hard saying: who can heare it?

60 But Iesus knowing in him self, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto the, Doeth this offende you?

61 What then if ye shulde see the Sone of man ascende vp where he was before?

62 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

63 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleued not, & who shulde betraye him.

64 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

65 From that time, manie of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

66 The said Iesus to the twelue, Wil ye also go away?

67 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master to whom shal we go? Thou hast the wordes of eternal life:

68 And we beleue and knowe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

69 Iesus answered the, Haue not I chosen you twelue and one of you is a deuill?

70 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot. the sonne of Simo: for he it was that shulde betraye him, though he was one of the twelue.

CHAP. VII.

6 Iesus reproveth the ambition of his cousins. 13 There are diuers opinions of him among the people. 17 He sheweth how to knowe the trueth. 20 The iniurie they do vnto him. 47 The Pharises rebuke the officers because they haue not taken him. 52 And chide with Nicodemus for taking his parte.

1 After these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and wolde not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kil him.

2 Now the Iewes feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Departe hence, and go into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth anie thing secretly, & he him self seeketh to be famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy self to the worlde.

5 For as yet his brethren beleued not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto the, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The worlde can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testified of it, that the workes thereof are euil.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feast: I wil not go vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he said vnto them, and abode stil in Galile.

10 But as sone as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuely.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, & said, Where is he?

12 And muche murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Naye: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now when half the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned.

16 Iesus answered them, & said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If anie man wil do his wil, he shal knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my self.

18 He that speaketh of him self, seeketh his owne glorie: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no vnrighteousnes in him.

19 Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you kepeth the Law? Why go ye about to kil me?

20 The people answered, and said, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kil thee?

21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and ye all marueile.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circuncise a man.

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he satte downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes, & the Pharises broght vnto him a woman, taken in adulterie, & set her in the middes,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, in the verie act.

Leu. 20, 10. 5 *Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that suche shulde be stoned: what saist thou therefore?

6 And this they said to tempt him, that thei might haue, whereof to<sup>a</sup> accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the grounde.

a Either for breaking the Law, if he did deliuer her, or of lightnes, & inconstancie, if he did condemne her. Deu. 17, 7. 7 And while they continued asking him, he list him self vp, & said vnto them, *Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the grounde.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had list vp him self againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said,

b Nether

6 Nether do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

7 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of y<sup>e</sup> worlde: he that followeth me, shal not walke in darkenes, but shal haue the<sup>e</sup> light of life.

8 The Pharises therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest recorde of thy self: thy recorde is not true.

9 * Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Though I beare recorde of my self, yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came & whether I go: but ye can not tel<sup>d</sup> when- ce I come, and whether I go.

10 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

11 And if I also iudge, my iudgemēt is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

12 And it is also written in your Law, * that the testimonie of two men is true.

13 I am<sup>e</sup> one that beare witness of my self, & the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

14 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye nether knowe me, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also.

15 These wordes spake Iesus in the<sup>s</sup> trea- surie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

16 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and ye shal seeke me, and shal dye in your<sup>s</sup> sinnes. Whether I go, can ye not come.

17 Then said the Iewes, Wil he kil him self because he saith, Whether I go, can ye not come?

18 And he said vnto them, I Ye are frō be- neth: I am frō aboue; ye are of this worlde: I am not of this worlde.

19 I said therefore vnto you, That ye shal dye in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am he, ye shal dye in your sinnes.

20 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Euen the same thing that I said vnto you<sup>s</sup> from the beginning.

21 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the worlde.

22 They vnderstode not that he spake to them of the Father.

23 Then said Iesus vnto them, Whē ye haue<sup>l</sup> lift vp the Sonne of man, then shal ye knowe that I am<sup>e</sup> he, and that I do no- thing of my self, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

24 For he that sent me, is with me: the Fa- ther hath not left me alone, because I do alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many bele- ued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which be- leued in him, If ye continue in my worde, ye are verely my disciples,

32 And shal knowe the trueth, & the trueth shal make you fre.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams fede, and were neuer bonde to any man: why saist thou then, Ye shal be made fre?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the<sup>e</sup> seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the hou- se for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sōne therefore shal make you fre, ye shal be fre in dede.

37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams fede, but ye seke to kill me, because my worde hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue sene with my Father: and ye do that which ye haue sene with your father.

39 They answered, and said vnto him, A- braham is our father. Iesus said vnto the<sup>s</sup>, If ye were Abrahams children, ye wolde do the<sup>s</sup> workes of Abraham.

40 But now ye go about to kill me, a man that haue tolde you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the workes of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of for- nicatiō: we haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then wolde ye loue me: for I proceded forth, & came from God, nether came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? be- cause ye can not<sup>e</sup> heare my worde.

44 * Ye are of your father the deuil, and the lustes of your father ye wil do: he hath bene a murtherer<sup>e</sup> from the beginning, & abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his<sup>e</sup> owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the trueth, ye be- leue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why do ye not be- leue me?

47 * He that is of God, heareth Gods wor- des: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not wel that thou art a Sama- ritan, and hast a deuil?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuil, but I honour my Father, and ye haue disho- nored me.

50 And I seke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seketh it, and iudgeth.

<sup>16</sup> Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he kepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do suche miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

<sup>17</sup> Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What saist thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

<sup>18</sup> Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntil they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

<sup>19</sup> And they asked the, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now se then?

<sup>20</sup> His parents answered them, & said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

If this man were not of God, he coulde haue done nothing.

They answered, & said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teache vs? so they cast him out.

Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had founde him, he said vnto him, Dost thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

He answered, and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might beleue in him?

And Iesus said vnto him, Bothe thou hast sene him, & he it is that talketh with thee.

Then he said, Lord, I beleue, and worshipped him.

And Iesus said, I am come vnto iudgement into this worlde, that they which se not, might se: & that they which se, might be made blinde.

And some of the Pharises which were with him, heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

Iesus said vnto them, If ye were blinde, ye shulde not haue sinne: but now ye say, We se: therefore your sinne remaineth.

But he that goeth in by the dore, is the shepherd of the shepe.

To him the porter openeth, and the shepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his owne shepe by name, and leadeth them out.

And when he hathe sent forth his owne shepe, he goeth before them, and the shepe followe him: for they knowe his voyce.

And they wil not followe a stranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the dore of the shepe.

All, that euer came before me, are theues & robbers: but the shepe did not heare them.

I am the dore: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe saued, and shal go in and go out, and finde pasture.

The thefe commeth not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroye: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giueth his life for his shepe.

But an hireling, and he which is not the shepherd, nether the shepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe coming, & he leaueth the shepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the shepe.

So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the shepe.

I am the good shepherd, and knowe mine, and am knowne of mine.

As the Father knoweth me, so knowe I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my shepe.

Other shepe I haue also, which are not of this folde: them also must I bring, and they shal heare my voyce: and there shal be one shepefolde, & one shepherd.

Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, y I might take it againe.

No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my self: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

Then there was a dissention againe among the Iewes for these sayings.

And many of them said, He hathe a deuil, and is madde: why heare ye him?

Others said, These are not the wordes of him that hathe a deuil: can the deuil open the eyes of the blinde?

And it was at Ierusalem the feast of the Dedication, and it was winter.

And Iesus walked in the Temple, in Solomons porche.

Then came the Iewes rounde about him, and said vnto him, How long dost thou make vs doute? If thou be the Christ, tell vs plainly.

Iesus answered them, I tolde you, and ye beleue not: the workes that I do in my Fathers Name, they beare witnes of me.

But ye beleue not: for ye are not of my shepe, as I said vnto you.

My shepe heare my voyce, and I knowe them, and they followe me,

And I giue vnto them eternal life, and they shal neuer perish, nether shal any plucke them out of mine hand.

My Father which gaue them me, is greater then all, and none is able to take them out of my Fathers hand.

I and my Father are one.

Then the Iewes againe toke vp stones, to stone him.

Iesus answered them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my Father : for which of these workes do ye stone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke we stone thee not, but for blasphemie, and that thou being a man, makest thy self God.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, *I said, ye are gods?

Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The his Priests and Pharises gather a counsel against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

1 And a cerreine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her heere, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, beholde, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes stil in y same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs go into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately soght to stone thee, & dost thou go thither againe.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, he stonbleth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stonbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto the, Our friend Lazarus slepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he slepe, he shal be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thoght that he had spoken of the natural slepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also go, that we may dye with him.

17 ¶ The came Iesus, & founde that he had line in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was nere vnto Ierusalē, about fiftene furlongs of.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, wēt to mete him: but Marie sate stil in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I knowe also, that whatsoever thou askest of God, God wil giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shal rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I knowe that he shal rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, thogh he were dead, yet shal he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth, and beleueth in me, shal neuer dye. Beleuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which shulde come into the worlde.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie, that she rose vp hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to wepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and sawe him, she fel downe at his fete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest

33 When Iesus therefore sawe her wepe, & the Iewes also wepe which came with her, he i groned in the spirit, & was troubled in him self,

34 And said, Where haue ye laid him? Thei said vnto him, Lord, come, and se.

35 And Iesus <sup>k</sup> wept.

36 Then said the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Colde not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also, that this man shulde not haue dyed?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in him self, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was laid vpon it.

39 Iesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh alreadie: for he hath bene dead foure daies.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shuldest se the glorie of God?

41 Then they toke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cryed w<sup>a</sup> loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bounde hand and fote with bandes, & his face was bounde with a napkin. Iesus said vnto them, Lose him, and let him go.

45 ¶ Then manie of the Iewes, which came to Marie, and had sene the things, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priests, and the Pharises a council, and said, What shal we do? For this man doeth manie miracles.

48 If <sup>m</sup> we let him thus alone, all men wil beleue in him, and the Romaines wil come and take away bothe our place, and the nacion.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest <sup>a</sup> that same yere, said vnto the, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet do you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man dye for the people, and that the whole nacion perish not.

51 This spake he not of him self: but being hie Priest that same yere, he <sup>o</sup> prophecied that Iesus shulde dye for the nacion:

52 And not for the nacion onely, but that he shulde gather together in one <sup>y</sup> children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey nere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and manie went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Passeouer, to <sup>p</sup> purifie them selues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among them selues, as thei stode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now bothe the hie Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if anie man knewe where he were, he shulde shewe it, that they might take him.

Then Iesus six daies before the Passeouer came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whome he had raised from the dead.

There they made him a supper, & Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.

Then toke Marie a pound of ointment of spikenarde verie costlie, and anointed Iesus <sup>a</sup> fete, & wipre his fete with her heere, & the house was filled with the sauour of the ointment.

Then said one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which shulde betraye him,

Now he said this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a thefe, and * had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

Then said Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but me ye shal not haue alwaies.

Then muche people of the Iewes knewe that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might se Lazarus also, whome he had raised from the dead.

The hie Priests therefore cōsulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also,

Because that for his sake manie of the Iewes went away, and beleued in Iesus.

3 Christ washeth the disciples fete. 14 Exhorting them to humilitie & charitie. 21 Telleth them of Iudas the traitour. 34 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 He forewarneth of Peters denial.

NOW * before the feast of the Passeeouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that he shulde departe out of this worlde vnto the Father, for asmuche as he loued his owne which were in the worlde, vnto the end he <sup>a</sup> loued them.

And when <sup>b</sup> supper was done (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betraye him)

Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, & that he was come from God, and went to God,

He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his <sup>c</sup> upper garments, and toke a towel, and girde him self.

After that, he powred water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples fete, and to wipe them with the towel, wherewith he was girde.

Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my fete?

Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my fete. Iesus answered him, 'If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no parte with me.

Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my fete onely, but also the hands & the head.

Iesus said to him, He that is washed, nedeth not, saue to <sup>d</sup> wash his fete, but is cleane euerie whit: and ye are * cleane, but not all.

For he knewe who shulde betraye him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

¶ So after he had washed their fete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?

Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say wel: for so am I.

If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your fete, ye also ought to wash <sup>e</sup> one anothers fete.

For I haue giuen you an example, that ye shulde do, euen as I haue done to you.

Verely, verely I say vnto you, * The seruuant is not greater then his master, nether the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

If ye knowe these things, blessed are ye, if ye do them.

¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe whome I haue chosē: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, * He y eateth bread with me, hath <sup>f</sup> lift vp his heele against me.

19 From hence forth he tell I you before it come, y when it is come to passe, ye might beleue that I am <sup>g</sup> he.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send anie, he that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was <sup>h</sup> troubled in the Spirit, & <sup>i</sup> testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betraye me.

22 * Then the disciples looked one on another, douting of whome he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, w<sup>h</sup> leaned on Iesus <sup>k</sup> bosome, whome Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, y he shulde aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus brest, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whome I shal giue a soppe, when I haue dipte it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, <sup>l</sup> Satan entred into him. The said Iesus vnto him, That thou dost, do quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto hi, Bie those things that we haue nede of against the feast: or that he shulde giue some thing to the poore.

30 Allone then as he had receiued the soppe, he went immediatly out, and it was night.

¶ When he was gone out, Iesus said, <sup>m</sup> Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shal also glorifie him in him self, & shal straight way glorifie him.

<sup>2</sup> In my Fathers house are <sup>b</sup> many dwelling places: if it were not so, I wolde haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

<sup>e</sup> Therefore we must begin in him, continue in him, and in him.

<sup>5</sup> Thomas said vnto him, Lord, we <sup>d</sup> knowe not whither thou goest: how can we then knowe the way?

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweete consolation, and mutual loue betwene Christ and his membres: vnder the parable of the vine. 12 Of their comune afflictions and persecutions. 16 The office of the holie Ghost and the Apostles.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is an housband man.

<sup>2</sup> *Euerie branche that beareth not frute in me, he taketh away: & euerie one that beareth frute, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth the more frute.

Mat. 11. 11.

Chap. 13. 11.

<sup>4</sup> Abide in me, and I in you: as the brache can not beare frute of it self, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, <sup>a</sup> except ye abide in me.

<sup>a</sup> We can bring forth no frute, except we be ingrafted in Christ.

<sup>5</sup> I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth

abideth in me, & I in him, the same bringeth forth the muche frute: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branche, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fyre, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me and my wordes abide in you, aske what ye wil, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare muche frute, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shall kepe my commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I have kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things have I spoken vnto you, that my ioye might remaine in you, and that your ioye might be full.

12 *This is my commandement, that ye loue one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I commande you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father, have I made knowne to you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordeined you, that ye go & bring forth the frute, and that your frute remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the Father in my Name, he may giue it you.

17 These things commande I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde wolde loue his owne: but because ye are not of the worlde, but I have chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I said vnto you, *The seruant is not greater then his master. *If they haue persecuted me, they wil persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they wil also kepe yours.

21 But all these things wil they do vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not knowne him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto the, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they bothe sene, &

haue hated bothe me, and my Father.

15 But it is that the worde might be fulfilled, that is written in their Law, *They hated me without a cause.

16 But when the Comforter shall come, whom I wil send vnto you from the Father, even the Spirit of trueth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

17 And ye shall witnesse also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

1 He putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmities to come. 7 And therefore doeth comfort the with the promises of the holie Ghost. 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ. Peace in Christ, & in the worlde affliction.

1 These things have I said vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, wil thinke that he doeth Gods seruice.

3 And these things wil they do vnto you, because they haue not knowne the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember, that I tolde you the. And these things said I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me and none of you asketh me, *Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorowe.

7 Yet I tel you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter wil not come vnto you: but if I departe, I wil send him vnto you.

8 (And when he is come, he wil reprove the worlde of sinne, and of righteousness, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleue not in me:

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this worlde is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye can not beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he wil lead you into all trueth: for he shall not speake of him self, but whatsoever he shall heare, shall he speake, and he wil shewe you the things that come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shewe it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mi-not condemned by him as a blasphemor or transgressor. 8 When they shall knowe that I (whome they called the carpenters sonne, and willed to come downe fro the crosse) am the verie Sonne of God which haue ouercome all the power of hel and reigne ouer all, 2 Cor. 10, 12. eph. 1, 19. h These things are contained in the doctrine of the Apostles which onely is sufficient. i As touching the spiritual kingdome of God: for the Apostles knewe not that til after the resurrection.

17 The said some of his disciples among the selues, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A litle while, and ye shal not se me, & againe, a litle while, and ye shal se me, and, For I go to my Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A litle while? we knowe not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knewe that they wolde aske him, and said vnto them, Do ye enquire among your selues, of that I said, A litle while, and ye shal not se me: and againe, a litle while, and ye shal se me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shal wepe and lament, and the worlde shal reioyce: & ye shal sorowe, but your sorowe shal be turned to ioye.

21 A woman when she trauaileth, hathe sorowe, because her houre is come: but also, as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioye that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorowe: but I wil se you againe, and your hearts shal reioyce, and your ioye shal no man take from you.

23 And in y<sup>e</sup> day shal ye aske me nothing. Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoever ye shal aske the Father in my Name, he wil giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shal receiue, that your ioye may be full.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time wil come, when I shal no more speake to you in parables: but I shal shewe you plainly of y<sup>e</sup> Father.

26 At that day shal ye aske in my Name, & I say not vnto you, that I wil pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father him self loueth you, because ye haue loued me, & haue beleued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, & came into the worlde: againe I leaue the worlde, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now knowe we that thou knowest all things, and nedeest not that any mā shulde aske thee. By this we beleue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do you beleue now?

32 Beholde, the houre cometh, & is already come, that ye shal be scattered euerie mā into his owne, and shal leaue me alone:

but I am not alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, y<sup>e</sup> in me ye might haue peacet in the worlde ye shal haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue overcome the worlde.

CHAP. XVII.

The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for him self and his Apostles, and also for all suche as receiue the trueth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, & said, Father the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

a As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that he shulde giue eternal life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they knowe thee to be the onely verie God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to do.

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne self, with y<sup>e</sup> glorie which I had with thee before the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the worlde: thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy worde.

7 Now they knowe that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the wordes, which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, & haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for y<sup>e</sup> worlde, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the worlde, but these are in the worlde, & I come to thee. Holie Father, kepe them in thy Name, euen them whome thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the worlde, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the childe of perdition; that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, & these things speake I in y<sup>e</sup> worlde, that they might haue my ioye fulfilled in them selues.

14 I haue giuen them thy worde, and the worlde hathe hated them, because they are not of the worlde, as I am not of y<sup>e</sup> worlde.

15 I pray not that thou shuldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou kepe them from euil.

16 They are not of the worlde, as I am not of the worlde.

h Although he forsaue Christ, yet is he no whit diminished: for he & his Father are one. We haue rest & comfort when we are truly grafted in Christ.

that they also may be <sup>1</sup> sanctified through the trueth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shal beleue in me, through their worde,

21 That they all may be one, as thou, o Father, art in me, and I in thee: <sup>euē</sup> that they may be also one in vs, that the <sup>m</sup> worlde may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glorie that thou gauest me, I haue giuen them, that they may be one,
as we are one,

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, & that the worlde may know, that thou hast sent me, & hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I wil that they which thou hast giuen me, be <sup>o</sup> with me euē where I am, that they may beholde my glorie, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the fundation of the worlde.

25 O righteous Father, the worlde also ha-the not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and wil declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in <sup>p</sup> them.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 *Christ is betrayed. 6 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the grounde. 10 Peter smiteth of Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas.
25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.*

1 WHen Iesus had spokē these things, he went forth with his disciples ouer <sup>y</sup> a broke <sup>* Cedrō</sup>, where was a gardē, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knewe also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 * Iudas then after he had receiued a <sup>b</sup> bāde of men and officers of the high Priests, and of the Pharises, came thither with lan-ternes and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that shul-de come vnto him, went forth and said vnto them, Whome seke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Ie-sus said vnto the, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him, stode with them.

6 Aflone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they wēt backwards, and fel to the grounde.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whome seke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seke me, let these go their way,

9 This was that the worde might be fulfilled which he spake, * <sup>c</sup> Of the which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sworde, drew it, and smote the high Priests seruant, and cut of his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sworde into the sheath: shal I not drinke of <sup>y</sup> cup which my Father hath giue me?

12 Then the bande and the captaine, & the officers of the Iewes toke Iesus, and boundde him,

13 And led him away to * <sup>d</sup> Annas first (for he was Father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high Priest: that same yere)

14 * And Caiaphas was he, that gaue counsel to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man shulde dye for the people.

15 ¶ Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, & another disciple, and that disciple was knowē of the high Priest: therefore he wēt in with Iesus into the hall of <sup>y</sup> high Priest.

16 But Peter stode at the dore without.
Then went out the other disciple which was knowen vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the dore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the dore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stode there, which had made a fyre of coles: for it was colde, and they warmed them selues.
And Peter also stode among them & warmed him self.

19 (¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake <sup>f</sup> openly

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the commune hall. Now it was morning & thei them selues went not into the comune hall, lest they shulde be defiled, but that they might eat the Pasceouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we wolde not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

b He spake this disdainfully, because they were so bent against all right and equitie.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not lawful for vs to put anie man to death.

Mat. 20. 19.
i As if they shulde say, Thou wilt not suffice vs to do it: for he knew that it was not permitted to them by the Romaines to punish with death.

32 It was that the worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifyig what death he shulde dye.

34 Iesus answered him, Saist thou that of thy self, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

k It standeth not in strength of men nor in worldlie defence.

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, my seruants wolde surely fight, that I shulde not be deliuered to y Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King the? Iesus answered, Thou saist that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, & for this cause came I into the worlde, that I shulde beare witnes vnto the trueth: euerie one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

l This was a mocking and disdainful question.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is trueth? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, & said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

40 ¶ The cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate coulde not aswage the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuereth him vp with his superscription to be hanged betwixt two theues. 23 They cast lottes for his garments. 26 He commendeth his mother vnto Iohn. 28 Calleth for drinke. 33 Dyeth, and his side is perced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

Mat. 27. 38.

a He thought to haue pacified the furie of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

¶ Then ¶ Pilate toke Iesus & scourged him.

1 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

2 And said, Hail, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rodde.

3 Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Beholde, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, y I finde no faute in him at all.

4 The came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called him self King.

5 Then when the high Priests and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no faute in him.

6 The Iewes answered him, We haue a Law, and by our Law he ought to dye, because he made him self the Sonne of God.

c Christ was in dede the Sonne of God, and therefore might iustly call him self so without breache of Law: wherefore their colored accusation was falsely applied.

7 ¶ Whē Pilate then heard that worde, he was the more afraide,

8 And went againe into the commune hall and said vnto Iesus, Whēce art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

9 The said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to lose thee?

d Hereby he sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and autoritie.

10 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

11 From thence forth Pilate sought to lose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friend: for whosoever maketh him self a King, speaketh against Cesar.

12 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the Pament, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

e A place somewhat high & raised vp.

13 And it was the Preparation of the Pasceouer, and about the sixt houre: and he said vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was midday.

14 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shal I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

15 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. ¶ And they toke Iesus, and led him away.

17 Where thei crucified him, & two other with him, on either side one, & Iesus in y middes.

18 ¶ And Pilate wrote all a title and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 Thi

20 This title then red manie of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the citie: and it was written in h Hebrew, Greke and Latin.

21 Then said the hie Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, toke his garments & made foure partes, to euerie souldier a parte, & his coate: and the coate was without seame, wouen from the top throughout.

24 Therefore thei said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shalbe. *This was that y<sup>e</sup> Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They departed my garmets among them, & on my coate did cast lottes.* So the souldiers did these things in dede.

25 ¶ Then stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, & the disciple standing by whome he loued, he said vnto his mother, Womā, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple toke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that y<sup>e</sup> * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel ful of vinegre: & they filled a sponge with vinegre, and put it about an hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vinegre, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the gost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparacion, that the bodies shulde not remaine vpō the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an * hie day) besoght Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead alreadie, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare perced his side, & forthewith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that sawe it, bare recorde, & his recorde is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, y<sup>e</sup> * Scripture shulde be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another Scripture saith, * Thei shal se him whome thei haue thrust through.

38 * And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a disciple of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besoght Pilate that he might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licēce. He came then and toke Iesus bodie.

39 And there came also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and broght of myrrhe & aloes mingled together about an hundreth pounce.

40 ¶ Then toke thei y<sup>e</sup> bodie of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of y<sup>e</sup> Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

42 There then laid they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparacion day, for the sepulchre was nere.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whome Iesus loued, and said vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, & the other disciple, & they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne bothe together, but the other disciple did out runne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had sene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ The same daye then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stode in the middes, & said to them, Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they had sene the Lord.

21 Then said Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And whē he had said that, he breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holie Gost.

23 ¶ Whoſoeuers sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: & whoſoeuers sinnes ye retaine, they are retaine.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue sene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I se in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I wil not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight daies after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus, whē the doores were shut, and stode in the middes, and said, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and se mine hands, and put forth the thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithles, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast sene me, thou beleuest: blessed are they that haue not sene, and haue beleued.

30 ¶ And manie other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, y<sup>e</sup> ye might beleue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleuing ye might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to fede his shepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death, 25 And of Christs manifolde miracles.

After these things, Iesus shewed him self againe to his disciples at y<sup>e</sup> sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he him self.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, & Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, & two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I go a fishing. They said vnto him, We also wil go with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stode on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, Sirs, haue ye anye meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, & ye shal finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whome Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girde his coate to him (for he was naked) and cast him self into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundreth cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.

9 Allone then as they were come to land, they sawe hotte coles, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto the, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land, ful of great fishes, an hundreth, fiftie and thre: and albeit there were so manie, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, & dyne. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came & toke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed him self to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So whē they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon sonne of Iona, <sup>c</sup> louest thou me more thē these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Fede my lambes.

16 He said to him againe the secōde time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Fede my shepe.

17 He said vnto him the <sup>d</sup> third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he said to him the third time, Louest thou me: and said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Fede my shepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy self, & walkedst whither thou woldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch forth the thine hands, & another shall <sup>e</sup> girde thee, & lead thee whither thou woldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he shulde glorifie God. And whē he had said this, he said to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whome <sup>i</sup> Iesus loued, following, which had also <sup>leaned</sup> on his brest at supper; and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? Chap. 13, 22.

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shal this man do?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I wil that he tarie til I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this disciple shulde not dye. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shal not dye: but if I wil that he tarie til I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, & wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.

25 * Now there are also manie other things which Iesus did, the which if they shulde be written euerie one, <sup>f</sup> I suppose the worlde coulde not containe the booke that shulde be written, Amen. Chap. 20, 2.

<sup>f</sup> But God wolde not charge vs wth so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so muche as is necessarie, we ought to conteine our selues and praise his mercie.

THE ACTES OF THE holie Apostles written by Luke the Euangeliste.

THE ARGUMENT.

CHRIST, after his ascension, performed his promes to his Apostles, and sent them the holie Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely minded of his Church, but wolde be the head & maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan & the worlde resisted neuer so muche against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the sounde of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress, and ouerthrowe the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, scanders and all kinde of crueltie. Againe we shall here beholde the providence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth, and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetual memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheles God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good yssue, giuing them as it were, in sorrowe, ioye: in bandes, freedom: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this booke conteineth manie excellent sermons of the Apostles & disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs stocke. Of repentance, & feare of God, with other principal points of our faith: so that this onelie historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

6 When they therefore were come toge-thous at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shal receiue power of y holie Gost, when he shal come on you: and ye shalbe witnesses vnto me bothe in Ierusalem, & in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost parte of the earth.

9 *And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde, he was taken vp: for a cloude toke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly towarde heauen, as he went, beholde, two men stode by them in white apparel,

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galile, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal so come, as ye haue sene him go into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of olives, which is nere to Ierusalem, contei-ning a Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they wet vp into an vpper chamber, where abode bothe
Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrewe, Philippe, and Thomas, Bartlemewe, and Matthewe, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplicatiō with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stode vp in y middles of the disciples and said (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie)

16 Ye men & brethré, this Scripture must nedes haue bene fulfilled, which the holie Gost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that toke Iesus.

17 For he was nombred with vs, and had obtained felowship in this ministratiō.

18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the rewarde of iniquitie: and when he had throwe downe him selfe headlong he brast a sondre in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitāts of Ierusalem, in so muche, that that field is called in their owne langage, Acceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, *Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: *also, Let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue copanied with vs, all the time that the Lord
Iesus was conuersant among vs,

22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of the be made a witnes with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take the roume of this ministratiō and Apostleship, from which Iudas hath gone astray, to go to his owne place.

26 Then they gaue forth their lottes: and the lot fel on Matthias, and he was by a commune consent counted with the Eleue Apostles.

CHAP. II.

11 Cretes, and Arabians: we heard the speake in our owne tongues the wonderful workes of God.

12 They were all then amased, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others "mocked, and said, They are full of "newe wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing with the Eleuten, lift vp his voice, and said vnto them, Ye me of Iudea, and ye all that inhabit Ierusalem, be this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my wordes.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the thirde houre of the day.

16 But this is that, which was spoken by the "Prophet "Ioel,

17 And it shalbe in "y last dayes, faith God, I wil powre out of my Spirit vpon all "flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shal propheticke, and your yong me shal see visions, and your "olde men shal dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaidens I wil "powre out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shal propheticke.

19 And I wil shewe wonders in heauē above, and tokens in the earth beneth, blood, and fyre, and the vapour of smoke.

20 * The "sunne shalbe turned into darkenes, & the moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shalbe, * that whosoever shal call on the "Name of the Lord, shalbe saved.

22 Ye me of Israel, heare these wordes, Iesus of Nazaret, a man approued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as ye your selues also knowe:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of the wicked, being deliuered by the "determinate counsel, & "foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whome God hathe raised vp, & losed the "sorrowes of death, because it was vnpowre that he shulde be holden of it.

25 For Dauid saith concerning him, * I beheld the Lord alwayes before me: for he is at my "right hand, that I shulde not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreover also my flesh shal rest in "hope,

27 Because thou wilt not leaue my "soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holie one to "se corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed me the "wayes of life, and shalt make me full of ioye with thy countenance.

29 Men & brethre, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, that he is bothe dead and buryed, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore, seing he was a "Prophet, and knewe that God had "sworne with an othe to him, that of the frute of his loines he wolde raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne,

31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that "his "soule shulde not be left in a graue, neither his flesh shulde "se corruption.

32 This Iesus hathe God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Since then that he by the "right hand of God hathe bene exalted, and hathe "receiued of his Father the promes of the holie Gost, he hathe shed for the this which ye now se and heare.

34 For Dauid is not ascended into heauen, but he saith, * The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, 35 Vntil I "make thine enemies thy foete-stole.

36 Therefore, let all the house of Israel knowe for a suretie, that God hathe "made him bothe Lord, and Christ, this Iesus, I say, whome ye haue crucified.

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter & the other Apostles, Men & brethren, what shal we do?

38 Then Peter said vnto them, Amend your liues, and be "baptized euerie one of you in the Name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: & ye shal receiue the "gift of the holie Gost.

39 For the promes "is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are a farre-off, euen as many as the Lord our God shal call.

40 And with many other wordes he "besought, & exhorted them, saying, Saue your selues from this frowarde generacion.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his word, were baptized: and the same day, there were added to the Church about thre thousand "soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and "fellowship, and "breaking of bread, and prayers:

43 ¶ And feare came vpo euerie soule: and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles.

44 And all that beleued, were in one place, and had all things "commune.

45 And thei solde their possessions & "goods, and gaue the price thereof to the Apostles, that they might distribute vnto euery man as he had neede.

46 And they continued daily with one accord, multiplying the number of the disciples in Ierusalem: and a great multitude of the Iewes were added vnto them.

CHAP. III.

The lame is restored to his feet. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

1 Now Peter and Iohn went vp together into the Temple, at the ninth hour of prayer.

2 And a certaine man which was a creple fro his mothers wombe, was caryed, whome they laid daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautiful, to aske almes of the that entred into the Temple.

3 Who seing Peter and Iohn, that they wolde entre into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with Iohn, said, Loke on vs.

5 And he gaue hede vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but suche as I haue, that giue I thee: In the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret rise vp and walke.

7 And he toke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his fete and ancle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaped vp, stode, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saue him walke, and praising God,

10 And thei knewe him, that it was he which sate for the almes at the Beautiful gate of the Temple: & they were amased, and sore astonied at that, which was come vnto him.

11 And as the creple which was healed, helde Peter and Iohn, all the people ran amased vnto them in the porche which is called Solomons.

12 So whē Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marueile ye at this? or why loke ye so stedfastly on vs, as thogh by our owne power or godlines, we had made this man go?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the God of our fathers hathe glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, whē he had iudged him to be deliuered.

14 But ye denied the holie one & the iust, and desired a murderer to be giuen you,

15 And killed the Lord of life, whome God hathe raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his Name hathe made this man sounde, whome ye see, and knowe, through faith in his Name: & the faith which is by him, hathe giue to him this disposition of his whole bodie in y presēce of you all.

17 And now brethré, I knowe that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your gouerners.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophetes, that Christ shulde suffre, he hathe thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, whē the time of refreshing shal come from the presence of the Lord.

20 And he shal send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

21 Whome the heauen must containe vntil the time that all things be restored, which God had spoken by the mouth of all his holie Prophetes since the worlde began.

22 For Moses said vnto the Fathers, The Lord your God shal raise vp vnto you a Prophet, euen of your brethren like vnto me: ye shal heare him in all things, whatsoever he shal say vnto you.

23 For it shalbe that euerie persone which shal not heare that Prophet, shalbe destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophetes from Samuel, and thence forth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise foretolde of these dayes.

r. So that our regeneration and newnes of life is inclosed vnder this blessing.

s. It is to be thought that this was the Captaine of the Romanes garrison.

t. The Sadduces were great enemies to this doctrine.

u. The whole Church was increased in this number.

their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes, were gathered together at Ierusalem;

6 And Annas the chief Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the hie Priestes.

7 And when they had set the before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holie Gost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, & Elders of Israel,

9 For as muche as we this day are examined of the good dede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whome ye haue crucified, whome God raised againe from the dead, euē by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 * This is the stone cast a side of you & buylders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Nether is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Now when they sawe the boldnes of Peter and Iohn, & vnderstode that they were vncarned men and without knowledge, they marueiled, & knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to go aside out of the Council, and conferred among them selues,

16 Saying, What shal we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by the, & is openly knowen to all the that dwell in Ierusalem: and we can not denye it.

17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge the, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they shulde speake or teache in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto the, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we can not but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them go, and founde nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourtie yere olde, on whome this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then as soon as they were let go, they came to their felowes, & shewed all that the hie Priests & Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accorde, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, & all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruāt David hast said, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The Kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against thy Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For douteles, against thine holie Sonne Iesus, whome thou haddest anointed, bothe Herode & Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered them selues together, 28 To do whatsoeuer thine hand, and thy counsel had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, beholde their threatenings, & grant vnto thy seruants with all boldenes to speake thy worde, 30 So that thou stretche forth thine hand, that healing, and signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holie Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holie Gost, and they spake the worde of God boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that beleued, were of one heart, and of one soule: nether any of them said, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his owne, but they had all things commune.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

34 Nether was there any among them, that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, solde them, and brought the price of the things that were solde,

35 And laid it downe at the Apostles fete, and it was distributed vnto euerie man, according as he had nede.

Lying vnto the holie Gost. The Actes. To obey God.

BVt a certeine man named Ananias, with Sapphira, his wife, solde a possession,

<sup>a</sup> Which signified their sacrilledge, distrust, & hypocrisie.

And kept away parte of the price, his wife also being of counsell, & brought a cer-teine parte, and laid it downe at the Apostles fete.

Then said Peter, Ananias, why hathe Satan filled thine heart, that thou shuldest lie vnto the holie Gost; and kepe away parte of the price of the possession?

<sup>b</sup> Who moued thine heart to fel thy possession: where as thou turnest parte to another vse, as if God did not see thy dissimulation.
<sup>c</sup> His sinne the refore was so much greater in that he committed it willingly.

Whiles it remained, & appertained it not vnto thee: and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne power? how is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart?
thou hast not lied vnto me, but vnto God.

<sup>d</sup> Then no mā was compellid to fel his possessions, nor to put his money to the commune vse.

Now when Ananias heard these wordes, he fel downe, and gaue vp the gost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

<sup>e</sup> Because that God so dispos-sed it.

And the yong men rose vp, and toke him vp, and caryed him out, and buried him.

And it came to passe about the space of thre houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, solde ye the lād for so muche? And she said, Yea, for so muche.

<sup>f</sup> And to mocke him, as if he shulde not haue knowne your craftie fetche, which declareth that when men do any thing of an euil conscience, they do not on-ely pronouice the sentence of damnation vpon them selues, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they do promise, as it were, purposely, whether God be righteous and almightie.

Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? beholde, the fete of them which haue buried thine housbād, are at the dore, and shal carye thee out.

Then she fell downe straight way at his fete, and yelded vp the gost: and the yong men came in, and founde her dead, and caryed her out, and buried her by her housband.

<sup>h</sup> Because of their owne euil consciences which made them so tremble: for they saw were not assured of Gods mercies
in Christ,
were astonished at these his strage iudgements.

And great feare came on all the Church,
and on as many as heard these things.

Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accorde in Solomons porche.

<sup>i</sup> That is, they gave them great praise.

And of the other durst no man ioyne him self to them: neuertheles the people magnified them,

Also the nombre of them that beleued in the Lord, bothe of men & womē, grewe more and more)

In somuche that thei brought the sicke into the stretes, and laid them on beddes and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, whē he came by, might shadowe some of them.

There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalē, bringing sicke folkes, & them which were vexed with vnclane spirits, who were all healed.

<sup>k</sup> Which then were the chief among them.

Then the chief Priest rose vp, & all they that were with him (which was the secte of the Sadduces) and were ful of indignation,

And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the commune prison.

But the Angel of the Lord, by night opened the prison dores, & brought them for-the, and said,

<sup>l</sup> They were ful of blinde
zeale, emulation, and iclouise, in defence of their superstation.

Go your way, and stand in the Temple, & speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

<sup>m</sup> That is, of the liuelie doctrine, whereby the way to life is declared.

So when they heard it, they entred into the Tēple early in the morning & taught.
And the chief Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

But when the officers came, and founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

Saying, Certainely we founde y prison shut as sure as was possible, & the keepers standing without, before the dores: but when we had opened, we founde no man within.

<sup>n</sup> So y there was no fraude nor deceit, nor negligence, but it liueth for the power of God & his providce for his.

Then whē the chief Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the chief Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this wolde growe.

Then came one and shewed the, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teache the people.

Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they shul-de haue bene stoned)

And when they had brought them, they set them before the Council, and the chief Priest asked them,

Saying, Did not we straitely commande you, that ye shulde not teache in this Name, and beholde, ye haue filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, & ye wolde bring this mans blood vpon vs.

<sup>o</sup> He accuseth them of rebellion & sedition. And to make vs guiltie of Christs death.

Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God then men.

The God of our fathers hathe raised vp Jesus, whome ye slew, & hanged on a tre.

Him hathe God lift vp with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Sauour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sinnes.

Now when they heard it, they braist for anger, and consulted to slay them.

Then stode there vp in the Coucil a cer-teine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour and commāded to put the Apostles for the 37 After this man, arose vp * Iudas of Galilee, in the daies of the tribute, and drewe away muche people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel, or this worke be of men, it wil come to nought:

39 But if it be of * God, ye can not destroe it, lest ye be founde euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when thei had beaten them, they commanded that they shulde not speake in the Name of Iesus, & let the go.

41 So they departed from the Council, reioycing, that they were counted worthie to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daiely in the Temple, & fro house to house they ceased not to teache, and preache Iesus Christ.

20 * The same time was Moses borne, and 22 And Moses was learned in all the wis-

23 Now when he was ful fortie yere olde, it came into his heart to visit his brethren,
the children of Israel.

24 * And when he sawe one of them suffer quarrel that had the harme done to him, & smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren wolde ha-

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witnesses in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking vnto Moses, that he shulde make it according to the facion that he had sene.

45 Which tabernacle also our fathers receiued, and brought in with Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God draue out before our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid:

46 Who founde fauour before God, and desired that he might finde a tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 But Solomon buylt him an house.

48 Howbeit the moste High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the Prophet, 49 Heauen is my throne, & earth is my foote stole: what house wil ye buylde for me, saith the Lord? or what place is it that I shulde rest in?

50 Hathe not mine hand made all these things?

51 Ye stiffenecked and of vncircumcised hearts & cares, ye haue alwayes resisted the holie Ghost: as your fathers did, so do you.

52 Which of the Prophetes haue not your fathers persecuted? and they haue slaine them, which shewed before of the coming of that Iust, of whome ye are now the betrayers and murtherers, 53 Which haue receiued the Law by the ordinance of Angels, & haue not kept it.

54 But when they heard these things, their hearts brast for anger, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.

55 But he being ful of the holie Ghost, looked stedfastly into heauen, and sawe the glorie of God, and Iesus standing at the right hand of God,

56 And said, Beholde, I se the heauens open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a shoute with a loude voyce, and stopped their eares, and ranne vpon him all at once,

58 And cast him out of the citie, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid downe their clothes at a yong mans fete, named Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, who called on God, & said, Lord Iesus, receiue my spirit.

60 And he kneeled downe, and cryed with a loude voyce, Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken, he slept.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Steuen lamented & buried. 2 The rage of the Iewes and of Saul against them. 3 The faithful scattered, preache here & there. 4 Samaria is seduced by Simon the sorcerer, but was conuerted by Philippe, and confirmed by the Apostles. 5 The couetousnes and hypocrisie of Simon. 6 And conuersion of the Eunuche.

And Saul consented to his death, and at that time, there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, & they were all scattred abroad through the regions of Iudea & of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, caryed Steuen amongs the, to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euerie house, and drewe out bothe men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattred abroad, went to and fro preaching the worde.

5 Then came Philippe into the citie of Samaria, & preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue hede vnto those things which Philippe spake, with one accorde, hearing & seing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, & that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioye in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he him self was some great man.

10 To whome they gaue hede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And they gaue hede vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with forceries.

12 But as sone as they beleued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and in the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized bothe men and women.

13 Then Simon him self beleued also and was baptized, & continued with Philippe, and wondred, when he sawe the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holie Ghost.

16 (For as yet, he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, & they receiued the holie Ghost.

18 And when Simon sawe, that through laying on of the Apostles hands the holie Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whome soeuer I lay the hands, he may receiue the holie Ghost.

a Fro the place where he was stoned.

b When the Church is depriued of any worthie member, there is iust cause of sorrowe: and note that here is no mention of any reliques or prayers for the dead, or worshipping.

c The conuersion of Samaria was as it were the first frutes of the calling of the Gentiles.

d This declareth how muche more we are inclined to follow the illusions of Satan then the truth of God. e This is the craft of Satan to couer all his illusions vnder the Name of God.

f The maiestie of Gods worde forced him to confesse the truth: but yet was he not regenerate therefore.

g Meaning the particular gifts of the holie Spirit. h They had onely receiued the commune grace of adoption & regeneration which are offered to all faithful in baptisme, & as yet had not receiued the gift to speake in diuers languages, & to do miracles.

20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that y<sup>e</sup> gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast nether parte nor fellowship in this busines: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it be possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I see that thou art in y<sup>e</sup> gall of bitterness, and in the bonde of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, y<sup>e</sup> none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 So they, when they had testified and preached the worde of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritans.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise, and go towarde the South vnto the way that goeth downe fro Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.

27 And he arose and went on: and beholde, a certeine Eunuche of Ethiopia Cadaces the Quene of the Ethiopians chief Gouverner, who had the rule of all her treasure, & came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charer, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philippe, Go nere & ioyne thy self to yonder charer.

30 And Philippe ranne thether, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, & said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philippe, that he wolde come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he red, was this, * He was led as a shepe to y<sup>e</sup> slaughter: & like a lambe domme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shal declare his generation: for his life is taken fro the earth.

34 Then the Eunuche answered Philippe, and said, I pray thee of whome speaketh the Prophet this? of him self, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certeine water, and the Eunuche said, Se, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philippe said vnto him, If thou beleeuest with all thine heart, thou maist. Then he answered, and said, I beleue that i Thou art not worthie to be of the number of y<sup>e</sup> faithful. k That is, turne away from thy wickednes: hereby he wolde make him to feele his sinne and not y<sup>e</sup> he doubted of Gods mercies, if he wolde repent. Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commanded the charer to stand still: and they went downe bothe into the water, bothe Philippe & the Eunuche, and he baptized him.

39 And as sone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philippe, that y<sup>e</sup> Eunuche sawe him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philippe was founde at Azotus, & he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, til he came to Cefarea.

CHAP. IX.

3 The conuersion of Saul. 15 His vocation to the Apostleship. 20 His zeale to execute the same. 25 How he escapeth the Iewes conspiracies. 26 His access to the Apostles. 31 The prosperitie of the Church. 34 Peter healeth Aeneas. 40 Raiseth Tabitha. 42 He conuerteth many to Christ. 43 And lodgeth in a taners house.

And Saul yet breathing out threatenings & slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the hie Priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he founde any that were of that way (ether men or women) he might bring them bounde vnto Ierusalem.

Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe y<sup>e</sup> as he was come nere to Damascus, suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.

And he fel to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whome thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

He then bothe trembling and astonied, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I do? And y<sup>e</sup> Lord said vnto him, Arise and go into the citie, and it shalbe tolde thee what thou shalt do.

The men also which iorneyed with him, stood amased, hearing his voyce, but seeing no man.

And Saul arose from the grounde, and opened his eyes, but sawe no man. Then led they him by the hand, and broght him into Damascus,

Where he was thre dayes without sight, and nether ate nor dranke.

And there was a certeine disciple at Damascus named Ananias, & to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Beholde, I am here, Lord.

Then the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and go into y<sup>e</sup> strete which is called Straight, and seke in the house of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for beholde, he prayeth.

(And he sawe in a vision a man named Ananias coming in to him, & putting his hands hands on him, that he might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this mā, how much euil he hath done to thy sainctes at Ierusalē.

14 Moreouer here he hath the autoritie of the hie Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a <sup>h</sup> chosen vessel vnto me, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, & Kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I wil shewe him, how many things he must suffre for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus <sup>y</sup> appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holie Gost.

18 And immediatly there fel from his eyes as it had bene scales, & suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized,

19 And receiued meat, & was strenghtened. So was Saul certeine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straight way he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God,

21 So that all that heard him, were amased, and said, Is not this he, that destroyed the which called on this Name in Ierusalem, & came hither for that intent, <sup>y</sup> he shulde bring them bounde vnto the hie Priests?

22 But Saul encreased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, <sup>k</sup> confirming, that this was the Christ.

23 And after <sup>l</sup> that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes toke counsell together, to kill him.

24 But their laying await was knowne of Saul: now they <sup>m</sup> watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples toke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, he assaide to ioine him self with the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas toke him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had sene the Lord in the way, & that he had spoken vnto him, & how he had spokē boldly at Damascus in <sup>y</sup> Name of Iesus.

28 And he <sup>n</sup> was conuersant with <sup>a</sup> them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly <sup>o</sup> in the Name of the Lord Iesus, & spake and disputed with the Greciās: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they brought him to Cesarea, & sent him forth to <sup>1</sup> Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holie Gost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked through out all quarters, he came also to the sainctes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he founde a certeine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeres, and was sicke of the palsey.

34 The said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make vp thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

35 And <sup>p</sup> all that dwelt at Lydda and <sup>q</sup> Saron, sawe him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certeine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called <sup>r</sup> Dorcas) she was <sup>s</sup> full of good workes & almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and dyed: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuche as Lydda was nere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he wolde not delaye to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stode by him weping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and knelled downe, and praid, and turned him to the bodie, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she sawe Peter, fate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand & lift her vp, and called the <sup>t</sup> sainctes & widdowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowne throughout all Ioppa, and manie beleued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that he taryed manie dayes in Ioppa wth one Simon a <sup>u</sup> tanner.

CHAP. X.

3 Cornelius admonished by the Angel. 7 He sendeth to Ioppa. 11 The visio that Peter sawe. 17 How he was sent to Cornelius. 19 The Gentiles also receiue the Spirit, and are baptized.

1 Furthermore there was a certeine mā in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captaine of the bande called the Italian bande, A deuout mā, and <sup>v</sup> one that feared God with all his houtholde, which gaue muche almes to the people, and prayed God continually.

2 He sawe in a vision evidently (about the ninte houre of the day) an Angel of

<sup>x</sup> For she was restored to life, rather than others might haue occasion to beleue, and glorifie God, then for her owne sake. <sup>y</sup> Or, tanner.

<sup>z</sup> Who had forsaken all superstitions, & gaue him self to the true seruice of God.

God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 But when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said vnto him, Thy prayers & thine almes are come vnto remembrance before God.

5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, & call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, & a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iorney, and drewe nere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 Then waxed he an hungred, and wolde haue eatē; but while they made some thing readie, he fel into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessel was drawn vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in his self what this vision which he had sene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate,

18 And called, & asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Beholde, three men seke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, & go with them, and doute nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter wet downe to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, & said, Beholde, I am he whome ye seke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good reporte among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holie Angel, to send for thee into his house, se, and to heare thy wordes.

23 Then called he them in, & lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forth with them, and certeine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Caesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, & had called together his kinsmen, and special friends.

25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fel downe at his fete and worshipped him.

26 But Peter toke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my self am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, & founde manie that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye knowe that it is an vnlawful thing for a man that is a Iewe, to companie or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I shulde not call anie man polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying naye, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me.

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes ago, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I praid in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast wel done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persones.

35 But in euerie natiō he that feareth him, and worketh righteousnes, is accepted with him.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preache at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come. 29 And the remedie.

NOW the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard, that the Gentiles had also receiued the worde of God.

1 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision<sup>a</sup> contended against him,

2 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

3 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to<sup>b</sup> them, saying,

4 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I sawe this vision, A certeine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great shete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

5 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, & foules of the heauē.

6 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eat.

7 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at anie time entred into my mouth.

8 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done thre times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then beholde, immediatly there were thre men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I shulde go with them, without doubting: moreover these six brethren came with me, & we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, how he had sene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 He shal speake wordes vnto thee, whereby bothe thou and all thine house shalbe saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holie Gost fel on them, euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembred the worde of the Lord, how he said, * Iohn baptized with water, but ye shalbe c baptized with the holie Gost.

17 For as muche then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we beleued in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I colde let God?

18 When they heard these things, d they helde their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted e repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were f scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Streuen, walked throughout til they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

21 And the h hand of the Lord was with them so that a great number beleued & turned vnto the Lord.

23 Who when he was come & had sene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they wolde j cleaue vnto the Lord.

27 In those dayes, also came Prophetes from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.
28 And there stode vpon one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there shulde be great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.
29 Then the disciples, euerie man according to his habilitie, purposed to send succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.
30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

NOW about that time, <sup>a</sup> Herode the King stretched forth his hands to vex certaine of the Church.
2 And he killed Iames the brother of Iohn with the sword.
3 And when he sawe that it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further, to take Peter also (then were y<sup>e</sup> daies of vnleauened bread)
4 And whē he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passecouer to bring him forth to the people.
5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.
6 And when Herode wolde haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bounde with two chaines, and the keepers before the dore kept the prison.
7 And beholde, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fel off from his hands.
8 And the Angel said vnto him, Gird thy self, and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.
9 So Peter came out and followed him, & knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had sene a vision.
10 Now when they were past the first and the secōde watche, they came vnto the y<sup>r</sup> gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accorde, and they went out, and passed through one strete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to him self, he said, Now I know for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where manie were gathered together and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie dore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie dore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde how Peter stode before the entrie.

15 But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and whē thei had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed and went into another place.

18 Now as it was day, there was no smale trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for him, & founde him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidō, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and persuaded Blastus the Kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their courtrey was nourished by the Kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arrayed him self in royal apparel, and sate on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

23 But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not glorie vnto God, so that he was eatē of wormes, and gaue vp the goft.

24 And the worde of God grewe, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and toke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

1 THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certeine Prophetes and teachers, as Barnabas, & Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, & Manahen (which had bene broght vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they ministred to the Lord, & fasted, the holie Gost said, Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and praied, and laid their hands on them, and let them go.

4 And they, after they were sent forth of the holie Gost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And whē thei were at Salamis, thei preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they founde a certeine forcerer, a false prophet, being a Iewe, named Bariesus,

7 Which was with y Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the worde of God.

8 But Elymas, the forcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstode them, & sought to turne away the Deputie frō the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being ful of the holie Gost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O ful of all subtiltie and all mischief, the childe of the deuil, & enemye of all righteousnes, wilt y not cease to peruert the straight waies of y Lord?

11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, & thou shalt be blinde, & not se the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a miste and a darkenes, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he sawe what was done, beleued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when thei departed from Perga, thei came to Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law & Prophetes, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye haue anie worde of exhortacion for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, & with an high arme broght them out thereof.

18 And about the time of fortie yeres, suffered he their manners in the wildernes.

19 And he destroyed seuen nacions in the land of Chanaan, & deuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterwarde he gaue vnto them Iudges: about foure hundreth and fiftie yeres, vnto the time of Samuel y Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a King, and God gaue vnto them Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fortie yeres.

22 And after he had take him away, he raised vp Dauid to be their King, of whome he witnessed, saying, I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which wil do all things that I wil.

23 Of this mans sede hathe God accordig to his promes raised vp to Israel, the Saviour Iesus:

24 When Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, he said, Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there cometh one after me, whose shoe of his fete I am not worthie to lose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the worde of this saluacion sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they knewe him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophetes, which are red euerie Sabbath daye, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And thogh thei founde no cause of death in him, yet desired thei Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they toke him downe from the tre, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him vp from the dead.

31 And he was sene manie dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnessses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promes made vnto the fathers,

33 God hathe fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotē thee.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they wolde preache these wordes to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, manie of the Iewes, and proselytes that feared God, folowed Paul & Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole citie together, to heare y<sup>e</sup> worde of God.

45 But whē the Iewes sawe the people, they were ful of r enuie, & spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessarie that the worde of God shulde first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it fro you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of euerlasting life, lo, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shuldest be the saluacion vnto the end of the worlde.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord: and as manie as were ordeined vnto eternal life, beleued.

49 Thus the worde of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But y<sup>e</sup> Iewes stirred certaine deuoute & honorable womē, & the chief men of y<sup>e</sup> citie, & raised persecucio against Paul & Barnabas, & expelled the out of their coasts.

51 But they * shooke of the dust of their fete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioye, and with the holie Gost.

3 God giueth successe to his worde. 6 Paul and Barnabas preache at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra thei wolde do sacrifice to Barnabas & Paul, which refuse it, & exhorre the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith and pacience. 23 Appointe ministers. 26 And passing through manie places, make reports of their diligence at Antiochia.

And it came to passe in Iconiu, that they went bothe together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude bothe of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleued.

2 But the vnbeleuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lord, which gaue testimonie vnto the worde of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the citie were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made bothe of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to do them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, & vnto the region rounde about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 ¶ Now there sate a certeine man at Lystra, impotent in his fete, which was a creple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loude voyce, ¶ Stand vp right on thy fete. And he leaped vp, & walked.

11 Then whē the people sawe what Paul had done, thei lift vp their voyces, sayig in the speache of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenes of men.

13 Then Iupiters priest, which was before their citie, brought bulles with garlandes vnto the gates, & wolde haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, thei rent their clothes, & ran in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, O men, why do ye these things? We are euen men subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preache vnto you, that ye shulde turne from these vaine idoles vnto the living God, * which made heauen and earth, and the sea, & all things that in them are.

19 Then there came certeine Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had persuaded the people, stoned Paul, and drew him out of the citie, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood rounde about him, he arose vp, and came into the citie, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, & had taught manie, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia,

22 Confirming the disciples hearts, & exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming y<sup>e</sup> we must through manie afflictions entrie into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined the Elders by election in euerie Church, and praid, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whome they beleued.

24 Thus they went through out Pisidia, & came to Pamphilia.

25 And when they had preached the worde in Perga, they came downe to Attalia,

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preache at Antiochia, 39 And separate companie because of Iohn Marke.

Then came downe certeine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye can not be saued.

2 And when there was great dissention, and disputation by Paul & Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certeine other of them, shulde go vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles & Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioye vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But said they, certeine of the secte of the Pharises, which did beleue, rose vp, saying, that it was nedeful to circumcise the, and to commande them to kepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles & Elders came together to loke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, & said vnto them, Ye me & brethre, ye knowe that a good while ago, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth shulde heare the worde of the Gospel, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, in giuing vnto them the holie Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And he put no difference betwene vs & them, after that by faith he had purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on y<sup>e</sup> disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to beare?

11 But we beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saued, euen as they do.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas & Paul, which tolde what signes and wondres God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 Simeon hath declared, how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agre the wordes of the Prophetes, as it is written,

38 But Paul thoght it not mete to take him vnto their companie, which departed frō them from Pamphilia, and went not with them to the worke,

39 Then were they so stirred that they departed a sunder one from the other, so that Barnabas toke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

3 Therefore Paul wolde that he shulde go forth with him, & toke and a circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all, that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to kepe, ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and encreased in nombre daily.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone through out Phrygia, and the region of Galacia, they were forbidden of the holie Gost to preache the worde in Asia.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his slepe, and when he sawe the prison dores open, he drewē out his sworde and wolde haue killed him self, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

34 And when he had broght them into his house, he set meat before them, and reioycied that he with all his household beleued in God.

35 And when it was day, the gouernours sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these wordes vnto Paul, saying, The gouernours haue sent to lose you: now therefore get you hence, and go in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncōdemned, which are Romaines, they haue cast vs into prison, & now wolde they put vs out priuely? nay verely: but let them come & bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the gouernours, who feared when they heard that they were Romaines.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and broght them out, and desired them to departe out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had sene the brethre, they comforted them, and departed.

which haue subuerted the state of the worlde, and here they are,

7 Whome Iason hath receiued, and these all do against the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul & Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the worde with all readines, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore manie of them beleued, & of honeste women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the worde of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by & by brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduit Paul, brought him vnto Athenes: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they shulde come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athenes, his spirit was stirred in him, when he sawe the citie subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daily with whome soeuer he met.

18 Then certeine philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some said, What wil this babler say? Others said, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, & the resurrectiō.)

19 And they toke him, and brought him into Mars strete, saying, May we not knowe, what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certeine strange things vnto our eares: we wolde knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, gaue them selues to nothing els, but ether to tel, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stode in the middes of Mars strete, & said, Ye me of Athenes, I perceiue that in all things ye are to superstitious.

23 For I have founde because of y<sup>e</sup> resort of people whose eares euer tickled to heare newes.

23 For as I passed by, & behelde your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein was written, VNTO THE VNKNOEN GOD. Whome ye then ignorantly worshipp, him shewe I vnto you.

24 God that made the worlde, & all things that are therein, seing that he is Lord of heauen & earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands,

25 Neither is worshipped with mens hāds, as though he needed any thing, seing he giueth to all life and breath and all things,

26 And hath made of one blood all mankinde, to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath assigned the times which were ordeined before, and the boundes of their habitation,

27 That they shulde seke the Lord, if so be they might haue groped after him, and founde him, though douteles he be not farre from euerie one of vs.

28 For in him we liue, and moue, and haue our being, as also certeine of your owne Poetes haue said, For we are also his generacion.

29 Forasmuche then, as we are the generacion of God, we ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto gold, or siluer, or stone grauen by arte and the inuention of man.

30 And the time of this ignorāce God regarded not: but now he admonisheth all men euerie where to repent,

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which he wil iudge the worlde in righteousness, by that man whome he hath appointed, whereof he hath giuen an assurance to all me, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of the resurrectiō from the dead, some mocked, & other said, We wil heare thee againe of this thing.

33 And so Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certeine men claue vnto Paul, and beleued: among whome was also Denis Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

And when they resisted and blasphemed, he shooke his raiment, & said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: fro hence forth wil I go vnto the Gentiles.

So he departed thence, and entred into a certeine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue,

And Crispus the chief ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his housholde: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued & were baptized.

Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & holde not thy peace.

For I am with thee, and no man shal lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

So he continued there a yere and six moneths, and taught the worde of God among them.

Now when Gallio was Deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accorde against Paul, and broght him to the iudgement seat,

And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euil dede, o ye Iewes, I wolde according to reason mainteine you.

But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your Law, loke ye to it your selues: for I wil be no iudge of those things.

And he draue them from the iudgement seat.

Then toke all the Grecians Sosthenes the chief ruler of the Synagogue, and bet him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he toke leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he wolde not consent,

But bade them fare wel, saying, I must nedes kepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I wil returne againe vnto you, *if God wil. So he sailed from Ephesus.

¶ And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: & when he had saluted the Church, he wet downe vnto Antiochia.

Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went through the countrey of Galacia & Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

And a certeine Iewe named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, & mightie in the Scriptures.

The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, & he spake feruently in the Spirit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, & knewe but the baptisme of Iohn onely.

And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whome when Aquila & Priscilla had heard, they toke him vnto them, and expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly.

And when he was minded to go into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receaue him: and after he was come thither, he holpe the much which had beleued through grace.

For mightely he confuted publikely the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

The holie Gost is giuen by Pauls hands. ¶ The Iewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. ¶ The rashenes, and punishment of the conuicers, & the frute that came thereof. ¶ Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana. ¶ Yet God deliuereth his and appeaseth it by the towne Clarke.

¶ And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and founde certeine disciples,

And said vnto the, Haue ye receiued the holie Gost sence ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so muche as heard whether there be an holie Gost.

And he said vnto them, Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

Then said Paul, Iohn verely baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they shulde beleue in him, which shulde come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and to be dedicate and consecrate vnto him: to be baptized in the death of Christ, or for the dead, or into one bodie, vnto remission of sinnes, is, that sinned by Christs death may be abolished, and dye in vs, & that we may growe in Christ our head, and that our sinnes may be washed away by the blood of Christ. * Mat. 3. 11. mar. 1. 8. the holie Gost came on them, & they spake the tongues, and prophecied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer he went into the Synagogue, & spake boldly for the space of thre moneths, disputing & exhorting to the things that apperteyne to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certeyne were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euil of the way of God before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schole of one Tyrannus.

d That is, of a certeyne man so called.

¶ From nine a clocke vnto ten.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the worde of the Lord Iesus, bothe Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no smale miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his bodie were brought vnto the sicke, kerchefts or handkerchefts, and the diseases departed from them, and the euil spirits went out of them.

Or, napkins. e This was to authorize the Gospel, and to confirme Pauls ministerie, not to cause men to worship him or his napkins.

Or, conuincers. f They abuse Pauls autoritie, & without any vocation of God, vsurpe that which is not in mans power.

13 Then certeyne of the vagabonde Iewes, exorcists, toke in hand to name ouer the which had euil spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We iadiure you by Iesus, whome Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certeyne sonnes of Sceua a Iewe, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome y euil spirit was, ran on them, & ouercame them, & preuailed against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes & Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, & feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and confessed, and shewed their workes.

g That is, declared by confession of their sinnes and by their good workes y they were faithful. h This mouneth of our money about 1000 markes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bokes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, & founde it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grewe mightely, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaja, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also se Rome.

i By the motion of the holie Gost, he vnderooke this iorney.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

k That is, about the state of the Christians: for they contemned the Christians because they left the olde religion, & brought in another trade of doctrine.

23 And the same time there arose no finale trouble about that way.

24 For a certeyne man named Demetrius a silversmith, which made siluer temples of Diana, brought great gaines vnto the craftes men:

Or, priuies. l What impleme doeth not counterfeit drive a man vnto?

25 Whome he called together, with the workemen of like things, and said, Sirs, ye knowe that by this craft we haue our goods.

m He was moued with his profit: & the others for their bellies, so that they wolde rather lose both their liues, & religion then their filthy gaines.

26 Moreouer ye se and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almoste throughout all Asia this Paul hath persuaded, & turned away muche people, saying, That they be not gods which are made with hands, n Meaning their arte and occupation.

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the state shulde be reproued, but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana shulde be nothing esteemed, and that it wolde come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia and the world worshippeth, shulde be destroyed.

o Religion is his seconde argument which he lesse esteemeth, then his profit, and therefore putteth it last, which thing is contrary to the doing of the faithful: for they preferre religion aboue all.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

p He groueth his religion vpon the multitude & autoritie of y worlde, as do the Papistes.

29 And the whole citie was full of confusion, and they rushed into the commune place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Pauls companions of his iourney.

q And let him in an hie place where the people coulde not come nere him but whēce he might wel heare his voyce.

30 And whē Paul wolde haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certeyne also of the chief of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he wolde not present him self in the commune place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assemblie was out of order, and the more parte knewe not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie drew forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and wolde haue excused the matter to the people.

r Antiquitie & the countenances of the Priests brought in this superstition: for it is written that the temple being repaired seuen times, this idole was neuer chaged.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute almoste for the space of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

s He pacifieth the people by worldlie wisdom, & hath no respect to religion.

35 Then the towne clarke when he had stayed the people, said, Ye me of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to do nothing rashly.

t By such conclusions y worlde is moued easily abused.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue nether commit sacrilege, neither do blaspheme your goddesse.

u Which is called otherwise.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any mā, the lawe is open, & there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But

- 39 But if ye inquire anie thing concerning other matters it maye be determined in a lawfull assemblie.
- 40 For we are euen in ieopardie to be accused of this daies sedicion, forasmuche as there is no cause, whereby we may giue a reason of this concourse of people.
- 41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assemblie departe.

CHAP. XX.

Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raiseth vp Eutyphus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his praier with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOW after the tumulte was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embrased them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parties, and had exhorted them with manie wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there thre moneths, because the Iewes laid waite for him, as he was about to faile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, & of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These wet before, & taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forthe from a Philippi, after the daies of vnleauened bread, & came vnto them to Troas in fīue daies, where we abode seuen daies.

7 And the first day of the weke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto the, readie to departe on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were manie lightes in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a window a certēine yong man, named Eutyphus, fallen into a depe slepe: & as Paul was log preaching, he ouercome with slepe, fell downe from the third lofte, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and laid him self vpon him, & embrased him, saying, Trouble not your selues; for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he commoned a long while til the dawning of the daye, and so he departed.

12 And they broght the boie aliue, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went forthe to ship, & sailed vnto the cite of Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and wolde himself go a fote.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next daye we arriued at Samos, and rariied at Trogyllium: the next daye we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to faile by Ephesus, because he wolde not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if he colde possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecoste.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the Elders of y Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye knowe fro the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 ¶ Seruing the Lord with all modestie, and with manie teares, and tentacions, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Iewes,

20 And how I kept & backe nothing that was profitable, but haue shewed you, and taught you openly, & throughout euerie house,

21 Witnessing bothe to the Iewes, & to the Grecians the repentance towarde God, & faith towarde our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now beholde, I go bounde in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and knowe not what things shal come vnto me there,

23 Saue that the holie Gost witnesseth in euerie cite, saying, that bandes and afflictions abide me.

24 But I passe not at all, nether is my life deare vnto my self, so that I may fulfil my course with ioye, and the ministracion which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie y Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now beholde, I knowe that hence forth ye all, through whome I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shal se my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you all the counsel of God.

28 Take hede therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holie Gost hath made you Ouerseers, to fede the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departing shal grievous wolues entre in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreouer of your owne selues shal arise speaking peruerse things, to drawe disciples after them.

31 ¶ Therefore watche and remember, that by the space of thre yeres I ceased not to

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fel on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sorie for the wordes which he spake, That they shulde se his face no more. And thei accompanied him vnto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

3 The commune prayers of the faithful & Philipps foure daughters propheteesses 23 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus & others forespake, although he was otherwise counseled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

1 And as we lauched forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Cods, and the daye following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we founde a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboarde, & set forth.

3 And when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed towarde Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde disciples, we taryed there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul a through the Spirit, that he shulde not go vp to Ierusalem.

5 But whē the daies were ended, we departed, and went our way, and thei all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: & we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we toke ship, & thei returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one daye.

8 And the next day, Paul & thei that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cefarea: and we entred into the house of Philippe the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters virgines, which did prophecie.

10 And as we taryed there manie dayes, there came a certeine Prophet fro Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and fere, and said, Thus saith the holie Ghost, So shal the Iewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliuer him into the hands of Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, bothe we and other of the same place besoght him that he wolde not go vp to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What do ye weping and breaking mine heart? For I am readie not to be bounde onely, but also to dye at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he wolde not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The wil of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we trusted vp our fardeles, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certeine of the disciples of Cefarea, & broght with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whome we shulde lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next daye Paul went in with vs vnto James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he tolde by ordre all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministracion.

20 So when thei heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest, brother, how manie thousand Iewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and saist, that they ought not to circumcise their children, nether to liue after the customes.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must nedes come together: for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we saye to thee. We haue foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Them take, & purifie thy self with the, and contribute with them, that they maye shauer their heades: and all shal knowe, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest and keepst the Law.

supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, & the peo-drew him out of the Tēple, & forthewith the dores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tydings came vnto the chief Captaine of the bāde, that all Ierusalem was on an vp-

32 Who immediatly toke souldiers and Centurions, and ran<sup>n</sup> downe vnto them:
and when they sawe the chief Capaine &
the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief Captaine came nere and toke him, & commanded him to be bounde with two chaines, and demāded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when he colde not knowe the certeinētie for the tumulte, he cōman-

35 And whē he came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for y<sup>e</sup>

36 For the multitude of y<sup>e</sup> people followed after, crying, Away with him.

of the things, which thou hast sene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarieſt thou? Arise, and be baptized, and waſhe away thy ſinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.

e He ſheweth that ſinnes ca not be waſhed away, but by Chriſt who is the ſubſtance of Baptiſme: in whom alſo is comprehended the Father & the holie Goſt.

Chap. 8. 3.

17 ¶ And it came to paſſe, that when I was come againe to Ieruſalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance,

18 And ſawe him ſaying vnto me, Make haſte, & get thee quickly out of Ieruſalem: for they wil not receiue thy witnes cōcerning me.

19 Then I ſaid, Lord, they knowe y I * priſoned, and bet in euerie Synagogue them that beleued in thee.

Chap. 7. 58.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was ſhed, I alſo * ſtoode by, and conſented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that ſlewe him.

21 Thē he ſaid vnto me, Depart: for I wil ſend thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard vnto this worde, but thē they liſt vp their voyces, and ſaid, Away with ſuche a felowe from the earth: for it is not mete that he ſhulde liue.

23 And as they cryed and caſt of their clothes, and threwe duſt into the aire,

24 The chief captaine commanded him to be led into the caſtle, & bade that he ſhulde be ſcourged, and examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed ſo on him.

25 And as they bounde him with thongs, Paul ſaid vnto the Cēturion that ſtoode by, Is it lawful for you to ſcourge one that is a Romaine, and not condemned?

f Not becauſe he was borne at Rome, but by reaſon of his citie: for Tarſus was inhabited by the Romains, and was their Colonia, whereof read cha. 16. 12.

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chief captaine, ſaying, Take hede what thou doeſt: for this man is a Romaine.

27 Then the chief captaine came, and ſaid to him, Tell me, art thou a Romaine? And he ſaid, Yea.

28 And the chief captaine answered, With a great ſumme obtained I this burgeſſhip. Then Paul ſaid, But I was ſo borne.

g This priuiledge was oft times giuen in recompence of ſeruice to them that were farre of Rome, & to their childre, though they were not borne in the citie.

29 Then ſtraight way they departed from him, which ſhulde haue examined him: & the chief captaine alſo was afraid, after he knewe that he was a Romaine, and that he had bounde him.

30 On the next day, becauſe he wolde haue knowne the certeinetic wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he loſed him from his bondes, & commanded the hie Priests and all their Council to come together: and he brought Paul, and ſet him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answer of Paul being ſmit, and the overthrowe of his enemies. 21 The Lord encourageth him. 33 And becauſe the Iewes layed waite for him, he is ſent to Ceſarea.

And Paul behelde carneſtly y Council, and ſaid, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conſcience ſerued God vntil this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded thē that ſtoode by, to ſmite him on the mouth.

3 Then ſaid Paul to him, God * wil ſmite thee, thou whited wall: for thou ſitteſt to iudge me according to the Law, and commandeſt thou me to be ſmiten contrary to the Law?

4 And thē that ſtoode by, ſaid, Reuielt thou Gods hie Priests?

5 Then ſaid Paul, I b knewe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou ſhalt not ſpeake euil of y Ruler of thy people.

6 But whē Paul perceiued that the one parte were of the Sadduces, and the other of y Pharises, he cried in the Council, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the ſonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and * resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had ſaid this, there was a diſſenſion betwene the Pharises and the Sadduces, ſo that the multitude was deuided.

8 * For the Sadduces ſay that there is no resurrection, nether Angel, nor ſpirit: but y Pharises confeſſe * bothe.

9 Then there was a great crye: & the Scribes of the Pharises parte roſe vp, and ſtrove, ſaying, We finde none euil in this mā: but if a ſpirit or an Angel haſte ſpoken to him, let vs not fight againſt God.

10 And when there was a great diſſenſion, the chief captaine, fearing leſt Paul ſhulde haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the ſouldiers to go downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the caſtel.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord ſtoode by him, & ſaid, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou haſt teſtified of me in Ieruſalem, ſo muſt thou beare witnes alſo at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certeine of the Iewes made an aſſembly, and bounde them ſelues with an * othe, ſaying, that they wolde nether eat nor drinke, til they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conſpiracie.

14 And they came to the chief Priests and Elders, and ſaid, We haue bounde our ſelues with a ſolēne othe, that we wil eat nothing, vntil we haue ſlaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Council ſignifie to the chief captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though ye wolde knowe ſome thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come nere, wil be readie to kill him.

a Paul doeth not curſe the hie Priest, but denounceth ſharply y puniſhment of God & ſhulde liſt vp him, who vnder preſence of mainteining y Law doeth tranſgreſſe it.

Exod. 22. 11. b He made this excuſe as it were in mockerie, as if he wolde ſay, I knowe nothing in this man worthe y offence of the hie Priest.

Phil. 3. 5.

chap. 24. 15. c He denieth not but there were other points, but he expreſſeth that for the which the Sadduces that were the chief gouerners, hated him moſte for.

Mat. 22. 23. d Vnderſtanding both kinde, the Angels & the ſpirits, which he concludeth vnder one, & the resurrection w is the other parte.

e The worde ſignifieth curſing, as when a man either ſweareth, voweth or wither him ſelf to die, or to be giuen to the deuill, except he bring his purpoſe to paſſe.

16 But

This declaration that God hath so many means to deliver his children out of danger as there are creatures in the world, so that the aduersaries can not easily against them, but he hath infinite means to defeat their wicked practices.

16 But when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying await, he went, and entred into the castle, and tolde Paul,

17 And Paul called one of y<sup>e</sup> Ceturions vnto him, & said, Bring this yong man vnto the chief captaine: for he hathe a certeine thing to shewe him.

18 So he toke him, and broght him to the chief captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong mā vnto thee, which hathe some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chief captaine toke him by the hand, and went aparte with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou woldest bring for the Paul to morow into the Council, as thogh they wolde inquire somewhat of him more perfetely.

21 But let them not persuaide thee: for there lie in waite for him of them, more then fourtie men, which haue bounde them selues with an othe, that they wil nether eat nor drinke, til they haue killed him: and now are they readie, and wait for thy promes.

22 The chief captaine then let the yong man departe, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certeine Centurions, saying, Make readie two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsmen thre score and ten, and two hundred, with dartes at the thirde houre of the night.

24 And let them make readie an horse that Paul being set on, may be broght safe vnto Felix the Gouvernour.

25 And he wrote an epistle in this maner, Claudius Lysias vnto the moste noble Gouvernour Felix sendeth greting.

26 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and shulde haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, perceiuing that he was a Romaine.

27 And when I wolde haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I broght him forthe into their council.

28 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthe of death, or of bondes.

29 And whē it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Fare wel.

30 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, toke Paul, and broght him by night to Antipatris.

31 And the next day, they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned vnto the castel.

32 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the epistle to the Gouvernour, & presented Paul also vnto him.

33 So when the Gouvernour had red it, he asked of what prouince he was: and whē he vnderstode that he was of Cilicia, 34 I wil heare thee, said he, when thine accusers also are come, & commanded him to be kept in Herodes iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix gropeth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 Ad after leaueth him in prison.

1 Now after fise dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certeine orator, which appeared before the Gouvernour against Paul.

2 And whē he was called forthe, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seing that we haue obtained great quietnes through thee, and that manie worthie things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, moste noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that y<sup>e</sup> woldest heare vs of thy courtelie a fewe wordes.

5 Certainely we haue founde this man a pestilent felowe, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the worlde and a chief maintainer of the secte of the Nazarites:

6 And hathe gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we toke him, and wolde haue iudged him according to our Law:

7 But the chief captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence toke him out of our hands,

8 Comāding his accusers to come to thee: of whome thou maist (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouvernour had beckened vnto him that he shulde speake, answered, I do the more gladly answer for my self, for asmuche as I knowe that thou hast bene of manie yeres a iudge vnto this nation,

11 Seing that thou maist knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vnto worship in Ierusalem.

12 And thei nether founde me in the Temple disputing with anie man, nether making vproate among the people, nether in factions. f Not that his purpose was to worship there, but the Iewes so founde him by the counsell of others: for he thought to haue worshipped the simple brethren, and to stop the enemies mouthes.

i By this name the Romaines called ene ric country which they had subdued.

a For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of y<sup>e</sup> murderers, & put the Egyptian to flight which raised vp tumultes in Iudea: for the orator praiseth him: otherwise he was bothe cruel & covetous, read Ioseph li. 20. Antiqu. chap. 11. & 12. & li. 2. de bello Iudaico chap. 12.

b Or heretic: for so the wicked termed y<sup>e</sup> true Christian religion.

c Which taught the people to maintaine their libertie against the Romaines: and thogh y<sup>e</sup> accusers approued bothe this secte and their doctrine, yet to get Paul punished, thei seemed to condēne it.

d Or, captaine of a thousand.

e Or, gouernour: for before this he ruled Trachonites, Batanea, and Gaulanites.

f So that thou art not ignorant of their

the Synagogues, nor in the citie.

13 Nether can they proue the things, whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleuing all things which are written in the Law & the Prophetes,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they them selues loke for also, shalbe bothe of iust and vniust.

16 And hercin I endeavour my self to haue alway a cleare conscience towarde God, & towarde men.

17 Now after many yeres, I came and brought almes to my nacion & offrings.

18 * At what time, certeine Iewes of Asia founde me purified in the Temple, 19 Nether with multitude, nor with tumult.

20 Who ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had oght against me.

21 Or let these them selues say, if they haue founde any vniust thing in me, while I stode in the Council,

22 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them, * Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he differred them, & said, When I shal more perfectly knowe the things which concerne this way, by the coming of Lysias y chief Capitaine, I wil decise your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to kepe Paul, and that he shulde haue case, and that he shulde forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certeine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, & he called for the Paul, & heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of righteousness, and temperance, & of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, & answered, Go thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I wil call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money shulde haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might lose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix rourne: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bounde.

CHAP. XXV.

¶ The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself. 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 And he is brought forth.

¶ When Festus was then come into the prouince, after thre dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

¶ Then the high Priest, and the chief of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besoght him,

¶ And desired fauour against him, that he wolde send for him to Ierusalem: and they laid wait to kil him by the way.

¶ But Festus answered, that Paul shulde be kept at Cesarea, & y he him self wolde shortly departe thither.

¶ Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be anie wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.

¶ Now when he had taried among the no more then ten dayes, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, & commanded Paul to be brought.

¶ And when he was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stode about him and laid manie and grievous complaints against Paul, which they colde not proue, ¶ Forasmuche as he answered, that he had nether offended anie thing against y Law of the Iewes, nether against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

¶ Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

¶ Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I oght to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou verie wel knowest.

¶ For if I haue done wrong, or committed anie thing worthie of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

¶ Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

¶ And after certeine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

¶ And when they had remained there manie dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certeine man left in prison by Felix.

¶ Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

¶ To whome I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romaines for fauour to deliuer anie man to the death before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend him self, concerning the crime.

¶ Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I sate on the d Seing him self betrayed by the ambition of the iudge, he desired that in consideration of his freedom, he may be sent to Rome.

on the iudgement seat, and cōmanded the man to be broght forth.

18 Against whome when the accusers stode vp, they broght no crime of suche things as I supposed:

19 But had certeine questions against him of their owne <sup>b</sup> superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whome Paul affirmed to be alieue.

<sup>a</sup> This worde doeth also signifye religion: but he speakeh in contempt of the true doctrine.

20 And because I doubted of suche maner of question, I asked him whether he wolde go to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because he appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I cōmanded him to be kept, til I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I wolde also heare the man my self. To morowe, said he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morow when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the Cōmune hall with the chief captaines and chief men of the citie, at Festus commandement Paul was broght forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, ye se this man, about whome all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpō me, bothe at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue anie longer.

25 Yet haue I founde nothing worthie of death, y<sup>e</sup> he hath cōmitted: neuertheles, seing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whome I haue no certeine thing to write vnto my Lord: wherefore I haue broght him forth vnto you, & specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, y<sup>e</sup> after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

<sup>a</sup> Flatterers first vied to call Tyrants by this name, and after it so grew into vici, that vertuous princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinius epistles to Traian.

27 For me thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shewe the causes which are layed against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approved by rehearsing his conuersation: 25 His modest answer against the injuries of Festus.

1 THEN Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy self. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for him self.

2 I thinke my self happie, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this daye before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among y<sup>e</sup> Iewes: wherefore, I beseeche thee, to heare me patiently.

<sup>a</sup> Forasmuche as he best vnderstande the religion, he ought to be more attentive.

4 As touching my life from my childehode and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, knowe all the Iewes,

5 Which knewe me heretofore (if they wolde testifie) that after the moste straitest sect of our religion I liued a Pharise.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promes made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for y<sup>e</sup> which hopes sake, o King Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

<sup>b</sup> Paul speakeh of this sect according to the peoples estimation who preferred it as moste holie about all others: for their doctrine was least corrupt.

8 Why shulde it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God shulde raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my self, that I ought to do manie contrarie things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: <sup>Chap. 8. 9.</sup> for manie of the Sainctes I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued autoritie of the high Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished the throughout all y<sup>e</sup> Synagogues, and cōpelled them to blaspheme, and being more mad against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to <sup>Chap. 9. 8.</sup> Damascus with autoritie, & cōmission from the high Priests,

13 At midday, o King, I sawe in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightness of the sunne, shine rounde about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickles.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus whome thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy fete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnes, bothe of the things which thou hast sene, & of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the <sup>d</sup> people, & fro the Gētiles, vnto whome now I send thee,

18 To <sup>e</sup> opē their eyes, that they may turne from darkenes to light, and fro the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

<sup>e</sup> Although this properly apperteineth vnto God, yee he applieth this vnto his ministers vnto whome he giueth his holie Spirit.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenlie vision, 20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudea, and then to the Gētiles, that they shulde repent, and turne to God, and do workes worthie amendement of life.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught me in the Temple, and went about to kil me.

<sup>Chap. 21. 30.</sup>

Paul counted mad. The Actes. Pauls counfel.

22 Neuertheles, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing bothe to smal & to great, sayig none other things, then those which the Prophetes & Moses did say shulde come,

23 To wit, that Christ shulde suffer, and that he shulde be the first that shulde rise from the dead, and shulde shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for him self, Festus said with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy self: muche learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, & noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of trueth and sobernes.

26 For the King knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophetes? I know that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christiā.

29 The Paul said, I wolde to God that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to daye, were bothe almost, & altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone aparte, they talked betwene them selues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthie of death, nor of bondes.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This mā might haue bene losed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

Pauls dangerous viage and his companie towards Rome. 44 How, and where they arrive.

Now when it was concluded, that we shulde saile into Italie, they deliuered bothe Paul, & certeine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the bande of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium purposing to saile by the costes of Asia, and launched forthe, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, & vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: & Iulius courteously entreated Paul, & gaue him libertie to go vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, and sailed harde by Cyprus, because the windes were contrarie.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion founde a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly manie dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed harde by Candie, nereto Salomone,

8 And with muche a do sailed beyonde it, and came vnto a certeine place called the Faire hauens, nere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when muche time was spent, and sailing was now ieoperdous, because also the Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted the,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I se that this viage wil be with hurt & muche damage, not of the lading & shippe onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles, Centurion beleued rather the gouernour & the master of the ship, the those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, manie toke counfel to departe thence, if by anie meanes they might attein to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lieth towarde the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the southerne winde blewe softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, losed nerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anone after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, & colde not resist the winde, we let her go, & were caryed away.

16 And we ra vnder a litle yle named Clauda, and had muche a do to get the boat.

17 Which they toke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the vessel, and so were caryed.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceding tempest, they lightened the shippe.

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the takling of the ship.

20 And when nether sunne nor starres in manie dayes appeared, and no smal tēpest lay vpon vs, all hope that we shulde be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stode forthe in the middes of the, and said, Syrs, ye shulde haue hearkened to me, and not haue losed from Candie: so shulde ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shalbe so as it hath 26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certeine yland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caryed to & fro in the <sup>k</sup> A-driaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen demed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And founde, and founde it twentie fathoms: & when they had gone a litle further, they founde againe, and founde fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into some rough places, they cast fou-re ankers out of the sterne, & wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, & had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as thogh they wolde haue cast ankers out of the foreship,

31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye can not be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut of the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be daye, Paul exhorter them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourteenth daye that ye haue raryed, and continued <sup>m</sup> fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhorte you to take meat:
for this is for your sauegarde: for there shal not <sup>n</sup> an heere fall from the head of anie of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he toke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good courage, & they also toke meat.

37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundred, thre score and fixtene soules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was daye, they knewe not the countrey, but they spyed a certeine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed the ship vnto the sea, and losed the rudder bondes, and hoyfed vp the maine saile to the winde, & drewe to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the fore parte stucke fast, and colde not be moued, but the hinder parte was broke with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsel was <sup>o</sup> to kil the prisoners, lest anie of them, when he had swome out, shulde flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, staied them from this counsel, and commanded that they that colde swimme, shul-de cast them selues first into the sea, and go out to land:

44 And the other, some on boardes, & so-came to passe, y they came all safe to land.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the general Captaine: but Paul was s<sup>u</sup>ffred to dwel by him self with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chief of the Iewes together: & when they were come, he said vnto them, Men & brethren, thogh I haue committed nothing agāst the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalē into the hands of the Romaines.

18 Who when they had examined me, wolde haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to se<sup>e</sup> you, and to speake with you: for the hope<sup>h</sup> of Israels sake, I am bounde with this chaine.

h That is, for Iesus Christs cause, whome they had long looked for as he that shulde be y redeemer of y worlde.

21 Then they said vnto him, We nether receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, nether came anie of the brethré that shewed or spake anie euil of thee.

22 But we wil heare of thee what thou thin-kelt: for as cōcerning this secte, we knowe that euerie where it is spoken agāst.

23 And when they had appointed him a daye, there came manie vnto him into his lodging, to whome he expounded and testified the<sup>i</sup> kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus bothe out of the Law of Moses and out of the Prophetes, from morning to night.

i That this kingdome, & was spoken of by the Prophetes, was offered vnto them by the cōming of Christ.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, and some beleued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among them selues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one worde, to wit, Wel spake y holie Gost by Esaia the Prophet vnto our fathers,

26 Saying, *<sup>k</sup> Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shal heare, and shal not vnderstand, and seing ye shal se, and not perceiue.

k Hereby the hearts of the infideles ought to be mollified, & y weaklings confirmed that they be not offended by the stubbornnes of the wicked.

28 Be it knowne therefore vnto you, that this saluacion of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shal heare it.

l The worde of God healeth when the vertue of the Spirit is ioyned w it: & it is preached generally, y all might be inexcusable.

29 And when he had said these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among them selues.

30 And Paul remained two yeres ful in an house hired for him self, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, & teaching those things, which concerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all boldenes of speache, without let.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared towarde man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption coulde not fulfil the Law, yea, committed moste abominably, bothe against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindeful of his promes made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleuers, ordeined that mans saluation shulde onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles shulde be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iuste onely through faith, and yet afterwarde receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent, that none shulde thinke that the covenant which God made to him, and his posteritie, was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed seede) or els beleued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserve the Iewes, the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the verie strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promes. The cause whereof is the onelie wil of God: forasmuche as of his fre mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iuste iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes shulde not be to muche beaten downe, nor the Gentiles to muche puffed vp, the example of Elias prometh, that God hathe yet his elect euen of the natural posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it procedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length wil stretch towarde the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them bothe. This groundeworke of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian maners followe: teaching euerie man to walke in roundenes of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenes, reuerencing, and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting of the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally S. Paul after his commendacions to the brethren exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God vnto saluatiō to euerie one that beleueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the Grecian.

17 For by it the righteousness of God is reueiled, from faith to faith: as it is writtē, *The iuste shal liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all vngodlines, and vnrighteousnes of men, which withholde the trueth in vnrighteousnes,

19 Forasmuche as y, which may be known of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they shulde be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knewe God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenes.

22 When they professed them selues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, & of birdes, and foure footed beastes, & of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vnclēnes, to defile their owne bodies betwene the selues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the natural vse of the woman, and burned in their luste one toward another, and man with man wrought filthines, & receiued in them selues suche recompense of their error, as was mete:

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnes, fornication, wickednes, couetousnes, maliciousnes, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of disceite, taking all things in the euil parte, whisperers,

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and retest in the Law, and gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his wil, and allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And persuadest thy self that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenes.

20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore, wistest another, teachest thou not thy self? y that preacheest, A man shulde not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that saist, A man shulde not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Law, through breaking the Law dishonorest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written:

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Law: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision kepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it kepe the Law) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Iewe, which is one outward: nether is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe which is one within, & the circumcision of the heart, in the spirit, not in y letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Having granted some prerogatives to the Iewes, because of Gods fre and stable promes, 10 He proueth by the Scriptures, bothe Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 And to be iustified by grace through faith, & not by workes, 31 And so the Law to be established.

1 What is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?

2 Muche euerie maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what, though some did not beleue? shall their vnbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and euerie man a liar, as it is writtē, That thou mightest be iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

5 Now if our vnrighteousnes commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake as a man.)

6 God forbid: els how shall God iudge the worlde?

7 For if y veritie of God hath more abused through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why do we not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, bothe Iewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne.

10 As it is writtē, There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue vsed their tongues to deceit: the poyson of aspes is vnder their lippes.

14 Whose mouth is ful of cursing and bitterness.

15 Their fete are swift to sheade blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes,

17 And the way of peace they haue not known.

18 The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Now we knowe that whatsoeuer the Law saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Law, that euerie mouth may be stopped, and all the worlde be culpable before God.

20 Therefore by the workes of the Law shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Law cometh the knowledge of sinne.

21 But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, hauing witness of the Law and of the Prophetes, 22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are deprived of the glorie of God,

24 And are iustified frely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

1 WHat shal we say then, that Abraham our father hath founde a cocerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what faith the Scripture? * Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette,

5 But to him that worketh not, but bele-ueth in him that iustificieth the vngodlie, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessed-nes of the mā, vnto whome God imputeth righteousnes without workes, saying,

7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the mā, to whome the Lord im-puteth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednes then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vn-circumcised.

11 * After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as y<sup>e</sup> seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was vncircu-cised, that he shulde be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promes that he shulde be the heire of the worlde, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law, be heires, faith is made voyde, & the promes is made of none effect.

15 For the Law causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promes might be sure to all the seade, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nacions) euen before God whome he beleued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as thogh they were.

18 Which Abraham aboue hope, beleued vnder hope, that he shulde be the father of many nacions: according to that which was spoken to him, * So shal thy seade be.

19 And he not weake in the faith, confidered not his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almost an hundreth yere olde, nether the deadnes of Saras wombe.

20 Nether did he doute of the promes of God through vbeliefe, but was strengthened in y<sup>e</sup> faith, & gaue glorie to God,

21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to do it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him
for righteousness.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness,

24 But also for vs, to whome it shalbe imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holie Ghost, which is giue vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, dyed for the vngodlie.

7 Douteles one wil scarce dye for a righteous man: but yet for a good mā it may be that one dare dye.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seing y while we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for vs.

9 Muche more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shal be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, muche more being reconciled, we shal be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome we haue now receiued y atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the worlde, and death by sinne, and so death wet ouer all men: for as muche as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like maner of the transgression of Adam, which was y figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, muche more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Nether is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the faute came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by y offence of one, death reigned through one, muche more shal they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise the as by the offence of one the faute came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one the benefite abounded toward all men to y iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shal many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the Law entred thereupon that the offence shulde abunde: neuertheless where sinne abounded, there grace abounded muche more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternal life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man shulde glorie in the flesh, but rather seke to subdue it to the Spirit. 3 He sheweth by the vertue & end of Baptisme. 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life. 21 Setting before mens eyes the rewards of sinne and righteousness.

1 What shal we say then: Shal we continue stil in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shal we, that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Knowe ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so we also shulde walke in newnes of life.

5 For if we be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shal we be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the bodie of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we shulde not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleue that we shal liue also with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from y dead, dyeth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he dyed, he dyed once to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are dead to sinne, but are aliue to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortal bodie, that ye shulde obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Nether giue ye your membres as weapons of vnrighousnes vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your membres as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 For sinne shal not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace.

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the maner of man, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue given your members seruants to vncleannes and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holines.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What frute had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your frute in holines, and the end, euerlasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gifte of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1.7 12 The use of the Law, 6.24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmitie of the faithful. 23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh & the Spirit.

1 KNowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the law to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, she take another man, she shal be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Law, so that she is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to Law by the bodie of Christ, that ye shulde be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we shulde bring forth the frute vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of finnes, which were by the Law, had force in our membres, to bring forth the frute vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we shulde serue in newnes of Spirit, and not in the oldenes of the letter.

7 What shal we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowne lust, except the Law had said, *Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne toke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once was a liue, without the Law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I dyed: and the same commandement which was ordeined vnto life, was founde to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne toke occasion by the commandement, and disceiued me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holie, and the commandement is holie, and iust, & good.

13 Was that the which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinful by the commandement.

14 For we knowe that the Lawe is spiritual, but I am carnal, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I do: for what I wolde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I wolde not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I, that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I wolde, but the euil, which I wolde not, that do I.

20 Now if I do that I wolde not, it is no more I that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I wolde do good, euil is present with me.

22 For I delite in the Law of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another law in my membres, rebelling against the law of my minde, & leading me captiue vnto the law of sinne, which is in my membres.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shal deliuer me from the bodie of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I myself in my minde serue the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sinne.

sorte the faithful ought to be. a The frute of the Spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 19 Of the mutual loue betwixt God and his children. 20 Of his foreknowledge.

NOW then there is no a cōdemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not b after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For the c Law of the Spirit of life which is in d Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.

For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was e weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the f similitude of sinful flesh, and g for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

That the h righteousness of i Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For they that are after the flesh, fauour the j things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life & peace,

Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, nether in dede can be.

So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.

Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if anie man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

And if Christ be in you, the k bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the l Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shal also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to liue after the m flesh:

For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shal dye: but if ye mortifie the dedes of the bodie by the Spirit, ye shal liue.

For as manie as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

For ye haue not receiued the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of n adopcion, whereby we cry o Abba, Father.

The same Spirit p beareth witnes with our Spirit, that we are the childre of God.

If we be children, we are also q heires, euen the heires of God, & heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we maye also be glorified with him.

For I counte that the afflictions of this present time are not r worthe of the glorie, which shalbe shewed vnto vs.

For the feruent desire of the creature

waiteth when the sonnes of God shalbe reueiled.

Because the s creature is subiect to t vannie, not of it owne wil, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope,

Because the creature also shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of u sonnes of God.

For we knowe that euerie v creature groweth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the w first frutes of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adopcion, x euen the redemption of our y bodie.

For we are saued by hope: but z hope that is sene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

But if we hope for that we se not, we do with patience abide for it.

Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to praie as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighs, which can not be expressed.

But he that searcheth aa hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he ab maketh request for the Sainctes, according to the ac wil of God.

Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

For those which he ad knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among manie brethren.

Moreouer whome he predestinate, them also he called, and whome he called, them also he iustified, and whome he iustified, them he also glorified.

What shal we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who ae can be against vs?

Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shal he not with him giue vs all things also?

Who shal lay anie thing to the charge of Gods chosen? af it is God that ag iustificieth,

Who shal condemne? ah it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

Who shal separate vs from the loue of ai Christ? shal tribulacion or anguish, or persecucion, or famine, or nakednes, or peril, or sword?

As it is writtē, aj For thy sake are we ak led all day long: we are counted as shepe for the slaughter.

Neuertheles, in all these things we are more then conquerers through him that loued vs.

n The creature shal not be restored before that Gods children be brought to their perfection in the meane season they waite.

o That is, to destruction, because of mans sinne.

p He meaneth not the Angels nether deuils nor men.

q And yet are farre from the perfection.

Luk 21.28.

r Which shalbe in the resurrection when we shalbe made cōformable to our head Christ.

s By hope is meant y thing, which we hope for.

t In y he stirreth their hearts to pray, & sheweth both the whome to affect, and how.

Christ is verie God. To the Romaines. Predestinacion.

38 For I am perswaded that nether death, nor life, nor Angels, nor<sup>a</sup> principallities, nor<sup>a</sup> powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor anie other creature shalbe able to separate vs from the<sup>b</sup> loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Having testified his great loue towards his nacion, & the signes thereof. 11 He entreateth of the election and reprobacion. 24 Of the vocacion of the Gentiles, 30 And reuocation of the Iewes.

1 I Say the trueth<sup>a</sup> in Christ, I lye not, my conscience bearing me witness in the holie Gost,

2 That I haue great heavines and continual sorowe in mine heart.

3 * For I wolde wish myself to be<sup>b</sup> separate from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Which are the Israelites, to whome pertaineth the adoption, and the<sup>c</sup> glorie, and the<sup>d</sup> * Couenantes, and the giuing of the Law, and the seruice of God, and the promises.

5 Of whome are the fathers, and of whome concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is<sup>e</sup> God ouer all blessed for euer, Amen.

6 * Notwithstanding it can not be that the worde of God shulde<sup>f</sup> take none effect: for all they are not<sup>g</sup> Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Nether<sup>h</sup> are they all children, because they are the sede of Abraham: * but, In<sup>i</sup> Isaac shal thy sede be called:

8 That is, they which are the children of the<sup>j</sup> flesh, are not the children of God: but the<sup>k</sup> children of the promes are counted for the sede.

9 For this is a worde of promes, * In this same time wil I come, and Sara shal haue a sonne.

10 Nether<sup>l</sup> he onelie felt this, but also * Rebecca when she had conceived by one, euen by our father Isaac.

11 For yer the children were borne, & when they had nether done good, nor euil (that the purpose of God might remaine according to electio<sup>m</sup> not by workes, but by him that calleth)

12 It was said vnto her, * The elder shal serue the yonger.

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Iacob, & haue hated Esau.

14 What shal we say then? Is there vnrighteousnes with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, * I wil haue mercie on him, to whome I wil shewe mercie: and wil haue compassion on him, on whome I wil haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runeth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the<sup>n</sup> Scripture saith vnto Pharaoh, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared through out all the earth.

18 Therefore he hathe mercie on whome he wil, & whome he wil, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doeth he yet complaine? for who hathe resisted his wil?

20 But, o man, who art thou which<sup>o</sup> pleadest against God? shal the<sup>p</sup> thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hathe not the potter power of the claie to make of the same lompe one vessel to honour, and another vnto dishonour?

22 What and if God wolde, to shewe his wrath, and to make his power known, suffice with long pacience the vessels of wrath, prepared to destruction?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glorie vpon<sup>q</sup> vessels of mercie, which he hathe prepared vnto glorie?

24 Euen vs, whome he hathe called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

25 As he saith also in Osee, * I wil call them, My people, which were not my people: & her, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shalbe in the place where it was said vnto them, * Ye are not my people, that there they shalbe called, The childre of the liuing God.

27 Also Esaias cryeth concerning Israel, * Thogh the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shal but a remnant be saued.

28 For he wil make his account, & gather it into a short sume with righteousness: for the Lord wil make a short count in the earth.

29 * And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a sede, we had bene made as<sup>r</sup> Sodom, and had bene like to Gomorrha.

30 What shal we say then? That the Gentiles which folowed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, euen the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel which folowed the Law of righteousness, colde not attaine vnto the Law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stombled at the stombing stone, 33 As it is written, * Beholde, I lay in Sion a<sup>s</sup> stombing stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euerie one that beleueth in him, shal not be ashamed.

3 He sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes.
4 The end of the Lawe. 5 The difference betwene the iustice of the Lawe, and of faith. 17 Whereof faith cometh, and to whome it belongeth. 19 The reuersion of the Lawe, and calling of the Gentiles.

1 Brethren, mine hearts desire & prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, & going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 * For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness vnto euery one y beleueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascende into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descende into the deep? (y is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The worde is nere thee, euem in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is y<sup>d</sup> worde of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betwene the Iewe & the Grecian: for he y is Lord ouer all, is riche vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whome they haue not beleued? and how shall they beleue in him, of whome they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are the fete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleued our report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, & hearing by the worde of God.

18 But I demaend, Haue they not heard? No doute their sounde went out through all the earth, & their wordes into the ends of the worlde.

19 But I demaend, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, * I wil prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, & by a foolish nation I wil anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bolde, and saith, I was founde of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a disobedient, and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church althogh it be not sene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reueiled him self to the Gentiles. 15 Whome he warneth to humble themselves. 20 The giftes of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgement.

1 I Demaend then, Hathe God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seide of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he knewe before. Knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophetes, & digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seke my life?

4 But what saith y answer of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my self a fewe thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euē so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or els were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained y he sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they shulde not se, & eares that they shulde not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their table be made a snare, & a net, & a stumbling block, euem for a recompense vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they se not, & bowe downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaend then, Haue they stumbled, that they shulde fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the worlde, & the diminishing of the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

k Then seeing all the worlde knewe God by his creatures, the Iewes coulde not be ignorant, and so blinded of malice.

The true & wilde oliue. To the Romaines. Exhortacions.

- 13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,
- 14 To witte any meanes I might prouoke them or my flesh to followe them, & might saue some of them.
- 15 For if the casting away of them be the recōciling of the worlde, what shal the receiuing be, but life from the dead?
- 16 For if the first frutes be holie, so is the whole lompe: and if the roote be holie, so are the branches.
- 17 And though some of the brāches be broken of, & thou being a wilde oliue tre, wast grafte in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the oliue tre,
- 18 Boast not thy self against the branches: and if thou boast thy self, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.
- 19 Thou wilt say then, The brāches are broken of, that I might be grafte in.
- 20 Wel: through vnbelefe they are broken of, and thou standest by faith: be not hie minded, but feare.
- 21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take hede, lest he also spare not thee.
- 22 Beholde therefore the bountifulnes, & seueritie of God: towarde them which haue fallen, seueritie: but towarde thee, bountifulnes, if thou continue in his bountifulnes: or els thou shalt also be cut of.
- 23 And thei also, if thei abide not stil in vnbelefe, shalbe graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.
- 24 For if thou wast cut out of the oliue tre, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a right oliue tre, how muche more shal they that are by nature, be graffed in their owne oliue tre?
- 25 For I woldenot, brethre, that ye shulde be ignorant of this secret (lest ye shulde be arrogant in your selues) y<sup>e</sup> partely obstinacie is come to Israel, vntil the fulnes of the Gentiles be come in.
- 26 And so all Israel shalbe saued, as it is written, * The deliuerer shal come out of Sion, and shal turne away the vngodlines from Iacob.
- 27 And this is my couenāt to them, * When I shal take away their sinnes.
- 28 As cōcerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the electiō, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.
- 29 For the giftes and calling of God are without repentance.
- 30 For euen as ye in time past haue not beleued God, yet haue now obtained mercie through their vnbelefe,
- 31 Euen so now haue they not beleued by the mercie shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercie.
- 32 For God hathe shut vp all in vnbelefe, that he might haue mercie on all.

i That they might be seloued ouer Christ against the Gentiles, and so to be more seruēt in loue toward Christ then the Gentiles.

k The Iewes now remaine, as it were, in death for lacke of the Gospel: but when both they & the Gentiles shal embrace Christ, the worlde shal be restored to a newe life.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of suche as beleue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengeance.

I Beseeche you therefore, brethre, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holie, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruing of God.

2 And facion not your selues like vnto this worlde, but be ye changed by y<sup>e</sup> renewing of your minde, y<sup>e</sup> ye may proue what is the good wil of God, & acceptable, & perfite.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euerie one that is among you, y<sup>e</sup> no man presume to vnderstand aboue that which is mete to vnderstand, but that he vnderstand according to sobrietie, as God hathe dealt to euerie man the measure of faith.

4 For as we haue many mēbers in one bodie, and all members haue not one office,

5 So we being many are one bodie in Christ, and euerie one, one anothers members.

6 *Seeing then y<sup>e</sup> we haue giftes that are diuers, according to y<sup>e</sup> grace that is giue vnto vs, whether we haue prophecie, let vs prophecie according to y<sup>e</sup> proportiō of faith:

7 Or an office, let vs waite on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he y<sup>e</sup> exhorteth, on exhortatiō: he that distributeth, let him do it with simplicitie: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercie, with cherefulness.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. * Abhorre that which is euil, and cleaue vnto that which is good.

10 *Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherlie loue. In giuing honor, go one before another,

11 Not slouthful to do seruice: seruēt in spirit: seruing the Lord,

12 Reioycing in hope, paciēt in tribulatiō, continuing in prayer,

20 *Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feede him: if he thirst, giue him drinke: for in so doing, thou shalt heape <sup>m</sup>coles of fyre on his head.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they haue the sword. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie & puritie of life.

1 Let euerie soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: & the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth <sup>y</sup> power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to them selues iudgement.

3 For princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euil. Wilt <sup>y</sup> then be without feare of the power? do wel: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euil, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God to take vengeāce on him that doeth euil.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for <sup>b</sup> conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye paye also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying them selues for the same thing.

7 *Giue to all men therefore their duetie: tribute, to whome ye owe tribute: custome, to whome custome: feare, to whome feare: honour, to whome ye owe honour.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the <sup>d</sup> Law.

9 For this, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witness, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, <sup>e</sup> en in this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

10 Loue doeth not euil to his neighbour: therefore is loue <sup>y</sup> fulfilling of the Law.

11 And that, cōsidering the season, that it is now time that we shulde arise from slepe:

for now is our saluation <sup>e</sup> nerer, then when we beleued it.

12 The night is past, & the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes of darkenes, and let vs put on the <sup>f</sup> armour of light,

13 So that we walke honestly, as in the day: not in <sup>g</sup> glorie, and dronkennes, neither in chambering and wantonnes, nor in strife and enuying:

14 *But put ye on the Lord IESVS CHRIST, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfil the lustes of it.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man shulde offende another's conscience. 15 But one to supporte another in charitie and faith.

1 Him that is weake in the <sup>a</sup> faith, receiue vnto you, but not <sup>b</sup> for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleueth <sup>y</sup> he may eat of all things: & another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

4 *Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne <sup>c</sup> master: yea, he shalbe established: for God is able to make him stande.

5 This mā esteemeth one day aboue another day, & another man counteth euerie daye a like: let euerie man be <sup>d</sup> fully persuaded in his minde.

6 He that <sup>e</sup> obserueth the day, obserueth it to the <sup>f</sup> Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giueth God thākes: and he <sup>y</sup> eateth not, <sup>h</sup> eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thākes.

7 For none of vs liueth <sup>i</sup> to him self, neither doeth anie dye to him self.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we dye, we dye vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore dyed and rose againe, and reuiued, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? *for we shal all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, *I <sup>k</sup> liue, saith the Lord, and euerie knee shal bowe to me, and all tongues shal <sup>l</sup> confesse vnto God.

12 So then euerie one of vs shal giue accountes of him self to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another anie more: but vse <sup>m</sup> your iudgement rather firmly to whome as yet God had not reucaled the perfitte libertie. 1 Bothe our life, and death ought to profite our brother. 2 Cor. 5. 10. 11a. 43. 23 phil. 3. 10. k This orbe particularly appertaineth to God who is the true life of him self, & giueth it to all others. 1 And acknowledge me for their God.

c It is the Lords matter & not thine. d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods worde in all things that we do: y if we be strōg, we may know what is our libertie: and if we be weake, we may learne to profite daily. e That counteth one day more holie then another.

f Who iudgeth whether he doeth wel or no. g Because he thinketh the meates vnclean by y Law. h Here we must note three things: first, y he speaketh of things which of them selues are indifferēt, albeit in the Law they were not next, that he reprobeth not the condemning of the <sup>a</sup> & but of the persones: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubburne and malicious, who me he calleth dogges & confection, but the weake and in-

firmly to whome as yet God had not reucaled the perfitte libertie. 1 Bothe our life, and death ought to profite our brother. 2 Cor. 5. 10. 11a. 43. 23 phil. 3. 10. k This orbe particularly appertaineth to God who is the true life of him self, & giueth it to all others. 1 And acknowledge me for their God.

14 m I knowe, & am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothig vncleane of it self: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to hi<sup>m</sup> it is vncleane.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

12 And againe Esaias saith, *There shalbe a roote of Iesse, and<sup>g</sup> he that shal rise to reigne ouer<sup>h</sup> the Gentiles, in him shal the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fil you with all ioye, and peace in beleuing, that ye may abunde in hope through the power of the holie Gost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnes, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not<sup>k</sup> speake of anie thing, which Christ hathe not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and dede,

23 But now seing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue<sup>m</sup> bene delirous manie yeres agone to come vnto you,

<sup>1</sup> Cor. 9. 21. 27 For it hathe pleased them, and their detters are they: *for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spiritual things, their duetie is also to minister vnto them in carnal things.

Written to the Romaines from Corinthus and sent by Phebe, seruant of the Church, which is at Cenchrea.

THE FIRST EPISTLE of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false Apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affect at eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition suche factions & schismes sprang vp in the Church, that frō opinions in pollicies & ceremonies they fel to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doute the resurrection frō the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religio. Against these euils the Apostle procedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, & eares with gentle salutations: but sone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie & pride, and exhorteth the to cōcorde & humilitie, setting before their eyes the spiritual vertue, & heauenlie wisdom of the Gospel, which cā not be persuaded by worldlie wit and eloquent reasons, but is renewed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attribute to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein S. Paul behaued him self skilfully, buylding according to the fundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent hede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing at his coming he wolde declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought them selues onely, & therefore suffered moste horrible vices vnreproved & unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infideles, fornication, & suche like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certeine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of mariage, of discorde & dissension among the married, of virginite, & seconde mariage. And because some thought it noiling to be present at idole seruice, seing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose faith by that disssembling was hindered, & their consciences wounded, which thing rather the he wolde do, he wolde neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuche as pride, & self wil was the cause of those great euils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outwarde giftes, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spiritual giftes, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and wel doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

10 Now I beſeeche you, brethré, by the Name of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, * that ye all ſpeake one thing, and that there be no diſſentions among you: but be ye knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the houſe of <sup>1</sup> Cloe, that there are cōtentions among you.

12 Now this I ſay, that euerie one of you faith, I am Paules, and I am * Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Chriſts.

13 Is Chriſt deuided? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptized <sup>k</sup> into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but * Crifpus, and <sup>l</sup> Gaius, 15 Left anie ſhulde ſay, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized alſo the houſholde of Stephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized anie other.

17 For Chriſt ſent me not to <sup>m</sup> baptize, but to preache the Goſpel, not with * <sup>n</sup> wiſdome of wordes, <sup>o</sup> left the croſſe of Chriſt ſhulde be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the croſſe is to the <sup>r</sup> that periſh, fooliſhnes: but vnto vs, which are ſaued, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, I * wil deſtroye the wiſdome of the wiſe, and wil caſt away the vnderſtanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wiſe? where is the <sup>p</sup> Scribe? where is the <sup>q</sup> diſputer of this worlde? hath the not God made the wiſdome of this worlde fooliſhnes?

21 For ſeing the worlde by wiſdome knewe not God in the wiſdome of God, it pleaſed God by the fooliſhnes of preaching to ſaue them that beleue:

22 Seing alſo that the Iewes require a * ſigne, and the Grecians ſeke after wiſdome.

23 But we preache Chriſt crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a ſtombling blocke, & vnto the Grecians, fooliſhnes:

24 But vnto them which are called, bothe of the Iewes & Grecians <sup>we preache</sup> Chriſt, the power of <sup>g</sup> o d, and the wiſdome of God.

25 For the * fooliſhnes of God is wiſer the men, and the weakenes of God is ſtronger then men.

26 For brethren, you ſe your calling, how that not manie wiſe men <sup>ſ</sup> after the fleſh, not manie mightie, not manie noble <sup>are called</sup>.

27 But God hath choſen the fooliſh things of the worlde to confounde the wiſe, and God hath choſen the weake things of the worlde, to confounde the mightie things.

28 And vile things of the worlde & things which are deſpiſed, hath God choſen, & things * which are not, to bring to noght things <sup>u</sup> that are,

29 That no * fleſh ſhulde reioyce in his preſence.

30 But ye are of him in Chriſt Ieſus, who of God is made vnto vs * wiſdome and righteouſnes, and ſanctificacion, and redemption, 31 That, according as it is written, * He that reioyceth, <sup>y</sup> let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

<sup>1</sup> He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Goſpel. <sup>2</sup> Which Goſpel was contemptible & hid to the carnal, so And againe honorable and manifeſt to the ſpiritual.

<sup>3</sup> And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with * excellencie of wordes, or of wiſdome, ſhewing vnto you the * <sup>a</sup> teſtimonie of God.

<sup>4</sup> Nor I eſteemed not to * knowe anie thing among you, ſaue Ieſus Chriſt, and him crucified.

<sup>5</sup> * And I was among you in <sup>b</sup> weakenes, and in feare, & in muche trembling.

<sup>7</sup> That your faith ſhulde not be in the wiſdome of men, but in the power of God.

<sup>11</sup> But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not ſene, nether care hath heard, nether came into mans heart, <sup>are</sup>, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

<sup>14</sup> Now we haue <sup>k</sup> receiued not the Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might knowe the <sup>l</sup> things that are giuen to vs of God.

<sup>15</sup> Which things alſo we ſpeake, not in the * wordes which mans wiſdome teacheth,

but which the holie Gost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.

14 But the natural man perceiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnes vnto him: nether can he knowe them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he him self is iudged of no man.

16 For who hath known the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we haue the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

Paul rebuketh the scribes and autours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluacion to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the fundacion of his Church. 15 The dignitie and office bothe of the ministers and also of all the faithful.

1 And I colde not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spiritual me, but as vnto carnal, even as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to beare it, nether yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnal, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnal?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome ye beleued, & as the Lord gaue to euerie man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, nether is he that planteth, anie thing, nether he that watreth, but God that giueth the encrease.

8 And he that planteth, & he that watreth, are one, and euerie man shal receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods laborers: ye are Gods housbandrie, and Gods buylding.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilful master buylder, I haue laid the fundacion, and another buyldeth thereon: but let euerie man take hede how he buyldeth vpon it.

11 For other fundacion can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if anie man buylde on this fundacion, golde, siluer, precious stones, tymbre, haye, or stubble,

13 Euerie mans worke shalbe made manifest: for the daye shal declare it, because it shalbe reueiled by the fyre: & the fyre shal trye euerie mans worke of what sorte it is.

14 If anie mans worke, that he hath buylded vpon the fundacion, he shal receiue wages.

15 If anie mans worke burne, he shal lose it, but he shalbe safe him self: neuertheles yet as it were by the fyre.

16 Knowe ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If anie man destroy the Temple of God, him shal God destroy: for the Temple of God is holie, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue him self. If anie man among you seme to be wise in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For y<sup>e</sup> wisdom of this worlde is foolishnes with God: for it is written, He catcheth the wise in their owne craftines.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the worlde, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, even all are yours,

23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him suche one, 4 He appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glorie which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraised in him. 16 He sheweth what he requirerh on their parte, & what they ought to loke for of him at his returne.

1 Let a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, y<sup>e</sup> euerie man be founde faithful.

3 As touching me, I passe verie litle, to be iudged of you, or of mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine owne self.

4 For I knowe nothing by my self, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntil the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenes, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shal euerie man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne self & Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swel not against another for anie mans cause.

7 For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadest not receiued it?

8 Now ye are ful: now ye are made rich: ye reigne as Kings without vs, and wolde to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

10 We are<sup>h</sup> fooles for Christs sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye strong: ye are honorable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we bothe honger, & thirst, and are naked, and are buffered, and haue no certeine dwelling place,

12 * And labour, working w our owne hands: we are reuiled, & yet we blisse: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 * We are euil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filthe of the worlde, the ofskowring of all things, vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued childre I admonish you: 15 For thogh ye haue ten thousand* instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not manie fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithful in the Lord, w<sup>h</sup> shal put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teache euerie where in euerie Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as thogh I wolde not come to you.

19 But I wil come to you shortly, * if the Lord wil, and wil knowe, not the speache of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the* kingdome of God is not in worde, but in<sup>l</sup> power.

21 What wil ye? shal I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of mekenes?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Wiling them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And flee wickednes.

1 IT is heard certainly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the<sup>a</sup> Gentils, * that one shulde haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp & haue not rather sorowed, that he which hath done this dede, might be put from among you.

3 * For I verely as absent in bodie, but present in spirit, haue determined already as thogh I were present, that he that hath thus done this thing,

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a newe lump, <sup>h</sup> as ye are vnleavened: for Christ our Passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs kepe the feast, not with olde leauē, nether in the leauen of malicioufnes and wickednes: but with the vnleauened bread of sinceritie and truethe.

9 I wrote vnto you in an epistle, * that ye shulde not cōpanie together w fornicators,

10 And<sup>i</sup> not all together with the fornicators of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extorcioners, or with idolaters: for then ye muste go out of the worlde.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye companie not together: if anie that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or<sup>k</sup> an idolater, or a railar, or a drunkard, or an extorcioner, with suche one eat not.

12 For what haue I to do, to iudge them also, which are<sup>l</sup> without? do ye not iudge the that are<sup>m</sup> within?

CHAP. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for going to law together before the Hea:hen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproveth the abusing of Christian libertie, 13 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely both in bodie, and in soule.

1 DAre anie of you, hauing busines against another, be iudged vnder<sup>a</sup> the<sup>a</sup> vniust, and not vnder the Saintes?

2 * Do ye not knowe, that the Saintes shal iudge the worlde? If the worlde then shal be iudged by you, are ye vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not y we shal iudge the<sup>b</sup> Angels? how muche more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgemēt of things pertaining to this life, set vp them which are<sup>d</sup> least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, y can iudge betwene his breithre?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infideles.

7 Now therefore there is viterly<sup>a</sup> a faute among you, because ye go to law one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather susteine ye not harme?

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certeine questions, which the Corinthians desired to knowe, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duetie of mariage, 11 Of discordes & dissension in mariage, 13 Of mariage betwene the faithful & vnfaithful. 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised. 21 Of seruitude. 25 Of virginities, 39 And seconde mariage.

1 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto me, It were a good for a man not to touche a woman:

2 Neuertheles, to auoide fornication, let euerie man haue his wife, and let euerie woman haue her owne housband.

3 * Let the housbād giue vnto the wife due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the housband.

4 The wife hathe not y power of her owne bodie, but the housband: and likewise also the housband hathe not the power of his owne bodie, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, & againe come together that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, not by commandement.

7 For I wolde that all men were euen as I my self am: but euerie man hathe his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I do.

9 But if they can not abstaine, let the marie: for it is better to marie the to burne.

10 And vnto the married I comāde, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife departe from her housband.

11 But and if she departe, let her remaine vnmarried, or be recōciled vnto her housband, and let not the housband put away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, & not the Lord: If anie brother haue a wife, that beleueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the womā which hathe an housbād that beleueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleuing housband is sanctified by the wife, & the vnbeleuing wife is sanctified by the housband, els were your childre vncleane: but now are they holie.

15 But if the vnbeleuing departe, let him departe: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hathe called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, o wife, whether thou shalt saue thine housband? Or what knowest thou, o mā, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hathe distribute to euerie mā, as the Lord hathe called euerie one, so let him walke: and so ordeine I, in all Churches.

18 Is anie man called being circumcised? let him not gather his vncircumcision: is anie called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 * Circumcision is nothing, & vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

20 * Let euerie man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? * care not for it: but if yet thou maist be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lords freman: likewise also he that he that is called being free, is Christ's seruāt.

23 *Ye are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgines, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present<sup>a</sup> necessitie: I meane that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seke not to be losed: art thou losed from a wife? seke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marie, she sinneth not: neuertheles, such shall haue<sup>a</sup> trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter that bothe they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that wepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: & they that bie, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as though they vsed it not: for the facion of this worlde goeth away.

32 And I wolde haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of y Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the<sup>d</sup> worlde, how he maie please his wife.

34 There is difference also betwene a virgine & a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be<sup>e</sup> holie, bothe in bodie and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne comoditie, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye followe that, which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if anie man thinke that it is vncomlie for his virgine, if she passe the flowre of her age, & s nede so require, let him do what he wil, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheles he<sup>h</sup> that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no nede, but hath power ouer his owne wil, & hath so decreed in his heart, that he wil kepe his virgine, he doeth wel.

38 So then he that giueth her to mariage, doeth wel, but he that giueth her not to mariage, doeth<sup>k</sup> better.

39 The wife is bounde by the<sup>l</sup> law, as long as her husband<sup>m</sup> liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at libertie to mary w<sup>n</sup> whome she wil, onely in the Lord.

40 But she is more blessed, if she so abide, in my iudgement: and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

He rebuketh those that use their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices. 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them towards such as be weake.

And as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that we all haue<sup>a</sup> knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of him.

4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idol is<sup>b</sup> nothing in the worlde, & that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heauē, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whome are all things, & we in him: & one Lord Iesus Christ, by whome are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing<sup>d</sup> conscience of the idole, vntil this houre, eat as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meat maketh not vs acceptable to God: for nether if we eat, haue we<sup>e</sup> more: nether if we eat not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take hede lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be<sup>f</sup> boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the<sup>g</sup> weake brother perish, for whome Christ dyed.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wounde their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 *Wherefore if meat offend my brother, I wil eat no flesh while the worlde standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

CHAP. IX.

He exhorteth them by his example to use their libertie to the edification of other. 24 To runne on for the in the course that they haue begonne.

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power f not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare anie time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the frute thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? faith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is writtē in y Law of Moses, Thou shalt not muffle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for oxen?

10 Ether faith he it not all together for our sakes? For our sakes no doute it is written, that he which eareth, shulde eare in hope: and that he that thresheth in hope, shulde be partaker of his hope.

11 * If we haue sown vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnal things?

12 If others with you be partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheles, we haue not vsed this power: but suffre all things, that we shulde not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not knowe, that they which minister about the holie things, eat of y things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers i with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preache the Gospel, shulde liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: nether wrote I these things, that it shulde be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to dye, then that anie man shulde make my k reioycing vaine.

16 For thogh I preache the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is laid vpon me, and wo is vnto me, if I preache not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I do it against my wil, i notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that whē I preache the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ m fre that I abuse not mine autoritie in the Gospel.

19 For thogh I be fre frō all men, yet haue I made my self seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 * And vnto y Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as thogh I were vnder the Law, that I may winne the that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without lawe, as thogh I were without law (whē I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne y weake: I am made o all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I do for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiue the price? so runne, that ye may obteine.

25 And euerie man that proueth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they do it to obteine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre.

27 But I beat downe my i bodie, & bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my self shulde be reproued.

CHAP. X.

He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And of fence of their neighbour.

1 Moreouer, brethrē, I wolde not that Mye shulde be ignorā, that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed through the sea, ye shulde haue a felowshippe with the de-

5 But euerie woman that prayeth or <sup>r</sup> pro-

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the 11 Neuertheles, nether is the man without the woman, nether the woman without the man in the <sup>h</sup> Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

15 But if a woman haue long heere, it is a praise vnto her: for her heere is<sup>1</sup> giue her for a couering.

16 But if any man luste to be contentious, we haue no suche custome, nether y<sup>e</sup> Churches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are disensions among you: and I beleue it to be true<sup>m</sup> in some parte.

19 For there must be<sup>n</sup> heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowne.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords Supper.

21 For euerie man when they shulde eat, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eat & to drinke in? dispise ye y<sup>e</sup> Church of God, and shame the that haue not? what shal I say to you? shal I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the<sup>o</sup> Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, toke bread.

24 *And when he had giuen thākes, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my bodie, which is<sup>p</sup> broken for you: his do ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he toke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the Newe testament in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shal eat this bread, & drinke this cup, ye shewe the Lords death til he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shal eat this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord vnworthely, shal be gilty of the bodie & blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine him self, and so let him eat of this bread, & drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthely, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not y<sup>e</sup> Lords bodie.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many slepe.

31 For if we wolde iudge our selues, we shulde not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we shulde not be condemned with the worlde.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things wil I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the giftes of the holie Gost ought to be used to the edifying of Christs Church. 12 As the members of mans bodie serue to the use one of another.

Now concerning spiritual giftes, brethren, I wolde not haue you<sup>a</sup> ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caryed away vnto the<sup>b</sup> domme idoles, as ye were<sup>c</sup> led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man* speaking by the<sup>d</sup> Spirit of God, calleth Iesus* execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holie Gost.

4 Now there are diuersities of giftes, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euerie man, to<sup>e</sup> profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the worde of wisdom: and to another the worde of<sup>f</sup> knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another<sup>g</sup> is giuen<sup>h</sup> faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another<sup>i</sup> y<sup>e</sup> operations of great workes: and to another, i prophecie: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: & to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 *And all these things worketh euen the self same Spirit, distributing to euerie man<sup>j</sup> seuerally as he wil.

12 For as the bodie is one, and hath many membres, and all the membres of the bodie, which is one, thogh they be many, yet are but one bodie: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into<sup>k</sup> one bodie, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bonde, or fre, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the bodie also is not one member, but many.

15 If the fote wolde say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

16 And if the eare wolde say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

17 If the whole bodie were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

19 For if they were all one member, where were the bodie?

20 But now are there manie membres, yet but one bodie.

21 And the eye can not say vnto the hand, I haue no nede of thee: nor the head againe to the fete, I haue no nede of you.

22 Yea, muche rather those membres of the bodie, which seme to be more feble, are necessarie.

23 And vpon those membres of the bodie, which we thinke moste vn honest, put we more honestie on: and our vncomelie partes haue more comelines on.

24 For our comelie partes nede it not: but God hath tempered the bodie together, and hath giuen the more honour to that parte which lacked,

25 Lest there shulde be anie diuision in the bodie: but that the members shulde haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the membres reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the bodie of Christ, & membres for your parte.

28 And God hath ordeined some in the Church: as first, Apostles, secondly Prophetes, thirdly reachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophetes? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? do all speake with tongues? do all interprete?

31 But desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shewe you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

THogh I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And thogh I had the gift of prophecie, and knewe all secretes and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I colde remoue mountaines and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And thogh I fede the poore with all my goods, and thogh I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffreth long: it is bountiful: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it self: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euil:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It Suffreth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, thogh that prophecyings be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For we knowe in parte, and we prophecie in parte.

10 But when that which is perfite, is come, then that which is in parte, shalbe abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glasse darkely: but then shal we see face to face. Now I knowe in parte: but then shal I knowe euen as I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope & loue, euen these thre: but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, & other spiritual gifts, but chiefly prophecie. 34 He comandeth women to kepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good ordre ought to be obserued in the Church.

Followe after loue, and couet spiritual gifts, and rather that ye maye prophecie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophecieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortacion, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth him self: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I wolde that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophecied: for greater is he that prophecieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expounde it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shal I profite you, except I speake to you, ether by reuelacion, or by knowledge, or by prophecie, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer things without life which giue a sounde, whether it be a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shal it be known what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vntertaine sounde, who shal prepare him self to battell?

9 So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye utter wordes that haue significacion, how

10 There are so manie kindes of voyces, (as it cometh to passe) in the worlde, and none of them is domme.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh, as a barbarian, and he that speaketh, shalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, for asmuche as ye couet spiritual gifts, seke that ye maye excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, praiſe, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit praieth: but mine vnderstanding is without fruite.

15 What is it then? I wil praye with the spirit, but I wil pray with the vnderstanding also: I wil sing with the spirit, but I wil sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blestest with the spirit, how shal he that occupieth the roume of the vnlearned, say Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seing he knoweth not what thou saist?

17 For thou verely giuest thanks wel, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake fewe wordes with mine vnderstanding that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstading, but as concerning maliciouſnes be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, By men of other tongues, & by other languages wil I speake vnto this people: yet so shal they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to the that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for the that beleue not, but for the which beleue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vn-learned, or they which beleue not, wil thei not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, & so he wil fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in dede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euerie one of you hathe a psalme, or hathe doctrine, or hathe a tongue, or hathe reuelacion, or hathe interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

17 If anie man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by thre, and that by course, and let one interpret.

18 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him self, and to God.

19 Let the Prophetes speake two, or thre, and let the other iudge.

20 And if anie thing be reueiled to another y sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

21 For ye may all prophecie one by one, y
all may learne, & all may haue comfort.

22 And the spirits of the Prophetes are subiect to the Prophetes.

23 For God is not the autor of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saintes.

24 Let your women kepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the Law saith.

25 And if thei wil learne anie thing, let the aske their housbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in y Church.

26 Came the worde of God out from you?
either came it vnto you onely?

27 If anie man thinke him self to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

28 And if anie man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

29 Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophecie,
& forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly and by order.

if he mentioned this abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be re-proued, because there he broght it in for another purpose. y Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye nether submit your selues to the Churches, of whome you haue receiued the Gospel? nor haue respect to the others to who-me the Gospel doeth likewise appertene? z To haue vnderstanding of spiritual things. a If anie man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credit them that are learned.

5 *And that he was sene of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that, he was sene of mo then five hundreth brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, & some also are a slepe.

7 After that, he was sene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 *And last of all he was sene also of me as of one, borne out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not mete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 *But by the grace of God, I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preache, and so haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are founde also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whome he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if y dead be not raised, the is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are a slepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the moste miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first frutes of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all dye, euē so in Christ shal all be made alieue, 23 But euerie man in his owne order: the first frutes is Christ, afterwarde, they that are of Christ, at his comming shal rise againe.

24 Then shalbe the end, whē he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euē the Father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all autoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne til he hath put all his enemies vnder his fete.

26 The last enemy that shalbe destroyed, is death.

27 *For he hath put downe all things vnder his fete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest y he is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shalbe subdued vnto him, then shal the Sōne also him self be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

29 Els what shal they do which are baptized for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are we also in ieopardie euerie houre?

31 ¶ By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I dye daily.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the maner of men, what aduantage it me, if the dead be not raised vp? let vs eat & drinke: for to morowe we shal dye.

33 Be not deceiued: euil speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man wil say, How are the dead raised vp? and with what bodie come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it dye.

37 And y which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shalbe, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euē to euerie sede his owne bodie.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenlie bodies, and earthlie bodies: but the glorie of the heauenlie is one, and the glorie of the earthlie is another.

41 There is another glorie of the sunne, and another glorie of the moone, and another glorie of y starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glorie.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The bodie is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glorie: it is sown in weaknes, & is raised in power.

44 It is sown a natural bodie, & is raised a spiritual bodie: there is a natural bodie, & there is a spiritual bodie.

45 As it is also writen, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spiritual: but that which is natural, & afterwarde that which is spiritual.

Except these things be true of Christs kingdome and his subiection, what shal become of them whome the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroye death in the world is the end of baptism, and so they to rise againe?

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conuaye him forthe in peace, that he may 12 As touching our brother Apollos, I great-

THE

THE SECONDE EPI- stle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

A S nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not Unprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a love towards them farre passing all natural affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbernes, and contemne the Apostles autoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iuste occasions to come vnto them, wrote this epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them wel in the Lord, declaring that alheit certeine wicked persones abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his autoritie, yet they were necessarie schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherlie affection, he shulde haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their faute, as is now euident bothe in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuche as the false Apostles went about to vndermine his autoritie, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which se not the brightnes of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persones scandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebell against his autoritie, that he wil declare by liuelie example, that he is the faithful ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithful by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they shoulde not impute to lightnes, that he differed his comming contrarie to his promes, he proueth his constancie, betwixt by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holie Ghost.

Paul an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST by the wil of God, & our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saintes, which are in all

1 Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforte,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation; that we may be able to comforte the which are in anie affliction by the comforte wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abunde in vs, so our consolation abundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and <sup>d</sup> saluation, which <sup>e</sup> is wrought in the induring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we knowe that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shal ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we wolde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we all together doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we received the sentence of death in our selues, because we shoulde not trust in our selues, but in God, who raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so <sup>h</sup> great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet here after he wil deliuer vs;

11 * So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for manie, thankes may be giuen by manie persones for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godlie purenes, & not in fleshlie wisdom, <sup>k</sup> but by the grace of God we haue had our conuersation in the worlde, and mooste of all to you wardes.

XX.iii.

<sup>d</sup> For seing hi indure so muche, they had occasion to be confirmed in the Gospel. <sup>e</sup> As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluation by his free mercie, and by such means as he hathe here left in this life for vs to be exercised in. <sup>f</sup> Hereby he sheweth his owne infirmities, & it might appear: how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him. <sup>g</sup> I was vterly resolved in my self to dye. <sup>h</sup> So manie dangers of death.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, & requiring like wise that they wolde be fauorable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine. 17 Consuting thereby suche quarelpickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his persone, sege nothing, but the overthrowe of his doctrine.

<sup>1</sup> BUT I determined thus in my self, that I wolde not come againe to you in heauines. <sup>2</sup> For if I make you sorie, who is he then that shulde make me glad, but the same which is made sorie by me? <sup>3</sup> And I wrote this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I shulde take heauines of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all. <sup>4</sup> For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye shulde be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you. <sup>5</sup> And if any hath caused sorow, the same

hath not made me sorie, but partely (lest I shulde more charge him) you all. <sup>6</sup> It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of manie. <sup>7</sup> So that now contrarie wise ye ought rather to forgiue him, and comforte him lest the same shulde be swallowed vp with ouer muche heauines. <sup>8</sup> Wherefore, I praye you, that you wolde confirme your loue towards him. <sup>9</sup> For this cause also did I write, y I might knowe the prose of you, whether ye wolde be obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup> To whome ye forgiue anie thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgave anie thing, to whome I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the sight of Christ, <sup>11</sup> Lest Satan shulde circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises. <sup>12</sup> Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preache, Christs Gospel, & a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord, <sup>13</sup> I had no rest in my spirit, because I founde not Titus my brother, but toke my leaue of the, and went away into Macedonia. <sup>14</sup> Now thanks be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euerie place. <sup>15</sup> For we are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish. <sup>16</sup> To the one we are the sauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup> For we are not as manie, which make marchandise of the worde of God: but as of synceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we in Christ.

<sup>k</sup> In working mightly by vs he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph. <sup>l</sup> The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christs death as a comune death, & be thereat offended, or els thinke it folie: & bringeth againe life to the who in his death beholde their life. <sup>m</sup> That is, he preache for gaine, & corrupt it to seue mens afflictions. Or, through Christ, or of Christ

CHAP. III.

<sup>1</sup> He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. <sup>6</sup> And to exalte his Apostleship against the bragges of the false apostles. <sup>7. 13</sup> He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

<sup>1</sup> DO we begine to praise our selues againe? or nede we as some other, epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you? <sup>2</sup> Ye are our epistles, written in our hearts, which is vnderstand and red of all men, <sup>3</sup> In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by vs, and written, not with yncke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. <sup>4</sup> And suche trust haue we through Christ to God:

<sup>a</sup> Meaning himself, Timotheus and Siluanus. <sup>b</sup> Who were Gods penne. <sup>c</sup> The hardness of mans heart before he be regenerated, is as a Roemie table. Eze. 11. 19. & 36. 26: but being regenerated by the Spirit of God, it is as softe as flesh, y the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables. Ier 31. 34

Not

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke anie thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

6 Who also hathe made vs able ministers of the New testament, not of the letter but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministrations of death written w letters & ingraued in stones, was glorious so y the childre of Israel colde not beholde the face of Moses for the glorie of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

8 How shal not the ministrations of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of condonation was glorious, muche more doeth the ministrations of righteousness excede in glorie.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceding glorie.

11 For if that which shulde be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seing then that we haue suche trust, we vse great boldenes of speache.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel shulde not looke vnto the end of that which shulde be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntil this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the Olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is red, the vaile is layed ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheles when their heart shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But we all beholde as in a mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

He declareth his diligence, and roundenes in his office. And that which his enemies toke for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turned it to his great aduantage, 11. 17 Shewing what profit cometh thereby.

Therefore, seing that we haue this ministerie, as we haue receiued mercie, we fainte not:

But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame & walke not in craftines, nether handle we the worde of God disceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euerie mans conscience in the sight of God.

If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

In whome the god of this worlde hathe blinded the mindes, that is, of the infideles, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, shulde not shine vnto them.

For we preache not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkenes, who which hathe shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

But we haue this treasure in earthe vessels, y the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

We are afflicted on euerie side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not overcome of pouertie.

We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

Euerie where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

And because we haue the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, I beleue, & therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake,

Knowing that he which hathe raised vp the Lord Iesus, shal raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shal set vs with you.

For all things are for your sakes that moste plenteous grace by the thanksgiving of manie may redoude to the praise of God.

Therefore we faint not, but thogh our outwarde man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre moste excellent & an eternal waight of glorie:

While we loke not on the things which are sene, but on the things, which are not sene: for the things which are sene, are temporal: but the things which are not sene, are eternal.

for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are bothe partakers of mine affliction and comforte, may abundantly set forth his glorie. Or be corrupted. Groweth stronger. Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

Paul proceedeth to declare the utilitie that cometh by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it. 5 By whome. 9 And for what end. 14. 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ. 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithful.

To wit 2a. 12, 13, 14, 15. Eph. 6, 12. In whome God doeth shewe him self to be sene: and here Christ is called so in respect of his office.

Gen. 1, 3. As they, who preache for gaine, or els rather seke to be sene and known, then to edifie.

Which are your seruants. That we haueing receiued light, shuld communicate the same w others and therefore Christ calleth the light of the world.

Mat. 5, 14. Albeit the ministers of the Gospel be contemptible as touching their persons, yet the treasure which they carie, is nothing worse or inferior.

All faithful, & chiefly the ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: & also that the members shulde be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerours.

Psal. 116, 10. By our death you haue life: so that the fruit of our afflictions cometh to you.

The same faith by inspiration of the holie Ghost.

In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a reuoluing from death to life.

That I be deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my self giue God thanks

Whose minister Moses was which Christ was. Meaning, the spiritual do. drine, w is in our hearts. Thus he nameth the Law in comparison of the Gospel. After God had spoken w him and giuen him the Law. For the Law declareth all men to be vnder condemnation. Meaning, of the Gospel & declareth that Christ, is made our righteousness.

In preaching the Gospel. Ex. 34, 35. Moses shewed the Law as it was couered w shadows, so that the eyes were not lightened but blinded, and so could not come to Christ who was the end thereof: againe the Gospel setteth forth the glorie of God clearly, not couering our eyes, but drawing away from them.

1st. 4, 24. Christ is our mediator, & autor of the New testament, whose doctrine is spiritual, & giueth life to the Law.

In Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, we see God & Father at in a moste cleare glasse.

For anie troubles or afflictions. Meaning, such afflictions & pteciences as become not them that haue suche a great office in hand.

Rom. 14. 10.
<sup>h</sup> Out of this bodie, to heauen.

<sup>m</sup> As they, & more esteemed the outwarde shewe of wisdom and eloquence, then true godlines.

<sup>p</sup> Therefore whosoever giueth place to ambition or vaine glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

Isa. 43. 19.

<sup>s</sup> According to the estimation of the worlde: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

<sup>t</sup> We do not esteeme, nor commend Christ him self now, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God, partaker of his glorie, and in whome God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke, that I wil flatter my self or anye man in setting forth his giftes? Yea, when I praise my ministerie, I comende the power of God: when I commende our worthie factes, I praise the mightie power of God, set forth by vs wormes and wretches.

<sup>u</sup> Let him be regenerat, and renounce him self, els all the rest is nothing.

FOr we knowe that if our earthlie house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a buylding giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens.

<sup>1</sup> For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is fro heauen.

<sup>3</sup> For in dede we that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we wolde not be vnclodeth, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.

<sup>4</sup> And he that hathe created vs for this thing, God, who also hathe giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore we are alway bold, though we knowe that whiles we are at home in the bodie, we are absent from the Lord.

<sup>7</sup> Neuertheles, we are bolde, & loue rather to remoue out of the bodie, and to dwell with the Lord.

<sup>8</sup> Wherefore also we couet, that bothe dwelling at home, and remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him.

<sup>9</sup> For we must all appeare before the iudgemēt seat of Christ, that euerie man may receiue the things which are done in his bodie, according to that he hathe done, whether it be good or euil.

<sup>10</sup> Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men, & we are made manifest vnto God, & I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

<sup>11</sup> For we praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answer against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart.

<sup>12</sup> For whether we be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

<sup>13</sup> For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were all dead,

<sup>14</sup> And he dyed for all, that they which liue, shulde not hence forth liue vnto the selues, but vnto him which dyed for the, and rose againe.

<sup>15</sup> Wherefore, hence forth know we no mā after the flesh, yea though we had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now hence forth we know we him no more.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore if anye man be in Christ, let him be a new creature. Olde things are passed away: beholde, all things are become new.

<sup>17</sup> And all things are of God, which hathe recōciled vs vnto him self by Iesus Christ, and hathe giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

<sup>18</sup> For God was in Christ, and reconciled the worlde to him self, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hathe committed to vs the worde of reconciliation.

<sup>19</sup> Now then are we ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseeche you through vs, we praye you in Christs stede, that ye be reconciled to God.

<sup>20</sup> For he hathe made him to be sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we shulde be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

<sup>1</sup> SO we therefore as workers together be selecte you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

<sup>2</sup> For he saith, I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I suckered thee: beholde now the accepted time, beholde now the daye of saluation.

<sup>3</sup> We giue no occasion of offence in anye thing, that our ministerie shulde not be reprehended.

<sup>4</sup> But in all things we approue our selues as the ministers of God, in muche patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

<sup>6</sup> By watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnes, by the holie Ghost, by loue vnfained,

<sup>7</sup> By the worde of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the lefte,

<sup>8</sup> By honour, and dishonour, by euil reporte & good reporte, as deceiuers, and yet true:

<sup>9</sup> As vnknown, and yet known: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

<sup>10</sup> As sorowing, & yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make manie riche: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

selues pure, 3. 7 Assuring them of his loue, 8. 13 And doeth not excuse his seueritie towards them, but reioyceth thereat, considering what profite came thereby.
10 Of two sortes of sorow.*

- 1 Seing then we haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs * cleanse our sel-ues from all filthines of the <sup>b</sup> flesh & spirit, and growe vp vnto ful holines in the feare of God.
- 2 * Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue consumed no man: we haue d defrauded no man.
- 3 I speake it not to <sup>c</sup> our condemnacion: for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to dye and liue together.
- 4 I vse great boldenes of speache towards you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am excedding ioyous in all our tribulacion.
- 5 For whē we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no reste, but we were troubled on euerie side, fightings * without, & terroures within.
- 6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:
- 7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolacion wherewith he was co-forted of you, whē he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent min-de to mearde, so that I reioyced <sup>f</sup> muche more.
- 8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.
- 9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
- 10 * For godlie sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluacion, not to be repented of: but the worldlie sorowe causeth death.

- 11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue bene & godly sorie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what <sup>h</sup> clearing of your selues: yea, what indignacion: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale:
yea, what <sup>i</sup> punishmēt: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.
- 12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrog, nether for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towards you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
- 13 Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioy-ced muche more for the ioy of Titus, because his <sup>j</sup> spirit was refreshed by you all.
- 14 For if y I haue boasted anie thig to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.
- 15 And <sup>k</sup> his inwarde affection is more abundant towards you, when he remem-breth the obedience of you all, and how with feare & trembling ye receiued him.
- 16 I reioyce therefore that I may <sup>l</sup> put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

*By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ
he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saintes, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his felowes vnto them.*

- 1 WE do you also to wit, brethren, of the <sup>a</sup> grace of God bestowed vp-on the Churches of Macedonia,
- 2 Because in great tryal of affliction their ioye abunded, and their moste extreme pouertie <sup>b</sup> abunded vnto their riche liberalitie.
- 3 For to <sup>c</sup> their power (I beare recorde) yea, & beyond their power, they were willing,
- 4 And praied vs with great instance that we wolde receiue the <sup>d</sup> grace, & fellowship * of the ministring which is towards the Saintes.
- 5 And <sup>e</sup> thus they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the wil of God,
- 6 That we shulde exhorre Titus, that as he had begonne, so he wolde also accomplish the same grace among you also.
- 7 Therefore, as ye abunde in euerie thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so <sup>f</sup> se that ye abude in this grace also.
- 8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnes of your loue.
- 9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Ie-sus Christ, that he being riche, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made riche.

Gathering for the Churches. II. Corinthians. Liberal sowing.

d Euerie man may do good that hathe ability thereto, but to wil, and haue a minde to do good, cometh of perfitte charitie.

e That as you helpe others in their nede, so others shal releeue your want.
Exod. 16. 18. f That bothe you & others, as occasiō shal serue, may releeue y<sup>e</sup> godlie according to their necessities. g And willingly offered him self to gather your almes.

h In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstand Luke, others Barnabas.

Rom. 12. 17. i this weldoing is approued before God & man.

k That is, by whome Christs glorie is greatly aduanced.

- 10 And I shewe my minde herein : for this is expedient for you, w<sup>h</sup> haue begonne not to do onely, but also to d wil, a yere ago.
- 11 Now therefore performe to do it also, that as there was a readines to wil, euē so ye maye performe it of that which ye haue.
- 12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a mā hathe, & not according to that he hathe not.
- 13 Nether is it that other men shulde be eased and you grieved.
- 14 But vpon like condicion, at this time your e abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitye:
- 15 As it is written, * He that gathered muche, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.
- 16 And thanks be vnto God, which hathe put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.
- 17 Because he accepted the s exhortacion, yea, he was so careful that of his owne accord he went vnto you.
- 18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is h in y<sup>e</sup> Gospel throughout all the Churches,
- 19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a felowe in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of the same Lord, and declaration of your prōpt minde)
- 20 Auoyding this, that no man shulde blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs,
- 21 * Prouiding for i honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.
- 22 And we haue sent with the our brother, whome we haue oft times proued to be diligent in manie things, but now muche more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.
- 23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper to you warde: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, & the k glorie of Christ.
- 24 Wherefore shewe towarde them, & before the Churches the proue of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

- 3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to the.
- 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cherefully. 7 Shewing what frute wil come thereof.

- FOr as touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.
- 2 For I knowe your readines of mīde, whereof I boast my self of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a yere ago, and your zeale hathe prouoked manie.
- 3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you shulde be in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be readie:

- 4 Lest if thei of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I nede not to say, you) shulde be ashamed in this my constant boasting.
- 5 Wherefore, I thoght it necessarie to exhorthe the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.
- 6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shal reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shal reape also liberally.
- 7 As euerie man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessity: * for God loueth a chereful giuer.
- 8 And God is able to make all grace to abounde towarde you, that ye alwaies haue a all sufficiencie in all things, may abounde in euerie b good worke,
- 9 * As it is written, c He hathe sparfed abroad and hathe giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.
- 10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, wil minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your seede, and increase the frutes of your beneuolence,
- 11 That on all partes ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, w<sup>h</sup> causeth through vs thankegiuing vnto God.
- 12 For the ministracion of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of y<sup>e</sup> Saintes, but also is abundant by the thankegiuing of manie vnto God,
- 13 (Which by the experimēte of this ministracion praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men)
- 14 And by d their praier for you, desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.
- 15 Thanks therefore be vnto God for his vnspokeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his autoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he useth it.

- NOW I Paul my self beseeche you by the mekenes, & gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you, am a base, but am bolde towarde you being absent:
- 2 And this I require you, that I nede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, w<sup>h</sup> esteeme vs as thogh we walked b according to the flesh.
- 3 Neuertheles, thogh we walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh,

a Lest thei shulde giue but little, distrustiūg to impouerish thei selues thereby, he sheweth y<sup>e</sup> God wil so blisse their liberal heart, y<sup>e</sup> bothe they shal haue y<sup>e</sup>ough for thei selues & also to helpe others withall.
Psal. 112. 9. b That ye may do good & helpe others at all times.
c David speaketh of that man w<sup>h</sup> feareth God & loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that by their liberalitie God shal be praised, thei also shal be commēded to God by their prayers whome thei haue holpen, yea, & all men shal reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.
e Or, greatly offe fūuord toward a These were des his bacbiters vied, thinking thereby to diminish his autoritie, as verie. 10.

b As thogh we boasted of our selues by a carnal affection.

- 4 (For the weapons of our warrefare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)
- 5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euerie high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euerie thought to the obedience of Christ,
- 6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- 7 Loke ye on things after the appearance: If anie man trust in him self that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of him self, that as he is Christs, euē so are we Christs.
- 8 For thogh I shulde boast somewhat more of our autoritie, which the Lord hathe giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shulde haue no shame.
- 9 This I say that I may not seme as it were to feare you with letters.
- 10 For the letters, saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodelie presence is weake, and his speache is of no value.
- 11 Let suche one thinke this, that suche as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, suche wil we be also in dede, when we are present.
- 12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to the, which praise them selues: but they vnderstand not that they measure them selues with them selues; & compare them selues with them selues.
- 13 But we wil not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hathe distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.
- 14 For we stretch not our selues beyonde our measure, as thogh we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,
- 15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shal increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,
- 16 And to preache the Gospel in those regions which are beyode you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is in the things that are prepared already.
- 17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.
- 18 For he that praiseth him self, is not allowed, but he whome the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. XI.

He declareth his affection towards them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie, 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgement of the Corinthians, 22 And his owne praises.

- 1 W Olde to God, ye colde suffer a litle my foolishnes, and in deed, bye suffer me.
- 2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godlie ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one housband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:
- 3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes shulde be corrupte from the simplicitie that is in Christ.
- 4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another Iesus then him whome we haue preached: or if ye receiue another spirit then that which ye haue receiued: ether another Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might wel haue suffered him.
- 5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the verie chief Apostles.
- 6 And thogh I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifeste to the vtmost, in all things.
- 7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my self, that ye might be exalted, & because I preached to you the Gospel of God frely?
- 8 I robbed other Churches, and toke wages of them to do you seruice.
- 9 And when I was present with you, and had nede, I was not slothful to the hindrance of anie man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came fro Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and wil kepe my self that I shulde not be grieuous to you.
- 10 * The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.
- 11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.
- 12 But what I do, that wil I do: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.
- 13 For suche false apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme them selues into the Apostles of Christ.
- 14 And no marueile: for Satan him self is transformed into an Angel of light.
- 15 Therefore it is no great thing, thogh his ministers transforme them selues, as thogh they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shalbe according to their workes.
- 16 I say againe, let no mā thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euē as a foole, that I also may boast my self a litle.
- 17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

to the Lord: but his facion of boasting semed according to man, whereunto they compelled him.

bodie, or out of <sup>y</sup> bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth.)

4 How that he was takē vp into Paradise, & heard wordes which can not be spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

5 Of suche a man wil I reioyce: of my self wil I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I wolde reioyce, I shulde not be a foole: for I wil say the trueth, but I refraine, lest anie mā shulde thinke of me aboute that he seeth in me, or <sup>y</sup> he heareth of me.

7 And lest I shulde be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me <sup>d</sup> a pricke in the flesh, <sup>y</sup> messenger of Satā to buffet me, because I shulde not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besoght the Lord <sup>e</sup> thrise, that it might departe from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made <sup>f</sup> perfite through weakenes. Verie gladly therefore wil I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for where I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my self: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene comended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the verie chief Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bene slothful to your hinderāce? for-gine me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the <sup>h</sup> thirde time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet wil I not be slothful to your hinderāce: for I seke not yours, but <sup>i</sup> you: for the children ought not to laye vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I wil moste gladly bestowe, and wil be bestowed for your <sup>i</sup> soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: * yet forasmuche as I was craftie, I toke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by anie of them whome I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired <sup>1</sup> Titus, & with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pil you of anie thing? walked we not in the self same spirit? walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God <sup>a</sup> abase me among you, and I shal bewaile manie of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the * vncleannes, and fornication, and wantonnes, which they haue committed.

3 I tolde you before, and tel you before: as thogh I had bene present the seconde time, so write I now being absent to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I wil not spare,

3 Seing that ye seke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which towarde you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For thogh he was crucified concerning his <sup>c</sup> infirmitie, yet liueth he through the power of God. And we no dout are weake in him: <sup>d</sup> but we shal liue w him, through the power of God towarde you.

5 * Proue your selues whether ye are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shal knowe that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God y ye do none euil, not that we shulde seme approued, but y ye shulde do that which is honest: thogh we be as * reprobates.

8 For we can not do anie thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

9 For we are glad when we are weake, and that ye are <sup>c</sup> strong: this also we wish for euen your perfection.

10 Therefore write I these things being absent, lest when I am present, I shulde vse sharpenes, according to the power which the Lord hathe giuen me, to <sup>s</sup> edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally brethren, fare ye wel: be perfite: be of good comfort: be of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you.

12 Grete one another with an * holie <sup>b</sup> kisse. All the Saintes salute you.

13 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the comunion of the holie Gost be with you all, Amen.

The seconde epistle to the Corinthians, written fro Philippi, a citie in Macedonia, & sent by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrowe of mans saluacion purchass'd by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as thogh they had bene sent of the chief Apostles, and that Paul had no autoritie, but spake of him self, he proueth bothe that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are frely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprouitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hathe purchass'd by his blood, & not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertene thereunto.

m That is, w anie man, as though I had neede of his counsel to approve my doctrine.

Paul an Apostle (not of men, nether by mā, but by IESVS CHRIST, and God the Father who hath raised him from the dead)

And all the brethren who are with me, vnto y Churches of Galatia:

Grace be with you and peace from God the Father, & from our Lord Iesus Christ,

Which gaue him self for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs from this present euil worlde according to the wil of God euen our Father,

To whome be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

I marueile that ye are so sone remoued away vnto another Gospel, from him that had called you in the grace of Christ,

Which is not another Gospel, saue y there be some which trouble you, and intende to peruert the Gospel of Christ.

But thogh that we, or an Angel from heauen preache vnto you other wise, the that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now againe, If anie man preache vnto you otherwise, the y ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

For s now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods? or go I about to please men? for if I shulde yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

* Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

For nether receiued I it of man, nether was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time paste, in the Iewish religiō, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

And profited in the Iewish religiō aboute manie of my companions of mine owne nacion, and was muche more zealous of y traditions of my fathers.

But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

To reueile his Sonne in me, that I shulde preache him among the Gentiles, immediately I communicated not with m flesh and blood:

Nether came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, & turned againe vnto Damascus.

Then after thre yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fiftene dayes.

And none other of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I witnesse before God, that I lie not.

After that, I went into the coastes of Syria & Cilicia: for I was vnknownen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

But they had heard onely some say, He w persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the faith, which before he destroyed.

And they glorified God for me.

b That is, the Gospel which is the doctrine of faith.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reprov'd Peter the Apostle of the Iewes.

16 After he cometh to the principal scope, which is to proue that iustification onely commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

Then fourtene yeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke with me Titus also.

And I went vp by reuelation, and communicated with the of the Gospel which I preache among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chief, lest by any meanes I shulde runne, or had runne in vaine:

a Paul nothing doubted of his doctrine: but because many reported that he taught contrary doctrine to other Apostles, which rumors hindered the course of the Gospel, he endeavored to remedie it, and to proue that they consented with him.

And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no mans persone) neuer theles, they y are the chief, did communicate nothing with me.

But contrarywise, when they sawe that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel ouer the Circumcision was vnto Peter:

(For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by me towarde the Gentiles) to me and to Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we shulde preache vnto the Gentiles, and thei vnto the Circumcision,

10 *Warning onely that we shulde remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to do.

11 ¶ And whē Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstode him to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certeine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrewe & separated him self, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in somuche that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If y<sup>e</sup> being a Iewe, liuest as the Gētiles, & not like the Iewes, why<sup>e</sup> dost thou straine the Gentiles to do like the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen we, I say, haue beleued in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law no flesh shalbe iustified.

17 *If then while we seke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are founde sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I buylde againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my self a trespasser.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, & that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue yet, not I now, but Christ liueth in me: & in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, & giuen him self for me.

21 I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by y<sup>e</sup> Law, then Christ dyed without a cause.

CHAP. III.

1 He rebuketh them sharply. 2 And proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith. 6 As appeareth by the example of Abraham. 19. 24. And by the office, & the end, bothe of the Law. 25. And of faith.

¶ Foolish Galatiās, who hath bewitched you that ye shulde not obey the trueth, to whome Iesus Christ before was described in your sight, & among you crucified?

¶ This onely wolde I learne of you, Recei-ued ye the Spirit by the workes of y<sup>e</sup> Law, or by the hearing of f<sup>a</sup>ith preached?

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begonne in the Spirit, ye wolde now be made perfit by the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffered so many things in vaine, if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore y<sup>e</sup> ministrereth to you the Spirit, & worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleued God, & it was imputed to him for righteousness.

7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, y<sup>e</sup> God wolde iustifie y<sup>e</sup> Gētiles through faith, preached before y<sup>e</sup> Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, *In thee shal all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Law, are vnder the curse: for it is written, *Curfed is euerie man that continueth not in all things, which are writte in the boke of the Law, to do them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: *for the iust shal liue by faith.

12 And the Law is not of faith: but the man that shal do those things, shal liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, *Curfed is euerie one that hangeth on tre)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receiue the promises of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men do, *Thogh it be but a mans couenant when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his sēde were the promises made. He saith not, And to thy sēdes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy sēde, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundred and thirtie yeres after, can not disanul the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, y<sup>e</sup> it shulde make the promises of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promises, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promises.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgression, til y<sup>e</sup> sēde came vnto y<sup>e</sup> which the promises was

CHAP. IIII.

<sup>a</sup> He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined. <sup>b</sup> Which being shadowes must end when Christ the truth commeth. <sup>c</sup> He moueth them by certaine exhortations. <sup>d</sup> And confirmeth his argument with a strong example or allegorie.

Then I say, that the heire as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, thogh he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouerners, vntil the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the worlde.

4 But when the fulnes of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, & made vnder the Law,

5 That he might redeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hathe sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

8 But euen then, when ye knewe not God, ye did seruice vnto them, which by nature are not gods.

9 But now seing ye knowe God, yea, rather are knowen of God, how turne ye againe vnto impotent and beggerlie rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseeche you: ye haue not hurt me at all.

13 And ye knowe, how through infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 And the tryal of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nether abhorred: but ye receiued me as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? for I beare you recorde, that if it had bene possible, ye wolde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They are ielous ouer you amisse: yea, they wolde exclude you, that ye shulde altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, & not onely when I am present with you,

19 My litle children, of whome I trauaile in birth againe, vntil Christ be formed in you.

20 And I wolde I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doute of you.

21 Tell me, ye that wil be vnder the Law, do ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is writen, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a seruant, & one by a fre woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the fre woman, was borne by promes.

24 By the which things another thing is ment: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mounte Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, & it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is writen, Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake forth, & crye, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hathe many mo children, then she which hathe an housband.

CHAP. V.

1 He laboureth to drawe them away from Circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battel betwixt the Spirit & the flesh, and the frutes of them bothe.

1 Stand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and be not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shal profite you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euerie man, which is circumcised, that he is bounde to kepe the whole Law.

4 Ye are abolished from Christ: whosoever are iustified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit waite for the hope of righteousness through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ nether Circumcision auaieth anie thing, nether vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne wel: who did let you, that ye did not obeye the truth?

8 It is not the persuation of him that calleth you.

9 A litle leauen doeth leauen the whole lump.

10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye wil be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shal beare his condemnation, whosoever he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preache circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.

12 Wolde to God they were euen cut of, which do disquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For all the Law is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

15 If ye byte & deuoure one another, take hede lest ye be consumed one of another.

16 Then I say, walke in the Spirit, and ye shal not fulfil the lustes of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrarie one to the other, so that ye can not do the same things that ye wolde.

18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 Moreouer the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornication, vncleannes, wantonnes,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, seditions, heresies,

21 Enuie, murders, dronkennes, glottonie, and suche like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue tolde you before, that they which do suche things, shal not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the frute of the Spirit is loue, ioye, peace, long suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faith,

23 Mekenes, temperancie: against suche there is no Law.

24 For they that are Christs, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If we liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth them to vse gentlenes towards the weak.

2 And to shewe their brotherlie loue and modestie:

6 Also to prouide for their ministers. 9 To perseuere.

14 To reioyce in the crosse of Christ. 15 To newnes of life.

16 And last of all wisheth to them with the rest of the faithful all prosperitie.

1 Brethren, if a man be fallen by occasion into anie faute, ye which are spiritual, restore suche one with the spirit of mekenes, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfil the Law of Christ.

3 For if anie man seme to him self, that he is some what, when he is nothing, he deceiueth him self in his imaginacion.

4 But let euerie man proue his owne worke, and then shal he haue reioycing in him self onely and not in another.

5 For euerie man shal beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all his goods.

7 Be not deceived: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shal he also reape.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shal of the flesh reape corruptio: but he that soweth to the spirit, shal of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 Let vs not therefore be wearie of wel doing: for in due season we shal reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs do good vnto all men, but specially vnto the, which are of the housholde of faith.

11 Ye see how large a lettre I haue written

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof he wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutacion, he assureth them of saluacion, because they were thereunto predestinate by the fre election of God, before they were borne, and sealed up to this eternal life by the holie Gost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie he prayeth God to confirme towarde them. And to the intent they shulde not glorie in them selues, he sheweth them their extreme miserie, wherein they were plonged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promises were not made, and yet by the fre mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their A-postle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desirith God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfite vnderstanding of his Sonne, & exhorteth them like wise to be mindeful of so great benefites, nether to be moued with the false apostles, which seke to overthrowe their faith, and treade vnder fote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsel of God: who by this meanes preserveth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuche as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth the moste plentiful frutes, as innocencie, holines, with all suche offices appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he declareth not onely in general what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euerie mans vocacion.

a As with the knowledge of God in Christ,

CHAP. I.

After his salutacion, 4 He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluacion standeth in the fre election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good wil towarde them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith.
21 The maiestie of Christ.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by y<sup>e</sup> wil of God, to the<sup>s</sup> Saintes, which are at Ephesus, & to the faithful in Christ Iesus: Grace be with you, & peace fro<sup>m</sup> God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

* Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hathe blessed vs with all<sup>a</sup> spiritual blessing in heauenlie things in Christ,

* As he hathe<sup>b</sup> chosen vs in him, before y<sup>e</sup> fundacion of the worlde, y<sup>e</sup> we<sup>c</sup> shulde be<sup>d</sup> holie, & without blame before hi<sup>n</sup> in loue:

5 Who hathe predestinate vs, to be<sup>d</sup> adopted through Iesus Christ vnto him self, according to the good pleasure of his wil,

6 To the<sup>e</sup> praise of the glorie of his grace, wherewith he hathe made vs accepted in his beloued,

7 By whome we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenes of sinnes, according to his riche grace:

8 Whereby he hathe bene abudant toward vs in all wisdome & vnderstanding,

9 And hathe opened vnto vs the mysterie of his wil according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed<sup>f</sup> in him,

10 That in the dispensacion of the fulnes of the times he might gather together in one<sup>g</sup> all things, bothe which are in heaue<sup>n</sup> and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

11 In whome also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsel of his owne wil,

12 That<sup>h</sup> we, which first trusted in Christ, shulde be vnto the praise of his glorie:

13 In whome also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the worde of trueth, euen y<sup>e</sup> Gospel of your saluacion, wherein also after that ye beleued, ye were sealed with the holie

f That is, in Christ.

g By this he meaneth the whole bodie of the Church,
w<sup>ch</sup> he diuiderh are in heauen, & them which are in earth:

holie Spirit of promes,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vntil the redēption of the possession purchased vnto the praise of his glorie.

15 Therefore also after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, & loue toward all the Saintes,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glorie, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,

18 That y<sup>e</sup> eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened that ye may knowe what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saintes,

19 And what is y<sup>e</sup> exceeding greatnes of his power toward vs, which beleeue, according to the working of his mightie power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heauenlie places,

21 Farre aboue all principalitie, and power, & might, & domination, & euerie Name, that is named, not in this worlde onely, but also in that that is to come,

22 And hath made all things subiect vnder his fete, & hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head to the Church,

23 Which is his bodie, euen the fulnes of him that filleth all in all things.

CHAP. II.

To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onlie cause of saluation. 11 He sheweth them what manner of people they were before their conuersion. 18 And what they are now in Christ.

1 And you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and sinnes, 2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, & after the prince that ruleth in the aire, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the childre of disobedience,

3 Among whome we also had our cōuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, & of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as well as others.

4 But God which is riche in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,

5 Euen when we were dead by sinnes, hath he quickened vs together in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued,

6 And hath raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenlie places in Christ Iesus,

7 That he might shew in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnes toward vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are ye saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gifte

of God,

9 Not of workes, lest any man shulde boast him self.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordeined, that we shulde walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, & called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at y<sup>e</sup> time without Christ, & were alienates from the cōmune welth of Israel, & were strangers frō the cōuenants of promes, & had no hope, & were without God in the worlde.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre of, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of bothe one, & hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandments, which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in him self, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile bothe vnto God in one bodie by his crosse, & slaye hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a farre of, & to them that were nere.

18 For through him we bothe haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers & foreners: but citizens with the Saintes, and of the housholde of God,

20 And are buylt vpon the fundacion of the Apostles and Prophetes, Iesus Christ him self being the chief corner stone,

21 In whome all the buylding coupled together, groweth vnto an holic Temple in the Lord,

22 In whome ye also are buylt together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment: 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble. 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

1 For this cause, I Paul am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles, 2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to you warde,

3 That is, that God by reuelatiō hath shewed this mysterie vnto me (as I wrote aboue in fewe wordes,

4 Whereby when ye read, ye may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not opened was not in cōparifon of that abundance which was shewed when we were called: neither yet was the time, nor the manner known.

22. 11.

e Here he meaneth, as concerning grace, and not by nature.

The Gentiles inheriters. To the Ephesians. One bodie, one spirit.

vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reueiled vnto his holie Apostles and Prophetes by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles shulde be inheriters also, and of the same bodie, and partakers of his promes in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the giste of the grace of God giuen vnto me through the working of his power.

8 *Euen vnto me the least of all Saintes is this grace giuen, that I shulde preache among the *Gentiles the vnsearcheable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the *mysterie is, which from the beginning of the worlde hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things
by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto * principalities and powers in heauēlie places might be knowen by the Church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whome we haue boldnes & entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glorie.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whome is named the whole * familie in <sup>h</sup> heauen and in earth)

16 That he might grante you according to the riches of his glorie, y<sup>e</sup> ye may be strēg-thened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your <sup>i</sup> hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May be able to cōprehend with all Sain-tes, what is the <sup>k</sup> breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to knowe the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all <sup>l</sup> fulnes of God.

20 *Vnto him therefore that is able to do exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power y<sup>e</sup> worketh in <sup>m</sup> vs,

21 Be praise in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generatiōs for euer, Amen.

CHAP. IIII.

He exhorteth them vnto mekenes long suffering, vnto loue and peace, y<sup>e</sup> euerie one to serue and edifie another with the gift that God hath giuen him, 14 To beware of strange doctrine. 23 To lay aside the olde conuersation of griedie lustes, and to walke in a newe life.

1 *Therefore, being prisoner in y<sup>e</sup> <sup>a</sup> Lord, I praye you that ye walke worthie of the vocation whereunto ye are called,

2 With all humblenes of minde, and me-kenes, with long suffering, supporting one another through loue,

3 Endeavoring to kepe the vnitie of the Spirit in the bonde of peace.

4 There <sup>u</sup> <sup>b</sup> one bodie, and one <sup>c</sup> Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There <sup>u</sup> <sup>b</sup> one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 *One God & Father of all, which is <sup>d</sup> aboue all, and <sup>e</sup> through all, & in you all.

7 *But vnto euerie one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the <sup>f</sup> gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, *When he ascended vp on hie, he <sup>g</sup> led captiuitie captiue, and gaue giftes vnto men.

9 (Now, in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth?

10 He that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill <sup>h</sup> all things)

11 *He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophetes, & some Euāgelistes, and some Pastours, and Teachers,

12 For the <sup>i</sup> gathering together of the Sain-tes, for the worke of the ministerie, <sup>k</sup> and for the edificatiō of the bodie of Christ,

13 Til we all mere together (in the vnitie of faith & knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a <sup>l</sup> perfite man, & vnto the measure of the age of the fulnes of Christ,

14 That we hence forth be no more children, wauering & caryed about with eue-rie winde of doctrine, by the deceit of mē, and with craftines, whereby they laye in waite to deceiue.

15 But let vs followe the trueth in loue, and in all things growe vp into him, which is the <sup>m</sup> head, that <sup>n</sup> is Christ,

16 By whome all the bodie being coupled and knit together by euerie ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectual power, which <sup>u</sup> is in the measure of e-uerie parte) receiueth increase of y<sup>e</sup> bodie, vnto the edifying of it self in loue.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walke not as *other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minde,

18 Hauing their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of <sup>o</sup> God through the ignorāce that is in them, because of the <sup>p</sup> hardenes of their heart:

19 Which being <sup>q</sup> past * feeling, haue giuen them selues vnto wantonnes, to worke all

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ.

21 If so be ye haue heard him, and haue bene taught by him, as the <sup>s</sup> trueth is in Ie-

30 And *griue not the holie Spirit of God by whome ye are sealed vnto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and angre, and wrath, crying, and euil speaking be put away fro you, with all maliciousnes.

32 *Be ye courteous one to another, & tender hearted, forgiving one another, euen as God for Christs sake forgauē you.

CHAP. V.

He exhorteth them vnto loue, 3 Warneth them to beware of vncleannes, couetousnes, foolish talking, and false doctrine, 17 To be circumspecte. 18 To auoide drunkennes, 19 To reioyce and to be thankful towards God, 21 To submit them selues one to another. 22 He entreateth of corporal marriage and of the spiri- tual betwixt Christ and his Church.

1 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dere children,

2 *And walke in loue, euen as Christ hath loued vs, and hath giuen him self for vs, to be an offering and a sacrifice of a sweet smelling sauour to God.

3 *But fornication, & all vncleannes, or couetousnes, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth Saintes,

4 Nether filthines, nether foolish talking, nether iesting, which are things not comelie, but rather giuing of thanks.

5 For this ye knowe, that no whoremonger, nether vncleane persone, nor couetous persone, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdome of Christ, & of God.

6 *Let no man deceiue you with vaine wordes: for for suche things commeth the wrath of God vpon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not therefore companions with them.

8 For ye were once darkenes, but are now

d Either in excusing sinne, or in mocking at the menases, and light in the Lord: walke as children of light,

9 (For the frute of the Spirit is in all goodnes, and righteousness, and trueth)

10 Approouing that which is pleasing to the Lord.

11 And haue no fellowship with y vnfruitful workes of darkenes, but euen reprove them rather.

12 For it is shame euē to speake of y things, which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things when they are reprovēd of the light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.

14 Wherefore he saith, <sup>h</sup> Awake thou that sleepest, & stand vp from the dead, & Christ shal giue thee light.

15 Take hede therefore that ye walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as wise,

16 Redeming the time: for the dayes are euil.

17 *Wherefore, be ye not vnwise, but vnderstand what the wil of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunke with wine, wherein is excesse: but be fulfilled with the Spirit,

19 Speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing, and making melodie to the Lord in your hearts,

20 Giuing thākes alwaie for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.

22 *Wiues, submit your selues vnto your housbands, as vnto the Lord.

23 *For the housband is the wiues head, euē as Christ is the head of the Church, & the same is the sauour of his bodie.

24 Therefore as the Church is in subiectiō to Christ, euen so let the wiues be to their housbands in euerie thing.

25 *Housbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, & gaue him self for it,

26 That he might sanctifie it, & clese it by the washing of water through y worde,

27 That he might make it vnto him self a glorious Church, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or anie suche thing: but that it shulde be holie and without blame.

28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loveth him self.

29 For no mā euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth & cherisheth it, euē as the Lord doeth the Church.

30 For we are members of his bodie, of his flesh, and of his bones.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holie Gost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preache the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauielled from place to place, til at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians, being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relief vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good wil towarde them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrink: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who shulde instruct them in matters more amply yea, and that he him self wolde also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crisse then the false apostles, he cōfute their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whome we haue all thing, and without whome we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this followe certeine admonitions bothe particular and general, with testification of his affection towarde them, and thankesful accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 S. Paul discovereth his heart towards them, 3 By his thanks giuing, 4 Prayers, 5 And wishes for their faith and saluation. 7. 12. 20. He sheweth the frute of his crosse. 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

Aul & Timotheus the seruants of I E S U S C H R I S T, to all the Saintes in Christ Iesus which are at Philippi, with the Bishops, and Deacons:

Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

* I thanke my God hauing you in perfect memorie,

(Alwaie in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnes)

5 Because of the fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the first day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing that he that hath begone this good worke in you, wil performe it vntil the day of Iesus Christ,

7 As it becometh me so to iudge of you all because I haue you in remembrance that bothe in my bādes, and in my defense, and confirmation of the Gospel you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my recorde, how I long after you all from the verie heart rote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abūde, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discern things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure, and without offence, vntil the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the frutes of righteousness, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 ¶ I wolde ye vnderstode, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bādes in Christ are famous throughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places,

14 In so much that manie of the brethren in the Lord are boldned through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the worde.

15 Some preache Christ euē through enuie and strife, and some also of good wil.

16 The one parte preacheth Christ of contention & not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defense of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner wayes, whether it be vnder a pretence, or syncerely: and I therein ioye: yea, and wil ioye.

19 For I knowe that this shal turne to my saluation, through your prayer, & by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ,

20 As I hartely loke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed, but that with all confidence, as all wayes, sonow Christ shal be magnified in my bodie, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me bothe in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And whether to liue in the flesh were profitable for me, and what to chose I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doute on bothe sides, desiring to be losed and to be with Christ, which is beste of all.

24 Neuertheles, to abide in the flesh is more nedeful for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shal abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioye of your faith,

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 * Onely let your cōuersation be, as it becometh Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and se you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye continue in one Spirit, & in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a token of perdition, & to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 For vnto you it is giuen for Christ, that not onely ye shulde beleue in him, but also suffer for his sake,

30 Hauing the same fight, which ye sawe in me, and now heare to be in me.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorteth them aboute all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that he and Timotheus wil speedily come vnto them, 27 And excuseth the long tarying of Epaphroditus.

<sup>24</sup> And trust in the Lord, that I also my self shal come shortly.

<sup>25</sup> But I supposed it necessarie to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellowe souldier, eue your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me suche things as I wanted.

<sup>26</sup> For he longed after all you, and was full of heauines, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

<sup>27</sup> And no doute he was sicke, verie nere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, & not on him onely, but on me also, lest I shulde haue sorowe vpon sorowe.

<sup>28</sup> I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye shulde se him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowful.

<sup>29</sup> Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnes, and make muche of suche:

11 If by anie meanes I might atteine vnto the<sup>r</sup> resurrection of the dead:

12 <sup>g</sup> Not as thogh I had alreadie attained to it, ether were alreadie perfect: but I folowe, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am <sup>h</sup> comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I counte not my self, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I do: I forget that which is behinde, and endeouore my self vnto that which is before,

14 And followe hard toward the <sup>i</sup> marke, for the prise of the hie calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as manie as <sup>k</sup> be <sup>l</sup> perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shal reueile euē them<sup>e</sup> same vnto you.

16 Neuertheles, in that whereunto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be folowers of me, and loke on them, which walke so, as ye haue vs for an ensample.

18 * For manie walke, of whome I haue tolde you often, & now tell you weping, that they are the enemies of the <sup>a</sup> Crosse of Christ,

19 Whose " end is damnacion, whose God is their belie, and whose <sup>o</sup> glorie is to their shame, which minde earthlie things.

20 But our <sup>p</sup> conuersacion is in heauen, frō whence also we loke for the * Sauour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ,

21 Who shal change our vile bodie, that it may be facioned like vnto his glorious bodie, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto him self.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honest conuersacion, 15 And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutations.

1 Therefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, & beseeche Syntyche, that they be of one accorde in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseeche thee, faithful yokefelowe, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clemente also, and with other my felowe laborers, whose names are in the * boke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knowne vnto all men. The Lord <sup>is</sup> at hand.

6 * Be nothing careful, but in all things let your requestes be shewed vnto God in praier, and supplicacion with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shal <sup>e</sup> preserue your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethré, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good reporte, if there be anie vertue, or if there be anie praise, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue bothe learned and receiued, and heard, and sene in me: those thi<sup>ngs</sup> do, and the God of peace shal be with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are <sup>d</sup> reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of <sup>e</sup> want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be abased, and I can abunde: euerie where in all things I am instructed bothe to be ful, and to be hongrie, and to abunde, and to haue want.

13 I am able to <sup>do</sup> all things through the helpe of <sup>f</sup> Christ, which strēghtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue wel done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians knowe also that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with me cōcerning the <sup>h</sup> matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

16 For euen when I was in Thessalonica, ye sent once, and afterwarde againe for my necessitie, 17 Not that I desire a gift: but I desire the frute which may further your reckening.

18 Now I haue receiued all, and haue plentie: I was euen filled, after that I had receiued of Epaphroditus that which came from you, an odour that smelleth swete, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasant to God.

19 And my God shal fulfil all your necessities through his riches with glorie in Iesus Christ.

20 Vnto God euen our Father be praise for euermore, Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betwene the linelie, effectual and true Christ, and the fained, contrefait and imagined Christ, whome the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite towards them, teaching them also that saluacion, and whatsoever good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whome onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuche as the false brethren wolde haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers Vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to staye onely on Christ, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for Circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holines, worshiping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he viterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stande in mortification of the flesh, newenes of life, with other like offices appertaining to the generally & particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Praieth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the contrefait Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his autoritie & charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, & Timotheus our brother,

To the, which are at Colosse, Sautes & faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thanks to God euē the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith <sup>b</sup> in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saintes, 5 For the hopes sake, which is layd vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the worde of trueth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruteful, as it is also among you, from the day that ye heard and truly knewe the grace of God,

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deare felowe seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue <sup>c</sup> by the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the daye we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of <sup>d</sup> his wil, in all wisdome, & spiritual vnderstanding, <sup>d That is, Gods.</sup>

10 * That ye might walke worthie of the Lord, and please him in all things, being <sup>e</sup> fruteful in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God, <sup>ephe. 4. 1. philip. 1. 27. 1. thes. 2. 12. 1. Cor. 3. 2.</sup>

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all pacience, & long suffering with ioyfulness,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs mete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saintes in light, <sup>Mat. 3. 17. & 17. 3.</sup>

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenes, and hath translated vs into the kingdome <sup>f</sup> of his deare Sonne, <sup>2. pet. 1. 17. e For God is made visible in the flesh of Christ, & the diuinitie dwelleth in him corporally. ebr. 1. 3. f Borne before any thing was created. 14 In whome we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiuenes of sinnes,

16 * For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him, <sup>g He that rose first againe fro the dead to take possession of life euerlasting: which thing may be called a new birth. 1. 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist. <sup>h That the Church, which is his bodie, might receiue of his abundance. i That is, the whole Church.</sup>

18 And he is the head of the bodie of the Church: he is the beginning, <sup>i</sup> & the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

19 * For it pleased the Father, that in him shoulde all <sup>j</sup> fulnes dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile <sup>k</sup> all things vnto him self, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse bothe the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers and enemies, because your mindes were set in euil workes, hathe he now also reconciled,

22 In the bodie of his flesh through death, to make you* holie, and vnblameable and without faute in his sight,

23 *If ye continue, grounded and stablished in the faith, and be not moued away from the hope of the Gospel, whereof ye haue heard, and which hathe bene preached to euerie creature which is vnder heauē whereof I Paul am a minister.

24 Now reioyce I in my sufferings for* you, and fulfil<sup>1</sup> the rest of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the Church,

25 Whereof I am a minister, according to the dispensatiō of God, which is giuen me vnto youwarde, to fulfil the<sup>m</sup> worde of God,

26 *Which is the mysterie hid since the worlde began, and from all ages, but now is made manifest to his<sup>a</sup> Saintes,

27 To whome God wolde make knowne what is the riches of this glorious mysterie among the Gentiles, w<sup>h</sup> riches is Christ in you, *the hope of glorie,

28 Whome we preache, admonishing euerie man, and teaching euerie man in all wisdome, that we may present euerie man perfect in Christ Iesus:

29 Whereunto I also labour and strue, according to his working which worketh in me mightely.

CHAP. II.

3 Having protested his good wil towards them, 4 He admonisheth them not to turne backe frō Christ, 8 To the seruice of angels or anie other inuention, or els ceremonies of the Law, 17 Which haue finished their office, and are ended in Christ.

FOR I wolde ye knewe what great<sup>a</sup> fighting I haue for your sakes, and for the of Laodicea, and for as manie as haue not sene my<sup>a</sup> persone in the flesh,

3 That their hearts might be comforted & they knit together in loue, and in all riches of the ful assurance of vnderstāding, to knowe the mysterie of God euen the Father, and of Christ:

In whome are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest anie mā shulde beguile you with enticing wordes.

5 *For thogh I be absent in the<sup>b</sup> flesh, yet am I with you in the<sup>c</sup> spirit reioycing, and beholding your ordre, and your stedfast faith in Christ.

6 As ye haue therefore receiued Christ Iesus the Lord, so walke in him,

7 Roted and buylt in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye haue* bene taught, abū-ding therein with thankes giuing.

8 Beware lest there be anie man that spoile you through<sup>d</sup> philosophie, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the worlde, and not after Christ.

9 *For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the<sup>e</sup> Godhead<sup>b</sup> bodely.

10 And ye are compleate in him, which is the head of all Principalitie and Power:

11 In whome also ye are circumcised with* circumcision made without hāds, by putting of<sup>f</sup> y<sup>n</sup> sinful bodie of the flesh, through the circumcision<sup>f</sup> of Christ,

12 In that ye are*buried with him through baptisme, in whome ye are also raised vp together through* the faith<sup>s</sup> of the operation of God which raised him from the dead.

13 *And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the vncircumcisiō of your flesh, hathe he quickened together with him, forgiuig<sup>n</sup> you all your trespasses.

14 And putting out the* hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, w<sup>h</sup> was contrarie to vs, he euen toke it out of the way, & fastened it vpon the crosse,

15 And hathe<sup>i</sup> spoiled the Principalities, and Powers, and hathe made a shewe of them openly, and hathe triumphed ouer them in the same crosse.

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meat and drinke, or in respect of an<sup>k</sup> holie day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath<sup>dayes</sup>,

17 Which are but a shaddowe of things to come but the bodie is in Christ.

18 *Let no man<sup>l</sup> at his pleasure beare rule ouer you by humblenes of minde, & worshiping of Angels, aduancing him self in those things which he neuer sawe, rashly pult vp with his fleshlie minde,

19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the bodie furnished and knit together by iointes and bandes, encreaseth with the increasing of God.

THE FIRST EPISTLE of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene wel instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as moſt careful for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who ſome after admoniſhing him of their eſtate, gave occaſion to the Apoſtle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be conſtant in faith, & to ſuffer whatſoener God calleth them vnto for the teſtimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godlie lining the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be ſo purged, that ſome cockle remaine not among the wheat, ſo there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious queſtions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falſely, as touching the point of the reſurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly inſtructeth them what to thinke, earneſtly forbidding them to ſeek curioſly to knowe the times, willing them rather to wathe leſt the ſudden comming of Chriſt come vpon them at vnwares: and ſo after certeine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſtedfaſt in faith & good workes. 6 And receiue the Gospel with ſuche earneſtnes. 7 That they are an example to all others.

Paul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

our good wil was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were dere vnto vs.

<sup>l</sup> For ye remember, brethren, <sup>m</sup> our labour &

worde of the preaching of God, ye recei-in dede the worde of God, which alſo wor-miniſter of God, and our labour ſelow in the Gospel of Chriſt, to ſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

<sup>n</sup> That no man ſhulde be moued with theſe afflictions: for ye your ſelues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.

tolde you before that we ſhulde ſuffre tri-of your faith, leſt the <sup>t</sup> cepter had tempted you in any ſorte, and that our labour had we reioyce for your ſakes before our God,

we might ſee your face, & might <sup>e</sup> accompliſh

CHAP. V.

He enformeth them of the day of iudgement & coming of the Lord, & Exhorting the to watch, 12 And to regard such as preache Gods worde among them.

But of the times & seasons, brethren, ye haue no nede y<sup>e</sup> I write vnto you. For ye your selues knowe perfectly, that the day of the Lord shal come, euen as a thefe in the night.

For when they shal say, Peace, and safetie, then shal come vpon them sudden destruction, as the travail vpon a woman with childe, and they shal not escape.

But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day shulde come on you, as it were a thefe.

Ye are all the children of light, and the childre of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenes.

Therefore let vs not sleepe as do other, but let vs watch and be sober.

For they that slepe, slepe in the night, & they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

But let vs which are of the day, be sober, *putting on y<sup>e</sup> brest plate of faith & loue, & of the hope of saluation for an helmer.

For God hathe not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ,

Which dyed for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we shulde liue together with him.

Wherefore exhorte one another, & edifie one another, euen as ye do.

Now we beseeche you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you,

That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace amōg your selues.

We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnruie: comforte the feble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

*Se that none recompense euil for euil vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, bothe toward your selues, and toward all men.

Reioyce euermore.

*Pray continually.

In all things giue thanks: for this is the wil of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

Quench not the Spirit.

Despise not prophecying.

Trye all things, and kepe that which is good.

Absteyne from all appearance of euil.

Now the verie God of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and bodie, may be kept blameles vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

*Faithful is he which calleth you, which wil also do it.

Brethren, pray for vs.

Grete all the brethren with an holie kisse.

THE SECONDE EPI- stle to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Lest the Thessalonians shoulde thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places, rather then came to the, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth the to pacience and other frutes of faith, nether to be moued with that vaine opinion of suche as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuche as before that day there shoulde be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great parte of the worlde, and that Antichrist shoulde reigne in the Temple of God finally commending him self to their prayers, & encouraging them to constancie, he willethe the to correcte suche sharply, as line idelly of other mens labours, whome, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

- 1 He thanketh God for their faith, loue and patience.
11 He praieth for the encrease of the same, 22 And sheweth what frute shal come thereof.

Aul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

1. Thess. 1. 1.

3 *We ought to thake God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is mete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euerie one of you towarde another aboundeth,

4 So that we our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffre,

5 *Which is a token of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthe of the kingdome of God, for y which ye also suffre.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lord Iesus shal shewe himself from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fyre, rendring vengeance vnto them, that do not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shalbe punished with euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glorie of his power,

10 When he shal come to be glorified in his Saintes, and to be made marueilous in all the that beleue (because our testimonie towarde you was beleued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also praye alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthe of his calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodnes, & the worke of faith with power, 12 That y Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, & ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

tion: and all these he worketh of his mere grace through Christ. is Gods wonderful worke in vs. g As the head with the bodie.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shal not come, til the departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist. 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

1 Now we beseeche you, brethren, by y comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued fro y minde, nor troubled nether by a spirit, nor by worde, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as thogh the daye of Christ were at hand.

3 *Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shal not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne be disclosed, euen y sonne of perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himself against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing him self that he is God.

5 Remeber ye not, that whe I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now ye knowe what withholdeth, that he might be reueiled in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth alreadye sworke: onely he which now withholdeth, so shal he be destroyed him self. f Because the false apostles had perswaded after a sorte the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipation before, and therefore rather to prepare them selues to patience, then to rest and quietnes: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel shoulde be preached throughout all, Mat 24. 14. g To which, and is therefore called a mysterie because it is secret. h Which shal stay for a time.

7 For ye your selues knowe * how ye ought to folowe vs: * for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

THE FIRST EPI- stle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

*I*N writing this Epistle Paul semed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to kepe other in awe, which wolde haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he dooth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godlie with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law they knewe not what was the chief end of the Law. And as for him self, he so confisseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willett prayers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euerie sorte of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuche as God hath the lesse ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluacion, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whome the myserie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shal susteine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shal teache things contrarie to the worde of God. This done, he teacheth what widdowes shulde be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging anie: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of conuocations, of riche men, and aboute all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

Or, ordinance. a So called because he followed the simplicity of y Gospel.

b Because these questioners preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, & beautified them w the Law, as if they had bene the verie Law of God, S. Paul sheweth that y end of Gods Law is loue, & cannot be without a good conscience, nether a good conscience without faith, nor faith without y worde of God: so their doctrine is an occasion of contention, is worth nothing.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to se that nothing be taught but Gods worde, &c. s Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie & edification are the end thereof. so And admonisheth of Himeneus and Alexander.

*4 Nether that they giue hede to * fables and genealogies, * which are endles, which brede questiones rather then godlie edifying which is by faith.*

*5 For * the b end of the * commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfaigned.*

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 They wolde be doctours of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, nether whereof they affirme.

*8 * And we knowe, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,*

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a c righteous man, but vnto the lawles and disobedient, to the vngodlie, and to d sinners, to the vnholie, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with b faith and i loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

*15 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued, that * Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whome I am chief.*

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ shulde first shewe on me all log suffring vnto the ensample of them, which shal in time to come beleue in him vnto eternal life.

*17 * Now vnto the King euerlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glorie for euer, and euer, Amen.*

9 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued.

10 For therefore we labour & are rebuked, because we trust in the liuing God, which is the Sauour of all mē, specially of those that beleue.

11 These things commande and teache.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be vnto the that beleue, an ensample, in worde, in conuersation, in loue, in spirit, in faith, & in purenes.

16 Take hede vnto thy self, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou shalt bothe saue thy self, and them that heare thee.

Thalt faithfully do thy duetie which is an assurance of thy saluation.

CHAP. V.

1 He teacheth him how he shal behaue him self in rebuking all degrees. 3 An ordre concerning widdowes. 17 The establishing of ministers. 23 The gouernance of his house. 24 And the iudgement of sinnes.

a Take care for them.

b Paul willeth that the widdowes put the Church to no charge which haue ether children or kinfolkes, that are able to relieue them, but that the children nourish their mother or kinfolkes according as nature bindeth them.

c Which haue no maner of worldelic meanes to helpe her selfe w<sup>h</sup> d Because she is vnto the profitable.

e He meaneth such widdowes which being iustly diuorced from their first husbands married againe to the sclander of the Church: for els he doeth not reprove the widdowes that haue bene often married the once.

17 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father, & the yonger men as brethren,

2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters, with all purenes.

3 Honour widdowes, which are widdowes in dede.

4 But if any widdowe haue children or nephewes, let the learne first to shewe godlines towards their owne house, and to recompense their kinred: for that is an honest thing and acceptable before God.

5 And she y<sup>e</sup> is a widdowe in dede and lef alone, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liueth in pleasure, is dead, while she liueth.

7 These things therefore commande, that they may be blameles.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, & namely for them of his household, he denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidel.

9 Let not a widdowe be taken into the nōber vnder thre score yere olde, that hathe bene the wife of one housband,

10 And wel reported of for good workes: if she haue nourished her childre, if she haue lodged the strangers, if she haue washed the Saintes fete, if she haue ministered vnto them which were in aduersitie, if she were continually giue vnto euerie good worke.

11 But refuse the yonger widdowes: for whē they haue begōne to waxe f<sup>r</sup> wāton against Christ, they wil marie,

12 Hauing damnation, because they haue broken the first faith.

13 And likewise also being ydle they learne to go about from house to house: yea, they are not onely ydle, but also prattlers and busibodies, speaking things which are not comelie.

14 I wil therefore that the yonger women marie, and beare children, & gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake euil.

15 For certeine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithful man, or faithful woman haue widdowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widdowes in dede.

17 The Elders that rule wel, are worthie of double honour, specially they which labour in the worde and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not mouel the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corne: and, The labourer is worthie of his wages.

19 Against an Elder receiue none accusation, but vnder two or thre witnesses,

20 Them that sinne, rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.

21 I charge thee before God and the Lord Iesus Christ, and the elect Angels, that thou obserue these things without preferring one to another, & do nothing parcially.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, nether be partaker of other mens sinnes: kepe thy self pure.

23 Drinke no longer water, but vse a litle wine for thy stomakes sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sinnes are open before hād, and go before vnto iudgement: but some mens sinnes followe after.

25 Likewise also the good workes are manifest before hād, and they that are otherwise, can not be hid.

2 And thei which haue beleuing masters, let the not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather do seruice, because they are faithful, and beloued, and partakers of the benefite. These things teache and exhorte.

3 If any man teache other wise, and consenteth not to the wholsome wordes of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godlines,

4 He is puffed vp and knoweth nothing, but doteth about questions and strife of wordes, whereof cometh enuie, strife, railings, euil surmisings,

5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the trueth, which thinke that gaine is godlines: from suche separate thy self.

6 But godlines is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.

7 For we brought nothing into this worlde, & it is certaine, that we can carie nothing out.

8 Therefore when we haue fode & raiment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that wil be riche, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish & noysome lusses, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euil, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, & perced them selues through with many sorowes.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and followe after righteousnes, godlines, faith, loue, patience, & meeknes.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: laye holde of eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, & hast professed a good professio before many witnesses.

13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickneth all things, & before Iesus Christ which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou kepe this commandment without spot, and vnrebukeable, vntil the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 Which in due time he shal shewe, that is blessed and prince onely, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords,

16 Who onely hath the immortalitie, & dwelleth in the light that none can atteine vnto, whome neuer man sawe, nether can se, vnto whome be honour and power euerlasting, Amen.

17 Charge the that are riche in this worlde, that they be not high minded, and that they trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioye)

18 That they do good, & be riche in good workes, & readie to distribute, and communicate,

19 Laying vp in store for the selues a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternal life.

20 O Timotheus, kepe that which is committed vnto thee, and auoide profane & vaine babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called,

21 Which while some professe, they haue erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee, Amen.

The first epistle to Timotheus written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest citie of Phrygia Pacaciana.

THE SECONDE EPI- stle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (& in him all the faithful) in the faith of the Gospel, & in the constant & sincere confessio of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attende the yssue, as do husband men, which at length receiue the frutes of their labours, & to cast of all feare & care, as souldiers do which seeke onely to please their capteine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preache the same to others, diligently taking hede of contentions, curious disputations, & vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may all together edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus & Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: & yet to the intent that no man shulde be offended at their fall, being men of autoritie and in estimation, he sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his, & that the Church is subiect to this calamitie: that the euil must dwell among the good til Gods trial come: yet he reserueth them whome he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus shulde not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, & dangerous times shal followe, willing him to arme him self with the hope of the good yssue that God wil giue vnto him, and to exercise him self diligently in the Scriptures, bothe against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certeine necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

a Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him. 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

a Being sent of God to preache that life which he had promised in Christ Iesus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, according to the promes of life, which is in Christ Iesus,

To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie, & peace from God the Father, & from Iesus Christ our Lord.

I thanke God, * whome I serue fro mine belders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

Desiring to se thee, mindful of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioye:

When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, & am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre vp the giste of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sounde minde.

Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, nether of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

Who hath saued ys, & called vs with an *holie calling, not according to our *workes, but according to his owne purpose & grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the *worlde was,

But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Sauour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

*Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, & Apostle, & a teacher of the Gentiles.

For the which cause I also suffre these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whome I haue beleued, & I am perswaded that he is able to kepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

Kepe the true paterne of the wholsome wordes, which y haue heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

That *worthie thing, which was committed to thee, kepe through the holie Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sorte are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out verie diligently, and founde me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, & in how manie things he hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, y knowest verie wel.

CHAP. II.

a He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abyde faste in the wholsome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ. 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his. 19 And the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

And what things thou hast heard of me, by manie witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shalbe able to teache other also.

Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

No man that warreth, entangleth himself with the affaires of this life, because he wolde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

And if anie man also strue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to do.

The housband man must labour before he receiue the frutes.

Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

Remember that Iesus Christ made of the sede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel.

Wherein I suffer trouble as an euil doer, euen vnto bondes: but the worde of God is not bounde.

Therefore I suffer all things, for the *elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternal glorie.

It is a true saying, For if we be *dead with him, we also shal liue with him.

If we suffer, we shal also reigne with him: *if we denie him, he also wil denie vs.

If *we beleue not, yet abideth he faithful: he can not denie him self.

Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the peruerting of the hearers.

Studie to shewe thy self approued vnto God, a workeman that nedeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the worde of truerh aright.

*Stay prophane, and vaine babblings: for they shal encrease vnto more vngodlines.

And their worde shal fret as a cancre: of which sorte is Hymeneus and Philetus,

13 Which

CHAP. III.

He prophesieth of the perillous times. 2 Setteth out hypocrites in their colours. 12 Sheweth the state of the Christians. 14 And how to auoid dangers. 16 Also what profit cometh of the Scriptures.

1 His knowe also, that in the last dayes shal come perillous times.

2 For men shalbe louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proude, cursed speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankful, vnholie,

3 Without natural affectio, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitours, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Hauing a shewe of godlines, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sorte are they which crepe into houses, and lead captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 And as Iannes and Iambres withstode Moses, so do these also resist the trueth, men of corrupte mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shal preuaile no longer: for their madnes shalbe euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, maner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, & afflictions which came vnto me at Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystris, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me.

12 Yea, & all that wil liue godly in Christ Iesus, shal suffer persecution.

13 But the euil men and deceiuers, shal waxe worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art persuaded thereof, knowing of whome thou hast learned them:

15 And y thou hast knowe the holie Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teache, to improve, to correct and to instruct in righteousness,

17 That the man of God may be absolute, being made perfite vnto all good workes.

CHAP. IIIII.

He exhorteth Timotheus to be seruent in the worde, and to suffer aduersitie. 6 Maketh mention of his owne death. 9 And biddeth Timotheus come vnto him.

1 Charge thee therefore before God, & before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shal iudge the quicke and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdome,

2 Preache the worde: be instant, in season and out of season: improve, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time wil come, when they wil not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shal after their owne lustes get them an heape of teachers,

4 And shal turne their eares fro the trueth, and shal be giuen vnto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: do the worke of an Euangeliste: make thy ministerie fully knowne.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departing is at hand.

7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished my course: I haue kept the faith.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begonne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to overthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition wolde haue thrust in them selues to be pastors: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in manie trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongs other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holines in meates & suche outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, & what things apperteine to euerie mans vocation. Against the which, if anie man rebelle or els doeth not obey, he willett him to be auoyded.

CHAP. I.

4 To Titus my natural<sup>d</sup> sonne according to the commune faith, Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shuldest continue to redresse<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> things that remaine, and shuldest ordeine Elders in euerie citie, as I appointed thee,

 12 One of them selues, even one of their owne <sup>1</sup> prophetes said, The Cretians are alwaies lyars, euil beastes, slowe belyes.
 13 This witnes is true: wherefore rebuke the sharply, that they maye be founde in the faith,

<sup>8</sup> But when the bountifulnes and loue of God our Sauour towarde man appeared,

<sup>9</sup> This commandement is giue to y minister, & so particularly to all men to whome the sworde is not committed: but els the magistrat, whose chief office is to mainteine Gods glorie in his Church, ought to cut off all suche rotten and infectious members from the bod.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnes, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenes of his matter, he fleeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruuant to Philemon bothe robbed his master, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardone, with moste waighie arguments prouing the due tie of one Christian to another, & so with salutations endeth.

5 He reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon.
9 Whome he desireth to forgieue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

1 Paul a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our dere friend, & fellow helper,

2 And to our dere sister Apphia, and to Archippus our felowe souldier, & to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I giue thanks to my God, making mention alwaies of thee in my praiers,

5 (When I heare of thy loue & faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, & toward all Saintes)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruteful, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you through Christ Iesus, may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioye and consolacion in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, thogh I be verie bolde in Christ to commande thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseeche thee, thogh I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseeche thee for my sonne Onesimus, whome I haue begotten in my bondes,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable bothe to thee and to me,

12 Whome I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, y is mine owne bowels,

13 Whome I wolde haue retained with me, that in thy stede he might haue ministred vnto me in the bondes of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde wolde I do nothing, that thy benefite shulde not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore departed for a season, that thou shuldest receiue him for euer, 16 Not now as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how muche more then vnto thee, bothe in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou counte our things as commune, receiue him as my self.

18 If he haue hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accountes.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I wil recompense it, albeit I do not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne self.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt do euen more then I say.

22 Moreover also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your praiers I shalbe giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellowe prisoner in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas & Luke, my fellowe helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO the Ebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuche as diuers, bothe of the Greke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iuste causes wolde not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our parte to labour muche therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the auctor thereof, it diminisheth nothing the autoritie, although we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chief purpose is to perswade vnto the Ebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuche as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himself: for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Levitical Priests were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the seventh chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophetes in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. chapter, verse 18. to the twentieth and siue verse of the same chapter: yea, and is the King to whome all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and governed by his power, we may stedfastly, and courageously perseuere euen to the end in hope of that ioye that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may bothe be thankfull to God, and dweilful to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

7 And of the Angels he saith, * He maketh the Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fyre.

8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, * O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousness.

9 Thou hast loued righteousness and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with y oyle of gladnes about thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shal perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shal waxe olde as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shalbe changed: but thou art the same and thy yeres shal not faile.

CCc.ii.

<sup>a</sup> We must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine, which we haue learned, lest like vessels full of chappes we leake, and runne out on euery parte.
<sup>b</sup> Which was the Law giuen to Moses by the hands of the Angels, Gal. 3. 19. ad. 7. 55.
<sup>e</sup> Which Esai calleth the new heauens, and the new earth, chap. 65. 17. whereof Christ is the father, Isa. 9. 6. that is, the head of vs his members.
<sup>f</sup> He speaketh here chiefly of the faithful, which are made through Christ citizens of this worlde to come where they shal enioye wth their prince all these things w<sup>ch</sup> now they haue onely but in parte.
<sup>i</sup> To man, as he is of Christ.
<sup>l</sup> Iesus Christ by humbling himself & taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, & was our flesh, & mortallitie, giueth vs assurance of our saluation.
<sup>m</sup> Therefore we by afflictions are made like to the Sonne of God. n The head & the members are of one nature: so Christ w<sup>ch</sup> sanctifieth vs, & we y<sup>e</sup> are sanctified, are all one by the vnion of our flesh. o This proueth Christs humanitie.

heard, lest at anie time we shulde let the slippe.
 2 For if the <sup>b</sup> worde spoken by Angels was stedfastte, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iuste recompense of rewarde,
 3 How shal we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by <sup>d</sup> them that heard him,
 4 * God bearing witness thereto, bothe with signes and wonders, & with diuers miracles, and giftes of the holie Ghost, according to his owne wil:
 5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the <sup>e</sup> worlde to come, whereof we speake.
 6 But <sup>f</sup> one in a certeine place witnessed, saying, <sup>g</sup> What is man, that thou shouldest be mindeful of him! or the sonne of man that thou woldest consider him!
 7 Thou madest him a litle inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with <sup>h</sup> glorie and honour, and hast set him about the workes of thine hands.
 8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his fete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, he leaues nothing that shulde not be subiect vnto him. <sup>i</sup> But we yet se not all things subdued vnto him.
 9 But wese Iesus <sup>k</sup> crowned with glorie & honour, which was made a litle inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.
 10 For it became him, for whome <sup>are</sup> all things, and by whome <sup>are</sup> all things, seeing that he brought manie children vnto glorie, that he shulde consecrate the <sup>l</sup> Prince of their saluation through <sup>m</sup> afflictions.
 11 For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified, are all <sup>n</sup> of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
 12 Saying, * I wil declare thy Name vnto my brethre: in the middes of the Church wil I sing praises to thee.
 13 And againe, * I wil put my trust in him. And againe, * Beholde, here am I, and the children which God hath giuen me.
 14 Forasmuche then as the children were partakers of fleshe and bloode, he also him self likewise toke parte with them, that he might destroye <sup>o</sup> through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuil, 15 And that he might deliuer all the, which for feare of <sup>p</sup> death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For he in no sorte toke the <sup>r</sup> Angels, but he toke the seed of Abraham.
 17 Wherefore <sup>s</sup> in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethre, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.
 18 For in that he <sup>t</sup> suffered, and was tempted, he is able to sucker them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

<sup>u</sup> He requireth them to be obedient vnto the worde of Christ, <sup>v</sup> Who is more worthie then Moses. <sup>w</sup> The punishment of such as wil harden their hearts, and not believe, that they might haue eternal rest.

T Herefore, holie brethren, partakers of the heauenlie vocatiō, <sup>x</sup> consider the Apostle and high Priest of our <sup>y</sup> professiō Christ Iesus:
 2 Who was faithful to him that hath appointed him, euen as <sup>z</sup> Moses was in all his house.
 3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, inasmuche as he which hath buylded the house, <sup>a</sup> hath more honour then the house.
 4 For euery house is buylded of some man, & he that hath buylt all things, is <sup>b</sup> God.
 5 Now Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of <sup>c</sup> things which shulde be spoken after.
 6 But Christ <sup>d</sup> is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose <sup>e</sup> house we are, if we holde fast the confidence and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.
 7 Wherefore, as the holie Ghost saith, * To day if ye shal heare his voyce,
 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the <sup>f</sup> prouocation, according to the day of the temptation in the wildernes,
 9 Where your fathers tempted me, and proued me, and sawe my workes fortie yeres long.
 10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.
 11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, <sup>g</sup> If they shal enter into my <sup>h</sup> rest.
 12 Take hede, brethren, lest at anie time there be in anie of you an euil heart, and vnfaithful, to departe away from the liuing God.
 13 But exhorde one another daily, while it is called <sup>i</sup> To day, lest anie of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.
 14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the <sup>j</sup> end the <sup>k</sup> beginning, wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voyce, hardē not your hearts, as in the prouocation.
 16 For some when they heard, prouoked <sup>l</sup> him to angre: howbeit, not all that came out

<sup>g</sup> Not onely as touching nature, but also qualities, onely sinne except.
<sup>h</sup> Forasmuche as he is excelled in our miseries, we may be assured, that at all times in our temptations he wil sucker vs.
<sup>i</sup> Take hede to his wordes & receiue him.
<sup>j</sup> Of this doctrine we beleeue, & ought to confesse.
<sup>n</sup> That is Christ: for Christ is y<sup>e</sup> foundation, & head of his Church: he is our brother, & Lord: he is the Sonne of God, & verie God, working all things by his owne power.
<sup>o</sup> For in obeying the Sonne we are made the house of God.
<sup>p</sup> Psal. 95. 8. chap. 4. 7.
<sup>t</sup> Which is all y<sup>e</sup> time wherein God doth call vs: while he therefore speaketh, let vs heare.

that sinned, * whose carkeises fell in the wildernes?

1 LEt vs feare therefore, lest at anie time by forsaking the promes of entring into his rest anie of you shulde seme to be deprived.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleued, do enter into rest, as he said to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If they shal enter into my rest: althogh the workes were finished from the fundation of the worlde.

4 For he spake in a certeine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shal enter into my rest.

6 Seing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbelefe sake:

7 Again he appointed in Dauid a certiene day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Iesus had giuen them rest, then wolde he not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, that he also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to entre into that rest, lest anie man fall after the same en-sample of disobedience.

12 For the worde of God is liuelie, & mightie in operation, and sharper then anie two edged sworde, & entreth through, euen vnto the diuiding a sonder of the soule & the spirit, and of the ioynts, & the marie, and is a discerner of the thoghtes and the intentes of the heart.

13 Nether is there anie creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked & open vnto his eyes, with whome we haue to do.

Or, concerning whome we speake. 1 Therefore when we heare his worde, we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

14 Seing the that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which can not be touched with the feling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sorte, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldely vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercie, & finde grace to helpe in time of nede.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Levitical Priests, shewing wherein they ether agre or dissent. 11 Afterwarde he reproveth the negligence of the Iewes.

1 FOr euerie hie Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men, in things pertaineing to God, that he may offer bothe giftes & sacrifices for sinnes, Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, & that are out of the way, because that he also is com-passed with infirmitie,

2 And for the sames sake he is bonde to offer for sinnes, as wel for his owne parte, as for the peoples.

3 *And no man taketh this honour vnto him self, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

4 So likewise Christ toke not to him self this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that said vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, gave it him.

5 As he also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after the order

h Because of mans wicked- nes, which wil not beleue God except he sweare.

i Gods wor- de & othe, are two things in him vncan- geable.

Therefore, leauing the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying agai- ne y fundation <sup>b</sup> of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

<sup>4</sup> *For it is impossible that they, which we- re once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenlie gift, and were made partakers of the holie Gost,

<sup>5</sup> And haue tasted of the good worde of God, and of the powers of the worlde to come,

<sup>7</sup> For the earth which drinketh in the rai- ne that cometh ofte vpon it, and bringeth forth the herbes mete for them by whome it is dressed, receiueith blessing of God.

<sup>9</sup> But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and suche as accom- panie saluation, though we thus speake.

<sup>11</sup> And we desire that euerie one of you shew the same diligence, to the <sup>f</sup> ful assuran- ce of hope vnto the end,

<sup>12</sup> That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup> For whē God made the promes to Abra- ham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by him self,

<sup>14</sup> Saying, *Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiplie thee marueilously.

<sup>15</sup> And so after that he had taryed patient- ly, he enioyed the promes.

<sup>16</sup> For men verely sweare by him that is greater then them selues, and an othe for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

rein it is vnpossible that God shulde lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

<sup>20</sup> Whether the forerunner is for vs entred in, <sup>euen</sup> Iesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchi-sedec.

CHAP. VII.

1. He compareth the Priesthode of Christ vnto Mel- chi-sedec. 21 Also Christs Priesthode with the Leuites.

For this Melchi-sehec <sup>*was</sup> Kig of Sa- lem, the Priest of the most hie God, who met Abraham, as he returned frō the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

<sup>2</sup> To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, <sup>he is</sup> also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

<sup>6</sup> But he whose kinred is not counted amōg them, <sup>e</sup> receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

<sup>8</sup> And here mē that dye, receiue tithes: but there he <sup>receiue</sup>th them, of whome it is wit- nessed, that he <sup>liue</sup>th.

<sup>9</sup> And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueith tithes, payed tithes in Abra- ham.

<sup>10</sup> For he was yet in the loines of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec met him.

<sup>11</sup> If therefore perfection hab bene by the Priesthode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what neded it furthermore, that another Priest shulde rise after the order of Mel- chi-sedec, & not to be called after the or- der of Aaron?

<sup>12</sup> For if the Priesthode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the <sup>s</sup> Law.

be Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthode.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest,

16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endles life.

17 For he testifieth thus, *Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of y<sup>e</sup> weakenes thereof, and vnprofitablenes.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.

20 And forasmuche as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, he is made with an othe by him that said vnto him, *The Lord hath sworn, & wil not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so muche is Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among the many were made Priests, because they were not suffred to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath an euerlasting Priesthode.

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfite to saue them that come vnto God by him, seing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For suche an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holie, harmeles, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made hier then the heauen:

27 Which neded not daily as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, *first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offred vp him self.

28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but y<sup>e</sup> worde of the othe that was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing aswel of the Leuitical Priesthode, as of the olde Couenant by the spiritual & euerlasting Priesthode of Christ, & And by the new Couenant.

1 Now of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue suche an hie Priest, y<sup>e</sup> sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the maiestie in heaue,

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuarie, and of the true Tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not man.

3 For euerie hie Priest is ordeined to offer

bothe giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shulde haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seing there are Priests that according to the Law offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadowe of heauenlie things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. *Se, said he, that thou make all things according to y<sup>e</sup> paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, inasmuche as he is the Mediatur of a better Testament, which is established vpo better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene faueteles, no place shulde haue bene sought for the seconde.

8 For in rebuking them he saith, *Beholde, the dayes wil come, saith the Lord, when I shal make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a new Testamēt:

9 Not like the Testamēt that I made with their fathers, in the day that I toke them by the had, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded the not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testamēt that I wil make with y<sup>e</sup> house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I wil put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I wil write them, and I wil be their God, and they shal be my people,

11 And they shal not teache euerie man his neighbour & euerie man his brother, saying, Knowe y<sup>e</sup> Lord: for all shal knowe me, from the least of the to the greatest of them.

12 For I wil be merciful to their vnrighteousnes, and I wil remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith a newe Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: now that w<sup>h</sup> is disanulled & waxed olde, is readie to vanish away.

1 Then the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a worldlie Sanctuarie.

5 *And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the *mercie seat: of which things we wil not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, & accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the *hie Priest alone, once euerie yere, not without blood which he offered for him self, and for the "ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holie Gst this signified, that the *way into the Holiest of all was, not yet opened; while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that colde not make "holie, concerning the conscience, *h*im that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stode in meats and drinckes, and diuers washings, and *carnal rites, vntil the time of *h*is reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfecte Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this buylding, 12 Nether by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the *h*oliest place, and obtained eternal redemption for vs.

13 *For if the h blood of bulles & of goates & the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling *h*at are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the h flesh,

14 How muche more shal h blood of Christ which through the eternal Spirit offered him self without spot to God, purge your conscience from h dead workes, to *serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatur of the new Testamēt, that through *death *h*ich was for the redēption of the transgressions *h*at were in h former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promes of eternal enheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must be the death of him that made the testamēt.

17 *For the h testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is a liue.

18 Wherefore nether was the first ordeined without h blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euerie precept to the people, according to the Law, which had manna, and *Aarons rodde that had budded, and the *tables of the Testament.

he toke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wolle and hyssope, and sprinkled bothe the boke, and all the people, 20 *Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heauenlie things shulde be purified with suche things: but the heauenlie things the selues are purified with better h sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holiest places that are made with hands, which are "similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he shulde offer him self often, as the hie Priest entred into the Holiest place euerie yere with other blood,

26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the fundacion of the worlde) but now in the h end of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of him self.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shal once dye, and after that commeth the iudgement,

28 So *Christ was once offered to take away the finnes of h many, and vnto them that loke for him, shal he appeare the seconde time h without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The olde lawe had no power to cense away sinne. 2 But Christ did is with offering of his bodie once for all. 3 An exhortation to receiue the goodnes of God thankfully with patience and stedfast faith.

FOR the *Lawe hauing the h shadowe of good things to h come, and not the very "image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yere by yere continually, "sanctifie the commers thereunto.

For wolde they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, shulde haue had no more conscience of finnes?

But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of finnes euerie yere.

For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles & goates shulde *take away finnes.

Wherefore when he h commeth into the worlde, he saith, *Sacrifice & offering thou woldest not: but a h bodie hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offerings, & sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

q Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true & eternal sacrifice is compared with all those which were figuratiue, & is more sufficient then all they, therefore he calleth it in the plural number, sacrifices.

Of Christs seconde coming.

That

historike Iesus Christ, as Iudas, Saul, Arrius, Lolian the apostat did.

7 Then I said, Lo, I come (In y beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I shulde do thy wil, o God.

8 Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice & offering, and burnt offerings, & sinne offerings thou woldest not haue, nether hadst pleasure therein (which are offred by the Law)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy wil, o God, he taketh away the first, that he may stablish the seconde.

10 By the which wil we are sanctified, euen by the offering of the bodie of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euerie Priest appeareth daiely ministring, and oft times offieth one maner of offering, which can neuer take away finnes:

12 But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for finnes, sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from hence forth tarieth, * til his enemies be made his fote stole.

14 For with one offering hath he he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holie Gost also beareth vs recorde: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I wil make vnto them after those daies, saith y Lord, I wil put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I wil write them.

17 And their finnes and iniquities wil I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more * offering for sinne.

19 Seing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we may be bolde to enter into the Holie place

20 By the new and m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seing we haue an hie Priest, which is ouer the house of God,

22 Let vs drawe nere with a true heart in assurance of faith, * sprinkled in our hearts from an euil conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs kepe the profession of our hope, without wauering (for he is faithful that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhorre one another, & that so muche the more, because ye se that the day draweth nere.

26 * For if we sinne p willingly after that we haue receiued the knowledge of the trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for finnes,

27 But a feareful looking for of iudgement,

& violent fyre, which shal deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dyeth without mercie * vnder two, or thre witnesses.

29 Of how muche forer punishment suppose ye shal he be worthie, which treadeth vnder fote the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testament as an vnholie thing, wherewith he was sanctified, and doeth despite the Spirit of grace?

30 For we knowe him that hath said, * Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I wil recompense, saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shal iudge his people.

31 It is a feareful thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after ye had receiued light, ye endured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partely while you were made a gazing stocke bothe by reproches and afflictions, and partely while ye became companions of them which were so tossed to and fro.

34 For bothe ye sorowed with me for my bondes, and suffred with ioye the spoyling of your goods, knowig in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better, and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath the great recompense of rewarde.

36 For ye haue nede of patience, that after ye haue done the wil of God, ye might receiue the promes.

37 * For yet a verie litle while, and he that shal come, wil come, and wil not tarie.

38 Now the iust shal liue by faith: but if a man withdrawe him self, my soule shal haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdrawe our selues vnto perdition, but followe faith vnto the conseruacion of the soule.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not sene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his housholde, through the which Arke he condemned the worlde, & was made heire of the righteousnes, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he shulde afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whether he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promes, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tentes with Isaac and Iacob heires with him of the same promes.

10 For he looked for a citie hauing a f<sup>u</sup>ndacion, whose buylder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue s<sup>e</sup>de, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because she iudged him faithful which had promised.

13 All these dyed in faith, and received not the promes, but sawe them i<sup>n</sup> a farre of, and beleued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were m<sup>u</sup>strangers and pilgremes on the earth.

14 For they that say suche things, declare plainly that they seke a countrey.

15 And if they had bene mindeful of <sup>n</sup> that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenlie: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of finnes for a season,

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the rewarde.

27 By faith he forsoke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenes of the King: for he endured, as he that sawe him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined the Passouer and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, shulde touche them.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, and wolde not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tryed by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bondes and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen a sunder, they were tempted, they were slayne with the sworde, they wandered vp and downe in shepes skinned, and in goates skinned, being destitute, afflicted, & tormented:

38 Whome the worlde was not worthie of: they wandred in wildernesses and mountaines, & denes, & caues of the earth.

CHAP. XII.

An exhortation to be patient and steadfast in trouble & aduersitie, vpon hope of euermore rewardes. 25 A commendation of the new Testament about the elde.

W Herefore, let vs also, seing that we are compassed with so great a "cloude of witnesses, cast away euery thing that presseth downe, and the sinne that hangereth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs,

Looking vnto Iesus the autor and finisher of our faith, who for the ioye that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

Consider therefore him that endured such speakeing against sinners, lest ye shulde be wearied and fainte in your mindes.

Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against sinne.

And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto childre, "My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

For whome the Lord loueth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiue.

If ye endure chastening, God offreth him self vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?

If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: shulde we not muche rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we might liue?

For they verely for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holines.

Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grievous: but afterwarde, it bringeth the quiet frute of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weake knees,

And make straight steppes vnto your fete, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

*Followe peace with all men, and holines, without the which no man shal see the Lord.

Take hede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no roote of bitterness spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

Let there be no fornicator, or prophane persone as * Esau, which for a portion of meat solde his byrth right.

*For ye knowe how that afterwarde also when he wolde haue inherited the blessing, he was reiecte: for he founde no place to repentance, thogh he sought the blessing with teares.

For ye are not come vnto the mount that might be touched, nor vnto burning fyre, nor to blackenes and darkenes, and tempest,

Nether vnto the sounde of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, excused them selues, that the worde shulde not be spoken to them any more.

(For they were not able to abyde that which was commanded, * Yea, thogh a beast touche the mountaine, it shalbe stoned, or thrust thorowe with a dart:

And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare & quake.)

But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the celestial Ierusalem, and to the companie of innumerable Angels,

And to the cōgregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, & to God the iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfit men,

And to Iesus the Mediator of the newe Testament, & to the blood of sprinkeling that speaketh better things then that of * Abel.

Se that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him, that spake on earth: muche more shal we not escape, if we turne away from him, that speaketh from heauen.

Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, * Yet once more wil I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

And this worde, Yet once more, signifieth the remouing of those things, which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

Wherefore seing we receiue a kingdome, which can not be shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence and feare.

For euen our God is a consuming fyre.

THE GENERAL Epistle of Iames.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true worde of God, & not to be partial, nether to boast of an ydle faith, but to declare a true faith by liuelie frutes, to auoide ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble & loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to utter their fautes when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, & To be seruent in prayer with stedfast belief. 17 To loke for all good things from aboue. 21 To forsake all vice, and thankfully to receiue the worde of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, & speaking of it, but to do thereafter in dede. 27 What true religion is.

IAMES a seruant of God, & of the Lord IESVS CHRIST, to the twelue Tribes, w<sup>h</sup> are scattred abroad, salutation.

2 My brethre, counte it excedding ioye, whē ye fall into diuers tentacions,

3 * Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forth the pacience.

4 And let pacience haue her<sup>b</sup> perfite worke, that ye may be perfite and entier, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisdome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shal be giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caryed away.

7 Nether let that man thinke that he shal receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A<sup>d</sup> wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

10 Againe he that is riche, in that he is made lowe: for as the flower of the grasse, shal he<sup>a</sup> vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, & the beautie of the facion of it perisheth: euen so shal the riche man fade away in all his wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man, that endureth temptation: for when he is tryed, he shal receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say whē he is<sup>a</sup> tēpted, I am tēpted of God: for God can not be tēpted with euil, nether tempteth he any man.

14 But euerie man is tempted, when he is drawne away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth the sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth the death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euerie good<sup>b</sup> giuing, and euerie perfite gift is from aboue, and cometh downe fro the Father of lights, with whome is no variableness, nether shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne wil begate he vs with the worde of trueth, that we shulde be as the first frutes of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, let euerie man be<sup>a</sup> swift to heare, slowe to speake, & slowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the<sup>m</sup> righteousnes of God.

21 Wherefore lay aparte all filthines, & superfluitie of malicioufnes, & receiue with mekenes<sup>y</sup> worde that is<sup>n</sup> grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if anie heare the worde, & do it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his natural face in a<sup>o</sup> glasse.

24 For when he hath considered him self, he goeth his way, & forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so loketh in the perfite Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the worke, shal be blessed<sup>p</sup> in his dede.

26 If anie man among you semeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueh his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherles, and widdowes in their aduersitie, and to kepe him self vnspotted of the worlde.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue anie respect of persones, 5 But to regarde the poore as wel as the riche. 8 To be liuing, and merciful. 14 And not to boast of faith where no dedes are. 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes followe not.

1 MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ<sup>a</sup> in respect of persones.

2 For if there come into your companie a man with a golde ring, and in goodlie apparel, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the riche oppresse you by tyrannie, and do not they drawe you before the iudgement seates?

to the Scripture, which faith, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self, ye do wel.

9 * But if ye regarde the persones, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

10 For * whosoever shal kepe the whole Law, and yet faileth in one point, he is gile-tie of all.

11 For he that said, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now thogh thou doest none adulerie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressor of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so do, as they that shal-be iudged by the Law of libertie.

13 For there shalbe iudgement mercies to him that sheweth no mercie, & mercies reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaieth it, my brethren, thogh a man faith he hath the faith, whē he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be * naked and destitute of dailie fode,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Departe in peace: warme your selues, and fil your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue them not those things which are nedeful to the bodie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it self.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, & I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy workes, & I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleuest that there is one God: thou doest wel: the deuils also beleue it, & tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, o thou vaine man, that the faith which is without wor-kes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offred Isaac his sonne vpon the Altar?

22 Seest thou not that y faith wrought with his workes: & through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which faith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness: & he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye se then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, whē she had receiued the messengers, and sent the out another way?

26 For as the bodie without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

2 He forbiddeth all ambition to seke honour among our brethren. 3 He describeth the propertie of the tongue. 15. 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of the worlde.

1 MY brethren, be not manie masters, knowing that we shal receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in manie things we sinne all. * If anie man sinne not in worde, he is a perfect man, and able to bridel all the bodie.

3 Beholde, we put bits into the horses mou-thes that they shulde obey vs, and we turne about all their bodie.

4 Beholde also the shippes, which thogh they be so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a verie smale rudder, whether soeuer y gouerner listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, how great a thing a litle fyre kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fyre, yea, a worlde of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and setteth on fyre the course of nature,
and it is set on fyre of hel.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes and of creping things, and things of the sea is tamed and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnrulie euil, ful of deadielie poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the Father, and therewith curse we me, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place swete water and bytter?

12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, bring forth the oliues, other a vine figges? so can no fountaine make bothe salte water & swete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in mekenes of wisdom.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, nether be liars against the trueth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not fro aboue, but is earthlie, sensual, and diuelish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euil workes.

17 But the wisdom that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be entreated, ful of mercie and good frutes without iudging, and without hy-pocrisie.

18 And the frute of righteousness is sowne

CHAP. IIII.

1 Having shewed the cause of all wrong, and wickednes, and also of all graces and goodnes. 4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit them selues to him, 11 Not speaking euil of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods prouidence.

1 From whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, even of your lustes, that fight in your members?

2 Ye luste, and haue not: ye enuie, and haue indignation, and can not obtaine: ye fight and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske, and receiue not because ye aske a misse, that ye might consume it on your lustes.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, knowe ye not that the amitie of the worlde is the enimitie of God? Whosoever therefore wil be a friend of the worlde, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace & therefore saith, * God resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 * Submit your selues to God: resist the deuil, and he wil flee from you.

8 Drawe nere to God, and he wil drawe nere to you. Clense your hands, ye sinners, & purge your hearts, ye wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and sorowe ye, and wepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your ioye into heauines.

10 * Cast downe your selues before y Lord, and he wil lift you vp.

11 Speake not euil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euil of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euil of the Law, and condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one Law giuer, which is able to saue, & to destroye. * Who art thou that iudget another man?

13 Go to now ye that say, * To day or to morowe we wil go into suche a citie, and continue there a yere, and bye and sel, and get gaine,

14 (And yet ye can not tel what shal be to morowe. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterwarde vanisheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say, * If the Lord wil, and, If we liue, we wil do this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all suche reioycing is euil.

17 Therefore, to him that knoweth how to do wel, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

2 He threateneth the wicked riche men, 7 Exhorteth vn to pacience, 12 To beware of swearing. 16 One to knowlege his fautes to another. 20 And one to labour to bring another to the trouth.

1 GO to now, ye riche men: wepe, and howle for your miseries that shal come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt: & your garmets are motheaten.

3 Your golde and siluer is cankered, and the rust of them shal be a witness against you, and shal eat your flesh as it were fyre. * Ye haue heaped vp treasure for y last dayes.

4 Beholde, the hyre of the laborers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth, and the cries of the which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, & in wantones. Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and haue killed the iuste, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be pacient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord. Beholde, the husband man waiteth for the precious frute of the earth, and hath long pacience for it, vntil he receiue the former, and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also pacient therefore & setle your hearts: for the comming of the Lord draweth nere.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: beholde, the iudge standeth before the dore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophetes for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long pacience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count the blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the paciēce of Iob, and haue knowe what end the Lord made. For the Lord is verie pitiful & merciful.

12 But before all things, my brethren, * we are not, nether by heauen, nor by earth, nor by anie other othe: but let your yea, be yea, and your naye, naye, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is anie among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is anie merie? Let him sing.

14 Is anie sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them praye for him, and anoint him with oyle in the Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shal saue the sicke, and the Lord shal raise him vp: and if he haue committed sinne, it shal be forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge your fautes one to another, & praye one for another, that ye may be healed: for the prayer of a righteous man auaieth much, if it be seruent.

I. Peter. The tryal of faith.

19 Brethren, if anie of you hath erred fro the trueth, and some man hath conuerted him, 20 Let him knowe that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astraye out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

THE FIRST EPI- stle general of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithful to denie them selues, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedely attaine to the heauenlie kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receined it by faith, possided it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith shoulde not faint, seeing Christ continued and reiected almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he shoulde be the stonning stone to the reprobate and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithful: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue them selues. And because it is appointed for all that are godlie, to suffre persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrarie wise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue them selues, forbidding them to vsurpe autoritie over the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuelie hope, 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godlie conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne a newe by the worde of God.

a Which were

b The free election of God is the efficient cause of our saluation, the material cause is Christs obedience, our effectual calling is the formal cause, and the final cause is our sanctification.

PETER an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, to the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galacia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

* Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuelie hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

To an inheritance immortal and vnde- filed, and that fadeth not away, reserued in heauen for you,

Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if needes require) ye are in heauines, through manifold tentations,

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tryed with fyre) might be founde vnto your praise, & honour and glorie at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whome ye haue not sene, and yet loue him, in whome now, though ye see him not, yet do you beleue, and reioyce with ioye vnspokeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophetes haue inquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that shoulde come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, shoulde declare the sufferings that shoulde come vnto Christ, and the glorie that shoulde followe.

12 Vnto whome it was reueiled, that i not vnto them selues, but vnto vs they shoulde minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holie Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore

g And neede doeth so require, when it pleaseth God to lay his cross vpon his, for to drawe the things & make them partakers of his heauenlie graces.
h At his seconde coming.

i Their ministerie was more profitable to vs then to them: for we see the things accomplished which they prophesied.

25 But the worde of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the worde which is preached among you.

CHAP. II.

<sup>4</sup> To whome ye come as vnto a liuing stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God & precious.

which chop and change it, and gine poyson in steede thereof. <sup>10</sup> The milke of vnderstanding which is without deccis.

And ye as liuelie stones, be made a spiritual house, and holie <sup>a</sup> Priesthode to offer vp spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, <sup>a</sup> Beholde, I put in <sup>b</sup> Sion a chief corner stone, elect and precious: and he that beleueth therein, shal not be ashamed.

Vnto you therefore which beleue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the <sup>a</sup> stone which the <sup>c</sup> buylders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

And a <sup>a</sup> stone to stumple at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumple at the worde being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordeined.

But ye are a chosen generacion, a <sup>d</sup> royal <sup>a</sup> Priesthode, an holie nacion, a <sup>a</sup> peculiar people, that ye shulde shew forth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darkenes into his marueilous light,

Which in time past were not a people, yet are now the people of God; which in time past were not vnder mercie, but now haue obtained mercie.

Derely beloued, I beseeche you, as strangers and pilgrims, <sup>a</sup> abstaine from fleshlie lustes, which fight against the soule,

And haue your conuersacion honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euil of you as of euil doers, maye by your <sup>a</sup> good workes which they shal se, glorifie God in the day of <sup>a</sup> the visitacion.

Submit your selues vnto all <sup>a</sup> maner ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superior,

Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them <sup>a</sup> are sent of him, for the punishment of euil doers, and for the praise of them that do wel.

For so is the wil of God, that by wel doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

As fre, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of maliciousnes, but as the seruants of God.

Honour all men: <sup>a</sup> loue <sup>a</sup> brotherlie fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

Seuants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the <sup>a</sup> frowarde.

For this is thanke worthie, if a man for <sup>a</sup> conscience towarde God endure grief suffering wrongfully.

For what praise is it, if when ye be buffered for your fautes, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye do wel, ye suffer wrong and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

For hereunto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an ensample

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the <sup>b</sup> dead, that they might be condemned, according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Be ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: *for loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye *herberous one to another, without grudging.

13 But reioyce, inasmuche as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glorie shal appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 *If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the Spirit of glorie, and of God resteth vpon you: which on their <sup>d</sup> parte is euil spoken of: but on your parte is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a thefe, or an euil doer, or as a busibodie in other mens matters.

16 But if anie man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

17 For the time is come, that *iudgement must beginne at *the house of God. If it first begin at vs, what shal the end be of th<sup>e</sup> which obey not the Gospel of God?

18 *And if the righteous scarcely be <sup>e</sup>saued, where shal the vngodlie and the sinner appeare?

THE ARGUMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here is to exhort the which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towards me moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godlie: wherefore by godlie life he being now almost at deaths dore, exhorteth the to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldlie things (as he had oft writ vnto them) but lifting their eyes towarde heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnes, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified. And lest they shoulde promise to them selues quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth the bothe of troubles which they shoulde susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers & contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithful not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserve them selues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuche as the power of God hath giuen them all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldlie lusts, 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and frutes of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he him self had sene vpon the mounte.

IMON Peter a seruant and an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the righteousnes of our God and Sauour

Iesus Christ:

1 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,
2 According as his godlie power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlines, through the knowledge of him that hath called vs vnto glorie and vertue.
3 Whereby moste great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye shoulde be partakers of the godlie nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.
4 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:
5 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlines:
6 And with godlines, brotherlie kindenes: and with brotherlie kindenes, loue.
7 For if these things be among you, and abunde, they wil make you that ye neither shalbe ydle, nor vnfruitful in knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.
8 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, & scan not se farre of, & hath forgottē that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shal neuer fall.
11 For by this meanes an entring shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord & Sauour Iesus Christ.
12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligent to put you alwaies in remembrance of these things, thogh that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present truerh.
13 For I thinke it mere as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.
14 Seing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.
15 I wil endeavour therefore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.
16 For we folowed not deceiueable fables when we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:
17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came suche a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, *This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am wel pleased.
18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holie mounte.
19 We haue also a moste sure worde of the Prophetes, to which ye do wel that ye take hede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntil the day dawne, and the daye starre arise in your hearts.
20 So that ye first know this, that no prophecie in the Scripture is of anie priuate motion.
21 For the Prophecie came not in olde time by the wil of man; but holie men of God spake a In that he declared him self iuste and faithful in accomplishing his promes by Christ.

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauour.

c That is, salvation.

d The summe of our saluatiō and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

e Or, through his glorie.

f We are made partakers of diuine nature, in which we flee corruption of the worlde: or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne & are not in the flesh of Godlie maners.

g The Greeke worde signifieth him, that naturally can not se, except he holdeth nere his eyes. So Peter calleth suche as can not se heauēlie things which are farre of, pure blinde or sandblinde.

h Albeit it be sure in it self forasmuche as God can not change: yet we must confirme it in our selues, by the frutes of the Spirit, knowing the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustificeth vs. i For God wil euer upholde you. k In this bodie, 2. Cor. 5.

CHAP. II.

He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

BVt* there were false prophetes also among the people, euē as there shalbe false teachers among you: which priuely shal bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord, that hathe bought them, & bring vpon them selues swift dānation.

And manie shal followe their damnable wayes, by whome the way of trueth shalbe euil spoken of,

And through couetousnes shal they with fained wordes make marchandise of you, whose iudgement long agoe is not farre of, and their damnation slepeth not.

For if God spared not the* Angels, that had sinned, but caste them downe into hell and deliuered them into chaines of darkenes, to be kept vnto damnation:

Nether hathe spared the olde worlde, but saued* Noe the eight persone a preacher of righteousness, and broght in the flood vpo the worlde of the vngodlie,

And* turned the cities of Sodome and Gomorrhe into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrewe them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after shulde line vngodlie,

* And deliuered iuste Loth vexed with the vnclenlie conuersation of the wicked, (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawful dedes.)

The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godlie out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vnclennes, and despise the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceite, and feare not to speake euil of the that are in dignitie.

Where as the Angels which are greater bothe in power and might,* giue not brai-ling iudgement against them before the Lord.

But these as* brute beasts, led with sensualitie and made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euil of those things which they knowe not, and shal perish through their owne corruption.

And shal receiue the wages of vnrighteousnes, as they which counte it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spottes they are and blottes, delirring them selues in their deceiuings, in feasting with you, appointed to this iudgement, so thei fall into the snares of Satan to their destruction. d For in your holie feasts they sit as members of Church where as in dede they be but spottes, & so deceiue you, read Iude 12.

14 Hauing eyes ful of adulterie, and that can not cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, cursed children,

15 Which forsaking the right waye, haue gone astraye, following the way of* Ba- laam, the sonne of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnes.

16 But he was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the domme asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnes of the Prophet.

17 *These are welles without water, and cloudes caryed about with a tempest, to whome the blacke darkenes is reserued for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of vanitie, they beguile with wantōnes through the lustes of the flesh them that were cleane escaped from them which are wrapped in errour,

19 Promising vnto them libertie, and are them selues the* seruants of corruption: for of whome soeuer a man is ouercome, euen vnto the same is he in bondage.

20 *For if they, after they haue escaped fro the filthines of the worlde, through the knowledge of the Lord, & of the Sauour Iesus Christ, are yet tagled againe therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had bene better for them, not to haue knowen the way of righteousness, the after they haue knowen it, to turne fro the holie commandement giuen vnto them.

22 But it is come vnto them, according to the true prouerbe, *The dogge is returned to his owne vomit: and, The sowe that was washed, to the wallowing in the myer.

THIS seconde Epistle I now write vnto you, beloued, wherewith* I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

To call to remembrance the wordes, which were tolde before of the holie Prophetes, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauour.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, lest that any man shoulde thereby take a boldenes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleue in Christ, onles he doeth endeouour him self to kepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophetes, whome he calleth Antichrists, and to trye the spirits. Laste of all he doeth earnestly exhorde them vnto brotherlie loue, and to beware of decei- Iohn 8. 12.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioye may be ful.

5 This then is the message which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God <sup>e</sup> is <sup>f</sup> light, & in him is no darkenes.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our Aduocate. 20 Of true loue, & how it is tried. 21 To beware of Antichrist.

1 MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any mā sinne, we haue an Aduocat with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

2 And he is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole worlde.

3 And hereby we are sure that we knowe him, if we kepe his commandements.

4 He that saith, I knowe him, and kepeth not his commandements, is a lier, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But he that kepeth his worde, in him is the loue of God perfite in dede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

6 He that saith he remaineth in him, oughten so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement, which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandement is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntil this time.

10 He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euil in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walketh in darkenes, & knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is fro the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue ouercome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowe the Father. I haue writen vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue writen vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the worde of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the wicked.

15 Loue not the worlde, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any mā loue the worlde, his loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the worlde (as the luste of the flesh, the luste of the eyes, & the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

17 And the worlde passeth away, and the luste thereof: but he that fulfilleth the wil of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come, eue now are there many Antichrists: whereby we knowe that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they wolde haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an ointement fro him, that is Holye, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I haue not writen vnto you, because ye knowe not the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lier, but he that denyeth that Iesus is Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoever denyeth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shal remaine in you, ye also shal continewe in the Sonne, & in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, euen eternal life.

26 These things haue I writen vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye nede not that any man teache you: but as the same Anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, & is not lying, & as it taught you, ye shal abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shal appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God towards vs. 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

1 Beholde, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we shulde be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: and we knowe that when he shal appeare, we shalbe like him: for we shal se him as he is.

3 And euerie man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him self, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared that he r He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or he that counteth or separateth them, els he that putteth not difference betweene the person of the Sonne, & also he that beleueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias. f Then the infidels worship not the true God.

|| But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also the Father.

r Christ communicateth himself vnto you and teacheth you by the holie Ghost & his ministers.

10r, in Christ. u. By this name he meaneth the whole Church of Christ in general.

a Being made the sonnes of God in Christ, he sheweth what qualities we must haue to be discerned from bastards.

b That is, Christ.

might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath he not sene him, neither hath he known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

Iohn 3. 44.

e As appeared by Adam,

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might lase the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can he sinne, because he is borne of God.

*f Which is the holie Ghost.

10 In this are the children of God known, and the children of the deuill: whosoever doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that we shoulde loue one another,

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: & wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euil, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, though the worlde hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a manslayer: & ye knowe that no manslayer hath the eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laid downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

Luk. 3. 32.

17 And whosoever hath this worldes good and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

*h Which is not the cause, wherefore we are the sonnes of God, but a more certaine signe.

18 My little children, let vs not loue in worde, neither in tongue onely, but in dede & in trueth.

19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the trueth & shal before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldenes toward God.

22 And whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we kepe his commandments, and do those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his commandment, That we beleue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandment.

24 For he that kepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: & hereby we knowe that he abydeth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the Spirit of God may be known from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

1 Derely beloued, beleue not euerie spirit, but trye the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophetes are gone out into the worlde.

a The which booke that thei haue the spirit to preache or prophetic.

2 Hereby shal ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euerie spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

*b Who being very God came from his Father and toke vpon him our flesh. He confesseth or preacheth this truly, hath the Spirit of God, els not.
c He began to buyld the myserie of iniquitie.
d Satan the prince of the worlde.*

3 And euerie spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, how he shoulde come & now already he is in the worlde.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of the worlde, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the Spirit of trueth, and the spirit of error.

*Iohn 8. 47.
e With pure affection & obedience.*

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God, & euerie one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

*Iohn 3. 16.
f Trueth it is, that God hath declared his loue in many other things, but herein hath he passed all other.
g By his onely death.*

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 No man hath sene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfite in vs.

*Iohn 1. 18.
1. Tim. 6. 16.*

13 Hereby knowe we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue sene, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Sauour of the worlde.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

h So that his confession proceedeth of faith.

16 And we haue known, and beleued the loue that God hath in vs. God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

*i Or, Iohn 14. 23.
By inspiring it into vs.*

17 Herein is the loue perfite in vs, that we shoulde haue boldenes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this worlde.

18 There

<sup>a</sup> Suche as shuld trouble
the conscience.

18 There is no <sup>a</sup> feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath the painfulness: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

<sup>i</sup> For god presēt eth him self to vs in them, which beare
his image.

20 If anie man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a lyer: for how can he that loueth not his brother whome he hath seene, loue God whome he hath not seene?

<sup>i</sup> John 13.43.

THE SECONDE

Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certeine ladie, 4 Reioicing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of suche deceiuers as deme that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Praieth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Sauour.

table.

THe Elder to the <sup>a</sup> elect Ladie, and her children, whome I loue in <sup>a</sup> the trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen <sup>y</sup> trueth, For the trueths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie & peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with <sup>b</sup> truth and loue.

4 I reioiced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking <sup>c</sup> in trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the Father.

5 And now beseeche I thee, Ladie, (not as writing a new commandement vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we <sup>d</sup> loue one another.

<sup>b</sup> We can not

- 7 For manie deceiuers are entred into the worlde, which confesse not y Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is suche one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.
- <sup>d By suffering our selues to be seduced.</sup> 8 Loke to your selues, that we lose not the thinge, which we haue done, but that we may receiue a ful reward.
- <sup>e He that passeth the limites of pure doctrine.</sup> 9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not

- God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath bothe the Father and the Sonne.
- 10 If there come anie vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, receiue him not to house, nether bid him, God speede.
- 11 For he that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euil dedes. Although I had manie things to write vnto you, yet I wolde not write with paper and ynce: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioye may be ful.
- 12 The sonnes of thine elect sister grete thee, Amen.

THE THIRD EPI- stle of Iohn.

- 3 He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christen in their persecucion, 9 Sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good reporte of Demetrius.

- THe Elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whome I loue in the trueth.
- Beloued, I wish chiefly y thou prosperedst & faredst wel, as thy soule prospereth.
- 3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.
- 4 I haue no greater ioye then this, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in a veritie.
- 5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, & to strangers,
- 6 Which bare witness of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou bringest of their iourney as it becometh according to God, thou shalt do wel,
- 7 Because that for his Names sake they wet forthe, and toke nothing of the Gentiles.

- 8 We therefore ought to receiue suche, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
- 9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiue vs not.
- 10 Wherefore if I come, I wil declare his dedes which he doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, nether he him self receiue the brethren, but forbiddeth them y wolde, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
- 11 Beloued, folowe not that which is euil, but that which is good: he that doeth wel, is of God: but he that doeth euil, hath not sene God.
- 12 Demetrius hath good reporte of all men, and of the trueth it self: yea, and we our selues beare recorde, and ye knowe that our recorde is true.
- 13 I haue manie things to write: but I wil not with ynce and pen write vnto thee.
- 14 For I trust I shal shortly se thee, and we shal speake mouth to mouth. Peace be with thee. The friends salute thee. Grete the friends by name.

<sup>c</sup> If y furnishest the with necessities towarde their iourney, knowing y the Lord saith, He that receiueth you, receiueth me.

THE GENERAL Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take hede of deceiuers which go about to drawe awaye the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willet them to haue no societie with suche, whome he setteth forth in their liuelie colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithful and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

Iude

Vde a seruant of IESVS CHRIST, and brother of Iames, to them which are called & sanctified of God the Father, and <sup>b</sup> referred to Iesus Christ:

1 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

2 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the comūne saluation, it was nedeful for me to write vnto you to exhorre you, that ye shulde earnestly <sup>c</sup> cōtende for the maintenance of <sup>g</sup> faith, which was <sup>d</sup> once giuen vnto the Saintes.

3 For there are certeine <sup>m</sup> crept in which were before of olde <sup>e</sup> ordeined to this cōdemnation: vngodlie men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and * denye God the onelie Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I wil therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuche as ye once knewe this, how that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, * destroyed them afterwarde which <sup>f</sup> beleued not.

5 The * Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath referred in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenes vnto <sup>h</sup> iudgement of the great daye.

6 As * Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about the, which in like maner as they did, committed, and followed <sup>h</sup> strange flesh, are set forthe for an ensample, and suffre the vengeance of eternal fyre.

7 Likewise notwithstanding these <sup>i</sup> dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euil of them that are in autoritie.

8 Yet * Michael the Archangel, when he strove against the deuil, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but faith, <sup>l</sup> The Lord rebuke thee.

9 But these speake euil of those things, which they knowe not: and whatsoeuer things they knowe <sup>m</sup> naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt them selues.

10 Wo be vnto the: for they haue followed the way * of Cain, and are cast away by the

11 These are spotted in your feasts of charitie when they feast with you, without <sup>p</sup> all feare, feeding them selues: cloudes they are without water, caryed about of windes, corrupt trees <sup>q</sup> without frute, twise dead, <sup>r</sup> & plucked vp by the rootes.

12 They are the raging waues of the sea, forming out their owne shame: they are wandering starres, to whome is referred the blackenes of darkenes for euer.

13 And Enoch also the seuēth from Adam, prophecied of such, saying, * Beholde, the Lord cometh with thousands of his Saintes,

14 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all <sup>y</sup> vngodlie among the of all their wicked dedes, which they haue vngodly committed, & of all their cruel speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

15 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes: * whose mouths speake proude things, hauing mens persones in admiration, because of a vantage.

16 But, ye beloued, remember the wordes which were spokē before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ, 17 How that they tolde you that there shulde be mockers * in the last time, which shulde walke after their owne vngodlie lustes.

18 These are makers of sectes, fleshlie, hauing * not the Spirit.

19 But, ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holie faith, praying in the holie Ghost,

20 And kepe your selues in <sup>y</sup> loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lord Iesus Christ, vnto eternal life.

21 And haue compassion of some, <sup>i</sup> in putting difference:

22 And other saue with * feare, pulling the out of the fyre, and hate euen the <sup>n</sup> garment spotted by the flesh.

23 Now vnto him that is able to kepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you faultles before the presence of his glorie with ioye, 24 That is, to God onely wise, our Sauour, be glorie, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, bothe now and for euer, Amen.

THE ARGUMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holie Gost wolde as it were gather into this moste excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but shoulde be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also suche things as shoulde be expedient, aswel to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is lively set forth the Diuinitie of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproveth: the providence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shal defende them, which beare witnes to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satin wil reigne ouer all. The liuelie description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no farther then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shal be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shal giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God wil permit this Antichrist, and stromper vnder colour of faire speache and pleasant doctrine to deceiue the worlde: wherefore he aduertiseth the godlie (which are but a smale portion) to auoide this harlots flateries, and bragges, w<sup>ch</sup> of ruine without mercie they shal se, and with the heauenlie companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is married: the worde of God hath gotten the victorie: Satā that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fyre to be tormented for euer, where as cōtrariwise the faithful (which are the holie Citie of Ierusalem, & wife of the Lambe) shal enioye perpetual glorie. Read diligently: iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

Iezabel, which calleth her self a Propheto make them commit fornication, & to eat meats sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her

22 Beholde; I wil cast her into a bed, and into great affliction, except they repent

23 And I wil kill her children with death:

2 Be awake and strengthen the things which not founde thy workes perfite before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast re-wil come on thee as a thefe, and y shalt not

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a fewe names

5 He that ouercometh, shalbe clothed in 20 Beholde, I stand at the dore, and knocke. If anie man heare my voyce & open the dore, I wil come in vnto him, and wil suppe with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercometh, wil I grante to sit with me in my throne, euē as I ouer came, & sit wth my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hathe an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it, 3 And 24. seates about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beasts praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and beholde, a dore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I wil shewe thee things which muste be done hereafter.

And immediatly I was raiſhed in the spirit, & beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

And he that sate, was to loke vpon, like vnto a iasper stone, and a sardine, & there was a raine bowe rounde about the throne in sight like to an emeraude.

And rounde about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raimēt, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, & there were seuen lampes of fyre, burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto cristall: and in the middes of the throne, & rounde about y<sup>e</sup> throne were foure beasts full of eyes before and behinde.

And the first beast was like a lion, & the seconde beast like a calfe, and the thirde beast had a face as a man, and the fourthe beast was like a flying egle.

And the foure beasts had eche one of the six wings about him, and they were ful of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holie, holie, holie Lord God, almightie, which Was, & Which is and Which is to come.

And when those beasts gaue glorie, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

The foure and twentie elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euer more, & cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

Thou art worthie, O Lord, to receiue glorie and honour, & power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the boke, 2. 14 And therefore the foure beasts, the 24. elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, & do him worship 3 For their redemption and other benefites.

And I sawe in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a Boke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.

And I sawe a strong Angel which preached with a lowde voyce, Who is worthie to open the boke, and to lose the seales thereof.

And no man in heauē, nor in earth, nether vnder the earth, was able to open the Boke nether to loke thereon.

Then I wept muche, because no mā was founde worthie to open, and to reade the Boke, nether to loke thereon.

And one of the elders said vnto me, Wepe not: beholde, the lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the rote of Dauid, hathe obtained to open the Boke, and to lose the seuen seales thereof.

Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, & in the middes of the elders, stode a Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had seuen hornes, & seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the worlde.

And he came, and toke the Boke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

And when he had taken the Boke, the foure beasts and the foure and twentie elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euerie one harpes and golden vials full of odours, w<sup>ch</sup> are the prayers of the Saintes,

And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthie to take the Boke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euerie kinred, and tōgue, and people, and nation,

And hast made vs vnto our God Kings and Priests, and we shal reigne on the earth.

Then I behelde, and I heard the voyce of manie Angels rounde about the throne and about the beasts and the elders, & there were thousand thousands,

Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the Lābe that was killed to receiue power and riches, and wisdom, and strength, & honour, and glorie, and praise.

And all y<sup>e</sup> creatures which are in heauē, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise & honour, and glorie, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, & vnto the Lambe for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fixe seales, and manie things follow the opening thereof, so that this containeth a general prophecie to the end of the worlde.

After, I behelde when y<sup>e</sup> Lambe had opened one of the seales, & I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the noyce of thunder, Come and se.

Therefore I behelde, and lo, there was a white horse, and he that sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth the cōquering that he might ouercome.

And when he had opened the seconde seale, I heard the seconde beast say, Come and se.

And there went out another horse that was red, & power was giuen to him that sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they shulde kil one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sworde.

And whē he had opened the thirde seale, I heard the thirde beast say, Come and se. Then I behelde, & lo, a blacke horse, & he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penie, and thre measures of barlie for a penie, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and se.

And I looked, & behelde, a pale horse, & his name that sate on him was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth parte of the earth, to kill with sworde, and with hōger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

And when he had opened the fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar the soules of them, that were killed for the worde of God, & for y<sup>e</sup> testimonie which they mainteined.

And they cryed with a lowde voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holie and true! dost thou not iudge & auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

And long white robes were giuen vnto euerie one, and it was said vnto them, that they shulde rest for a litel ceason vntil their felowe seruaunts, and their brethren, that shulde be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

And I behelde when he had opened the sixt seale, and lo, there was a great earthquake, & the sunne was as blacke as sackcloth of heere, and the moone was like blood.

And the starres of heauen fel vnto the earth, as a figge tre casteth her grene figges when it is shaken of a mightie winde.

And heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euerie mountaine & yle were moued out of their places.

And the Kings of the earth, & the great men, and the riche men, and the chief capitaines, and the mightie men, and euerie bondman, and euerie fre man, hid them selues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines,

And said to the mountaines and rockes, Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, & fro the wrath of the Lambe.

For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

He seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheades out of all nations and people, which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water. And God shal wipe away all teares from their eyes.

And after that, I sawe foure Angels stand on y<sup>e</sup> foure corners of the earth, holding the foure windes of the earth, y<sup>e</sup> the windes shulde not blowe on the earth, nether on the sea, nether on anie tre.

And I saw another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure Angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying, Hurt ye not the earth, nether the sea, nether the trees, til we haue sealed y<sup>e</sup> seruaunts of our God in their foreheades.

And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and foure and fortie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I behelde, & lo, a great multitude, which no man coulde number, of all nacions & kinreds, and people, & tongues, stode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their hands.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Saluacion cometh of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, & of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stode rounde about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beastes, & they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glorie, & wisdom, and thanks, and honour, & power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, sayig vnto me, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulacion, and haue washed their long robes & haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue him day & night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne, wil dwell among them.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seventh seale is opened: there is silence in heauen.
6 The foure Angels blowe their trumpettes, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

1 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stode before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpettes.

3 Then another Angel came and stode before the altar having a golden censer, and muche odours was giuen vnto him, that he shulde offere with the prayers of all Saintes vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, went vp before

God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel toke the censer, and filled it with fyre of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpettes, prepared them selues to blowe the trumpettes.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile & fyre, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third parte of trees was burnt, & all greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the seconde Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fyre, was cast into the sea, & the third parte of the sea became blood.

9 And the third parte of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, dyed, & the third parte of shipes were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, & there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torche, and it fell into the third parte of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third parte of the waters became wormewood, and manie men dyed of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third parte of the sunne was smitten, & the third parte of the moone, and the third parte of the starres, so that the third parte of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third parte of it coulde not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I behelde, & heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a lowde voyce, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpettes.

3 The locusts come out of the smoke.
12 The first wo is past.
14 The foure Angels that were bounde, are loosed.
18 And the third parte of men is killed.

1 And the first Angel blew the trumpet, & I sawe a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the keye of the bottomles pit.

2 And he opened the bottomles pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, keyes in his armes.

r These are plagues for the contempt of the Gospel.

s Horrible threatnings against the infidels & rebellious persons.

t That is, the Bishops and ministers, & forsake word of God, & so fall out of heauen.

<sup>f</sup> That is, secretly to persecute and to sting with their taile as scorpions do: such is the faction of the hypocrites.

<sup>g</sup> For the false prophetes can not destroye the elect, but such as are ordained to perdition.

<sup>h</sup> That is, the infidels whom Satan blindeth with the efficacy of error. 2. Thes. 2, 11. I Thogh the elect be hurt, yet they can not perill.

and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke <sup>d</sup> Locustes vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen <sup>e</sup> power, as the <sup>f</sup> scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they shulde not hurt the <sup>g</sup> grasse of the earth, nether anie grene thing, nether anie tree: but onely those <sup>h</sup> men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheades.

5 And to them was commanded that they shulde not <sup>i</sup> kil them, but that they shulde be <sup>k</sup> vexed five moneths, and that their paine shulde be as the paine that cometh of a <sup>l</sup> scorpion, when he hath stung a mā.

6 <sup>m</sup> Therefore in those daies shal men <sup>n</sup> seke death, and shal not finde it, and shal desire to dye, and death shal flee from them.

7 <sup>o</sup> And the forme of the locustes was like vnto <sup>p</sup> horses prepared vnto battel, and on their heades were as it were <sup>q</sup> crownes, like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had heere as the <sup>r</sup> heere of women, and their <sup>s</sup> teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had <sup>t</sup> habbergions, like to habbergions of yron: and the sounde of their <sup>u</sup> wings was like the sounde of charrets when manie horses runne vnto battel.

10 And they had tailles like vnto scorpions, and there were <sup>v</sup> stings in their tailles, & their power was to hurt me five moneths.

11 And they haue a King over them, which is the <sup>w</sup> Angel of the bottomles pit, whose name in Hebrewes, <sup>x</sup> Abaddon, and in Greke he is named Apollyon.

12 One wo is past, & beholde, yet two woes come after this.

13 <sup>y</sup> Then the sixt Angel blewe the trüpet, & I heard a <sup>z</sup> voyce from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixt Angel, which had the trumpet, Lose the foure <sup>a</sup> Angels, w are bounde in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were losed, which were prepared at an <sup>b</sup> houre, at a day, at a moneth, & at a yere, to slay the third parte of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twetic thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, hauing fyrie habbergions, & of Iacynth & of brimstone, & the heads of the horses were as <sup>c</sup> heads of lyons: and out of their mouthes went forthe fyre and smoke and brimstone.

18 Of these thre was the third parte of me killed, that is, of the fyre and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their <sup>d</sup> mouthes, & in their tailles: for their tailles were like vnto serpents, and had heades, wherewith they hurte.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, <sup>e</sup> repented not of the workes of their hands that they shulde not worship deuils, and <sup>f</sup> idoles of golde and of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which nether can se, nether heare nor go.

21 Also they repented not of their murther, and of their sorcerie, nether of their fornicacion, nor of their theste.

CHAP. X.

2 And he had in his hand a litle <sup>o</sup> boke open, and he put his right fote vpon the sea, and <sup>p</sup> his left on the earth,

3 And cryed with a <sup>q</sup> lowde voyce, as when a lyon roareth: and when he had cryed, seuē <sup>r</sup> thondres vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seuē thondres had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, <sup>s</sup> Seale vp those things which the seuē thondres haue spoken, & write the not.

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea and vpon the earth, lift vp his had to heauen,

6 And sware <sup>t</sup> by him that liueth for evermore, which created heauen, & the things that therein are, & the earth & the things that therein are, & the sea & the things, w therein are, that time shulde be no more.

7 But in the daies of the voyce of the seuēth Angel, whē he shal beginne to blowe the trumpet, euen the <sup>u</sup> myserie of God shalbe finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophetes.

shalbe aforded. <sup>v</sup> The whole graces of Gods Spirit bent them selues against Antichrist. <sup>w</sup> Belene that that is written: for there is no need to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children. <sup>x</sup> That is, by God with whome Christ by his diuinitie is equall. <sup>y</sup> The faithful shal vnderstand and se this myserie of the last iudgement, the damnacion of Antichrist and infidels, & also the glorie of the iust at the resurrection.

1 As S. Iohn vnderstandeth this by reuelation, so is the same reuelation to I. I. true preachers to discerner the Pope, & Antichrist. Meaning, Christ.

2 That is, the holie Scriptures: to declare the manner of the resurrection at the hand of God before he can punish the others.

3 Which signifieth that the ministers ought to receive the words into their hearts, & to haue graue, & depe iudgement, and diligently to studie it, & with zeale to utter it. p. Signifying y<sup>e</sup> albeit that the minister haue consolation by the worde of God, yet shall he haue sore, & grievous enemies, which shall trouble some vnto him. q. Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this boke after his death shulde be as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 The temple is measured. 2 Two witnesses raised up by the Lord, are murdered by the beast. 11 But after received to glorie. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 And God praised by the 24 elders.

1 Then was giuen me a rede, like vnto a trodde, & the Angel stode by, saying, Rise and mette the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple cast out, and mette it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holie citie shall they treade vnder fote a two & fortie moneths.

3 But I wil giue power vnto my two witnesses, & they shall prophesie a thousand, two hundred, & threescore dayes, clothed in sacke cloth.

4 These are two holie trees, & two cadel stickes, standing before y<sup>e</sup> God of y<sup>e</sup> earth.

5 And if anie man wil hurte them, fyre procedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if anie man wolde hurt them, thus muste he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophesying, & haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as oft e as they wil.

7 And when they haue finished their testimonie, the beast that cometh out of the bottomles pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe and said, Go & take y<sup>e</sup> litle boke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea & vpon the earth. 9 So I wet vnto the Angel, & said to him, Giue me the litle boke. And he said vnto me, Take it, & eat it vp, and it shall make thy bellie bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as swete as honie. 10 Then I toke the litle boke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as swete as honie: but when I had eaten it, my bellie was bitter. 11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kings. 12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascende vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies shall see them. 13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth parte of the citie shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seuen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, and giue glorie to the God of heauen. 14 The seconde wo is past, & beholde the thirde wo wil come anone. 15 And the seuen Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this worlde are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore. 16 Then the foure & twentie Elders, which sat before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord God almightie, Which art, and Which wast, & Which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdome. 17 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they shulde be iudged, and that thou shuldest giue rewarde vnto thy seruants the Prophetes, and to the Saintes, and to them that feare thy Name, to smale and great, and shuldest destroye them, which destroye the earth. 18 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was sene in his Temple the Arke of his couenat: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thondrings, and earthquake, and muche haile.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten to the comfort of the faithful.

GGg.ii.

8 And their corpses shall lie in the stretes of the great citie, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shall see their corpses thre dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shall send giftes one to another: for these two Prophetes vexed them that dwell on the earth.

11 But after thre dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, shall enter into them, & they shall stand vp vpon their fete: and great feare shall come vpon them which sawe them.

12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascende vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth parte of the citie shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seuen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, and giue glorie to the God of heauen.

14 The seconde wo is past, & beholde the thirde wo wil come anone.

15 And the seuen Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this worlde are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure & twentie Elders, which sat before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord God almightie, Which art, and Which wast, & Which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they shulde be iudged, and that thou shuldest giue rewarde vnto thy seruants the Prophetes, and to the Saintes, and to them that feare thy Name, to smale and great, and shuldest destroye them, which destroye the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was sene in his Temple the Arke of his couenat: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thondrings, and earthquake, and muche haile.

p Meaning the whole iurisdiction of the Pope, which is copared to Sodom for their abominable sines, and to Egypt because the true li-berrie to serue God is taken away from the faithful: and Christ was condemned by Pilate, who represented the Roman power which shulde be comite to the godlie. q The infidels are tormented by hearing y<sup>e</sup> truth preached. r Which shall be at the last resurrection. i For it seemed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth.

t Of the power of Antichrist.

u When they shall vnderstand by Gods worde the glorie of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shall fall from the Pope, and glorie God. x Albeit said by y<sup>e</sup> Pope, that he and other instruments troubleth the worlde neuer so muche, yet Christ shall reigne. y Iesus Christ. z This declareth the office of the godlie, which is to giue God thanks for the deliuerance of his, and to praise his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

a Which signifieth the destruction of the enemies.

The Church persecuted. Reuelation. The beasts power.

a In this third vision is declared how the Church which is compassed about with Iesus Christ the Sonne of righteousness, is persecuted of Antichrist. b The Church treadeth vnder foote what so euer is mutable, and inconstant, with all corrupt affections and such like. c Which signifie God and his worde. d The Church euer with a moste feruent desire longed for Christ shulde be borne, & that the faithful might be regenerate by his power.

Psalm. 9.

e The deuil, & all his power which burneth with furie and is red with blood of the faithful.

f For he is prince of this worlde & almoske haue vniuersal gouernement.

g By his flatteries & promises he gaineth manie of excellent ministers & honorable persones, and bringeth the to destruction.

h Which is Iesus Christ the first borne among manie brethren, who was borne of a virgin Marie as of a special member of the Church.

i The Church was remoued from among the Iewes to the Gentiles, which were as a bare wilderness, and so it is persecuted to & fro.

k Iesus Christ and his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faithful.

l For the dragon was deprived of all his dignitie and had no more place in the Church.

m They put their liues in danger so oft as neede required.

n Meaning, that are given to the worlde and fleshe liues.

o And was overcome of Christ, then he fought against his members.

p Which the Lord had appointed for her.

q God giueth means to his Church to escape the furie of Satan making his creature to serue to the support thereof.

1 And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sunne, & the moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

2 And she was with childe and cryed traouailing in birth, and was pained readie to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great red dragon hauing seven heades, and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drue the third parte of the starres of heauen, & cast the to the earth. And the dragon stode before the woman, which was readie to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when she had brought it forth.

5 So she brought forth a man childe, which shulde rule all nations with a rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to this throne.

6 And the woman fled into wilderness where she hath a place prepared of God, that they shulde fede her there a thousand, two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen. Michael & his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought & his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, nether was their place founde anie more in heauen.

9 And the great dragon, that olde serpent, called the deuil and Satan, was cast out, which deceiueth all the worlde: he was cast into the earth, & his Angels were cast out with him.

10 The I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength & the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the worde of their testimonie, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, & ye that dwell in the. Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuil is come downe vnto you which hath the great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon sawe that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two winges of a great eagle, & she might flie into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, & times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, & he might cause her to be caryed away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and wet and made warre with the remnant of her seede, which kepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stode on the sea sande.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beast deceiue the reprobate. 3. 4. 12. And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beasts marke.

1 And I sawe a beast rise out of the sea, hauing seven heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a leopard, and his fere like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, & great autoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadlie wounde was healed, and all the worlde wondred and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, & they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast, who is able to warre with him!

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to do two and fortie moneths.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, & the dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giue vnto him to make warre with the Saintes, and to ouercome them, & power was giuen him ouer euerie kindred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shal worship him, whose names are not written in the Booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the worlde.

9 If anie man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If anie lead into captiuitie, he shal go into captiuitie: if anie kil with a sworde, he must be killed by a sworde: here is the pacience, & the faith of the Saintes.

11 And I behelde another beast comming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes.

m Antichrist hath not power ouer the elect. n As God ordeined from before all beginning, & all sacrifices were as signes & sacraments of Christs death. o They which led soules captiues, go them selues into captiuitie. p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, & bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth & leadeth to perdition, & is begone, & established by ambition, couetousnes, beuelines, craft, treason & tyrannie. q Which signifie the priesthode & the kingdome, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keils, and hath the two swordes caryed before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordeined the Iubilee, shewed him self one day in apparel as a Pope, & the next day he harnes as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the bishops mitre are signes hercof.

r Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the bodie, and therefore he with his rage against the members.

a Here is the description of the Romaine empire, which standeth in crueltie and tyrannie.

b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by Ierem Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seven mountaynes.

c Which signifie manie prouinces.

d By these beastes are signified the Macedonians, Persians & Chaldeans whome the Romaines ouercame.

e That is, the deuil.

f This male he vnderstand of Nero, who moued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew him self, so the familie of the Cæsars ended in him.

g For the empire was established againe by Vespasian.

h By receiuing the statutes, or dinaces, decrees, ceremonies, & religion of the Romaine empire.

i Antichrist himselfe & power is limited.

k In their bodies, not in soules.

l He meaneth the vniuersal departing where of S. Paul speake to the Thessalonians.

nes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.
12 And he did all that the first beast colde do before him, & he caused the earth, and them which dwel therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadlie wounde was healed.
13 And he did great wonders, so that he made fyre to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,
14 And deceived the that dwel on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to do in the sight of the beast, sayig to them that dwell on the earth, that they shulde make the image of the beast, which had the wounde of a sworde, & did liue.
15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast shulde speake, and shulde cause that as manie as wolde not worship the image of the beast, shulde be killed.
16 And he made all, bothe small and great, riche and poore, fre and bonde, to receiue a marke in their right hand or in their forehead.
17 And that no man might bye or sell, save he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.
18 Heare is wisdom. Let him that hathe wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundredth, threscore and six.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The notable cōpanie of the Lābe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel. 8 Another the fall of Babylon. 9 And the thirde warneth to flee fro the beast. 13 Of their bles-sednes which dye in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords haruest.

Then I looked, and lo, a Lābe stode on mount Sion, and with him an hundredth, fortie & foure thousand, hauing his Fathers Name written in their forehead.
2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the founde of manie waters, & as the founde of a great thunder: & I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes.
3 And they sung as it were a newe song before the throne, & before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no man colde learne that song, but the hundredth, fortie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they, which are not defiled with womē: for they are virgins: these folowe the Lābe whither soeuer he goeth: these are bought from men, being the first frutes vnto God, and to the Lambe.
5 And in their mouths was founde no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.
6 Then I sawe another Angel flee in the middes of Heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preache vnto them, that dwell on the earth, and to euerie nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,
7 Sayig with a loude voyce, Feare God, and giue glorie to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.
8 And there followed another Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for she made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.
9 And the thirde Angel followed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any mā worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,
10 The same shal drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cuppe of his wrath, and he shalbe tormented in fyre and brimstone before the holie Angels, & before the Lambe.
11 And the smoke of their torment shal ascende euermore: & they shal haue no rest day nor night, which worshippe the beast and his image, and whosoever receiue the print of his name.
12 Here is the patience of Saintes: here are they that kepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.
13 The I heard a voyce fro heauen, saying vnto me, Write, Blessed are the dead, which hereafter dye in the Lord. Euē so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their workes followe them.
14 And I looked, & beholde, a white cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sōne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.
15 And another Angel came out of the Tēple, crying with a loude voyce to him

1 The over-throwe of the people is compared to an haruest. Isa. 19. 5: also to a vintage. Isa. 63.

u This is spoken familiarly for our capacity, alluding vnto an house band man who suffereth him self to be adorned by his seruants when his haruest is ripe, and not that Christ hath the neede to be solde when he shulde come to iudgement for the comfort of his Church and destruction of his enemies.

x This was Christ who is also the altar, the Priest and sacrifice.

y That is, a certaine place appointed and not in the heauen.

z By this similitude he declarerh the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the haruest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloude, * thrust in his sickle on the earth, & the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the * altar, which had power ouer fyre, and cryed with a lowde crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, & gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, & cutte downe the vines of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine presse was trode without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the * horsebridles by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

1 AND I sawe another * signe in heauē great & marueilous, <sup>b</sup> seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I sawe as it were a <sup>c</sup> glassie sea, mingled with fyre, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God,

3 And they sung the song of Moses the * seruau of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great & marueilous are thy workes, Lord God almightie: iuste and true are thy * wayes, King of Saintes.

4 * Who shal not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou onely art holie, and all nations shal come & worshippe before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the tēple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and <sup>d</sup> bright linnen, and hauing their * breastes girded with golden girdles.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 And what plagues followe thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

1 AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seue Angels, Go your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noy- some, and a grievous <sup>a</sup> sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, & vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the secōd Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the <sup>b</sup> blood of a dead man: and euerie liuing thing dyed in the sea.

4 And the thirde Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers & fountaines of waters, and they became <sup>c</sup> blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the <sup>d</sup> waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and Holie, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saintes, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euē so, Lord God almightie, <sup>e</sup> true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with <sup>f</sup> heat of fyre, And men boyled in great heat, and <sup>g</sup> blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glorie.

9 And the fift Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the <sup>h</sup> beast, & his kingdom waxed darke, & they <sup>i</sup> gnawe their tongues for sorowe,

10 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, & repented not of their workes.

11 And the sixt Angel powred out his vial vpon the great riuier <sup>j</sup> Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of

And I sawe thre unclean spirits like froges come out of the mouth of the draout of the mouth of the false prophet.

For they are the spirits of devils, wor-ther them to the battell of that great day of God Almightye.

And they gathered them together into

And the seventh Angel powred out his vial into the ayre: & there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, It is done.

And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & there was a great earthquake, suchie as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

And the great citie was diuided into thre partes, and the cities of the nacions fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenes of his wrath.

And euerie yle fled away, & the moun-taines were not founde.

And there fell a great haile, like talents,
out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

And there fell a great haile, like talents,

CHAP. XVII.

The description of the great whore. & Her finnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

Then there came one of the seue Angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I wil shewe thee the danacion of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters,

With whome haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inha-bitans of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

So he caried me away into the wildernes in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a skarlat coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seuen heads, &

ten hornes.

And the woman was araied in purple & skarlat, & guilded with golde, & precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of abominations, and fil-thines of her fornication.

And in her forehead was a name written, A Mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, & with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: & when I sawe her, I wo-dred with great marueile.

Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore marueilest thou? I wil shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast, that beareth her, which hath seuen heads,
and ten hornes.

The beast that thou hast sene, was, and is not, and shal ascende out of the bottom-les pit, and shal go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shal wondre (whose names are not written in the Boke of life from the fundacion of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

Here is the minde that hath wisdome.
The seuen heads are seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seuen Kings.

Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and whe he cometh, he must continue a short space.

And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eight, and is one of the seuen, & shal go into destruction.

And the ten hornes which thou sawest,
are ten Kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shal receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

These haue one minde, and shal giue their power, and autoritie vnto the beast.

These shal fight with the Lambe, & the Lambe shal ouercome them: for he is Lord of Lords, & King of Kings: & they that are on his side, called, and chosene, and faithful.

And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nacions, and tongues.

And the ten hornes which thou sawest
vpon the beast, are they that shal hate the whore, and shal make her desolate and naked, & shal eat her flesh, & burne her with fyre.

For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his wil, & to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntil
the wordes of God be fulfilled.

3.9 The leuers of the worlde are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion. 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

1 And after these things, I sawe another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glorie.

2 And he cryed out mightely with a loude voyce, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon y great citie, & is become the habitation of deuils, and the holde of all fowle spirits, and a cage of euerie vnclane and hateful byrde.

3 For all nations haue drōken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchants of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce frō heauen say, d Go out of her, my people, that ye be not partetakers in her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are come vp vnto heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Rewarde her, euē as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: & in the cup that she hath filled to you, fil her the double.

7 In as muche as she glorified her self, and liued in pleasure, so muche giue ye to her torment and sorowe: for she saith in her heart, * I sit being a quene, and am no widowe, and shal se no mourning.

8 Therefore shal her plagues come at one day, death, and sorowe, and famine, & she shalbe burnt with fyre: for strong is the Lord God which wil condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shal bewaile her, & lament for her, which haue comitted fornication, & liued in pleasure with her, when they shal se the smoke of her burning,

10 And shal stande a farre of for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the marchants of the earth shal wepe and waile ouer her: for no man byeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of golde and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, & of all maner of Thyne wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of moste precious wood, & of brasfe, and of yron, and of marble,

14 (And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, & all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more)

15 The marchants of these things which were waxed riche, shal stand a farre of frō her, for feare of her torment, weping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen and purple, and skarlet, and guilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euerie shippe master, and all the people that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and who soeuer trauail on the sea, shal stand a farre of,

18 And crye, when they se the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shal cast dust on their heads, and crye weping, and wailing, & say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made riche all that had shippes on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holie Apostles and Prophetes: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel toke vp a stone like a great millstone, & cast it into the sea, saying, With suche violence shal the great citie Babylon be cast, and shalbe founde no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, & musicians, and of pipers, & trumpeters shalbe heard no more in thee, and no craftes man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shalbe founde any more in thee: and the sounde of a millstone shalbe heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy marchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantements were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was founde the blood of the Prophetes, and of the Saintes, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

ANd after these thigs I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, * Hallelu-iah, saluacion & glorie, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

For he true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath aduenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: & her smoke rose vp for euermore.

And the foure and twentie Elders, & the foure beasts fell downe, and worshiped God that sat on the throne, saying, * Amen, Hallelu-iah.

Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, bothe smale and great.

And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of manie waters, and as the voyce of strong thondrings, saying, Hallelu-iah for our Lord God almightie hath reigned.

Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glorie to him: for the marriage of the Labe is come, and his wife hath made her self readie.

And to her was grated, that she shulde be araid with pure syne linen and shining. for the fine linen is the righteousness of Saintes.

Then he said vnto me, Write, * Blessed are they which are called vnto the Lambes supper. And he said vnto me, These wordes of God are true.

And I fell before his feete, * to worship him: but he said vnto me, Se thou do it not: I am thy fellowe seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the testimonie of Iesus. Worship God: for the testimonie of Iesus, is the spirit of prophecie.

And I sawe heauen open, and beholde a white horse, and he that sat vpon him, was called, * Faithful & true, & he iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

And his eyes were as a flame of fyre, & on his head were manie crownes: and he had a name written, that no man knewe but him self.

And he was clothed with a garment dipte in blood, and his name is called,

THE WORDE OF GOD.

And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it he shulde smite the heathen: for he shal rule the with a rodde of yron: for he it is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercesnes and wrath of almightie God.

And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name written, * THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I sawe an Angel stand in the sunne, who cryed with a lowde voyce, saying to all the foules that did flye by the middes of heauen, Come, and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,

That ye may eat the flesh of Kings, & the flesh of hie Captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all fre me and bondemen, and of smale and great.

And I sawe the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their warriors gathered together to make battel against him, that sat on the horse & against his souldiers.

But the beast was taken, and with him that false prophete that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceived them that receiued the beastes marke, & them that worshiped his image. These bothe were aliue cast into a lake of fyre, burning with brimstone.

And the remnant were slayne with the sworde of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled full with their flesh.

And cast him into the bottomles pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the dore vpon him, that he shulde deceiue the people no more, til a thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that he must be losed for a litle season.

3.14. The blessed estate of the godlie, 8.27 And the miserable condicon of the wicked. 11 The description of the heauenlie Ierusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

1 And I sawe * a new heauen, & a new earth: <sup>a</sup> for <sup>a</sup> the first heauen, and the first earth were <sup>b</sup> passed away, & there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn sawe the <sup>c</sup> holie citie newe Ierusalem come <sup>d</sup> downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her housband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he wil dwell with them: & they shal be his people, and God him self shal be their God with them.

4 * And God shal wipe <sup>e</sup> away all teares fro their eyes: & there shal be no more death, nether sorowe, nether crying, nether shal there be anie more paine: for <sup>f</sup> first things are passed.

5 And he that sate vpon the throne, said, * Beholde, I make all things new: and he said vnto me, Write: for these wordes are faithful and true.

6 And he said vnto me, * It is done, I am <sup>g</sup> and <sup>h</sup>, the beginning and the end. I wil giue to him that is a thirst, of the <sup>i</sup> well of the water of life frely.

7 He that ouercometh, shal inherit all things, and I wil be his God, & he shal be my sonne.

8 But <sup>j</sup> the <sup>k</sup> feareful and vnbeleuing, and the <sup>l</sup> abominable and murderers, & whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, & all liars shal haue their parte in the lake, which burneth with fyre and brimstone, which is the seconde death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen viales full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I wil shewe thee the <sup>m</sup> bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caryed me away in the spirit to a great & an hie mountaine, & he shewed me the great <sup>n</sup> citie, holie Ierusalem, <sup>o</sup> descending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glorie of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a <sup>p</sup> lasper stone cleare as cristall,

12 And had a great <sup>q</sup> wall and hie, and had twelue <sup>r</sup> gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the East parte <sup>s</sup> there were three gates, and on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the Westside three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue fundacions, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue <sup>t</sup> Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a goldē rede to measure the citie with all, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foure square, and the length is as large as the bredth of it, and he measured the citie with the rede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the bredth, and the height of it are equal.

- 1 And he shewed me a pure * riuier of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.
- 2 In the middes of the strete of it, and of ether side of the riuier, was the tre of life, which bare twelue maner of frutes, & gaue frute euerie moneth: & the leaues of the tre serued to heale the nations with.

- 6 And he said vnto me, These wordes are faithful and true: & the Lord God of the holie Prophetes sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.
- 7 Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed is he which kepeth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke.
- 8 And I am Iohn, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard & seene, I fell downe to worship before the fete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.
- 9 But he said vnto me, Se thou do it not: for I am thy felowe seruant, & of thy brethren the Prophetes, and of them which kepe the wordes of this boke: worship God.
- 10 And he said vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophecie of this boke: for the time is at hand.
- 11 He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust stil: & he which is filthy, let him be filthy stil: and he which is righteous, let him be righteous stil: & he which is holie, let him be holie stil.

- 16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote & the generaciō of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.
- 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come: & let him which is athirst, come: & let whosoever wil, take of the water of life frely.
- 18 For I protest vnto euerie man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke, * if any man shal adde vnto these things, God shal adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this boke.
- 19 And if any man shal diminish of the wordes of this boke of this prophecie, God shal take away his parte out of the Boke of life, and out of the holie citie, and fro those things which are written in this boke.
- 20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so come, Lord Iesus.
- 21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

A BRIEF TABLE OF THE INTERPRETATION OF THE PROPRE NAMES which are chiefly founde in the olde Testamēt, wherein the first number signifieth the chapter: the seconde the verse.

W Hereas the wickednes of time, and the blindnes of the former age hath bene such that all things altogether haue bene abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of diuerse of the holie men named in the Scriptures haue bene forgotten, and now seme strange vnto vs, and the names of infants that shulde euer haue some godlie aduertisements in them, and shulde be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his householde, hath bene hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie and heathenish impietie, we haue now set forth this table of the names that be moste vsed in the olde Testament with their interpretations, as the Ebrewe importeth, partly to call backe the godlie frō that abuse, when they shal know the true names of the godlie fathers, & what they signifie, that their children now named after them may haue testimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithful familie that in all their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bounde by these their names to serue God from their infancie & haue occasion to praise him for his workes wrought in them & their fathers: but chiefly to restore the names to their integritie, whereby many places of th: Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holie Gost shal better be vnderstand. We haue medled rarely with the Greke names, because their interpretation is vncerteine, & many of the are corrupted from their original, as we may also se these Ebrewe names set in the margent of this table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Ebrewe names that are not here interpretate, let not the diligent reader be careful: for he shal finde them in places moste cōuenient amongst the annotations: at least so many as may seme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

A PERFITE SUPPUTATION OF THE YERES AND TIMES FROM ADAM VNTO Christ, proued by the Scriptures, after the collection of diuers autors.

The summe of the yerres of the first age

From Adam vnto Noes flood are yerres 1656.
For when Adam was 230 yere olde,
he begate Seth.
Seth being 105 yerres, begate Enos.
Enos being 90 yerres, begate Cainan.
Cainan being 70 yerres, begate Ma-halaleel.
Mahalaleel being 65 yerres, begate
Iared.
Iared at the age of 2161 yerres, begate Enoch.
Enoch being 65 yerres, begate Ma-thufelah.
Mathufelah at the age of 187 yerres, begate Lamech.
Lamech being 182 yerres, begate Noe.
Noe at the comming of the flood was 600 yerres olde, as appeareth in the seuenth of Genesis.

The whole summe of the yerres are 1656.

From the said flood of Noe vnto Adrahams departing from Chalde were 363 yerres, and ten dayes.
For the said flood continued one whole yere and ten dayes.

Sem (which was Noes sonne) begate Arphaxat two yerres after that.
Arphaxat begate Salah whē he was 35 yerres olde.
Salah being 30 yerres olde, begate
Heber.
Heber at his age of 34 begate Phalech.
Phalech being 30 yerres, begate Regu.
Regu being 32 yerres, begate Saruch.
Saruch being 30 yerres, begate Nahor.
Nahor being 29 yerres, begate Thare.
Thare being 70 yerres, begate Abraham.
And Abraham departed from Chal-
de when he was 70 yerres olde.

These said yerres accounted are 363 yerres, & ten dayes.

From Abrahams departing frō Vr in Chalde vnto the departing of the children of Israel frō Egypt are 430 yerres, gathered as followeth.

Abraham was in Charran five yerres, and departed in the 75 yere.
He begate Isaac when he was 100 yerres olde, and in the 25 yere of his departing.

Isaac begate Iakob when he was 60
yerres olde.

Iakob went into Egypt with all his familie, whē he was 130 yere olde.
Israel was in Egypt 220 yerres, which remaine from that time.

Then rebate 80 yerres from this: for so olde was Moyses when he cōducted the Israelites from Egypt.
So the reste of the yerres, that is to say 130, are deuided betwixt Am-ram and Chath.

Then Chath begate Amram at his age of 67 yerres.

Amram being 65 yerres, begate Moses, who in the 80 yere of his age departed with the Israelites from Egypt.

So this supputation is the 430 yerres mencioned in the 11. of Exod. & the 3.
to the Galatians.

From the going of the Israelites from Egypt vnto the first buylding of the Temple are 480 yeres, after this supputation and accounte.

Moses remained in & desert or wil-LLl. iii.

dernes 40 yerres.
 Josue & Othoniel ruled 40 yerres.
 Aioth 70 yerres.
 Debora 40 yerres.
 Gedeon 40 yerres.
 Abimelech 3 yerres.
 Thela 23 yerres.
 Iair 22 yerres.
 Then were they without a captaine vnto the 18 yere of Iepthe.
 Iepthe 6 yerres.
 Abissam 7 yerres.
 Elom 10 yerres.
 Abaton 8 yerres.
 Sampson 20 yerres.
 Heli Iudge and Priest 45 yerres.
 Samuel & Saul reigned 40 yerres.
 Dauid was King 40 yerres.
 Salomon in the 4 yere of his reigne began the buylding of the Temple.
 These are the 480 yerres mencioned in the first of the Kings & the 6 chap.

From the first buylding of the Temple vnto the captiuitie of Babylon are 419 yerres & an halfe.
 Salomon reigned yet 36 yerres.
 Roboam 17 yerres.
 Abia 3 yerres.
 Afa 41 yerres.
 Iosaphat 25 yerres.
 Ioram 8 yerres.

Ochafias one yere.
 Athalia the Quene 7 yerres.
 Ioas 40 yerres.
 Amafias 29 yerres.
 Ozias 52 yerres.
 Ioathan 16 yerres.
 Achaz 16 yerres.
 Ezechias 29 yerres.
 Manasses 55 yerres.
 Amon 2 yerres.
 Iosias 31 yerres.
 Irachas 3 moneths.
 Eliacim 11 yerres.
 Ioachim, Iechonias 3 moneths.
 And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babylon.

The summe of these yerres are 419 yerres.

Ierusalem was reedified & buyl-ded againe after the captiuitie of Babylon 48 yerres.

The captiuitie continued 70 yerres.
 The children of Israel were deliue-red and restored to their fredome in the first yere of Cyrus.

The Temple was begonne to be buylded in the 2 yere of the said Cyrus, & finished in the 48 yere, which was the 6 yere of Darius.
 After that Darius had reigned 20 yere, Nehemias was restored to libertie, and went to buylde the leitse, which was finished in the 38

 yere of the said Darius.
 All the yerres from the buylding of the Temple againe are 16 yerres.
 The whole summe of yerres amount to 143 yerres.

From the reedifying of the ci-tie vnto the coming of Christ, are 483 yerres, after this supputatio or nombring.

It is mencioned in the 9 of Daniel that Ierusalem shulde be buylt vp againe, and that from that time vnto the comming of Christ are 67 weekes, & euerie weeke is reckoned for seven yerres. So 67 weekes amount to 469 yerres. For from the 32 yere of Darius vnto the 42 yere of Augustus, in the which yere our Sauour Christ was borne, are iust and complet so many yerres, whereupon we reckon, that from Adam vnto Christ are 3974
 yerres, six moneths and ten dayes, and from the byrth of Christ vnto this present yere, is 1560.

Then the whole summe and nomber of yerres from the beginning of the worlde vnto this present yere of our Lord God 1560 are iust 5544, 6 moneths, and the said odde ten dayes.

The End.

THE PSALMES OF DAVID

IN MEETER.

Beatus vir. Psal. i. T. S.

He man is blest that hath not bent,
to wicked read his ease:
Nor led his life as sinners do, nor sat in scorners chair.

2 But in the law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows fast by the rivers side, Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide.
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the winde drives to and fro.

5 Therefore shall not the wicked men in judgement stand upright: Nor yet the sinners with the just shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. ij. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse, seeing all is but vain?

2 The kings and rulers of the earth conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Sonne, which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells, their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking-stocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say to them upon a day:

And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say, 6 I have anointed him my king upon my holy hill:
I will therefore (Lord) preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot, Thou art my deare and onely Sonne, to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be posselt.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a mace,
as men under foot trod:
And as the potters sheards, shalt break them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye, O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,
By whom the matters of the world be judg'd and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye reioice to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kisse and eke embrace his blessed Sonne, I say, Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid-way.

13 If once his wrath never so small shall kindle in his breast:
O then all they that trust in Christ shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid. Psal. iij. T. S.

O Lord, how are my foes increast, which vex me more and more?

2 They kill my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defence,
when I am heard bestead:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou hold'st up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill did heare me by and by.

5 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept and rose again:

For why? I know assuredly the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:

For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call:

7 Forthou hast broke the cheeks and teeth of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord above:

Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Psal. iij. T. S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord, hear me when I call:

Thou hast set me at libertie
when I was bound and thrall.

2 Have mercy (Lord) therefore on me,
and grant me my request:

For unto thee uncessantly to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortall men, how long will ye my glory thus despise?

Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse:

And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sinne not but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:

And in your chamber quietly see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousness, I say:

And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.

7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:

But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart more joyfull and more glad,

Then they that of their corn and wine full great increase have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:

For thou onely wilt me, O Lord, alone in safety keep.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

Incline thine eares unto my words,

O Lord, my plaint consider:

2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.

3 Hear me betime, Lord, tarry not,
for I will have respect,

My prayer early in the morn to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience in thee my God alone:

Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none.

5 And in thy sight shall never stand these furious fools, O Lord:

Vain workers of iniquity thou hast alwayes abhorr'd.

6 The liars and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them than:

And God will hate the bloud-thirsty,
and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house, trusting upon thy grace:

And reverently will worship thee toward thine holy place.

8 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:

And eke the way that I shall walk before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouths there is no truth, their heart is foul and vain:

Their throat an open sepulchre, their tongues do glose and faine.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought:

Subvert them in their heaps of sinne, which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad alwayes:

And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still:

And with thy grace, as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vj. T. S.

Lord, in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deservethine ire:

Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.

2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord, of mercyme forbear,

And heal me, Lord, for why? thou knowest my bones do quake for fear.

- 3 My soul is troubled very sore, and vexed vehemently:
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay to cure my misery!
- 4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted grace, my silly soul up take:
O save me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
- 5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernall pit?
- 6 So grievous is my plaint and moene,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed with tears of my complaint.
- 7 My sight is dimme and waxeth old with anguish of my heart,
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
- 8 But now away from me all ye that work iniquitie:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and crie.
- 9 He heard not onely the request and prayer of my heart;
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
- 10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vij. T. S.

- O Lord my God, I put my trust and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me.
- 2 Left like a lion he me tear and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.
- 3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right, Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:
- 4 Or to my friend rewarded ill, or left him in distress
Which me pursu'd most cruelly, and hated me causeless:
- 5 Then let my foes pursue my soul, and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

- 6 Start up, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the kingdome promised to me which wrong I sustain.
- 7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.
- 8 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteousness, and mine integrity.

The second part.

- 9 Lord, cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:
- 10 By whom the secrets of all hearts are searched and descride.
- 11 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
That doth preserve all those that be of pure and perfect heart.
- 12 The just man and the wicked both God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand even every day and houre.
- 13 Except he change his minde, I die;
for even as he should smite,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
ayming where he may hit:
- 14 And doth prepare his mortall darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute, whiles he doth mischief warp.
- 15 But lo, though he in travel be of his devilish forecast,
And of his mischief once conceiv'd, yet brings forth nought at last.
- 16 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit that he digg'd up for other.
- 17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred,
And all the mischief that he wrought shall fall upon his head.
- 18 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteously,
And with my song will praise the name of him that is most high.

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viij. T. S.

- O God our Lord, how wonderfull are thy works every where,

A 3

Whose

- Whose fame surmounts in dignity above the heavens clear !
- 2 Even by the mouth of sucking babes thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.
- 3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand;
The sunne, the moon, and all the starres,
in order as they stand:
- 4 What thing is man, Lord, think I then,
that thou dost him remember ?
O what is mans posterity, that thou dost it consider ?
- 5 For thou hast made him little lesse then angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also with glory and dignitie.
- 6 Thou hast preferr'd him to be lord of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet hast set all things, that he should keep them under.
- 7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else,
that in the fields do feed:
- 8 Fowls of the aire, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.
- 9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord,
How famous and how wonderfull are thy works through the world!

Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. ix. T. S.

- With heart and mouth unto the Lord will I sing laud and praise:
And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwayes.
- 2 I will be glad and much rejoyce in thee, O God most high:
And make my songs extoll thy name above the starrie skie.
- 3 For that my foes are driven back and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat and are destroyd by thy great power and might.
- 4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou dost with justice hear my cause,
most like a righteous judge.
- 5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked so confound,
That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.
- 6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch, and all their towns destroyd:

Psalme ix.

- Thou hast their fame with them defac'd, through all the world so wide.
- 7 Know thou, that he which is above for evermore shall reign,
And in the seat of equity true judgement will maintain.
- 8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And so will yield with equity to every man his right.
- 9 He is protectour of the poor
what time they be oppress:
He is in all adversity their refuge and their rest.
- 10 And they that know thy holy name, therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakest not their suit in their necessity.

The second part.

- 11 Sing psalmes therefore unto the Lord that dwells in Sion hill:
Publish among all nations his noble acts and will.
- 12 For he is mindefull of the bloud of those that be oppress:
Forgetting not th' afflicted heart that seeks to him for rest.
- 13 Have mercy, Lord, on me poor wretch whose enemies still remain, Which from the gates of death art wont to raise me up again.
- 14 In Sion that I might set forth thy praise with heart and voice,
And that in thy salvation, Lord,
my soul might still rejoyce.
- 15 The heathen stick fast in the pit that they themselves prepar'd,
And in the net that they did set their own feet fast are snar'd.
- 16 God shews his judgements, which were good for every man to mark,
When as ye see the wicked man lie trapt in his own wark.
- 17 The wicked and deceitfull men go down to hell for ever,
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
- 18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poor mans grief and pain:
The patient people never look for help of God in vain.
- 19 O Lord arise, lest men prevail that be of worldly might:

And

And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.
20 Lord strike such terrour, fear, and dread, into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly they be but mortall men.

Ut quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.

VVhat is the cause that thou, O Lord,
art now so far from thine,
And keepest closethy countenance from us this troublous time?

2 The poor do perish by the proud and wicked mens desire:

Let them be taken in the craft that they themselves conspire.

3 For in the lust of his own heart
th' ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despight.

4 He is so proud that right and wrong he setteth all apart:

Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect,
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.

6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread, lest mine estate should change:
And why? for all adversitie to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursednesse, of fraud, deceit, and guile:
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travell all the while.

8 He lieth hid in wayes and holes to slay the innocent:
Against the poor that passe him by his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a lion privily lies lurking in his den,
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.

10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I say:

11 So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power, his prey.

The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:

His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

13 Arise, O Lord, O God, in whom the poor mans hope doth rest:

Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord,
the poor that be oppressed.

14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhorre it,
To hear the wicked in their heart say, Tush, thou canst not for it?

15 But thou seest all their wickednesse, and well dost understand

16 That friendlesse and poor fatherlesse are left into thy hand.

17 Of wicked and malicious men then break the power for ever,
That they with their iniquity may perish altogether.

18 The Lord shall reign for evermore
as King and God alone, And he will chase the heathen folk out of the land each one.

19 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the poor mens plaint, their prayers and request:

Their hearts thou wilt confirm, untill thine eares to hear be prest:

20 To judge the poor and fatherlesse, and help them to their right;
That they may be no more oppressed by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Psal. xj. T. S.

I Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul untill, Flie hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill?

2 Behold, the wicked bend their bows, and make their arrows prest
To shoot in secret, and to hurt the sound and harmlesse breast.

3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shrunk, and clearly brought to nought:
Alas, the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat,
of royall majesty.

The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde,
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manner of mankinde,

5 And with a chearfull countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhorre
all such as mischief muse:

6 And on the sinners casteth snares
asthick as any rain,

Fire and brimstone, and whirlwindstheick, appointed for their pain.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God doth righteousness embrace,
And to the just and upright men sheweth forth his pleasant face.

Saluum me fac. Psal. xij. T. S.

Help, Lord, for good and godly men do perish and decay:

And faith and truth from worldly men is parted clean away.

2 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain:

For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and feigne.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips, and tongues that be so stout
To speak proud words and make great brags,
the Lord soon cutteth out.

4 For they say still, We will prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak;
what Lord shall us controll?

5 But for the great complaint and cry of poor and men oppressed, Arise will I now saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to silver pure, that from the earth is tride,
And hath no lesse then seven times in fire been purifide.

7 Now sith thy promise is to help,
Lord, keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore from this ill kinde of men.

8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extold.

Usquequo Domine. Psal. xiiij. T. S.

How long wilt thou forget me, Lord?
shall I ne're be remembred?

How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?

2 In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be?

How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me?

3 Behold me now, my Lord my God, and heare me sore oppressed:

Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death possest:

4 Lest that mine enemy say to me,
Behold I do prevail:
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness my hope shall never start:
In thy relief and saving health right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:
Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xiv. T. S.

There is no God, as foolish men affirm in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

2 The Lord beheld from heaven high the whole race of mankind,
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truly there was none
That in the world did any good:
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their judgement so farre lost, that all work mischief still,
Eating my people even as bread, not one to seek Gods will?

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.

6 Ye mock the doings of the poor, to their reproach and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.

7 But who shall give thy people health?
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel
from out of Sion hill?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again such as were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

O Lord, within thy tabernacle who shall inhabit still?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell in thy most holy hill?

2 The man whose life is uncorrupt, whose works are just and straight:

Whose

Whose heart doth think the very truth, whose tongue speaks no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill
in body, goods, or name, Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might impair the same,

4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully, Although he make his covenant so that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to usury his money and his coyn, Ne for to hurt the innocent doth bribe, or else purloyn.

7 Who so doth all things as you see that here is to be done, Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvj. T. S.

Lord, keep me; for I trust in thee, and do confesse indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods,
O Lord, thou hast no need.

2 I give my goods unto the saints
that in the world do dwell,
And namely to the faithfull flock in virtue that excell.

3 They shall heap sorrows on their heads, which run as they were mad,
To offer to the idol gods:
alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloody sacrifice and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell:
Mine heritage assign'd to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts do teach me every night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight, and trust him over all.

For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.

10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for, Lord, thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life;
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face, and power for evermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

O Lord, give care to my just cause, attend when I complain:
And hear the prayer that I put forth with lips that do not feigne.

2 And let the judgement of my cause proceed alwayes from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well try'd me in the night, and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue that was not in my minde.

4 As for the works of wicked men and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy name,
I have refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure stay me, Lord, and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk
my steps may never swerve.

6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, surely thou wilt me aid:
Then hear my prayer, and weigh right well
the words that I have said.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their trust in thee, Declare thy strength on them that spurn against thy majestie.

8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me and daily me annoy,
And from my foes that go about my soul for to destroy:

10 Which..

10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so fat,
That in their pride they do not spare to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should passe, with craft me to confound:
And musing mischief in their mindes,
to cast me to the ground.

12 Much like a lion greedily that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a lions whelp within some secret place.

13 Up Lord in haste, prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.

14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy power out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean from worldly men to whom all worldly goods are rife, That have no hope nor part of joy
but in this present life.

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st with pleasure to their minde:
Their children have enough, and leave to theirs the rest behinde.

17 But I shall with pure conscience behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Psal. xviii. T. S.

O God my strength and fortitude, of force I must love thee:
Thou art my castle and defence in my necessitie.

2 My God, my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.

3 When I sing laud unto the Lord
most worthy to be served, Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved.

4 The pangs of death did compasse me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickednesse did put me in great fear.

5 The slie and subtil snares of hell were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake, Yea the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smock
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coals of hote consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above, and bowed the heavens high:
And underneath his feet he cast
the darknesse of the skie.

10 On cherubs and on cherubims full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the windes came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black and airc clouds environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face in brightnesse shall appear, Then clouds consume, and in their stead come hail and coals of fire.

13 The fierie darts and thunder-bolts disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings, and at thy chiding chear,
The springs and the foundations of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord sent down to fetch me from below,
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.

16 And me delivered from my foes that would have made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppresse in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free,
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward:

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his paths have trod,
And have not wavered wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third part.

21 But evermore I have respect to his law and decree:

His statutes and commandments
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt
appear'd before his face,
And did refrain from wickedness and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For, Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too,
And with the good and virtuous men
right virtuously wilt do:

25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve:
And thou wilt use the wicked men
as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou dost save the simple folk in trouble when they lie,
And dost bring down the countenance of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will make also my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall:
By thee I scale and overleap
the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the wayes of God,
his word is purely true:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none.
Or else who is omnipotent, saving our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength, is he that I do mean,
That all the wayes wherein I walk did evermore keep clean.

32 That made my feet like to the harts in swiftnesse of my pace,
And for my surety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands to battell and to fight:
To break in funder barres of brass he gave mine arms the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy saving health, thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiaritie doth still increase my power.

35 And under me thou makest plain the way where I should walk,
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoy'd:
And from the field do not return till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rise no more:
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.

38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength to warre in such a wise,
That they be all scattered abroad that up against me rise.

39 Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my foes thou dost divide in funder with thy stroke.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave eare,
nor help them with relief:
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the winde
I drive them under feet,
And sweep them out like filthy clay that sticketh in the street.

42 Thou keepst me from seditious folk, that still in strife are led:
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown, and yet they shall me serve:
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will serve.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rock and saving health:
praised be he alwayes.

46 For God it is that gave me power revenged for to be:
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe deliver'd me, and set me higher then thole That cruell and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God, to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy name
among the Gentiles all.

49 That gavest great prosperity unto the king, I say,
To David thine anointed king,
and to his seed for aye.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. xix. T. S.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent, his works and what they are.

2 The wondrous works of God appear by every dayes succels:
The nights likewise which their race runne,
the self same thing expresse.

3 There is no language, tongue or speech,
where their sound is not heard:
In all the earth and coasts thereof their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown,
Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion, who for to get a prise,
With joy doth haste to take in hand some noble enterprise.

6 And all the sky from end to end he compasseth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure, Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure!

8 Just are the Lords commandements, and glad both heart and minde;
His precept's pure and giveth light to eyes that be full blinde.

9 The fear of God is excellent, and doth endure for ever:
The judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether:
10 And more to be embrac'd alway
then fined gold, I say:
The hony and the hony-combe are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd to have God in regard:
And in performance of the same there shall be great reward.

12 But, Lord, what earthly man doth know the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret finnes, which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous finnes prevail not over me;
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord, thou art alone.

Exaudi te Dom. Psal. xx. T. S.

In trouble and adversity
the Lord God hear thee still,
The majesty of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill;

2 And send thee from his holy place his help at every need,
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice that now to him is done:
And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-offrings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire the Lord grant unto thee,
And all thy counsel and device full well perform may be.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us sav'st, and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence, and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord, that keepeth promise just.

- 8 They fall down flat, but we do rise and stand up stedfastly.
9 Now save and help us, Lord and Kings, on thee when we do crie.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxi. T. S.

- O Lord, how joyfull is the king in thy strength and thy power!
How vehemently doth he rejoyce in thee his Saviour!
2 For thou hast given unto him his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast deny'd of that he did require.
3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts and blessings manifold,
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.
4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.
5 Great is his glorie by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicitie that never shall decay,
And with thy chearfull countenance wilt comfort him alway.
7 For why? the king doth strongly trust in God for to prevail:
Wherefore his goodnesse and his grace will not that he shall quail.
8 But let thine enemies feel thy force, and those that thee withstand:
Find out thy foes, and let them feel the power of thy right hand.
9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fierie flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk their seed shall end and cease.
11 For why? much mischief did they muse against thy holy name:
Yet did they fail, and had no power for to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place,
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.

- 13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore in thy strength every houre:
So shall we sing right solemnly, praising thy might and power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. xxii. T. S.

- O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,
And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and crie?
2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both crie and call:
I cease not all the night, and yet thou hearest not at all.
3 Even thou that in thy sanctuarie and holy place dost dwell, Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
4 And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliuer.
5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy name:
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.
6 But I am now become a worm more like then any man:
An outcast whom the people scorn with all the spight they can.
7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and on this wise they say, 8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love, Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.
9 But, Lord, out of my mothers womb
I came by thy request:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope while I did suck her breast.
10 I was committed from my birth with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mothers womb, thou hast been e're my God.
The second part.
11 Then, Lord, depart not now from me in this my present grief, Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
12 So many bulls do compass me that be full strong of head:
Yea bulls so far as though they had in Basan field been fed.
13 They

- 13 They gape upon me greedily, as though they would we slay :
Much like a lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
- 14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break,
My heart doth in my bodie melt like wax against the heat.
- 15 And like a potsherd drieth my strength, my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.
- 16 And many dogs do compasse me, and wicked counsel eke Conspire against me cursedly, they pierce my hands and feet.
- 17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told :
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
- 18 My garments they divided eke in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots to whom it might befall.
- 19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not farre from me at my great need :
But rather, sith thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.
- 20 And from the sword, Lord, save my soul
by thy might and thy power ;
And keep my soul thy darling deare,
from dogs that would devoure.
- 21 And from the lions mouth, that would me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns,
Lord, safely me deliver.
- 22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majestie record :
And in thy church shall praise the name of thee the living Lord.

The second part.

- 23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :
And all ye seed of Israel with reverence worship him.
- 24 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their crie.
- 25 Among the folk that fear the Lord
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy name.

- 26 The poore shall eat and be suffic'd, and those that do their deaver
To know the Lord, shall praise his name, their hearts shall live for ever.
- 27 All coasts of th'earth shall praise the Lord, and turn to him for grace :
The heathen folk shall worship him before his blessed face.
- 28 The kingdome of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :
And he shall be their governour and king for evermore.
- 29 The rich men of his goodly gifts shall feed and taste also :
And in his presence worship him and bowe their knees full low.
- 30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord while any world shall last.
- 31 My seed shall plainly shew to them that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Dominus regit me. Plal. xxiii. W. W.

- THe Lord is onely my support, and he that doth me feed :
How can I then lack any thing whereof I stand in need ?
- 2 He doth me fold in coats most safe
the tender grass fast by :
And after drives me to the streams which run most pleasantly.
- 3 And when I feel my self hear lost, then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths even for his own names sake.
- 4 And though I were even at deaths doore, yet would I fear none ill :
For with thy rod and shepherds crook
I am comforted still.
- 5 Thou hast my table richly deckt in despite of my foe :
Thou hast my head with balm refresh't,
my cup doth overflow.
- 6 And finally while breath doth last thy grace shall me defend :
And in the house of God will I my life for ever spend.

Another of the same, by T. S.

MY shepherd is the living Lord, nothing therefore I need ;
In pastures fair with waters calm
he sets me forth to feed.

2 He did conuert and glad my soul, and brought my minde in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness, for his most holy name.

3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:

Thy rod, thy staffe doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes
my table thou shalt spread:

Thou shalt, O Lord, fill full my cup, and eke anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy fauour is so frankly shewd to me:

That in thy house for evermore my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiiij. J. H.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:

Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it above the seas to stand,

And laid a low the liquid flouds,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill,

Or passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still?

4 Whose hands are harmles, and whose heart
no spot there doth defile:

His soul not set on vanity, who hath not sworn to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blissefull plight,

And God his God and Saviour shall yield to him his right.

6 This is the brood of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:

As Jacob did the Israelite, in that time of his race.

7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:

For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.

8 Who is the king of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord,

The mighty Lord in battel stout,
and triall of the sword.

9 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope,
the everlasting gate:

For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.

10 Who is the king of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:

The kingdome and the royalty of glorious state is his.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxv. T. S.

ILift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:

Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes reioice,
nor make a scorn of me:

And let them not be overthrown
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall which harm them wrongfully:

Therefore thy paths and thy right wayes unto me, Lord, descric.

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:

Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I wait alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee, Lord, remember,

And eke thy pitie plentiful,
for they have been for ever.

6 Remember not the faults and frailty of my youth:

Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy finde:

But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy minde.

7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:

Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:

He will direct in all his wayes
the lowly and the meek.

9 For all the wayes of God are truth and mercy both,

To them that keep his testament,
the witness of his troth.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord, I thee intreat

To grant me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.

11 Who so doth fear the Lord, the Lord will him direct

To leade his life in such a way as he doth best accept.

- 12 His scul shall evermore in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seed and his posteritie inherit shall the land.
- 13 All those that fear the Lord know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.
- 14 Mine eyes and eke my heart to him I will advance, That pluck'd my feet out of the snare of sinne and ignorance.
- 15 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poore and desolate, and comfortlesse alone.
- 16 The troubles of my heart are multipl'd indeed: Bring me out of this miserie, necessitie and need.
- 17 Behold my povertie,
mine anguish and my pain:
Remit my sinne and mine offence,
and make me clean again.
- 18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increate, Pursuing me with deadly hate that faine would live in peace.
- 19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown, because I trust in thee.
- 20 Let my simple purenesse me from mine enemies shend:
Because I look as one of thine, that thou shouldst me defend.
- 21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

Judica me Domine. Psal. xxvi. T. S.

- Lord, be my judge, and thou shalt see my paths be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.
- 2 Prove me, my God, I thee desire my wayes to search and trie:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espie.
- 3 Thy goodnesse laid before my face
I durst behold alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.

- 4 I do not lust to haunt of use with men whose deeds are vain:
To come in house I do refuse with the deceitfull train.
- 5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort that hurtfull things devise.
- 6 My hands I wash, and do proceed in workes to walk upright:
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.
- 7 That I may speak and preach the praise that doth belong to thee,
And so declare how wondrous wayes thou hast been good to me.
- 8 O God, thy house I love most deare, to me it doth excell:
I have delight and would be neare whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O shut not up my soul with them in sinne that take their fill; Nor yet my life among those men that seek much blood to spill.
- 10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and guile, their lives thereof are full:
And their right hand with wench and wile for bribes doth pluck and pull.
- 11 But I in righteousnesse intend my time and dayes to serve:
Have mercie, Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.
- 12 My foot is stayd for all assayes,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xxvii. J. H.

- THe Lord is both my health and light;
shall man make me dismayd?
Sith God doth give me strength and might,
why should I bee afraid?
- 2 While that my foes with all their strength begin with me to brall,
And think to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.
- 3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid:
In battell pight if they will trie,
I trust in God for aid.
- 4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not denie:
For which I pray, and will desire till he come applie:

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beaurie of his face,
and view his temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide within his place most pure,
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface, that compasse me about.

8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With psalms and songs I will applie to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

9 Lord, heare the voice of my request, for which to thee I call:
Have mercie, Lord, on me opprest,
and send me help withall.

10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face, saist thou to me;
Lord, I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.

12 My parents both their sonne forsook, and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himself yet took of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee, and leade me on forth right,
For fear of such as watch for me, to trap me if they might.

14 Do not betake me to the will of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast,
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see in life that aye shall last.

16 Trust still in God whose whole thou art, his will abide thou must;
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te Dom. clamabo. Psal. xxviii. T. S.

Thou art, O Lord, my strength and stay,
the succour which I crave:
Neglect me not, lest I be like to them that go to grave.

2 The voice of thy suppliant heare, that unto thee doth crie:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.

3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert,
That speak right fair unto their friends,
and think full ill in heart.

4 According to their handie work,
as they deserve indeed,
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.

6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint that heard so willingly!

7 He is my shield and fortitude, my buckler in distresse:
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confesse.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord, blesse, guide, and preserve:
Increase them, Lord, and rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T. S.

Give to the Lord, ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world,
Give ye all praise, honour and strength unto the living Lord.

2 Give glorie to his holy name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his majestie,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.

4 The voice of God is of great force, and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the cedar-trees so long:
The cedar-trees of Lebanon, which are most high and strong,

B

6 And

- 6 And makes them leap like as a calf, or else the unicorn,
Not onely trees but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born.
- 7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
- 8 It makes the desert quake for fear, that called is Cades.
- 9 It makes the hinds for fear to calve, and makes the coverts plain:
Then in his temple every man his glory doth proclaim.
- 10 The Lord was set above the floods, ruling the raging sea:
So shall he reigne as Lord and King for ever and for aye.
- 11 The Lord will give his people power in virtue to increase:
The Lord will bless his chosen flock with everlasting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Psal. xxx. J. H.

- All laud and praise with heart and voice,
O Lord, I give to thee,
Which didst not make my foes rejoyce,
but hast exalted me.
- 2 O Lord my God, to thee I cri'd in all my pain and grief:
Thou gav'st an ear, and didst provide to ease me with relief.
- 3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back my soul from hell to save, Thou didst revive when strength did lack,
and keptst me from the grave.
- 4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see the goodnesse of the Lord:
In memorie of his majestie
rejoyce with one accord.
- 5 For why? his anger but a space doth last, and slack again:
But in his favour and his grace
alwayes doth life remain.
Though gripes of grief and pangs full sore shall lodge with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore before the day be light.
- 6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
- 7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my mind was sore dismayd.

- 8 Wherefore again yet did I crie to thee, O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply, and pray'd both day and night.
- 9 What gain is in my bloud, said I,
if death destroy my dayes?
Doth dust declare thy majestie, or yet thy truth doth praise?
- 10 Wherefore, my God, some pitie take,
O Lord, I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.
- 11 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo into a cheerfull voice:
The mourning weed thou tookst me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoyce.
- 12 Wherefore my soul uncessantly shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks alwayes.

In te Domine. Psal. xxxi. J. H.

- O Lord, I put my trust in thee, let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me quit from blame.
- 2 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon, to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.
- 3 For why? as stones thy strength is tride,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.
- 4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care is for thy might and aid.
- 5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit my spirit, which is thy due:
For why thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.
- 6 I hate such folk as will not part from things to be abhorr'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.
- 7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soul full well.
- 8 Thou hast not left me in their hand that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.

- 9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail, some pite on me take :
Mine eies wax dimme, my sight doth fail,
my wombe for wo doth ake.
10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my years in wo are past,
My strength is gone, and through disdain my bones corrupt and waste.
11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born to see me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot :
As small effect in me they find as in a broken pot.
13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray;
How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my life away.
14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid,
not to be overtrod:
For I confesse and still have said,
Thou art my Lord and God.
15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand :
Defend me from the wrath and rage of them that me withstand.
16 To me thy servant, Lord, expresse and shew thy joyfull face :
And save me, Lord, for thy goodnesse, thy mercie and thy grace.
The third part.
17 Lord, let me not be put to blame, for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in the grave to fall.
18 O Lord, make dumb their lips outright, which are addict to lies,
And cruelly with pride and spight against the just devise.
19 O how great good hast thou in store laid up full safe for them That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men!
20 Thy presence shall them fence and guide from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide from all the strife of tongues.
21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd on me his grace so farre,
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of warre.

- 22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress;
Lo, I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
23 Ye saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide :
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
24 Be strong, and God shall stay your heart,
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye on him do trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxli. T. S.

- THe man is blest whose wickednesse
the Lord hath clean remitted:
And he whose sinne and wickednesse is hid and also covered.
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
3 For whilest that I kept close my sinne in silence and constraint,
My bones did wear and wast away with daily mone and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my bloud and humours moist to drinesse did convert.
5 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my sinnes discover:
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive, and all my sinnes passe over.
6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time :
So that the floods of waters great shall have no power on him.
7 When trouble and adversitie do compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither and I will thee teach how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guide as I my self have learn'd by proof and sight.
9 Be not so rude and ignorant as is the horse and mule, Whose mouth without a rein or bit from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God his goodnesse shall remain.

11 Be merrie therefore in the Lord,
ye iust lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiii. J. H.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce;
it is a seemly sight,

That upright men with thankfull voice should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song, in psalms and pleasant things:
With lute and instrument among that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:

4 For why? his word is ever true, his works and all his wayes.

5 To judgement, equitie, and right he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hosts and powers every one his breath to passe hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he on heaps within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in an house of store.

8 All men our earth both least and most,
fear God and keep his law:
Ye that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in aw.

9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:
What he doth will is brought to passe with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The second part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth choose of meer accord to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight on men mortall by birth:

14 Considering from his seat of might the dwellers of the earth.

15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.

16 A king that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast, shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troupes of horsemen eke shall fall, their sturdie steeds shall sterue:
The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.

18 But lo, the eyes of God intend and watch to aid the iust:
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust:

19 That he of death and great distresse may set their souls from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game, rejoycing in his might:
For why? in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodnesse, O Lord, still present with us be:
As we alwayes with one accord do onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiv. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwayes,
And eke my mouth for evermore shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord in soul and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortifi'd may heare and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie with me the living Lord,
And let us now exalt his name together with one accord.

4 For I my self besought the Lord;
he answered me again,
And me delivered incontinent from all my fear and pain.

5 Whoso they be that him behold, shall see his light most clear:
Their countenance shall not be dash't,
they need it not to fear.

6 This filly wretch for some relief unto the Lord did call ;
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch his tents in every place,
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore that God is good and just :
O happy man that maketh him his onely stay and trust !

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones, above all earthly thing :
For they that fear the living Lord are sure to lack nothing.

10 The lions shall be hungerbit, and pin'd with famine much :
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

11 Come neare therefore, my children deare, and to my words give eare :
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should feare.

12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life ?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :
Enquire for peace and quietnesse,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above upon the just are bent :
His eares likewise to heare the plaint of the poore innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brows upon the wicked train :
And cuts away the memorie that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and crie,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of pain and miserie forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kinde and straight at hand to such as be contrite :
He saves also the sorrowfull, the poore and meek in sprite.

19 Full many be the miseries that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep his verie bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sinne shall slay the wicked man, which he himself hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound :
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Judica me Domine. Psal. xxxv. 3. H.

Lord, plead my cause against my foes, confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour dresse :
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand :
That thou unto my soul mayst say,
Lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seek my soul to spill :
Let them turn back, and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad, as winde doth drive the dust :
And that the angel of our God their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their wayes be void of light, and slippery like to fall :
And send thine angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have in secret set their gin :
And for no cause have digg'd a cave to take my soul therein.

8 When they think least and have no care,
O Lord, destroy them all :
Let them be trapt in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soul, my heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth :
That in the Lord I may rejoyce, and in his saving health.

10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my parts shall all agree :
O Lord, though they do seem full gay,
what man is like to thee ?

The second part.

- 11 Thou dost defend the weak from them that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.
- 12 My cruell foes against me rise, to witnesse things untrue:
And to accuse me they devise of things I never knew.
- 13 Where I to them did owe good will,
they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.
- 14 When they were sick I mourn'd therefore,
and clad my self in sack:
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.
- 15 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did my self behave:
As one that maketh wofull cheare about his mothers grave.
- 16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea abject slaves at me did toy, with mocks and checks full stout.
- 17 The belly-gods and flattering train, that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain, and pluck their mouthes aside.
- 18 Lord, when wilt thou amend this gear?
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul mine onely deare, out of these lions claws.
- 19 And then will I give thanks to thee before the church alwayes:
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.
- 20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to wink or turn their eye,
that causelesse me assault.

The third part.

- 21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult and would betray all those that peace ensue.
- 22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they flee:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see the thing that we desire.
- 23 But, Lord, thou feest what wayes they take,
cease not this gear to mend:
Be not farre of, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

- 24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad, defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.
- 25 According to thy righteousnesse,
my Lord God, let me free:
And let them not their pride expresse, nor triumph over me.
- 26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry,
There, there, this gear goes t'im:
Nor give them cause to say on high,
We have our will on him.
- 27 Confound them with rebuke and shame,
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with spight and blame,
that brag at me with scorn.
- 28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce, which love mine upright way:
And they all times with heart and voice shall praise the Lord, and say,
- 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell, for why? he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well, that is his pleasant sight.
- 30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply thy righteousnesse to praise: Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praise alwayes.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvi. J. H.

- THe wicked with his works unjust doth thus perswade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust;
his fear is set apart.
- 2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began,
So long till he deserve the hate of God and eke of man.
- 3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught, his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught which way he may do well.
- 4 When he should sleep, then doth he muse his mischiefs to fulfill:
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
- 5 But, Lord, thy goodnesse doth ascend above the heavens high:
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.
- 6 Much more then hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest:
Thy judgements like to seas most deep;
thou sav'st both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excell:
In trust whereof, as in thy wings,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why? the well of life so pure doth ever flow from thee,
And in thy light we are full sure the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousnesse declare and show to men of upright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord, of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device shall fall that wicked works maintain:
They shall be overthrown withall, and never rise again.
Noli amulari. Psal. xxxvii. W. W.
G Rudge not to see the wicked men in wealth to flourish still:
Nor yet envie such as to ill have bent and set their will.
2 For as green graspe and flourishing herbs are cut, and wither away:
So shall their great prosperitie soon passe, fade, and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy minde:
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight, and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.
5 Cast both thy self and thine affairs on God with perfect trust, And thou shalt see with patience
th' effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name
he will cleare as the light:
So that the sunne even at noon day shall not shine half so bright.
7 Be still therefore, and stedfastly on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous state of lewd and wicked men.

8 Shake off despight, envie, and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked steps avoid and flee,
and follow not their guise.
9 For every wicked man will God destroy, both more and lesse:
But such as trust in him are sure the land for to possesse.
10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see no more the wicked train, No not so much as house or place where once he did remain.

The second part.

11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land:
In rest and peace they shall rejoyce, for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious against the just conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him, as men which do his bane desire.
13 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn:
For why? he sees their term approach,
when they shall sigh and mourn.
14 The wicked have their sword out drawn,
their bow eke have they bent,
To overthrow and kill the poore,
as he the right way went.
15 But the same sword shall pierce their heart, which was to kill the just:
Likewise the bow shall break to shivers, wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtlesse the just mans poore estate is better a great deal more Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.
17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.
18 He sees by his great providence
the good mens trade and way:
And will give them inheritance which never shall decay.
19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard bestead:
When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.
20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord,
Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs grease,
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

- 21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never payes again:
Whereas the iust by liberall gifts makes many glad and faine.
- 22 For they whom God doth blesse, shall have the land for heritage,
And they whom he doth curse, likewise shall perishe in his rage.
- 23 The Lord the iust mans wayes doth guide, and gives him good successe:
To every thing he takes in hand
he sendeth good addresse.
- 24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure not utterly to quail:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand at need and doth not fail.
- 25 I have been young and now am old, yet did I never see The iust man left, nor yet his seed to beg for misery.
- 26 But gives alwayes most liberally, and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity receive of God their meed.
- 27 Flee vice therefore and wickednesse, and virtue do embrace:
So God shall grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling place.
- 28 For God so loveth equitie, and shews to his such grace,
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.
- 29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein in their own power and hand.
- 30 The iust mans mouth shall ever speak of matters wise and high:
His tongue doth talk to edifie, with truth and equitie.
- 31 For in his heart the law of God his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walkes,
his foot can never slide.
- 32 The wicked like a ravening wolf
the iust man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

- 33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God and keep his way, he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.

35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree, Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the lawrell-tree.

36 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not finde
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the iust man shall have at length great joy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressours, wo to them, destroyd they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posteritie.

39 But the salvation of the iust
doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his meer grace and love.

40 God doth them help, save, and deliver from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they in him do put their trust.

Domine ne. Psal. xxxviii. J. H.

Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heaveie wrath, O Lord, correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth presse me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sinne.

4 For lo my wicked doings, Lord, above my head are gone:
A greater load then I can bear,
they lie me fore upon.

5 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnesse betideth unto me.

6 And I in carefull wise am brought in trouble and distresse:
That I go wailing all the day in dolefull heavinesse.

7 My loyns are fill'd with fore disease, my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart.
9 Thou know'st, Lord, my desire, my groans are open in thy sight:
10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth fail, mine eyes have lost their light.

11 My lovers and my wonted friends stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kintmen farre away are me departed fro.
12 They that did seek my life laid snares, and they that sought the way To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischief all the day.

The second part.

13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumbe, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
15 For all my confidence, O Lord, is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give eare to me.

16 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:
For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.

17 And truly I poor wretch am set in place, a wofull wight:
And eke my grievous heavinesse is ever in my sight.

18 For while that I my wickednesse in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinfull deeds
my sorrows do expresse:

19 My foes do still remain alive, and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me that my good with evil do repay:
Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.

21 For sake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:

22 Hasten me to help, my Lord, my God,
my safetie and my stay.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. xxxix. J. H.

I Said, I will look to my wayes, for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep fast my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word, but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my breast, with musing, thought, and doubt;
Which did increase and stir the fire:
at last these words burst out;

5 Lord, number out my life and dayes which yet I have not past;
So that I may be certifide how long my life shall last.

6 Lord, thou hast pointed out my life in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vain himself annoy
In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now, Lord, fith things this wise do frame, what help do I desire?
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the finnes that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand:
And make me not a scorn to fools that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumbe, and to complain
no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord, take from me thy scourge and plague,
I can them not withstand:
I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sinne dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan,
As doth a cloth that moths have fret:
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord, hear my suit and give good heed, regard my tears that fall:
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore,
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

- I Waited long and sought the Lord, and patiently did bear:
At length to me he did accord
my voice and cry to hear.
- 2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.
- 3 To me he taught a psalme of praise,
which I must shew abroad,
And sing new songs of thanks alwayes unto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folk these things shall see,
as people much afraid,
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.
- 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain,
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and feigne.
- 6 For, Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds in greatnesse farre do passe, Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.
- 7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show,
To such a reckoning they do rise, thereof no end I know.
- 8 Burnt-offrings thou delight'st not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sinne thou dost no man require.
- 9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice thou wouldst not have at all:
But thou, O Lord, hast open made mine eares to hear withall.
- 10 But then said I, Behold and look,
I come a mean to be:
For in the volume of thy book
thus is it said of me,
- 11 That I, O God, should do thy minde, which thing doth like me well:
For in my heart thy law I finde fast placed there to dwell.
- 12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord, thou knowst full well.
- The second part.*
- 13 I have not hid within my breast thy goodnesse as by stealth:
But I declare and have exprest thy truth and saving health.

- 14 I kept not close thy loving minde, that no man should it know:
The truth that in thy truth I finde, to all the church I show.
- 15 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me withdraw thou not away:
But let thy love and veritie preserve me still for aye.
- 16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:
My sinnes increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.
- 17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
- 18 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord, I thee require:
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.
- 19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame
that seek my soul to spill:
Drive back my foes, and them defame that wish and would me ill.
- 20 For their ill feats do them descry,
that would deface my name:
Alwayes at me they rail and cry,
Fie on him, fie for shame.
- 21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth that seek to thee alwayes:
That those that love thy saving health may say, To God be praise.
- 22 But as for me, I am but poore, opprest and brought full low:
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.
- 23 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay:
Wherefore my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.
- Beatus qui intelligit.* Psal. xlj. T. S.
- THe man is blest that carefull is the needy to consider:
For in the season perilous
the Lord will him deliver.
- 2 The Lord will make him safe and sound, and happy in the land:
And he will not deliver him into his enemies hand.
- 3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health his sickness and his sore.

- 4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
Have mercy, Lord, on me,
And heal my soul, which is full wo that I offended thee.
- 5 Mine enemies wish me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name may vanish quite away?
- 6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well:
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.
- 7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me charm,
And cast their fetches how to trap me with some mortall harm.
- 8 Some grievous sinne hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not again.
- 9 The man also that I did trust, with me did use deceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.
- 10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
and let me be preserved:
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserved.
- 11 But this I know assuredly, to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause to triumph over me.
- 12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd where I shall dwell for aye.
- 13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore:
Even so be it, Lord, will I say, even so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Ps. xlij. J.H.

Like as the hart doth breathe and bray
the wel-springs to obtain;
So doth my soul desire alway with thee, Lord, to remain.

2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw near the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appear in presence of his sight!

3 The teares all times are my repast, which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
Where now is God thy guide?

- 4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedom once I had!
Therefore my soul as at pits brink most heavy is and sad.
- When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most faine.
- 5 My soul, why art thou sad alwayes, and frettest thus in my breast?
Trust still in God; for him to praise
I hold it ever best.
- By him I have succour at need against all pain and grief:
He is my God, which with all speed will haste to send relief.
- 6 And thus my soul within me, Lord, doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second part.

- 7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall run over me with noise.
- 8 Yet I by day felt his goodness and help at all assaies:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.
- 9 I am perswaded thus to say to him with pure pretence, O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.
- VVhy do I then in pensiveness hanging the head thus walk, VVhile that mine enemies me oppresse, and vex me with their talk?
- 10 For why? they pierce my inward parts with pangs to be abhorr'd, VVhen they cry out with stubborn hearts,
Where is thy God, thy Lord?
- 11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain oppress?
VVith thoughts why dost thy self assail
so sore within my breast?
- 12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes, and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise, for health restor'd to thee.
- Judica me Domine. Psal. xliij. T.S.*
- Judge and revenge my cause, O Lord, from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord, deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the god;
why puttst thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth and leade me with thy grace, Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

4 Then shall I to the altar go of God my joy and chear:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God, my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and frettst thus in my breast?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwayes best.

6 By him I have deliverance against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alway at need send me relief.

Deus auribus. Psal. xlii. T. S.

Our eares have heard our fathers tell,
and reverently record
The wondrous works that thou hast done in older time, O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out, and stroidst them with strong hand:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor strength
the land of thy behest:
But by thy hand, thy arm and grace;
because thou lov'dst them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that help
Jacob in sundry wise.

5 Led with thy power, we threw down such as did against us rise.

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword, they could not save me sound.

7 Thou keptst us from our enemies rage, thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy name:

9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes, and so were overtrod:

Our enemies robb'd and spoil'd our goods,
when we were sperst abroad.

11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:

Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:

For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.

13 And to our neighbours thou hast made of us a laughing stock:

And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:

They mock, they scorn, they nod their heads
where ere they go or walk.

15 I am asham'd continually, to hear these wicked men:

Yea so I blush, that all my face with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear such slanderous words, such false reports and lies;

That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:

18 We turn not back our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forsake.

19 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be,

And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversitie.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of idols sought,

21 Would not God then have tride this out?
for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy names sake, O Lord, alwayes are we slain thus:

As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.

23 Up, Lord, why sleepest thou? awake, and leave us not for all:

24 Why hidest thou thy countenance, and dost forget our thrall?

25 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:

Our belly, like as it were glu'd, unto the ground cleaves fast.

26 Rise up therefore for our defence, and help us, Lord, at need:

We thee beseech for thy goodness, to rescue us with speed.

Eructavit. Psal. xlii. J. H.

MY heart doth take in hand some godly song to sing:

The praise that I shall shew therein pertaineth to the king.

- 2 My tongue shall be as quick his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe, that useth fast to write.
- 3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure :
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.
- 4 About thee gird thy sword,
O prince of might elect :
With honour, glory and renown,
thy person pure is deckt.
- 5 Go forth with godly speed, with meekness, truth and right :
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.
- 6 Thine arrows sharp and keen their hearts so sore shall sting :
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O king.
- 7 Thy royall seat, O Lord, for ever shall remain :
Because the scepter of thy realm doth righteousness maintain.
- 8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest,
God, even thy God hath nointed thee with joy above the rest.
- 9 With myrhe and favours sweet thy clothes are all bespread :
When thou dost from thy palace pass, thereinto make thee glad.
- 10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich aray :
At thy right hand the queen doth stand in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

- 11 O daughter, take good heed, encline and give good eare :
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
- 12 Then shall the king desire thy beauty fair and trim :
For why ? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.
- 13 The daughters then of Tyre, with gifts full rich to see,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
- 14 The daughter of the king is glorious to behold :
Within her closet she doth sit all deckt in beaten gold.

- 15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing :
With virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the king.
- 16 Thus are they brought with joy and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the king, and there they do abide.
- 17 In stead of parents left,
( O queen, the case so stands )
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou mai'st set as princes in all lands.
- 18 Wherefore thy holy name
all ages shall record :
The people shall give thanks to thee for evermore, O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. xlvj. J. H.

- THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismay'd,
he is our help at hand.
- 2 Though th' earth remove, we will not fear, though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there, within the sea so deep.
  - 3 No, though the waves do rage so sore that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.
  - 4 For one fair floud doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace,
To fresh the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.
  - 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay :
All things against her that rebell
the Lord will truely slay.
  - 6 The heathen folk the kingdomes fear,
the people make a noise :
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.
  - 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye :
Our hope of health with all our heart on Jacobs God doth lie.
  - 8 Come here and see with minde and thought the working of our God :
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.
  - 9 By him all warres are hushd and gone, which countreys did conspire :
Their bows he brake and spears each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.

10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout,
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlvij. 7. H.

YE people all, with one accord clap hands and eke rejoyce:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord with sweet and pleasant voice.

2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truely,
in all the earth extold.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall the nations make to fall.

4 For us the heritage he chose which we possels alone,
The flourishing worship of Jacob his welbeloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the sky with trumpets royall voice.

6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:

7 For God is King of all the earth;
all skilfull praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reigns, and sits upon his holy throne:

The princes of the people have them joynd every one

To Abrahams people: for our God, which is exalted high,

As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlvij. 7. H.

Great is the Lord, and with great praise to be advanced still Within the city of our God, upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:

The city of the mighty King on her north side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof
God is a refuge known:

For lo, the kings are gathered, and together they are gone,

4 But when they did behold it so, they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.

5 Great terrour there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travell by and by.

6 As thou with eastern winde the ships upon the sea dost break, So they were stroy'd: and even as we heard our fathers speak,

7 So in the city of the Lord
we saw as it was told, Yea in the city which our God for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord, we wait and do attend on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend within thy holy place.

9 O Lord, according to thy name for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness alwayes.

10 Let, for thy judgements, Sion mount fulfilled be with joyes:
And eke of Juda, grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also our guider shall be.

Audite hac omnes. Psal. xlix. 7. H.

All people hearken and give eare to that that I shall tell,

2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.

3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse of many things right wise:
In understanding shall mine heart his study exercise.

4 I will encline mine eare to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtfull speech in meeter on my harp.

- 5 Why should I fear affliction, or any carefull toyl :
Or else my foes which at my heels are prest my life to spoil ?
- 6 For as for such as riches have, wherein their trust is most ;
And they which of their treasures great themselves do brag and boast ;
- 7 There is not one of them that can his brothers death redeem, Or that can give a price to God sufficient for him.
- 8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain :
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.
- 9 They see wise men as well as fools, subject unto deaths bands :
And being dead, strangers possess their goods, their rents, their lands.
- 10 Their care is to build houses fair, and so determine sure
To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.
- 11 Yet shall no man alwayes enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest ;
- 12 But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brute beatt.

The second part.

- 13 And though they try their foolish thoughts to be most lewd and vain :
Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sinne remain.
- 14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave :
Death shall them eat, and in that day the iust shall lordship have.
- 15 Their image and their royall port shall fade and quite decay, When as from house to pit they passe with wo and wel-away.
- 16 But God will surely preserve me from death and endless pain :
Because he will of his good grace my soul receive again.
- 17 If any man wax wondrous rich, fear not I say therefore :
Although the glory of his house increaseth more and more.
- 18 For when he dies, of all these things nothing shall he receive :
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

- 19 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under sunne :
And others likewise flatter him, saying, All is well done.
- 20 And presuppose he live as long as did his fathers old ;
Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to deaths fold.
- 21 Thus man to honour God hath brought,
yet doth he not consider :
But like brute beasts so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

Deus deorum. Psal. 1. W. W.

- THe mighty God,
th' eternall hath thus spoke,
And all the world
he will call and provoke:
Even from the east,
and so forth to the west.
- 2 From toward Sion, which place he liketh best,
God will appear in beantie most excellent:
Our God will come before long time be spent.
- 3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face ;
A great tempest shall round about him trace,
- 4 Then shall he call the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equitie and right :
- 5 Saying, Go to,
and now my faines assemble :
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
- 6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness :
For God is judge of all things more and less.
- 7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal ;
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceal.
- Thy God, thy God am I, and will not blame thee
- 8 For giving not all manner offerings to me.
- 9 I have no need to take of thee at all Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall:
- 10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:

On thousand hills
cattell are mine own goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:
All beasts are mine which haunt the fields and fountains.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee ittell;
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh of great bulls or bullocks?
Or drink the bloud
of goats, or of the flocks?

14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows unto God everliving.

15 Call upon me when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked
thus saith th' eternall God, Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad:

17 Seeing thou hast them with thy mouth abused,
And hatest to be by discipline reformed?

My words, I say,
thou dost reject and hate:

18 If that thou see a thief, as with thy mate, Thou run'st with him,
and so your prey do seek,
And art all one with bards and ruffians eke.

19 Thou giv'st thy self to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.

20 Thou fittest musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put thy mothers sonne to shame.

21 These things thou didst, and whilst I held my tongue, Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence, Once shalt thou feel of thy wrongs just recompense.

Psalme 1.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when he threatneth with his word:
Left without help
I spoil you as a prey.

23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me aye, Saith the Lord God:
and he that walks this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health t' embrace.

Another of the same, by J. H.

THe God of Gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the sunne doth rise, unto the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beautie of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste, to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste, and tempest round about.

4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth, to judge and trie his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my saints, saith he,
my faithfull flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are tride, the heavens shall record
That God is just; and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel, to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me much more then I do lack.

9 Thinkst thou that I do need thy cattell young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed on goats out of thy fold?

10 Nay; all the beasts are mine, in woods that eat their fills:
And thousands more of neat and kine, that run wilde on the hills.

The second part.

- 11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight;
And beaſts that in the fields do lie, are ſubject to my might.
- 12 Then though I hungred ſore,
what need I ought of thine, ſich that the earth with her great ſtore,
and all therein is mine?
- 13 To bulls fleſh have I minde to eat it, doſt thou think?
Or ſuch a ſweetneſs do I finde
the bloud of goats to drink?
- 14 Give to the Lord his praiſe, with thanks to him apply:
And ſee thou pay thy vows alwayes unto the God moſt high.
- 15 Then ſeek and call to me, when ought would work thee blame:
And I will ſure deliver thee, that thou mayſt praiſe my name.
- 16 But to the wicked train, which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will ſay,
- 17 With what a face dar'ſt thou my word once ſpeak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the ſame?
- 18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art ſo ſlack:
My word the which thou doſt pretend,
is caſt behinde thy back.

The third part.

- 19 When thou a thief doſt ſee
by theft to live in wealth,
With him thou runn'ſt, and doſt agree likewiſe to thrive by ſtealth.
- 20 When thou doſt them behold that wives and maids defile, Thou lik'ſt it well, and waxeſt bold to uſe that life moſt vile.
- 21 Thy lips thou doſt apply to ſlander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and ſtill doth uſe the ſame.
- 22 Thou ſtudi'eſt to revile thy friends to thee ſo near:
With ſlander thou wouldſt needs defile thy mothers ſonne moſt dear.
- 23 Hereat while I do wink,
- aſthough I did not ſee, Thou goeſt on ſtill, and ſo doſt think that I am like to thee.

- 24 But ſure I will not let to ſtrike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will ſet, and open all thy ſinne.
- 25 Mark this I you require, that have not God in minde:
Leſt when I plague you in mine ire, your help be farre to finde.
- 26 He that doth give to me
the ſacrifice of praiſe, Doth pleaſe me well, and he ſhall ſee to walk in godly wayes.

Miferere mei. Psal. 1j. W. W.

- O Lord, conſider my diſtreſs, and now with ſpeed ſome pitie take:
My ſinnes deface, my faults redreſs, good Lord, for thy great mercies ſake.
- 2 Waſh me, O Lord, and make me clean from this unjuſt and ſinfull act,
And purifie yet once again
my hainous crime and bloody fact.
  - 3 Remorſe and ſorrow do conſtrain me to a cknowledge mine excels:
My ſinne alas doth ſtill remain before my face without releaſe.
  - 4 For thee alone I have offended, committing evil in thy ſight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgements juſt and right.
  - 5 It is too manifeſt, alas, that firſt I was conceiv'd in ſinne:
Yea of my mother ſo born was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
  - 6 Alſo behold, Lord, thou doſt love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wiſdome from above thou haſt reveal'd me to convert.
  - 7 If thou with hyſſop purge this blot,
I ſhall be cleaner then the glaſſe:
And if thou waſh away my ſpot,
the ſnow in whitenefſe ſhall I paſſe.
  - 8 Therefore, O Lord, ſuch joy me ſend, that inwardly I may finde grace,
And that my ſtrength may now amend,
which thou haſt ſwag'd for my treſpaſſe.
  - 9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my ſinnes, I thee deſire, which do in number paſſe the ſand.
  - 10 Make new my heart within my breaſt, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy conſtant ſpirit in me let reſt, which may theſe raging enemies kill.

The second part.

- 11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace, which may from dangers me defend.
- 12 Restore me to those joyes again which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retain,
which unto thee may stirre my minde.
- 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flee sinne.
- 14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgive me this my bloudy vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord to sing thy mercies and iustice.
- 15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord, which art the one y key:
And then my mouth shall testifie thy wondrous works and praise alway.
- 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.
- 17 The heavy heart, the minde opprest,
O Lord, thou never dost reject:
And, to speak truth, it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th' effect.
- 18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face,
poure out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace, build up the walls, and love it still.
- 19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yea calves and many other things upon thine altar will we lay.
- Another of the same, by J. H.*
- HAve mercy on me, Lord, after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my finnes eface.
- 2 Yea wash me more from mine offence, and cleanse me from my sinne:
For I do know my faults, and still my sinne is in mine eyn.
- 3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before the presence of thy face:
- 4 That in the things that thou hast done upright thou mayst be tride, And eke in judging, that the doom may passe upon thy side.

Psalme li.

- 5 Behold, in wickedness my kinde and shape I did receive:
And lo my sinfull mother eke in sinne did me conceive.
- 6 But lo, the truth in inward parts is pleasant unto thee;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.
- 7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.
- 8 Of joy and gladness make thou me to hear the pleasant voice:
That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.
- 9 From the beholding of my finnes,
Lord, turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickedness do utterly deface.
- 10 O God, create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord, renew a stable sprite.
- 11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving health give me again, I pray.
- 12 With thy free Spirit establish me, and I will teach therefore Sinnersthy wayes, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second part.

- 13 O God, that art God of my health,
from bloud deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.
- 14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose:
The praises of thy majesty
my mouth shall so disclose.
- 15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.
- 16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice
delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God, thou wilt not despise.
- 17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord, to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jerusalem uprear'd may be the wall.

18 Burnt-offerings, gifts, and sacrifice of iustice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. liij. 7. H.

VVhy dost thou, tyrant, boast abroad, thy wicked works to praise?

Dost thou not know there is a God, whose mercies last alwayes?

2 Why doth thy minde yet still devise such wicked wile to warp?

Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a rasour sharp.

3 On mischief why setst thou thy minde, and wilt not walk upright?

Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
then bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile, in mischief, bloud, and wrong:

Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for aye confound and pluck thee from thy place,

Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

6 The iust when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,

And in reproach of thee withall cry out with one accord,

7 Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence:

But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.

8 But I as olive fresh and green shall spring and spread abroad:

For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise to thee with heart and voice:

I will set forth thy name alwayes, wherein thy saints rejoyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. liij. T. S.

The foolish man in that which he within his heart hath said,

That there is any God at all hath utterly denaid.

2 They are corrupt and they also a hainous work have wrought:

Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord lookt down on sonnes of men, from heaven all abroad:

To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way, they are corrupted all:

There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know that they do feed upon

My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismay'd,

Whereas there was no cause at all why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd hath scattered all abroad:

Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord, give thou thy people health, and thou, O Lord, fulfill

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

9 When God his people shall restore that erst was captive led,

Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. liv. 7. H.

God, save me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodness sake:

Unto the strength, Lord, of the same
I do my cause betake.

2 Regard, O Lord, and give an eare to me when I do pray:

Bow down thy self to me and hear the words that I do say.

3 For strangers up against me rise, and tyrants vex me still:

Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.

4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:

With them by whom my soul is staid the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay again all those for me that lie in wait:

And in thy truth destroy my foes with their own snare and bait.

6 An offering of free heart and will then I to thee shall make,

And praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord, at length do set me free from them that craft conspire:

And now mine eye with joy doth see on them my hearts desire.

O God, give eare, and do apply to hear me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy self away.

2 Take heed to me, grant my request, and answer me again:

With plaints I pray full sore oppress, great grief doth me constrain.

3 Because my foes with threats and cries oppress me through despight:
And so the wicked sort likewise to vex me have delight.

4 For they in counsel do conspire to charge me with some ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire they do pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breast:
The terrours and the dread of death do work me much unrest.

6 Such dreadfull fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror whelmeth me withall, that I no shift can make.

7 But I did say, Who will give me the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair dove, that I may flie, and rest me from these things?

8 Lo then I would go farre away,
to flie I would not cease:
And I would hide my self, and stay in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the haste, and not abide behinde:
That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boisterous winde.

10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull their devilish double tongue:
For I have spide their citie full of rapine, strife, and wrong.

11 Which things both night & day throughout,
do close her as a wall:
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.

12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remain all craftie fraud and guile.

The second part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide;
From open enemies check and blame
some where I could me hide:

14 But thou it was, my fellow dear, which friendship didst pretend,
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend:

15 With whom I had delight to talk in secret and abroad,
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief reigneth in the hall and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry, to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.

18 At morning, noon, and evening tide, unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly have cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet, though warre be now at hand:
Although the number be full great that would against me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth reigne,
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord.

22 Upon their friends they laid their hands which were in covenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they have warre within their hearts,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were smooth as oyl,
they cut as sharp as swords.

24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit that thirst for bloud alwayes:
He will no guilefull man permit to live out half his dayes.

26 Though such be quite destroy'd and gone,
in thee, O Lord, I trust:
I shall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

Miserere

HAve mercy, Lord, on me, I pray, for man would me devour:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each hour.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me most afraid with boasts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.
4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
O Lord, I stick to thee:
I do not care at all assaies
what flesh can do to me.
5 What things I either did or spake, they wrest them at their will:
And all the counsell that they take is how to work me ill.
6 They all consent themselves to hide, close watch for me to lay:
They spie my paths, and snares have tide
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set?
thou God on them wilt frown:
For in his wrath he doth not let to throw whole kingdomes down.
8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee, and on my tears dost look:
Reserve them in a glaiss by thee,
and write them in thy book.
9 When I do call upon thy name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord:
11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began,
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will perform with heart so free,
to God my vows alwayes:
And I, O Lord, all times to thee will offer thanks and praise.
13 My soul from death thou dost defend,
and keep'st my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend with such as live in light.

TAke pitie for thy promise sake,
have mercy, Lord, on me:
For why? my soul doth her betake unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I set myself full fast,
Till mischief, malice, and like things be gone and overpast.
3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 From heaven he hath sent his aid, to save me from their spight,
That to devour me have assaid;
his mercy, truth, and might.
5 I leade my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell, that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long as sharp as I have seen:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue like swords and weapons keen.
7 Set up, and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.
8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fall'n in it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy alwayes:
My heart, I say, doth well accord to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake, my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp, and string:
For I my self before the day will rise, rejoyce, and sing.
11 Among the people I will tell the goodnes of my God.
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as farre
as heavens all are high:
His truth as high as any starre that shineth in the skie.
13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

Si vere utique. Psal. lviii. J. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust to judge of wrong and right, Be all your judgements true and just,
not knowing need or might?

2 Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to consent,
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day have erred on this wise:
And from their mothers wombe alway have used craft and lies.

4 In them the poyson and the breath of serpents do appear:
Yea like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her eare,

5 Because she will not hear the voice of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excell.

6 O God, break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout:
The tusks that in their great jaw-bones like lions whelpshang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forth right;
The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell, and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sunne.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:
The storms of anger waxing strong shall take them ere they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell,
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell, that justice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. lix. J. H.

SEnd aid and save me from my foes,
O Lord, I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord, preserve me from those men, whose doings are not good:
And set me sure and safe from them that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel, arise and strike all lands:
And pitie none that do rebell,
and in their mischiefs stands.

6 At night they stirre and seek about,
as hounds they howl and grin:
And all the citie clean throughout,
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say,
What? none doth hear our words.

8 But, Lord, thou hast their wayes espide, and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes withstand,
O Lord, doth come from thee:
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord, lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words and truthless tongue confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord, that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world that Jacobs God doth reigne.

14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in every place they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat, I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnes I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God
at need in all assaies.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid;
O Lord, I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus repulisti. Psal. lx. 7. H.

O Lord, thou didst us clean forsake, and scatteredst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take;
return to us, O God.

2 Thy might did move the land so fore, that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof, O Lord, restore, for it doth bowe and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us a drink of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as fear thy name
a banner thou didst shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and save thy folk that favour thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord, grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale,
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.

7 Gilead is given to my hand,
Manassies mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Judah guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my feet, over Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine oughtst to seek for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide unto the city strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou not, God, which didst forsake thy folk, their land, and coasts?
Our warres in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor walk among our hosts.

11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain.

12 But through our God we shall have might to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lxj. 7. H.

R Egard, O Lord, for I complain, and make my suit to thee:
Let not my words return in vain,
but give an care to me.

2 From out the coasts and utmost parts of all the earth abroad,
In grief and anguish of my heart
I cry to thee, O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power
my wofull minde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.

4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With godly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his name.

6 The king shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his dayes:
That he from age to age shall reigne,
for evermore alwayes.

7 That he may have a dwelling place before the Lord for aye;
O let thy mercy, truth, and grace, defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I sing for ever still with praise unto thy name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Psal. lxij. 7. H.

MY soul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed doth whole on him depend.

2 For he alone is my defence, my rock, my health, and aid:
He is my stay, that no pretence shall make me much dismayd.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye use craft & sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.

4 Whom God doth love, ye seek alwayes to put him to the worle:
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

- 5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:
From all ill feats me to defend none but him I require.
- 6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power can move me out of place.
- 7 God is my glory and my health,
my souls desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.
- 8 Oh, have your trust in him alway,
ye folk, with one accord:
Poure out your hearts to him, and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.
- 9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on balance but a sleight:
With things most vain do them compare, for they can keep no weight.
- 10 Trust not in wrong, robbery, nor stea'th,
let vain delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.
- 11 The Lord long since one thing did tell, which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
That God alone doth all.
- 12 And that thou, Lord, art good and kinde, thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all forts with thee shall finde
according to their deed.

Deus, Deus meus. Psa. lxiij. T. S.

- O God, my God, I watch betime to come to thee in haste:
For why? my soul and body both do thirst of thee to taste.
And in this barren wildernes where waters there are none,
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.
- 2 That I might see yet once again thy glory, strength, and might,
As I was wont it to behold within thy temple bright.
- 3 For why? thy mercies farre surmount this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall give to thee due honour, laud and praise.
- 4 And whilest I live, I will not fail to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift up my hands when I do pray.

- 5 My soul is fill'd as with marrow, which is both fat and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet.
- 6 When as in bed I think on thee, and eke all the night tide.
- 7 For under covert of thy wings,
thou art my joyfull guide.
- 8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
- 9 And those that seek my soul to stroy, them death shall soon devour.
- 10 The sword shall them devour each one,
their carcases shall feed
The hungry foxes which do run their prey to seek at need.
- 11 The king and all men shall rejoyce, that do profess Gods word:
For liars mouthes shall then be stopt, which have the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psa. lxiij. J. H.

- O Lord, unto my voice give eare, with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soul from fear of foes that threat to slay.
- 2 Defend me from that sort of men which in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them that all ill feats do work.
- 3 Who whet their tongues, as we have seen men whet and sharp their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.
- 4 With privy sleights shoot they their shaft,
the upright man to hit:
The just unwares to strike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.
- 5 A wicked work they have decreed,
in counsel thus they cry,
To use deceit let us not dread,
what? who can it espie?
- 6 What way to hurt they talk and muse
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.
- 7 But yet all this shall not prevail;
when they think least upon,
God with his dart shall sure assail and wound them every one.
- 8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall shall work themselves such blame, That they which then behold their fall shall wonder at the same.

9 Then

9 Then all that see shall know right well that God the thing hath wrought, And praise his wittie works, and tell what he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they joy with minde and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.
Te decet hymnus. Psal. lxxv. J. H.
THy praise alone, O Lord, doth reigne in Sion thine own hill:
Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their behests fullfill.
2 For that thou dost their prayers heare,
and dost thereto agree:
The people all both farre and near with trust shall come to thee.
2 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:
But, Lord, forgive our great misdeeds, and purge us from our sinne.
4 The man is blest whom thou dost choose within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall use,
with pleasures that excell.
5 Of thy great justice heare us, God,
our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou mak'st the mountains strong and stout,
to stand in every shower.
7 The swelling seas thou dost asswage, and make their streams full still:
Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them as thy will.
8 The folk that dwell full farre on earth shall dread thy signes to see, Which morn and even in great mirth do passe with praise to thee.
9 When that the earth is chapt and drie, and thirsteth more and more,
Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.
10 The flood of God doth overflow, and so doth cause to spring
The seed and corn which men do sow, for he doth guide the thing.
11 With wet thou dost her furrows fill, whereby her cloods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou dost distill, and blesse her fruit withall.

12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace with fair and pleasant crop:
Thy clouds distill their dew apace, great plenty they do drop.
13 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring:
The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
14 In places plain the flock shall feed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.
Jubilate Deo. Psal. lxxvi. T. S.
YE men on earth, in God rejoyce, with praise set forth his name:
Extoll his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.
2 How wonderfull, O Lord, say ye, in all thy works thou art!
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee full sore against their heart.
3 All men that dwell the earth throughout, shall praise the name of God:
The laud thereof the world about is shew'd and set abroad.
4 All folk, come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought: Mark well the wondrous works that he for man to passe hath brought.
5 He laid the sea like heaps on high, therein a way they had,
On foot to passe both fair and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.
7 Ye people, give unto our God due laud and thanks alwayes:
With joyfull voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise:
8 Which doth endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withall:
He stayes our feet so that no strife can make us slip or fall.
9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide:
As workmen do when they desire to have their metalls tri'de.
10 Although thou suffer us so long in prison to be cast,
And there with chains and fetters strong to lie in bondage fast:

The second part.

- 11 Although, I say, thou suffer men on us to ride and reigne:
Though we through fire and water runne,
of very grief and pain:
12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace dispose it to the best:
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.
13 Unto thy house resort will I to offer and to pray,
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.
14 The vows that with my mouth I spake in all my grief and smart:
The vows, I say, which I did make in dolour of my heart.
15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee of oxen fat and rams:
Yea this my sacrifice shall be of bullocks, goats, and lambs.
16 Come forth and hearken here full soon,
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poore soul hath done,
to you I will record.
17 Full oft I call to mind his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make speed apace to praise him by and by.
18 But if I feel my heart within in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to sinne,
God will not heare my voice.
19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
20 All praise to him that hath not put nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercie from me shut, which I do ever finde.

Deus misereatur. Psal. lxxii. J. H.

- HAve mercy on us, Lord, and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou accord
the brightnesse of thy face;
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row
may see thy saving health.
3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.

- 4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.
5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall;
And then our God the God of peace shall blesse us eke withall.
7 God shall us blesse, I say,
and then both farre and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway of him shall stand in fear.

Exsurgat Deus. Psal. lxxiii. T. S.

- Let God arise, and then his foes will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.
2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and winde blowes smoke away:
So in the presence of the Lord,
the wicked shall decay.
3 But righteous men before the Lord shall heartily rejoyce:
They shall be glad and merrie all,
and chearfull in their voice.
4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.
5 The same is he that is above
within his holy place,
That father is of fatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.
6 Houses he gives and issue both unto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall, and rebels to distresse.
7 When thou didst march before thy folk th' Egyptians from among,
And broughtst them through the wilderness which was both wide and long:
8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down, heard were great claps of thunder;
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.
9 Thine heritage with drops of rain abundantly was washt:
And if so be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refresh't.

10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain, thou hast prepar'd that place :
And for the poore thou dost provide of thine especiall grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women causes just to magnifie his name,
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.
12 For puissant kings for all their power, shall flee and take the foil;
And women which remain at home shall help to part the spoil.

13 And though ye were as black as pots,
your hue shall passe the dove, Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph o're kings both high and low :
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill, and in height others passe :
Yet Zion God's most holy hill doth farre excell in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together ?
The hill of Zion God doth love, and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods armie is two millions of warriours good and strong :
The Lord also in Sinai is present them among.

18 Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high,
and captives ledst them all,
Which in times past thy chosen flock in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay;
and such as did repine
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell in thy temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he poures on us such grace :
From day to day he is the God of our health and solace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone salvation cometh plain :
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death, and pain.

21 Thus God will wound his enemies head, and break the hairie scalp
Of those that in their wickednesse continually do walk.

22 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep :
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

23 And make them dip their feet in bloud of those that hate my name :
And dogs shall have their tongues embrew'd with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou, O God, thine enemies dost deface :
And how thou goest as God and King into thine holy place.

25 The fingers go before with joy, the minstrels follow after :
And in the midst the damels play with timbrel and with taber.

26 Now in the congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord :
And Jacobs whole posteritie give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin, but Judah made their host,
With Zabulon and Nephthalim, which dwelt about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee, so, Lord, make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord, For thine unto Jerusalem sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea, and strange kings to us subdu'd shall do like in those dayes:
I mean to thee they shall present their gifts of laud and praise.

30 He shall destroy the spear-mens ranks, the calves and bulls of might :
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.

31 Then shall the lords of Egypt come, and presents with them bring :
The Moors most black shall stretch their hands unto their Lord and King.

32 Therefore, ye kingdomes of the earth,
give praise unto the Lord :
Sing psalme to God with one consent, thereto let all accord.

33 Who though he ride and ever hath above the heavens bright :
Yet by the fea full thunderclaps men may well know his might.

34 There

34 Therefore the strength of Israel ascribe to God on high, Whose might and power doth farre extend above the cloudie skie,

35 O God, thy holinesse and power is dread for evermore :

The God of Israel gives us strength, praised be God therefore,

Saluum me fac. Psal. lxi. J. H.

SAve me, O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast :

So nigh my soul do they proceed, that I am fore agast.

2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground :

I fall into such flouds, I say, that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail, my throat is hoarse and drie :

With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guiltlesse do oppresse my soul, with hate are led :

In number iure they are no lesse
then hairs are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore, they prosper and are glad :

They do compell me to restore the things I never had.

6 What I have done for want of wit, thou, Lord, all times canst tell :

And all the faults that I commit to thee are known full well.

7 O God of hosts, defend and stay all those that trust in thee :

Let no man doubt or shrink away for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake that I do bear this blame :

In spight of thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sonnes, my brethren all forsake me on a row :

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear, that it doth pine me much :

Their checks and taunts at thee to heare,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I do fast, my flesh to chaste,
yea, if I weep and mone :

Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

Psalme lxi.

12 If I for grief and pain of heart
in sackcloth use to walk,
Then they anon will it pervert, thereof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng that sit within the gate,

They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chief pastime

To seek which way to work me spight ;
of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray, that when it pleaseth thee,

For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.

16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire, from drowning do me keep :

From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Lest with the waves I should be drown'd, and depth my soul devoure,

And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts, to me give eare,
as thou art good and kinde :

And as thy mercie is most deare,
Lord, have me in thy minde.

19 And do not from thy servant hide
nor turn thy face away :

I am oppress'd on every side,
in haste give eare, I say.

20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh, the same with aid repose :

Because of their great tyrannie, acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame thou knowst and thou canst tell :

For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my heart,
I seek for help anon :

But finde no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall, too cruell for to think :

And gave me in my thirst withall strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord, turn their table to a snare, to take themselves therein :

And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

- 35 And let their eyes be dark and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bowe down their backs, and do them binde,
in thraldome for to be.
- 36 Poure out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire take hold upon them all.
- 37 As deserts drie their house disgrace, their offspring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.
- 38 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.
- 39 Then let them heap up mischief still, (sith they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.
- 40 And rase them clean out of thy book of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they never look in number of the just.

The fourth part.

- 31 Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief have been full sore opprest:
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.
- 32 That I may give thy name the praise, and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes with heartie thanks among.
- 33 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such minde thy grace hath born) Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.
- 34 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoyce them sure:
All ye that seek the Lord, behold, your life for aye shall dure.
- 35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth heare
the poore when they complain:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdain.
- 36 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea, with floud and stream;
His praise they shall declare and show,
with all that live in them.
- 37 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Juda's cities build:
38 Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fill'd.

His servants seed shall keep the same
all ages out of minde:
39 And there all they that love his name,
a dwelling place shall finde.
Deus in adiutorium. Psal. lxx. J. H.

- O God, to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hosts, with haste and speed help, help, I thee desire.
- 2 With shame confound them all that seek my soul to spill:
Rebuke them back with blame to fall that think and wish me ill.
- 3 Confound them that apply and seek to work me shame:
And at my harm do laugh, and crie,
So, so, there goes the game.
- 4 But let them joyfull be in thee with joy and wealth, Which onely trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.
- 5 That they may say alwayes in mirth and one accord,
All glorie, honour, laud and praise,
be given to thee, O Lord.
- 6 But I am weak and poore;
come, Lord, thine aid I lack:
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed and be not slack.

In te Domine. Psal. lxxi. J. H.

- M Y Lord my God, in all distresse
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soul oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.
- 2 As thou art just, defend me, Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give eare, and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.
- 3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may for aid all times resort:
Thy promise is to help alway, thou art my fence and fort.
- 4 Save me, my God, from wicked men, and from their strength and power:
From folk unjust, and eke from them that cruelly devoure.
- 5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust, thou, Lord of hosts, art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust still to depend on thee.
- 6 Thou hast me kept ev'n from my birth, and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monster seldome seen, much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.
8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack thy glorie and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slack to honour thee alwayes.

9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say, when age my limbs doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soul forsake.

10 Among themselves my foes enquire to take me through deceit:
And they against me do conspire, that for my soul laid wait.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now, they said,
for God from him is gone:
Dispatch him quite, for to his aid
(I wis) there cometh none.

12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be:
But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow all those that seek my life:
Oppresse them with rebuke also,
that fain would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assaies:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record, that daily help doth send:
But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek forth one,
with thy good help, O God,
The saving health of thee alone to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookst the care, and dost instruct me still:
Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great minde and will.

18 And as in youth from wanton rage thou didst me keep and stay:
Forsake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength and might may show to them that now be here:
And that our seed thy power may know hereafter many a yeare.

20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed thy doings all may see:
Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
oh who is like to thee!

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore, and yet thou did'st me save:
Yea thou did'st help and me restore,
and took'st me from the grave.

22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignitie maintain:
Yea thou dost make all grief to cease,
and comfort'st me again.

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise
I will with viol sing:
My harp shall sound thy praise alwayes,
O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee:
And eke my soul will much rejoyce, for thou hast made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightness shall sound, and speak it daily still:
For grief and shame do them confound that seek to work me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. lxxii. 7. H.

Lord, give thy judgements to the king, therein instruct him well:
And with his sonne that princely thing,
Lord, let thy justice dwell.

2 That he may govern uprightly, and rule thy folk aright:
And so defend through equitie
the poore that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hills applie,
in justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poore with aid, and make them strong:
And eke destroy for evermore
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might:
So long as sunne doth shine by day,
or else the moon by night.

6 Lord, make the king unto the just like rainto fields new mown:
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace, Untill the moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be lord of sea and land, from shore to shore throughout:
And from the foulds within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell shall kneel to him full thick:
And all his enemies that rebell
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The lords of all the isles thereby great gifts to him shall bring:
The kings of Saba and Arabie give many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seek with one accord in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world
shall serve him at his hand.
12 For he the needie sort doth save that unto him do call:
And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.
13 He taketh pitie on the poore that are with need opprest:
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their soules to rest.
14 He shall redeem their lives from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they shall bleed is precious in his sight.
15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold:
He shall be honoured as a king,
and daily be extold.
16 The mightie mountains of his land of corn shall bear such throng, That it like cedar-trees shall stand in Libanus full long.
17 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall farre exceed,
and spring as green as grasse.
18 For ever they shall praise his nam
while that the sunne is light:
And think them happie through the same,
all folk shall blesse his might.
19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing to Israels God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himself alone.
20 And blessed be his holy name
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
amen, amen, say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. lxxiii. T. S.

How ever it be, yet God is good and kinde to Israel:
And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almost slipt,
my feet began to slide:
And ere I wist, even at a pinch,
my steps awry gan glide.
3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grug'd and did disdain That wicked men all things should have without turmoil or pain.
4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and ever in good plight.
5 And free from all adversitie
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.
7 They are so fed that even for fat their eyes oft times out start:
And as for worldly goods, they have more then can wish their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious, boasting much of the wrong
Which they have done to simple men, and ever pride among.
9 The heavens and the living Lord
they spare not to blaspheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem.
10 The people of God oft times turn back to see their prosperous state:
And almost drink the self same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they, should know or understand These worldly things, sith wicked men be lords of sea and land?
12 For we may see how wicked men in riches still increase, Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.
13 Then why do I from wickednesse
my fantasie refrain,
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vain?

14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame:
And every morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame?

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate:
But that I should thy children judge as folk unfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might this matter understand:
But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand:

17 Untill the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou settest them upon a slipperie place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

19 Then all men muse at that strange sight, to see how suddenly
They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consum'd, and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dream when one awakes, so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much oppress:

22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beast.

23 Yet neverthelesse by my right hand thou hold'st me alwayes fast:

24 And with thy counsel dost me guide to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing like thee that I can love.

26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail, but God doth fail me never:
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo, all such as thee forsake thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing saying in thee alone.

28 Therefore will I draw neare to God, and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

Ut quid Dem. Psal. lxxiv. 7. H.

VVhy art thou, Lord, so long from us in all this danger deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus at thine own pasture sheep?

2 Lord, call the people to thy thought which have been thine so long,
The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Have minde therefore and think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar, O God:
They set as signes on every wall their banners-splaid abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.

7 The cieling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords
they beat them down at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toil,
The house appointed to thy name
they raze down to the soil.

9 And thus they say within their heart,
Dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.

10 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end
among us there is none.

11 When wilt thou, Lord, once end this shame, and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they alwayes blasphemethy name,
and rail on thee so long?

12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback, and hide it in thy lap?
Oh pluck it out, and be not slack to give thy foes a rap.

The second part.

13 O God, thou art our King and Lord, and evermore hast been:

Yea, thy good grace throughout the world for our good help hath seen.

- 14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die.
- 15 Yea, thou didst break the heads so great of whales that are so fell:
And gav'st them to the folk to eat that in the deserts dwell.
- 16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to rise from rock both hard and high:
And eke thy hand hath made likewise deep rivers to be drie.
- 17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou setst to serve us with their shine,
the light, and eke the sunne.
- 18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts of all the earth about:
Both summer heats, and winter frosts, thy hand hath found them out.
- 19 Think on, O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set to rail upon thy name.
- 20 O let no cruell beasts devoure
the turtle that is true:
Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poore that much do rue.
- 21 Regard thy covenant and behold,
thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old our realme as now doth stand.
- 22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poore and needie aye
give praise unto thy name.
- 23 Rise, Lord, let be by thee maintain'd
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd art by the foolish one.
- 24 The voice forget not of thy foes, for the presumption high Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spightfully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. lxxv. J. H.

UNto thee, God, will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so neare, declare thy wondrous works will wee.

2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

- 3 I did to the mad people say,
Deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
Set not your horns on high.
- 4 I said unto them, Set not up your raised horns on high:
And see that you do with stiff neck not speak presumptuously.
- 5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wilderness, promotion doth proceed.
- 6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets another in the throne.
- 7 For why? a cup of mightie wine is in the hand of God:
And all the mightie wine therein himself doth poure abroad.
- 8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,
The wicked of the earth shall drink and suck them every whit.
- 9 But I will talk of God, I say, of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.
- 10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glorie be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

In Judea. Psal. lxxvi. J. H.

- TO all that now in Jurie dwell
the Lord is clearly known:
His name is great in Israel, a people of his own.
- 2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarrie there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight to make his dwelling place.
- 3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the speare, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow in battell on the field.
- 4 Thou art more worthy honour, Lord, more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But

- 5 But now the proud are spoil'd through thee, and they are fal'n on sleep:
Through men of warre no help can be, themselves they could not keep.
- 6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God, when thou didst them reprove:
As halt on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.
- 7 For thou art dreadfull, Lord, indeed, what man the courage hath To 'bide thy sight, and doth not dread when thou art in thy wrath?
- 8 When thou dost make thy judgements heard from heaven through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.
- 9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand in judgement for to speak,
To save th' afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.
- 10 The furie that in man doth reigne shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats alwayes.
- 11 Make vows and pay them to our God, ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
- 12 For he doth take both life and might from princes great of birth:
And full of terroure is his sight to all the kings on earth.

Voce mea. Psal. lxxvii. J. H.

- I With my voice to God do crie, with heart and heartie cheer:
My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth heare.
- 2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.
- 3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stop't so sore.
- 4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwayes from rest,
that I alwayes awake:
With fear I am so sore oppress't,
my speech doth me forsake.
- 5 The dayes of old in mind I cast, and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past full many yeares agoe.

- 6 By night my songs I call to minde, once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my spirits do search to know.
- 7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?
- 8 What? is his goodnesse cleane decay'd for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now delay'd,
and doth his truth decay?
- 9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?
- 10 At last I said, My weaknesse is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mightie hand can help all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

- 11 I will regard and think upon the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone
I gladly will record.
- 12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.
- 13 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright, and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the might of thee, O Lord our God?
- 14 Thou art a God that dost forth show thy wonders every houre:
And so dost make the people know thy virtue and thy power.
- 15 And thine own folk thou dost defend with strength and stretched arm:
The sonnes of Jacob that descend, and Josephs seed from harm.
- 16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.
- 17 The clouds that were both thick and black did rain full plenteously:
The thunder in the aire did crack,
thy shafts abroad did flie.
- 18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard, thy lightnings from above
With flashes great made men afraid, the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy wayes within the sea do lie, thy paths in waters deep :
Yet none can there thy steps espie, nor know thy paths to keep.
20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land
as sheep on every side :
Through Moses and through Aarons hand thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. Psal. lxxviii. J. H.

Attend my people to my law,
and to my words incline:
1 My mouth shall speak strange parables, and sentences divine:
2 Which we our selves have heard and learn'd even of our fathers old;
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.
3 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after :
Who should Gods power to their race praise,
and all his works of wonder.
4 To Jacob he commandment gave how Israel should live, Willing our fathers should the same unto their children give.
5 That they and their posteritie that were not sprung up tho, Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.
6 That they might have the better hope in God that is above :
And not forget to keep his laws
and his precepts in love.
7 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight :
And would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright.
8 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil :
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they took the foil ?
9 For why ? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made,
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade:
10 But put into oblivion his counsel and his will,
And all his works most magnifick, which he declared still.
The second part.
11 What wonder to our forefathers did he himself disclose
In Egypt land, within the field that call'd is Thaneos ?

12 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once :
And made the waters stand as still as doth an heap of stones.
13 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
14 He brake the rocks in wildernesse, and gave the people drink :
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.
15 He drew out rivers out of rocks that were both drie and hard,
Of such abundance, that no foulds
to them may be compar'd.
16 Yet for all this against the Lord their sinne they did increase :
And stirred him that is most high to wrath in wildernesse.
17 They tempted God within their hearts, like people of mistrust :
Requiring such a kind of meat
as served to their lust:
18 Saying with murmuration in their unfaithfulnesse,
What? can this God prepare for us a feast in wildernesse.
19 Behold, he strake the stonie rock, and foulds forthwith did flow :
But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also ?
20 When God heard this, he waxed wroth with Iacob and his seed:
So did his indignation on Israel proceed.

The third part.

21 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could alwayes help and succour them in their necessitie.
22 Wherefore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in sunder, 23 And rain'd down manna for them to eat,
a food of mickle wonder.
24 When earthly men with angels food were fed at their request, 25 He bade the east winde blow away,
and brought in the south-west.
26 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowl as thick as sand, 27 Which he did cast amid the place where all their tents did stand.

29 Then

- 29 Then did they eat exceedingly, and all men had their fills:
Yet more and more they did desire to serve their lusts and wills.
30 But as the meat was in their mouthes,
his wrath upon them fell, 31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choise of Israel.
32 Yet fell they to their wonted sinne, and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
33 Their dayes therefore he shortened, and made their honour vain:
Their years did waste and passe away with terrour and with pain.
34 But ever when he plagued them, they sought him by and by, 35 Remembring that he was their strength, their help and God most high.
36 Though in their mouthes they did but glose and flatter with the Lord:
And with their tongues and in their hearts dissembled every word.

The fourth part.

- 37 For why? their hearts were nothing bent to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.
38 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
39 Considering that they were but flesh, and even as a winde
That passeth away, and cannot well return by his own kinde.
40 How oftentimes in wildernesse did they the Lord provoke!
How did they move and stirre the Lord to plague them with his stroke!
41 Yet did they turn again to sinne,
and tempted God eftsoun, Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they would have done.
42 Not thinking of his hand and power, nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands of the fierce enemy.

- 43 Nor how he wrought his miracles (as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.
44 Nor how he turned by his power their waters into bloud:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at floud.
45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their countrey full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

- 46 Nor how he did commit their fruits unto the caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper.
47 With hailstones he destroy'd their vines,
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.
48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattell smote,
And all their flocks and herds likewise with thunder-bolts full hot.
49 He cast upon them in his ire and in his furie strong, Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.
50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.
51 He strake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.
52 But as for all his own deare folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wildernesse,
even like a flock of sheep.
53 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of seas were overwhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coasts of his own holy land, Even to the mount which he had got by his strong arm and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stirr'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray,
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

58 And griev'd him with their hill altars, with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently provoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began again to kindle in his breast:
The naughtinesse of Israel
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsook the tabernacle of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men, even as his dwelling place.
61 Then suffered he his might and power in bondage for to stand,
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.
62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage:
63 Their young men were devour'd with fire, maids had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one:
And not a widow left alive their death for to bemoane.
65 And then the Lord began to wake like one that slept a time,
And like a valiant man of warre refreshed after wine.
66 With emrods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame that was perpetuall.
67 Then he the tent and tabernacle of Joseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse:
68 But chose the tribe of Jehuda, whereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion, which he did love so well.
69 Whereas he did his temple build both sumptuously and sure,
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.

70 Then chose he David him to serve,
his people for to keep;
Whom he took up and brought away
even from the folds of sheep.
71 As he did follow th' ewes with young,
the Lord did him advance,
To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.
72 Thus David with a faithfull heart his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his power did govern them indeed.

Deus, venerunt. Psal. lxxix. J. H.

O God, the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil:
Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they defile.
2 The bodies of thy saints most deare abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that do thee fear
the beasts devoure and waste.
3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem as water spilt they have:
So that there is not one of them,
to lay their dead in grave.
4 Thus are we made a laughing stock almost the world throughout:
The enemies at us jest and mock which dwell our coasts about.
5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thine ire against us ever fume,
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume?
6 Upon those people poure the same which did thee never know:
All realms which call not on thy name consume and overthrow.
7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs seed destroy'd:
His habitation and his land
they have left waste and void.
8 Bear not in minde our former faults,
with speed some pitie show:
And aid us, Lord, in all assaults, for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God, that giv'st all health and grace,
on us declare the same:
Weigh not our works, our finnes deface for honour of thy name.
10 Why shall the wicked still alway, to us as people dumbe,
In thy reproach rejoyce, and say,
Where is their God become?

Require, O Lord, as thou seest good,
before our eyes in sight,

Of all these folk thy servants bloud which they spilt in despight.

11 Receive into thy sight in haste
the clamours, grief, and wrong

Of such as are in prison cast, sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord, set them out of band
Which unto death are destinate, and in their enemies hand.

12 The nations which have been so bold
as to blaspheme thy name, Into their laps with seven-fold repay again the same.

13 So we thy flock and pasture-sheep will praise thee evermore, And teach all ages for to keep for thee like praise in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. lxxx. J. H.

THou Herd that Israel dost keep, give care and take good heed:
Which ledest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.

2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seat is set on cherubims most bright, Shew forth thy self and do not let,
send down thy beams of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise,
To shew thy power do thou begin;
come help us, Lord, arise.

4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace, convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightnesse of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hosts of Israel, how long wilt thou (I say) Against thy folk in anger swell, and wilt not hear them pray?

6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep,
their bread with tears they eat,
And drink the tears that they do weep,
in measure full and great.

7 Thou hast us made a very strife to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do love alive,
they laugh and jest it out.

8 O take us, Lord, unto thy grace, convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well thou brought'st a vine full deare:

The heathen folk thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.

10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:

That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last:

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about with shade that from it came,
And eke the cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.

12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that passe thereby thy vine may spoil and waste.

13 The boar out of the wood so wilde
doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field devoure it all about.

14 O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heaven look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel, whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord, do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the sonne of man whom thou to thee hast made so strong.

18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy name.

19 O Lord of hosts, through thy good grace convert us unto thee:
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Deo exultate. Psal. lxxxi. J. H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoyce, which is our strength and stay:
Be joyfull, and lift up your voice to Jacobs God, I say.

2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyfull psalme to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

- 3 Blow as it were in the new moon,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done at any solemn feast.
- 4 For this is unto Israel a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.
- 5 This clause with Joseph was decreed when he from Egypt came,
That as a witnesse all his seed should still observe the same.
- 6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.
- 7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burden clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning brick of clay.
- 8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall in thunder secretly.
- 9 Yea at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord with muttering thou didst move.
- 10 Heare, O my folk, O Israel, and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

- 11 Thou shalt no god in thee reserve of any land abroad:
Nor in no wise to bow or serve a strange or foreign god.
- 12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.
- 13 And yet my people would not hear my voice when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
- 14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardnesse of their heart:
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.
- 15 O that my people would have heard the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard to walk within my way!

- 16 How soon would I confound their foes and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those that would them overthrow!

- 17 And they that at the Lord do rage, as slaves should seek him till:
But of his folk the time and age should flourish ever still.

- 18 I would have fed them with the crop and finest of the wheat:
And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills should eat.

Deus stetit. Psal. lxxxii. J. H.

A Mid the preasse with men of might the Lord himself doth stand, To plead the cause of truth and right with judges of the land.

- 2 How long (said he) will you proceed false judgement to a ward,
And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard?

- 3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weak,
And when the poore man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.

- 4 If ye be wise defend the cause of poore men in their right:
And rid the needie from the claws of tyrants force and might.

- 5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darknesse walk.

- 6 For lo, even now the time is come that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some for gain are sold and bought.

- I had decreed it in my sight as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might for love I did you call.

- 7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

- 8 Up, Lord, and let thy strength be known, and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own,
to take them as thy right.

Deus quid. Psal. lxxxiii. J. H.

DO not, O God, refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.

- 2 For why? behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and crie:
And those that bear an hate to thee hold up their heads on high.
- 3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftly they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait their counsel doth conspire.
- 4 Come on, say they, let us expel and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel may utterly decay.
- 5 They all conspire within their heart
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part they are in league and band.
- 6 The tents of all the Edomites, the Ismaelites also:
The Hagarenes and Moabites, with divers other mo.
- 7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise doth Amalek conspire:
The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.
- 8 And Assur eke is well appaid with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid to Lots posteritie.
- 9 As thou didst to the Midianites, so serve them, Lord, each one:
As to Siser, and to Jabin, beside the brook Kison.
- 10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy, and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open fight.
- The second part.*
- 11 Make them now and their lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zebah and Zalmana were,
the kings of Midian,
- 12 Which said, Let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad, Possesse and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.
- 13 Turn them, O God, with storms as fast as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff, which men do cast with windesto flie away.
- 14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
the mighty forrests spils:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills:

- 15 So let the tempest of thy wrath upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winde and shoure,
Lord, make them all afraid.
- 16 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy name.
- 17 And let them evermore daily to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie to perish eke withall.
- 18 That they may know and feel full well that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell,
and reigne throughout the world.
- Quam dilecta. Psal. lxxxiv. 7. H.*
- How pleasant is thy dwelling-place,
O Lord of hosts, to me!
The tabernacles of thy grace how pleasant, Lord, they be!
- 2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.
- 3 The sparrows finde a room to rest, and save themselves from wrong,
And eke the swallow hath a nest wherein to keep her young.
- 4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hosts, thou art, I say,
my God and eke my King.
- 5 O they be blessed that may dwell within thy house alwayes:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.
- 6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.
- As they go through the vale of tears, they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.
- 7 From strength to strength they walk full fast, no faintnesse there shall be:
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.
- 8 O Lord of hosts, to me give heed,
and heare when I do pray:
And let it through thine eares proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.

9 O Lord, our shield, of thy good grace regard, and so draw near :
Regard, I say, behold the face of thine anointed dear.

10 For why ? within thy courts one day is better to abide,
Then other where to keep or stay a thousand dayes beside.
Much rather would I keep a doore
within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickedness to settle mine abode.

11 For God the Lord, light and defence, will grace and worship give :
And no good thing will he withhold from them that purely live.

12 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest, and happy sure is he,
That is perswaded in his breast to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti. Psal. lxxxv. 7. H.

THou hast been mercifull indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land :
For thou restoredst Jacobs seed from thraldome out of band.

2 The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them clean remit :
And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coveredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage, that all thy wrath was gone :
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God, our health, do now convert thy people unto thee :
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

5 Why, shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us ?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus ?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore and quicken us, that we
And all thy folk may evermore be glad and joy in thee ?

7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodnessto our wealth :
Shew forth to us, and do not spare, thine aid and saving health.

8 I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.

9 For why ? his help is still at hand to such as do him fear :

Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place :
And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 Astruth from earth shall spring apace, and flourish pleasantly :
So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand to give useach good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go much like a guide or stay :
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

Inclina, Domine. Psal. lxxxvj. 7. H.

LOrd, bowe thine eare to my request, and hear me by and by :
With grievous pain and grief opprest,
full poor and weak am I.

2 Preserve my soul, because my wayes and doings holy be:
And save thy servant, O my Lord, that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy, Lord, on me express, defend me eke withall :
For through the day I do not cease on thee to cry and call.

4 Comfort, O Lord, thy servants soul that now with pain is pin'd :
For unto thee, Lord, I extoll and lift my soul and minde,

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free :
And eke thy mercie plentiful to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord, likewise when I do pray, regard and give an eare :
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain :
For why ? I know and well do prove thou answerest me again.

8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none with thee to be compar'd :
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all which thou didst make and frame, Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy name.
10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:

O joyn my heart to thee so nigh that I thy name may dread.

12 To thee, my God, will I give praise with all my heart, O Lord:
And glorifie thy name alwayes for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercie shew'd to me is great, and doth excell:
Thou setst my soul at libertie out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord, the proud against me rise, and heaps of men of might:
They seek my soul, and in no wise will have thee in their fight.

15 Thou, Lord, art mercifull and meek, full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turn to me, and mercie grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids sonne am I.

17 On me some signe of favour show, that all my foes may see
And be asham'd, because, Lord, thou dost help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Psal. lxxxviij. J. H.

That citie shall full well endure, her ground-work still doth stay Upon the holy hills full sure, it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou citie of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye, and bear in minde the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply and learn to know my name.

5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiope likewise,
A people old, full long ago
wereborn and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad, that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear,
Of Sion, that the chief of all had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs are compast all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. lxxxviij. J. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:
Incline thine eare, O Lord, attend, and hearken to my crie.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd, and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remain:
It were more ease for me to be with them the which are slain:

6 As those that lie in grave, I say, whom thou hast clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise full sore on me doth lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and trie.

9 Thou putt'st my friends farre off from me,
and mak'st them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

10 My sight doth fail through grief and wo,
I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?

Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?

12 Or shall thy loving kindnesse, Lord, be preached in the grave?

Or shall with them that are destroy'd thy truth her honour have?

13 Shall they that lie in dark full low of all thy wonders wot?

Or there shall they thy justice know where all things are forgot?

14 But I, O Lord, to thee alwayes do cry and call apace:

My prayer eke ere it be day shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhorre my soul,
in grief that seeketh thee?

And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am afflicted, as dying still from youth this many a year:

The terrours which do vex me ill with troubled minde I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore upon me fall:

Thy terrours eke do not assuage,
but me oppresse withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:

And all at once with streams full stout beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest farre from me my friends and lovers every one:

Yea, and mine old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias. Psal. lxxxix. J. H.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I have said that mercie shall for evermore remain:

In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:

My servant David to perswade

I swore and did protest:

4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still uphold thy throne alway from age to age to last.

5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth thy wondrous works, O Lord:

Thy saints within thy church on earth thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equall then in all the clouds abroad?

Among the sons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of the saints is greatly to be dread:

And over all that dwell about in terrour to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world
what one is like to thee?

On every side, most mighty Lord, thy truth is seen to be.

9 The raging sea by thine advice thou rulest at thy will:

And when the waves thereof arise, thou mak'st them calm and still.

10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast subdu'd, and thou hast it destroy'd:

Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heavens are thine and still have been,
likewise the earth and land:

The world and all that is therein thou foundedst with thy hand.

12 Both north and south, with east and west thy self didst make and frame:

Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon, rejoyce and praise thy name.

13 Thine arm is strong and full of power,
all might therein doth lie:

The strength of thy right hand each houre thou liftest up on high.

14 In righteousness and equitie thou hast thy seat and place:

Mercie and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is blest that knows aright
thy present power, O God:

For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day they joy and much rejoyce:

And through thy righteousness have they a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why? their glorie, strength, and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:

Thy goodnes eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.

18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:

The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy saints in visions thou didst show:

And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy minde to make them know:

20 A man of might I have erect your king and guide to be:

And set him up whom I elect, among the folk to me.

The third part.

21 My servant David I appoint, whom I have searched out:

And with mine holy oyl anoint him king of all the rout.

22 For why? my hand is ready still with him for to remain:

And with mine arm also I will him strengthen and sustain.

23 The enemies shall not him oppresse, they shall him not devour:

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednes on him shall have no power:

24 His foes likewise I will destroy before his face in fight:

And those that hate him I will plague, and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercie eke withall shall still upon him lie:

And in my name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.

26 His kingdome I will set to be upon the sea and land:

And eke the running flouds shall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart on me, and thus shall say,

My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.

28 As my first-born I will him take of all on earth that springs:

His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.

29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told:

My faithfull covenant to fulfill my mercie I will hold,

30 And eke his seed I will sustain for ever strong and sure:

So that his seat shall still remain while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve:

And of my judgements have none aw,
nor will not them observe:

32 Or if they do not use a right
my statutes to them made,

And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade:

33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend:

And so with scourging for their sinne,
if that they do offend.

34 My mercie yet and my goodnes
I will not take him fro:

Nor handle him with craftines, and so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:

No word the which my lips have told shall alter or be broke.

36 Once sware I by my holines, and that perform will I:

With David I shall keep promise, to him I will not lie.

37 His seed for evermore shall reigne, and eke his throne of might:

As doth the sunne, it shall remain for ever in my sight.

38 And as the moon within the skie for ever standeth fast

A faithfull witness from on high,
so shall his kingdome last.

39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject, and now thou changest chear:

Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed dear.

40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord, thou hast quite undone:

And down upon the ground also hast cast his royall crown.

The fifth part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with might,
his walls thou dost confound:

Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
and break'st them to the ground.

42 That he is fore destroy'd and torn of comers by throughout:

And so is made a mock and scorn to all that dwell about,

- 43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up that him so fore annoy:
And all his foes that him devour lo thou hast made to joy.
- 44 His sword's edge thou dost take away, that should his foes withstand:
To him in warre no victorie thou giv'st, nor upper hand.
- 45 His glory thou dost also waste, his throne, his joy, his mirth
By thee is overthrown, and cast full low upon the earth.
- 46 Thou hast cut off and made full short his youth and lusty dayes:
And rais'd of him an ill report with shame and great dispraise.
- 47 How long away from me, O Lord, for ever wilt thou turn?
And shall thine anger still alway as fire consume and burn?
- 48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men as things in vain to waste?
- 49 What man is he that liveth here, and death shall never see?
Or from the hand of hell his soul shall he deliver free?
- 50 Where is, O Lord, thine own goodness
so oft declar'd beforne, Which by thy truth and uprightness to David thou hast sworn?
- 51 The great rebukes to minde I call that on thy servants lie:
The railings of the people all born in my breast have I,
- 52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy name:
The steps of thine anointed one they cease not to defame.
- 53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye:
Through skie and earth, and all the coasts,
amen, amen, I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. xc. J. H.

THou, Lord, hast been our sure defence, our place of ease and rest
In all times past, yea so long since as cannot be exprest.

2 Ere there was made mountain or hill,
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age and alwayes still for ever thou art God.

- 3 Thou grindest man through grief and pain to dust or clay, and then,
And then thou say'st it again, Return again ye sonnes of men.
- 4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
- 5 So soon as thou dost scatter them, then is their life and trade
All as a sleep, and like the grasse whose beauty soon doth fade:
- 6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead, and drie.
- 7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decar'd:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
- 8 The wicked works that we have wrought thou seest before thine eye:
Our privy faults, yea eke our thoughts thy countenance doth spie.
- 9 For through thy wrath our daies do waste, thereof doth nought remain:
Our years consume as words or blasts,
and are not call'd again.
- 10 Our time is threescore years and ten that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

- 11 Yet of this time the strength and chief the which we count upon,
Is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone.
- 12 Who once doth know what strength is there,
what might thine anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?
- 13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and trie
how long our dayes remain:
That then we may our hearts apply true wisdom to attain.
- 14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.
- 15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon, and then our joy shall be All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.

16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years wherein full sore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appear,
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children dear thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord, let thy grace and glory stand on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord, prosper them to us.

Qui habitat. Psal. xcj. 7. H.

HE that within the secret place of God most high doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace at rest shall keep him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say;
My God is he, in him will I my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings shall cover thee and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need, I say, to fear or be affright
Of all the shafts that flie by day, nor terrours of the night:

6 Nor of the plague that privily doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon-day doth waste.

7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand a thousand dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part, thine eyes shall well regard,
That even like to their deserts
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I onely lust to stay my hope on thee:
And in the high'st I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear, with thee it shall not mell:
Nor yet the plague shall once come near the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why? unto his angels all with charge commanded he,
That still in all thy wayes they shall preserve and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall bear thee up, still waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot shall never chance to spurn at any stone.

13 Upon the lions thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long:
And tread upon the lions young,
with dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth unto me,
I will dispatch him quite:
And him defend, because that he doth know my name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth crie, an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I in glory for to live.

16 With length of years and dayes of wealth
I will fulfill his time:
The goodness of my saving health
I will declare to him.

Bonum est. Psal. xcij. 7. H.

IT is a thing both good and meet to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy name, O thou most high,
to sing with one accord:

2 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten-stringed instruments, on lute and harp so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice thy handy works to see.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy counsels set that none can trie them out.

6 The man unwise hath not the wit this gear to passe to bring:
And all such fools are nothing fit to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will as grasse do spring full fast, They when they flourish in their ill for ever shall be waste.

8 But thou art mightie, Lord most high, yea thou dost reigne therefore In every time eternally
both now and evermore.

9 For why? O Lord, behold and see, behold thy foes, I say,
How all that work iniquitie shall perish and decay.

10 But thou, like as an unicorn, shalt lift mine horn on high:
With fresh and new prepared oyl thine ointed king am I:

11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that up against me rise,
mine eares shall heare the same.

12 The iust shall flourish up on high,
as date-trees bud and blow:
And as the cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad:

14 And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and well befeen:
And pleasantly both bud and spring with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and iust, and upright in his will:
He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xciii. J. H.

THe Lord asking aloft doth reigne with glory goodly dight:
And he to shew his strength and main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made and shaped it so sure,
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought, thy seat was set before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roar and make a noise:
The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the storms arise in fight, though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend:
For iust and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal. xciiii. J. H.

O Lord, thou dost revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway with lifting up their voice?
How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst out, and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whole works are ever ill?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage they spoil and vex full sore:
Against thy people they do rage still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortlesse, and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherlesse, and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand, thistalk they have of thee,
Can Jacobs God this understand?
tush no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise and people rude, some knowledge now discern:
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
he needs of right must heare:
He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct, and make them understand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect?
how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man, his heart he seeth full plain:
The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan,
and findeth them but vain.

12 But, Lord, that man is happy sure whom thou dost keep in a w,
And through correction dost procure to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereq-

- 13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men shall be suppressed,
and fall into the pit.
- 14 For sure the Lord will not refuse his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did chuse
he will no time forsake.
- 15 Untill that judgement be decreed to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed that are of upright heart.
- 16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain?
- 17 Except the Lord had been mine aid, mine enemies to repell:
My soul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.
- 18 When I did say, my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide to stay me up withall.
- 19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:
Then, Lord, thy goodness did me touch, and that did ease my minde.
- 20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self and draw, with wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence instead of law much mischief do commit?
- 21 For they consult against the life of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife to shed the guiltless blood.
- 22 But yet the Lord he is to me a strong defence, or lock:
He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rock.
- 23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exsultemus. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

- O Come let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.
- 2 Yea, let us come before his face to give him thanks and praise:
In singing psalmes unto his grace
let us be glad alwayes.

- 3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God,
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
- 4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.
- 5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of nought.
- 6 Come let us bowe and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.
- 7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
his sheep, and he our guide.
- 8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a year provok't me in desert.
- 9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.
- 10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve,
and I to them did say,
They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.
- 11 Wherefore I sware, when that my wrath was kindled in my breast,
That they should never tread the path to enter in my rest.

Cantate Dom. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

- Sing ye with praise unto the Lord
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
- 2 Yea, sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy name:
Declare and shew from day to day salvation by the same.
- 3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare in all the world throughout.
- 4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk are idols that will fade
But yet our God he is the Lord that hath the heavens made.
6 All praise and honour eke do dwell for ay before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say, ascribe unto the Lord.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord also the glorie of his name:
And eke into his courts do go with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world be fearfull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not a gaff,
the Lord doth reigne above:
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move:

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might,
To judge the nations every one
with equitie and right.

12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoyce:
The sea with all that is therein shall shour and make a noise.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree shall sing with gladnesse and with mirth,

14 Before the presence of the Lord, and coming of his might:
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcviij. J. H.

The Lord doth reigne, whereat the earth may joy with pleasant voice:
And eke the isles with joyfull mirth may triumph and rejoyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke do swell, and round about him beat:
Yea, right and justice ever dwell and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appear:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight and presence of the Lord:

They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heavens eke declare and show his justice forth abroad,
That all the world may see and know
the glorie of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain:

And eke to those that glorie much dumbe pictures to maintain.

8 For all the idols of the world, which they as gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

9 With joy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce:

For at thy judgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.

10 That thou, O Lord, art set on high in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously above each other god.

11 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill:

For he doth keep the souls of his from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great joy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holinesse proclaim:

Bethankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the same.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcviij. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleasant song:
For he hath wrought throughout the world his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devoure,

And get himself the victorie with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his saving health and might:

The Lord doth eke his justice show in all the heathens sight.

4 His

- 4 His grace and truth to Israel in minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodnesse of the Lord.
- 5 Be glad in him with joy full voice,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce to him with joy and mirth.
- 6 Upon the harp unto him sing, give thanks to him with psalmes:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King with trumpets and with shalmes.
- 7 Yea, let the sea with all therein for joy both roar and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
- 8 And let the foulds rejoyce their fills,
and clap their hands apace:
And eke the mountains and the hills,
before the Lord his face.
- 9 For he shall come to judge and trie
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily with justice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcix. J. H.

- THe Lord doth reigne, although at it the people rage full sore:
Yea, he on cherubims doth sit,
though all the world do roar.
- 2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell is high and wondrous great:
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.
- 3 Let all men praise thy mighty name, for it is fearfull sure:
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.
- 4 The princely power of our King doth love judgement and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing in Jacob, through thy might.
- 5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him do:
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
- 6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as priests on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gave them answer all.
- 7 Within the cloud to them he spake, then did they labour still To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.

- 8 O Lord our God, thou didst them heare, and answeredst them again:
Thy mercy did on them appeare, their deeds didst not maintain.

- 9 O laud and praise our God and Lord within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. c. J. H.

- All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerfull voice:
2 Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell:
come ye before him and rejoyce.
- 3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
and for his sheep he doth us take.
- 4 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and blesse his name alwayes,
for it is seemly so to do.
- 5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

- IN God the Lord be glad and light, praise him throughout the earth:
2 Serve him, and come before his sight, with singing and with mirth.
- 3 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep,
Not we our selves: for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.
- 4 O go into his gates alwayes, give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.
- 5 For why? the goodnesse of the Lord for evermore doth reigne:
From age to age throughour the world his truth doth still remain.

Misericordiam. Psal. ci. N.

- I Mercy will and judgement sing,
O Lord God, unto thee:
2 And wisely do in perfect way, untill thou come to me.
- And in the midst of my house walk in purenesse of my sprite:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing will set before my sight.

I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:
4 From me shall part the froward heart, none evil will I see.
5 Him will I stroy that slandereth his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high,

6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guilefull person have within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods citie cut the wicked workers hand.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. cii. N.

O Heare my prayer, Lord, and let my cry come unto thee:

2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine eare to me, make haste to heare me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead,
And withers like the grasse, that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of my groaning voice
my bones cleave to my skin:

6 As pelican in wildernesse, such case now am I in,

And as an owl in desert is,
lo, I am such an one:

7 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house top am alone.

8 Lo, daily in reproachfull wise mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage, against me they have sworn.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd:
And mingled have my drink with teares that from mine eyes have still'd.

10 Because of thy displeasure, Lord, thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The dayes wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grasse that soon away doth fade.

12 But thou, O Lord, for ever dost remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend:

The time of mercy, now the time
foreset is come to end.

14 For even in the stones thereof thy servants do delight:

And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.

15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:

And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory and thy fame.

16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion reare:

And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appeare.

17 To prayer of the desolate when he himself shall bend:

When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:

The people yet uncreated
the Lords renown shall spread.

19 For he from his high sanctuary hath looked down below:

And out of heaven hath the Lord beheld the earth also.

20 That of the mourning captive he might heare the wofull cry:

And that he might deliver those that damned are to die.

21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy name:

And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same:

22 Then when the people of the land and kingdomes with accord

Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:

And shorter he did cut my dayes;
thus I therefore did say,

E 2 24 My

24 My God, in midst of all my dayes now take me not away:
Thy yeares endure eternally,
from age to age for aye.

25 Thou the foundations of the earth before all times hast laid:
And Lord, the heavens are the work which thine own hands have made.

26 Yea, they shall perish and decay, but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change, and changed shall they be:
But thou dost still abide the same,
thy yeares do never flee.

28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed for ever shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. ciii. T. S.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:

And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy name.

2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts, shew not thy self unkinde:

And suffer not his benefits to slip out of thy minde.

3 That gaveth thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.

4 That did redeem thy life from death, from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd with goodnesse thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the eagle casts her bill, whereby her age renew'th.

6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be oppress'd:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs are turned to the best.

7 His wayes and his commandments to Moses he did shew:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9 He chides not us continually, though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our sinnes
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth us not reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodnesse much more large to them that do him love.

12 God doth remove our sinnes from us, and our offences all,
As farre as is the sun-rising full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And look what pitie parents deare unto their children bear:
Like pitie beareth God to such as worship him in fear.

14 The Lord that made us knows our shape, our mould and fashion just:
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

15 And how the time of mortall men is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.

16 Whose glosse and beauty stormy winde do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults such blossoms have no place.

17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children do receive his righteousness at hand.

18 I mean, which keep his covenant with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the seat and footstool of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.

20 Ye angels which are great in power, praise ye and blesse the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hosts and ministers, cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute his pleasure and his will.

22 Yea, all his works in every place,
praise ye his holy name:

My heart, my minde, and eke my soul,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. civ. W. K.

MY soul, praise the Lord, speak good of his name:

O Lord, our great God,
how dost thou appear?
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame.
Honour and majestie
in thee shine most clear.

2 With light, as a robe, thou hast thee beclad, Whereby all the earth thy greatness may see:
The heaven in such sort thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots,
are made him to bear:
And there with much swiftnes
his course doth endure, Upon the wings riding of windes in the aire.

4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.

6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devoure.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be,
That in their great raging they haste soon away.

8 The mountains full high they then up ascend:

If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfill.
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend, Where thou them appointest remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou hast set how farre they shall run:
So that in their rage not that pass they can:
For God hath appointed they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs to strong streams or lakes, Which run do full swift among the huge hills, 11 Where both the wilde asses their thirst oft-times slakes, And beasts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

12 By these pleasant springs of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the aire abide shall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches their songs shall excell.

13 The mountains to moist the clouds he doth use:
The earth with his works is wholly replete.

14 So as the brute cattel
he doth not refuse:
But grafs doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.

15 Yea, bread, wine, and oyl,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh
and heart to make strong.

16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.

17 In these may birds build and make there their nests:
In firre-trees the storks remain and abide.

18 The high hills are succours for wilde goats to rest:

And eke the rock stonie for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is set her seasons to runne :

The dayes from the nights thereby to discern.

And by the descending also of the sunne,

The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

20 When darknes doth come by Gods will and power,

Then creep forth do all the beasts of the wood.

21 The lions range roaring their prey to devour :

But yet it is thou, Lord,
which givest them food.

22 As soon as the sunne is up, they retire :

To couch in their dens
then are they full faine :

23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,

Till night come and call him to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How fundrie, O Lord, are all thy works found !

With wisdom full great they are indeed wrought :

So that the whole world of thy praise doth sound :

And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought.

25 So is the great sea, which large is and broad,
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.

26 There both mighty ships sail,
and some lie at roade :

The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait, thou dost them relieve :

And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,

They gather full gladly those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,

That they with good things are filled we see.

29 But sore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face :

For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again, when thy spirit from thee doth proceed

All things to appoint, and what shall ensue :

Then are they created as thou hast decreed :

And dost by thy goodness
the drie earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord for ever shall last,

Who may in his works by right well rejoyce.

32 His look can the earth make to tremble full fast,

And likewise the mountains to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God sing will I alwayes :

So long as I live,
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certain my words shall him please :

I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I crie.

35 The sinners, O Lord, consume in thine ire :

And eke the perverse,
them root out with shame :

But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,

And say with the faithfull,
Praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cv. N.

GIve praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his name :

Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.

2 Sing ye unto the Lord, I say,
and sing unto him praise :

And talk of all his wondrous works that he hath wrought alwayes.

3 In honour of his holy name
rejoyce with one accord :

And let the heart also rejoyce of them that seek the Lord.

4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternall might :

And

And seek his face continually, and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works which he hath done keep still in mindefull heart :

Ne let the judgements of his mouth out of your minde depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his servant are the seed :

Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God :
And his most rightfull judgements are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant which he hath made to his,
He hath remembred evermore to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago,
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.

10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey :
And for eternall covenant to Israel for ay.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live,

12 Although the number at that time did very small appear :
Yea, very small, and in the land they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walkt from land to land without a sure abode :
And while from sundrie kingdomes they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressours hands
he suffered them to take :
But even the great and mightie kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be :
Ne do the prophets any harm that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land, of bread he stroy'd the store :
But he against the time of need had sent a man before :

The third part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold to live a slave in wo :

Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons pierc'd also :

18 Untill the time came when his cause was known apparently :
The mightie word of God the Lord his faultlesse truth did trie.

19 The king sent and delivered him from prison where he was :

20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe :

21 And over all his house he made him lord to bear the sway :
And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct the princes of the land :
And wisdomes lore his ancient men might cause to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also :
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow :
And over all his enemies in strength he made them grow.

25 Whose heart he turn'd, that they with hate his people did entreat :
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.

27 The wondrous message of his signes among them he did show :
And wonders in the land of Ham then did they work also.

28 Darknesse he sent and made it dark instead of brighter day :
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.

29 He turn'd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay :

30 Their land brought frogs even in the place where their king Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies :
And all the quarters of the land were fill'd with crawling lice.

32 He gave them cold and stonie hail instead of milder rain :

And fiery flames within their land
He sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees whereon their figs did grow :

And all the trees within their coasts down did he overthrow.

34 He spake, then caterpillers did,
and grasshoppers abound :

35 Which ate the grasse in all their land, and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly did he smite:

Yea, the beginning and first fruit of all their strength and might.

37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egypt land to passe:

And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then when they did thence depart :

For terrour and the fear of them was fall'n upon their heart.

39 To shroud them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display :

And fire he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused quails to rain at their request :

And fully with the bread of heaven their hunger he repress.

41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out :

And eke the dry and parched ground like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant
ay mindfull was he tho :

Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago.

43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with joy,

Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands :

The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.

45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,

And faithfull y obey his laws :

praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. cvj. N.

PRaise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for ay :

2 Who can expresse his noble acts, or all his praise display ?

3 They blessed are that judgement keep,
and justly do alway :

With favour of thy people, Lord, remember me, I pray.

4 And with thy saving health, O Lord, vouchsafe to visit me :

5 That I the great felicity of thine elect may see :

And with thy peoples joy I may a joyfull minde possesse :

And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart express.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all have sinned every one :

We have committed wickedness,
and lewdly we have done.

7 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land,

Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.

Nor they thy mercies multitude did keep in thankfull mind :

But at the sea, yea the red sea,
rebelled most unkinde.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for honour of his name :

That he might make his power known,
and ipread abroad his fame.

9 The Red sea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was dri'd :

And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand of their despightfull foe,

And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd, not one was left alive :

12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise in song they did him give.

13 But by and by unthankfully his works they clean forgot :

And for his counsel and his will they did neglect to wait :

14 But lusted in the wilderness with fond and greedy lust :

And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton mindes desire he suffered them to have :

But

But waſting leaſneſſe therewithall into their ſouls he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moſes they did grutch:

Aaron the holy of the Lord
ſo did they envie much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuoure:

And all Abiram's companie did cover in that houre.

18 In their aſſembly kindled was the hot conſuming fire:

And waſting flame did then burn up the wicked in his ire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol calf did frame:

And there the molten image they did worſhip of the ſame.

20 Into the likeneſſe of a calf which feedeth on the graſſe:

Thus they their glorie turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their onely Saviour
unkindely they forgot;

Which many great and mighty things in Egypt land had wrought:

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
moſt wondrous works had done:

And by the Red ſea dreadfull things performed long ago.

23 Therefore for their ſo ſhewing them
forgetfull and unkinde,

To bring deſtruction on them all he purpoſ'd in his minde:

Had not his choſen Moſes ſtood
before him in the break,

To turn his wrath, leſt he on them with ſlaughter ſhould him wreak.

24 They did deſpiſe the pleaſant land that he behight to give:

Yea, and the words that he had ſpoke
they did no whit believe.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd,

Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.

26 Therefore againſt them lifted he his ſtrong revenging hand,

Them to deſtroy in wildeſneſſe ere they ſhould ſee the land:

27 And to deſtroy their ſeed among the nations with his rod:

And through the countreys of the world to ſcatter them abroad.

28 To Baal Peor then they did adjoyn themſelves alſo:

And eat the offerings of the dead,
ſo they forſook him tho.

29 Thus with their own inventions his wrath they did provoke:

And in his ſore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.

30 But Phineas ſtood up with zeal
the finners vile to ſlay:

And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did ſtay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed unto him for righteouſneſſe that day:

And from thenceforth ſo counted is from race to race, I ſay.

32 At waterſeke of Meribah they did him angrie make:

Yea, ſo farre forth, that Moſes was then puniſht for their ſake:

33 Becauſe they vext his ſpirit ſo ſore, that in impatient heat

His lips ſpake unadviſedly, his fervour was ſo great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they ſlew the people tho:

35 But were among the heathen mixt, and learn'd their works alſo.

36 And did their idols ſerve, which were their ruine and decay:

37 To fiends their ſonnes and daughters they did offer up and ſlay.

38 Yea, with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltleſſ bloud they ſpilt:

Yea, their own ſonnes and daughters bloud without all cauſe of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then offered with wicked hand:

And ſo with bloud of innocents defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they ſtained with the works of their own filthy way:

And with their own inventions
a whoring they did ſtray.

40 Therefore againſt his people was the Lords wrath kindled ſore:

And even his own inheritance therefore he did abhorre.

41 Into the hands of heathen men he gave them for a prey.

And

And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hatefull enemies
opprest them in the land:

And they were humbly made to stoop as subjects to their hand.

43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:

But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse, he hearkened to their crie.

45 He call'd to minde his covenant which he to them had sworn:

And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde before the sight of those

That led them captive from their land, when erst they were their foes.

47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
save us, O Lord, we pray:

And from among the heathen folk,
Lord, gather us alway.

48 That we may spread the noble praise of thy most holy name:

That we may glorie in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:

Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cvii. W. K.

GIve thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:

And that his mercie hath no end
all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his name:

And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands that lay so farre about:

From east to west, from north to south
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandred in the wilderness and strayed from the way:

And found no citie where to dwell, that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great in these deserts so void:

That faintnesse did them sore assault,
and eke their souls annoy'd.

6 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide:

That they might to a citie go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his goodnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the emptie soul sustain'd, whom thirst had made to faint:

The hungry soul with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darknesse deep,
where they on death do wait:

Fast bound to taste such troublous storms
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords own words
they sought so to rebell:

Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so farre excell.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:

And none was found so much to help, whereby to get relief.

13 Then did they crie in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

14 For he from darknesse out them brought,
and from deaths dreadfull shade:

Burting with force the iron bands,
which them before did lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

16 For he threw down the gates of brasse, and brake them with strong hand:

The iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel,
and cannot from them wend:

But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.

18 Their soul so much did lothe all meat, that none they could abide:

Where-

Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.

19 Then did they crie in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid :

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

20 For then he sent to them his word, which health did soon restore :

And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice with thanks, and also fear :

And speak of all his wondrous works with glad and joyfull cheer.

23 Such as in ships and brittle barks into the seas descend,

Their merchandise through fearfull floods
to compasse and to end :

24 Those men are forced to behold the Lords works what they be :

And in the dangerous deep, the same most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormie winde arise in a rage,

And stirreth up the furies so,
as nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain :

And plunging down the depth untill, their souls consume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard, to and fro
now here now there they reel,

As men with fear of wit bereft, or had of sense no feel.

28 Then did they crie in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid :

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdie storms to cease :

So that the great waves from their rage are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave :

And are by him in haven brought,
which they so faine would have.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extoll his name :

And where the elders do convent,
there let them do the same.

33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn :

And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt full barren doth he make :

When on their sinnes that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.

35 Again the wildernes full rude
he maketh fruit to bear :

With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there :

36 Wherein such hungry souls are set as he doth freely chuse :

That they a citie may them build to dwell in for their use.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
and vineyards also plant,

To yield them fruits of such increase,
as none may seem to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth blesse them so :

Who doth also the brute beasts make by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought by the oppressours stout,

And minish do through many plagues that compasse them about :

40 Then doth he princes bring to shame which did them sore oppresse,

And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildernes.

41 But yet the poore he raise up out of his troubles deep :

And oft-times doth his train augment, much like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoyce :

Whereas the wicked and perverse with grief shall stop their voice.

43 But who is wise, that now full well he may these things record ?

For certainly such shall perceive the kindnesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. cviii. J. H.

○ God, my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:

I will

I will advance my voice in song, and giving praise also.
2 Awake my viol and my harp sweet melodie to make :
And in the morning I my self right early will awake.
3 By me among the people, Lord, still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk will sing, O Lord, to thee.
4 Because thy mercie, Lord, is great
above the heavens high :
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds within the loftie skie.
5 Above the starrie heavens high exalt thy self, O God :
And, Lord, display upon the earth thy glory all abroad.
6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at libertie :
Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
7 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
wherefore my joyes abound :
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.
8 And Gilead shall be mine own, Manasses mine shall be:
My head-strength, Ephraim; and law shall Judah give for me.
9 Moab my washtpot, and my shoe on Edom will I throw :
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
10 Who shall into the citie strong be guide to conduct me ?
Or how, by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be ?
11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadst us forsaken quite ?
And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts didst not go forth to fight ?
12 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assail :
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.
13 Through God we shall do valiant acts and worthy of renown,
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them down.

Deus laudem tuam. Psal. cix. N.

I IN speechlesse silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue alwaies :

Psalme cix.

O God, even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.
2 The wicked and the guilefull mouth on me disclosed be :
And they with false and lying tongues have spoken unto me.
3 They did beset me round about with words of hatefull spight :
Without all cause of my desert against me they did fight.
4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray :
5 My good with ill, my friendlinesse with hate they did repay.
6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand :
At his right hand eke suffer thou his hatefull foe to stand.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes be turned into sinne.
8 Few be his dayes, his charge also let thou another take :
9 His children let be fatherless, his wife a widow make.
10 Let his offspring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread :
Wandering out of the wasted place where erst they have been fed.
11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store :
And let the stranger spoil the fruit of all his toil before.
12 Let there be none to pitie him, let there be none at all That on his children fatherless will let their mercie fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posteritie for ever be destroy'd :
Their name out blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedness from Gods remembrance fall :
And let not thou his mothers sinne be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for ay :
That from the earth their memorie
he may cut clean away.
16 Sith mercie he forgot to shew, but did pursue with spite

The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull-hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so:

And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be farre him fro.

18 As he with cursing clad himself, so it like water shall

Into his bowels, and like oyl into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
to cover him for ay:

And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.

20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:

Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou, O Lord, that art my God, deal thou, I say, with me

After thy name, deliver me;
for good thy mercies be.

22 Because in depth of great distresse
I needie am and poore:

And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade:

And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.

24 With fasting long from needfull food enfeebled are my knees:

And all her fatnesse hath my flesh enforced been to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproch to them am made to be:

And they that did upon me look did shake their heads at me.

26 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:

According to thy mercie, Lord, save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mightie hand:

And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blesse with loving voice:

They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoyce.

29 Let them be clothed all with shame,
that enemies are to me:

And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth give thanks unto the Lord:

And I among the multitude his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poore man by,

To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. cx. N.

THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I have made thy foes a stool, whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the sceptre of thy might:

Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.

3 And in the day on which thy reigne and power they shall see:

Then hereby free-will-offerings shall the people offer thee.

Yea, with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all:

Thy births dew is the dew that doth from wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say:

By th' order of Melchisedech thou art a priest for ay.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand that standeth for thy stay,

Shall wound for thee the stately kings upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill the place with bodies dead:

And over divers countreys shall in sunder smite the head.

7 And he shall drink out of the brook that runneth in the way:

Wherefore he shall lift up on high his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxi. N.

Vith heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,

In preience of the just.

2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound

As do him love and trust.

3 His works are glorious,

Also his righteousness

Ido th endure for ever.

4 His wondrous work he would
We still remember should,
His mercie faileth never.

5 Such as to him love bear,
A portion full fair
He hath up for them laid:
For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.

6 For he did not disdain
His work to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his works ensueth
Both judgement, right, and truth, Whereto his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure,
Which equitie doth end.
Redemption he gave His people for to save;

9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail;
But alwayes to prevail:
His holy name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full faine
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for ay.

Beatus vir. Psal. cxii. W. K.

THe man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed:
2 His seed on earth God will uprear,
And blese such as from him proceed.
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darknesse light.
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwayes in his sight.

5 Yea, pitie moveth such to lend,
He doth by judgement things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail,
For in remembrance had is he:

7 No tidings ill can make him quail
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poore provide,

His righteousness shall still remain:

And his estate with praise abide,

Though that the wicked man disdain.

10 Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. cxiii. W. K.

YE children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his name with one accord.

2 Yea, blessed be alwayes his name,

3 Who from the rising of the sunne,
Till it return where it begun,

Is to be praised with great fame.

4 The Lord all people doth surmount;
As for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.

5 With God the Lord who may compare, Whose dwellings in the heavens are?

Of such great power and force is he.

6 He doth abase himself, we know,
Things to behold both here below,

And also in heaven above.

7 The needie out of dust to draw,
And eke the poore which help none saw,

His onely mercie did him move.

8 And so him set in high degree
With princes of great dignitie,

That rule his people with great fame.

9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear:

Therefore praise ye his holy name.

In exitu Israel. Psal. cxiiii. W. W.

When Israel by Gods addresse from Pharaohs land was bent:

And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same train went:

2 In Judah God his glorie shew'd;
his holinesse most bright:

So did the Israelites declare his kingdome, power, and might.

3 The sea it saw, and suddenly as all amaz'd did flee:

The roaring streams of Jordans flood recoyled backwardly.

4 As rams afraid, the mountains skipt, their strength did them forsake:

And as the silly trembling lambes, their tops did beat and shake.

5 What ail'd thee sea, as all amaz'd, so suddenly to flee?

Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?

6 Why shook ye hills, as rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?

Why

Why did your tops, as trembling lambes, for fear quiver and quake?

7 O earth, confesse thy sovereigne Lord, and dread his mightie hand:

Before the face of Jacobs God fear ye both sea and land.

8 I mean the God, which from hard rocks doth cause main fouds appear:

And from the stonie flint doth cause
gush out the fountains clear.

Non nobis, Domine. Psal. cxv. N.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy name give praise, Both for thy mercie and thy truth that are in thee alwayes.

2 Why shall the heathen scornors say,
Where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols silver are and gold, works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth, and do not speak;
and eyes, and do not see:

6 And they have eares joynd to their heads, and do not heare at all:

And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell withall:

7 And hands they have, and handle not;
and feet, and do not go:

A throat they have, yet through the same they make no sound to blow.

8 Those that make them are like to them, and those whose trust they be.

9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:

11 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

12 The Lord hath mindfull been of us, and will us blesse also:

On Israel and on Aarons house his blessings he will shew.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will blesse them all:

Even he will blesse them every one,
the great and eke the small.

14 To you (I say) the living Lord will multiply his grace:

To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say:

Which both the heaven and the earth hath made and set in stay.

16 The heavens, yea the heavens high belong unto the Lord:

The earth unto the sonnes of men
he gave of free accord.

17 They that be dead do not with praise set forth the Lords renown:

Nor any that into the place of silence do go down.

18 But we will praise the Lord our God from henceforth and for ay:

Soundye the praises of the Lord;
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. cxvi. N.

I Love the Lord, because my voice and prayer heard hath he:

2 When in my dayes I call'd on him,
he bow'd his eare to me.

3 Even when the snares of cruel death about beset me round:

When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.

4 Upon the name of God my Lord
then did I call, and say,

Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull, and just he is also:

And in our God compassion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safetie doth preserve all those that simple be;

I was in wofull miserie,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my soul, for thou art safe, return unto thy rest:

For largely, lo, the Lord to thee his bountie hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast delivered my soul from deadly thrall:

My moistned eyes from mournfull tears,
my sliding feet from fall:

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:

10 I did believe, therefore I spake, for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distresse and fear, that all men liars be:

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him behight:

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.

15 Right deare and precious in his fight
the Lord doth ay esteem
The death of all his holy ones, what ever men do deem.

16 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo,
I do my self confesse, Sonne of thy handmaid: thou hast broke the bonds of my distresse.

17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:

And I will call upon the name of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him behight:

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.

19 Yea, in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee,

O thou Ierusalem, I say;
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxvii. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwayes:

And all ye people every where set forth his noble praise.

2 For great his kindnesse is to us,
his truth endures for ay:

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Confitemini. Psal. cxviii. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:

Because his mercie doth endure for ever towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
His mercie dures for ay:

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercie dures for ay.

4 Let all that fear the Lord our God even now confesse and say,

The mercie of the Lord our God endureth still for ay.

5 In trouble and in heavinesse unto the Lord I cri'd:

Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deni'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,

Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them that help to succour me:

Therefore I shall see my desire upon mine enemye.

8 Better it is to trust in God
then in mans mortall seed:

9 Or to put confidence in kings or princes in our need.

10 All nations have enclosed me,
and compassed me round:

But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in, I say:

But in the Lords most mightie name
I shall work their decay.

12 They came about me all like bees;
but yet in the Lords name

I quencht their thorns that were on fire, and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me that I indeed might fall:

But through the Lord I found such help that they were vanquisht all.

14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my mirth, my song:

He is become for me indeed a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to passe great things:

He causeth voice of joy and health in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mightie things to passe:

His hand hath the preeminence, his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare

The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his works, and what they are.

18 The Lord himself hath chastened and hath corrected me:

But hath not given me over yet to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteounesse:

That I may enter into them
the Lords praise to expresse.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord, which shall not so be shut
But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.

22 The stone which ere this time among the builders was refused,
Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold with eyes that noble act.

24 This is the joyfull day indeed which God himself hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein in heart, in mind, in thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us we wish with one accord.

26 Blessed is he that comes to us in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light, binde ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar, and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse, and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. cxix. W. W.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whose lives and conversations from Gods laws never start.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray
nor do no wicked thing, Which stedfastly walk in his way without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandment, that with attentive heed Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please my wayes so to addresse,
That I might both in heart and voice thy laws keep and confesse!

6 So should no shame my life attaint, whilst I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my mind alwayes to muse on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart, and magnifie thy name,
When I shall learn thy judgements just,
and likewise prove the same.

8 And wholly will I give my self to keep thy laws most right:
For sake me not for ever, Lord, but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

9 By what means may a young man best his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.

10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought, and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

12 We magnifie thy name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceast to preach and publish day and night
The judgements all which did proceed from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes please me no lesse indeed
Then all the treasures of the earth, which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse, and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark, so will I aim thy wayes how I may walk.

16 My onely joy shall be so fixt, and on thy laws so set:
That nothing can me so farre blind, that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which were dimme and shut up,
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth, wandering now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose
my footsteps for to clear.

20 My soul is ravisht with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgements high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious thou hast destroy'd each one:
And curst are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.

22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and shame which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants with zeal as hot as fire.

23 The princes great in counsel sat,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.

24 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve in stead of counsellors,
my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

25 I am, alas, as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.

26 My wayes when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didst heare: Heare now eftsoun, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.

27 Teach me once throughly for to know thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.

28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd, that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.

29 From lying and deceitfull lips let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love, thy holy law me send.

30 The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found:
I set thy thy judgements me before,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then, O Lord, I forc'd my self thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke nor check in any case.

32 Then will I runne with joyfull cheer where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right trade of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end
my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With heart and minde and all my might
I will it keep, I say.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me, Lord, I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord, shield me with thy grace.

37 From vain desires and worldly lusts turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power to walk thy wayes aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord, which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy servant, and do love and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so fear,
from me, O Lord, expell:
For thou dost judge with equitie, and therein dost excell.

40 Behold, my hearts desire is bent thy laws to keep for ay:
Lord, strengthen me so with thy grace that it perform I may.

VAV. The sixth part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtain, O Lord:
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouthes of lewd men and unjust:
For in thy faithfull promises stands my comfort and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest:
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.

44 And whilst that breath within my breast doth naturall life preserve:
Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how for to keep thy precepts and thy read.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe, as things of most great fame:
Even before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey thy worthy hefts and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.

48 My hands I will lift to thy laws which I have dearly sought:
And practise thy commandements in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember:
For therein have I put my trust and confidence for ever.

50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.

51 The proud and such as God contemn still made of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn:

52 But call'd to minde, Lord, thy great works shew'd to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred-fold.

53 But yet, alas, for fear I quake, seeing how wicked men Thy law forlook, and did procure thy judgements who knows when?

54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep:
As for thy law also I kept,
and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and deare
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay,
I have decreed and promised thy laws to keep alway.

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined, and tri'd my secret heart:
Which to thy statutes caused me my feet straight to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long, as they that slothfull are:
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men have made of me their prey:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
so great are and so high:
That even at midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them which fear thee in their heart:
And never will for love nor dread from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord, so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundrie sorts have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge alwayes aright, and give me knowledge sure:
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
I err'd and went astray:
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giv'st most liberally:
Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore, O Lord, teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd against me many a lie:
Yet thy commandments still observe with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly wealth,
as grease so are they fat:
But in thy law do I delight, and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time, may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law is dearer manifold
Then thousands great of silver and gold, or ought that can be told.

JOD. The tenth part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge like wise how to learn to put thy laws in ure.

74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy word to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd,
I know the cause is just:
So when thou dost correct me, Lord,
the cause just needs be must.

76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy servant heldest,
so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercies poure on me,
and I shall surely live:
For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give.

78 Confound the proud, whose false pretence is me for to destroy:
But as for me, thy helpe to know
I will my self employ.

79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering let on thy laws be bent:
That no confusion come to me whereby I should be shent.

CAPH. The xi part.

81 My soul doth faint, and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words sake still I trust my hearts desire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say, Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord?
why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and dri'd:

Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandments slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet live
before I see the houre, That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou will poure?

85 Presumptuous men have digged pits, thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causlesse they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain, that thou mightst me relieve.

87 Almost they had me clean destroy'd, and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore me, Lord, again to life, for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keep till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xii part.

89 In heaven, Lord, where thou dost dwell, thy word is stablish't sure:
And shall for all eternity fast graven there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witnesse:
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure as no tongue can expresse.

91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere
According to thine ordinance, for all things thee revere.

92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought,
Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts ay,
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws mine eares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait:
But I the while considered thy noble works and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world at length which hath not end:
But thy commandments and thy word beyond all end extend.

MEM. The xiii part.

97 What great desire and fervent love do I beare to thy law!

All the day long my whole device is onely on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me farre to passe
my foes in policie:

For still I hold it as a thing of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:

Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.

100 In wisdome I do passe also the ancient men indeed:

And all because to keep thy laws
I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I have refrained eke from every evil way,

Because that I continually thy word might keep, I say.

102 I have not swerv'd from thy judgements,
nor yet shrunk any dell:

For why? thou hast me taught thereby to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
finde I thy words alway?

Doubtlesse no honie in my mouth feel ought so sweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me such wisdome learn'd, that utterly I hate.

All wicked and ungodly wayes,
in every kinde or rate.

NUM. The xiiii part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright:

And to my paths where ever I go it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn and will perform most certainly doubtlesse

That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress, and brought me to deaths doore:

O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart and voice most frankly I thee give Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soul is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assail:

Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets to catch me at a bay,

Yet did I not from thy precepts once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway
as mine own heritage:

And why? for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent thy statutes to fulfill:

Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

SAMECH. The xv part.

113 The craftie thoughts and double hearts
I do alwayes detest:

But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place, my shield of strong defence:

Therefore have I thy promises
lookt for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men, depart from me anon:

For the commandments will I keep of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promised so perform, that death me not assail:

Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe for ought they do or say:

And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break:

For nought avails their subtiltie, their counsel is but weak.

119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out where ere they go or dwell:

Therefore can I as thy statutes love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh (alas) is taken with fear,
as though it were benumm'd:

For when I see thy judgements, straight
I am as one aston'd.

AIN. The xvi part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right:

Resigne me not to them that would oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy servant suretie be in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foil,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind,
thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord, whereby thou wilt me save.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellencie teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am, grant me to understand How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite decar'd:
Thy law likewise they have transgress'd, and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love thy laws better then gold, Or jewels fine which are esteem'd most costlly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All craftie and malicious wayes
I do abhorre therefore.

PE. The xvii part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderfull, and full of things profound:
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are tri'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word
they find a light most clear:
And very idiots understand when they it reade or heare.

131 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

132 With mercie and compassion, Lord, behold me from above,
As thou art wont to behold such as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word, that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquitie thy servant overthrow.

134 From slanderous tongues and deadly harms preserve and keep me sure:
Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount the sunne in his bright hue, Let shine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eschew.

136 Out of mine eyes great flouds gush out of drearie tears and fell,
When I behold how wicked men thy laws keep never a dell.

ZADE. The xviii part.

137 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce, thou art a righteous judge.

138 To fender right, and flee from guile, are two chief points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law commanded us straitly.

139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd and even pin'd away,
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word, as any heart can deem:
And I thy servant nothing more do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of bale degree:
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.

142 Thy righteousness, Lord, is most just,
for ever to endure:
Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grief have seisd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts delight to heare and know.

144 The righteousness of thy judgements doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

KOPH. The xix part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.

146 To thee, my God, I make my suit with most humble request:
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy hefts.

147 To thee I crie even in the morn before the day wax light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night,
and ere they call I wake:
That by devising on thy word
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my voice, and pitie on me take:
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw neare, and do procure my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are farre gone back,
and stray'd from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neare, for need doth so require:
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.

152 But thy commandments have I learn'd not now but long ago,
That they remain for evermore, thou hast them grounded so.

RESH. The xix part.

153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold:
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed some succour send:
From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, farre they are from having health and grace: Whereby they might thy statutes know they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant, what tongue can them attain?
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk, nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is, for grief I die when I these traitours see:
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy laws with heart most glad and faine:
As thou art good and gracious, Lord, restore my life again.

160 What thy word doth decree must be,
and so it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgements are also most true, and decay never.

SCHIN. The xxi part.

161 Princes have sought by crueltie causelesse to make me crouch:
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch:

162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merrie and glad,
Then he that of rich spoils and prey great store and plentie had.

163 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest:
For why? thy holy law do I above all things love best.

164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord, singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull
so cause me to rejoyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such have as dothy statutes love:
No danger shall their quiet state empair or once remove.

166 My onely health and comfort, Lord,
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done those things which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been mine exercise,
wich my soul most desired:
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I required.

168 Thy statutes and commandments
I kept (thou know'st) aright:
For all the things that I have done are present in thy sight.

TAL. The xxii part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry before thy face appear:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.

170 Mine humble supplication toward thee let find accesse:
And grant me, Lord, deliverance, for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tongue shall sing & preach thy word and on this wise say shall, Gods famous acts and noble laws are just and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech, and speedily me save:
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.

174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health, for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long dayes to live
thy name to magnifie:

And of thy judgements mercifull
let me the favour trie.

176 For I was lost and went astray much like a wandering sheep:

Oh seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep

Ad Dominum. Psal. cxx. T. S.

IN trouble and in thrall

Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.

2 Deliver me, I say,

From liars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.

3 What vantage, or what thing

Get'st thou thus for to sting,
Thou false and flattering liar?

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,

No lesse then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas, too long I slack

Within these tents so black,

Which Kedars are by name:

By whom the flock elect

And all of Isaacs sect

Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate

I came a peace to make

And set a quiet life:

But when my tale was told,

Causelesse I was controld

By them that would have strife.

Levavi oculos. Psal. cxxi. W. W.

I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill.

From whence I do attend

That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour will,

Which heaven & earth framed,

And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,

And will thee safely keep,

For he will never sleep.

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve

No sleep at all can him catch,

But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,

The Lord eke doth thee cover

As at thy right hand ever:

6 The sunne shall not thee parch by day,

Nor the moon not half so bright

Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distresse,

And will thy life sure save:

And thou shalt also have

8 In all thy businesse good successe.

Where ever thou goest in or out,

God will thy things bring about.

Letatus sum. Psal. cxxii. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoyce

To heare the peoples voice,

In offering so willingly:

2 For let us up say they,

And in the Lords house pray:

Thus spake the folk full lovingly.

3 Our feet that wandred wide

Shall in thy gates abide,

O thou Jerusalem full fair,

Which art so seemly set,

Much like a city neat,

The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The tribes with one accord,

The tribes of God the Lord

Are thither bent their way to take:

So God before did tell

That there his Israel

Their prayers should together make

5 For there are thrones erect,

And that for this respect,

To set forth justice orderly:

Which thrones right to maintain

To Davids house pertain,

His folk to judge accordingly.

6 To pray let us not cease

For Jerusalems peace,

Thy friends God prosper mightily:

7 Peace be thy walls about,

And prosper thee throughout

Thy palaces continually.

8 I wish thy prosperous state

For my poore brethrens sake,

That comfort have by means of thee.

9 Gods house doth me allure

Thy wealth for to procure

So much alwayes as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Psal. cxxiii. T. S.

O Lord, that heaven dost possesse,

I lift mine eyes to thee:

Even as the servant listeth his,

his masters hands to see.

2 As handmaids watch their mistris hand some grace for to achieve:

So we behold the Lord our God,

till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compassion, and mercy in thy sight:

For we are fill'd and overcome with hatred and despight.
4 Our mindes be stufte with great rebuke,
the rich and wordly wise
Do make of us their mockingstocks, the proud do us despise.

Nisi quia Dom. Psal. cxxiiii. W. W.

Now Israel
may say & that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd,
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd, When all the world
against us furiously Made their uproars,
and said we should all die:

3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
4 And as the floods with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall,

5 The raging streams,
most proud in roaring noise,
Had long ago
overwhelm'd us in the deep:
6 But lov'd be God which doth us safely keep From bloudie teeth,
and their most cruel voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird out of the fowlers gin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.

8 God that made heaven and earth is our help then:
His name hath sav'd us from these wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. cxxv. W. R.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand.
The Lord will count them right and just:
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure.

2 As mighty mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so deare,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he
By making wicked men his rod,
Lest they through grief forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be.

4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside
By crooked wayes which they our sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought:
With workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell,

Another of the same, by R. W.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely,
And flee to him for their defence
In all their need and misery:
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone, Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem
The mighty hills do it compasse,
So that no enemies come to them
To hurt that town in any case:
So God indeed in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly
The sinners and ungodlies rod
To tarry upon his family:
Lest they also from God should go,
Falling to sinne and wickednesse.
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodnesse.

O Lord do good to Christians all That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end:
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Sonne our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost, whose light Shine in our hearts, and us succour:

That

That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie:
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

In convertendo. Psal. cxxvi. W. W.

Vhen that the Lord again his Sion had forth brought:
From bondage great,
and also servitude extreame:
His work was such as did surmount mans heart and thought:
So that we were much like to them that use to dream.

2 Our mouthes were with laughter filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew us joyfull men.

The heathen folk were forced then this to confesse, How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.

3 But much more we,
and therefore can confesse no lesse:

Wherefore to joy
we have good cause as we begun.

4 O Lord, go forth,
thou canst our bondage end:

As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

5 Full true it is that they which sow in tears indeed,
A time will come when they shall reap in mirth and joy.

6 They went and wept in bearing of their precious seed,

For that their foes full oftentimes did them annoy:

But their return with joy they shall sure see,
Their sheaves home bring,
and not empai'd be.

Nisi Dom. Psal. cxxvii. W. W.

EXcept the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand:

What men do build it cannot stand.

Likewise in vain men undertake Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safegard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread,

Yet were your labour lost and worn:
But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ever ye see
That men have heirs to enjoy their land,
It is the gift of Gods own hand:

For God himself doth multiply
Of his great liberalitie
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age
They grow in strength and activenesse,
In person and in comeliness:

So that a shaft shot with courage
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 O well is he that hath his quiver
Furnisht with such artillerie:
For when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never shake nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the judge
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. cxxviii. T. S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God and walkest in his way:

2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat, happy art thou, I say.

3 Like fruitfull vines on thy house-side
so doth thy wife spring out:

Thy children stand like olive-plants thy table round about.

4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God, and he shall let thee see

5 The promised Jerusalem and her felicitie.

6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great joyes increase:

And likewise grace on Israel, prosperity and peace.

Sape expugnaverunt. Psal. cxxix. N.

Oft they (now Israel may say) me from my youth assail'd:

2 Oft they assail'd me from my youth, yet never they prevail'd.

3 Upon my back the plowes plow'd,
and furrows long did cast:

4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked foes at last.

5 They that hate me shall be asham'd, and turned back also:

6 And made as grasie upon the house, which withereth ere it grow:

7 Whereof the mower cannot find enough to fill his hand:

Nor can he fill his lap, that goeth to glean upon the land.

8 Nor passers by pray God on them to let his blessing fall:

Nor say, We blesse you in the name of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. cxxx. W. W.

Lord to thee I make me mone
when dangers me oppresse:
I call, I sigh, plain and grone, trusting to find release.
2 Heare now, O Lord, my request, for it is full due time:
And let thine eares aye be prest unto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh our sinnes and them peruse:
Who shall then escape, and say,
I can my self excuse?

4 But, Lord, thou art mercifull, and turn'st to us thy grace,
That we with hearts most carefull should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust, my soul waits on his will:
For his promise is most just,
and I hope therein still.

6 My soul to God hath regard, wishing for him alway
More then they that watch and ward to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put is trust:
He is that God of mercy that his deliver must.

8 For he it is that must save Israel from his sinne,
And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

Domine, non est. Psal. cxxxi. M.

O Lord I am not puffed in minde,
I have no scornfull eye:

I do not exercise my self in things that be too high.

2 But as the child that weaned is even from his mothers breast:

So have I, Lord, behav'd my self in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel, trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay
From this time forth for evermore,
from age to age, I say.

Memento, Dom. Psal. cxxxii. M.

Remember Davids troubles, Lord,
how to the Lord he swore,

2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
to keep for evermore:

3 I will not come within my house,
nor climbe up to my bed:

4 Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head,

5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:

An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata, there did we heare this sound:
And in the fields and Forrests there these voices first were found.

7 We will assay, and go in now his tabernacle there,
Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say, into thy resting-place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord, with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy sains and holy men sing all with joyfulness.

10 And for thy servant Davids sake, refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth, and will not shrink from it, Saying, The fruit of thy bodie upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sonnes my covenant keep that I shall learn each one:
Then shall their sonnes for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion, and loves therein to dwell,

14 Saying, This is my resting-place,
I love and like it well.

15 And I will blesse with great increase her victuals every where:
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

16 Yea, I will deck and clothe her priests with my salvation:
And all her saints shall sing for joy of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the horn of David for to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

17 As for his enemies, I will clothe with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine more fresh then heretofore.

Ecce quam. Psal. cxxxiii. W. W.

O How happie a thing it is,
and joyfull for to see,

Brethren together fast to hold the band of amitie!

2 It calls to minde that sweet perfume, and that costly ointment Which on the sacrificers head by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone, but drencht his beard throughout,
And finally it did runne down his rich attire about.

3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill,
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill:

4 Even so the Lord doth poure on them
his blessings manifold, Whose hearts and mindes without all guile this knot do keep and hold.

Ecce nunc. Psal. cxxxiiii. W. W.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord,
Which in his house by night do watch:
praise him with one accord.

2 Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place,
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion blesse and will conserue for evermore the same.

Laudate nomen. Psal. cxxxv. N.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him,
praise him with one accord:

O praise him still all ye that be the servants of the Lord:

2 O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord:
Ye of his court, and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

3 Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his name:
It is a comely and good thing alwayes to do the same.

4 For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob his very own ye see:

So hath he chosen Israel his treasure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right sure the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods most easie to intreat.

6 For whatsoever pleased him
all that full well he wrought:
In heaven, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds even from the earth,
he makes lightnings and rain,
He bringeth forth the windes also,
he made nothing in vain.

8 He smote the first-born of each thing in Egypt that took rest:
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaoh thy curst king, and his severe servants.

10 He smote then many nations, and did great acts and things:
He slew the great and mightiest and chiefest of their kings.

11 Schon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Basan:
He slew also the kingdomes all that were of Canaan:

12 And gave their land to Israel, and heritage we see,
To Israel his own people,
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy name, O Lord, shall still endure, and thy memoriall
Throughout all generations that are or ever shall.

14 The Lord will surely now avenge his people all indeed:
And to his servants he will shew favour in time of need.

15 The idols of the heathen are made in all the coasts and lands;
Of silver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.

16 They have their mouthes, & cannot speak, and eyes that have no sight:

17 They have eke eares, and heare nothing, their mouthes be breathlesse quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that so do set them forth:

And

And likewise those that trust in them, or think they be ought worth.

19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Levi's house, praise ye likewise the Lord:
And ye that stand in a w of him,
praise him with one accord.

21 And out of Sion sound his praise, the great praise of the Lord
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem:
praise him with one accord.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cxxxvi. N.

PRaise ye the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Give praise unto the God of gods,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Give praise unto the Lord of lords,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Which onely doth great wondrous works,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 Which by his wisdom made the heavens,
for his mercie endureth for ever.

6 Which on the waters stretcht the earth,
for his mercie endureth for ever.

7 Which made great lights to shine abroad,
for his mercie, &c.

8 As sun to rule the lightsome day,
for his mercie, &c.

9 The moon and starres to guide the night,
for his mercie, &c.

10 Which smote Egypt with their first-born,
for his mercie, &c.

11 And Israel brought out from thence,
for his mercie, &c.

12 With mightie hand and stretched arm,
for his mercie, &c.

13 Which cut the Red sea in two parts,
for his mercie, &c.

14 And Israel made passe there-through,
for his mercie, &c.

15 And drowned Pharaoh and his host,
for his mercie, &c.

16 Through wildernesse his people led,
for his mercie, &c.

17 He which did smite great noble kings,
for his mercie, &c.

18 And which hath slain the mightie kings,
for his mercie, &c.

19 As Schon king of Amorites,
for his mercie, &c.

20 And Og the king of Basan land,
for his mercie, &c.

21 And gave their land for heritage,
for his mercie, &c.

22 Even to his servant Israel,
for his mercie, &c.

23 Remembring us in base estate,
for his mercie, &c.

24 And from oppressours rescued us,
for his mercie, &c.

25 Which giveth food unto all flesh,
for his mercie, &c.

26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above,
for his mercie endureth for ever.

27 Givethanks unto the Lord of lords,
for his mercie endureth for ever.

Another of the same, by T. C.

OLaud the Lord benigne, Whose mercies last for ay:

2 Give thanks and praises sing
To God of gods, I say:

For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure Eternally.

3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies ay do dure:

4 Great wonders onely he Doth work by his great power.
For certainly, &c.

5 Which God omnipotent
By his great wisdom high
The heavenly firmament
Did frame as we may see.
For certainly, &c.

6 Yea, he the heayie charge
Of all the earth did stretch:
And on the waters large
The same he did out-reach.
For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be;
For why? his love is ay:

8 Such as the sun we see,
To rule the lightsome day.
For certainly, &c.

9 And eke the moon so clear
Which shineth in our sight,
And starres that do appear,
To guide the darksome night.
For certainly, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and sore
All Egypt smote he than:
The first-born lesse and more.

He

He slew of beast and man.
For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidst their land
His Israel forth brought:

12 Which he with mighty hand
And stretched arm hath wrought.
For certainly, &c.

13 The sea he cut in two,
Which stood up like a wall:

14 And made through it to go
His chosen children all.
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then

The proud king Pharaoh,
With his huge host of men,
And chariots eke also.
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wilderness
His people safe and sound:

17 And for his love endlesse
Great kings he brought to ground.
For certainly, &c.

18 And slew with puissant hand
Kings mightie and of fame:

19 As of Amorites land
Sehon the king by name.
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og (the giant large)
Of Basan king also:

21 Whose land for heritage
He gave his people tho.
For certainly, &c.

22 Even unto Israel

His servant deare, I say,
He gave the same to dwell,
And there abide for ay.
For certainly, &c.

23 To minde he did us call
In our most base degree:

24 And from oppressours all
In safetie set us free.
For certainly, &c.

25 All flesh in earth abroad
With food he doth fulfill:

26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To laud be it your will.
For certainly, &c.

Super flumina. Psal. cxxxvii. W. W.

Vhen as we sat in Babylon
the rivers round about,
And in remembrance of Sion
the tears for grief burst out:

2 We hang'd ours harps and instruments
the willow-trees upon:
For in that place men for their use had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to us tauntingly,
Now let us heare your Hebrew songs, and pleasant melodie.

4 Alas! said we, who can once frame his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our loving God, thus under a strange king?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget the warbling harp to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth be ty'd for ever fast,
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now the cursed noise and crie That Edoms sonnes against us made, when they ras'd our city.

Remember, Lord, their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, On, sack, and rase their walls, in despite of their Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon, at length to dust be brought:
And happie shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.

9 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd, that takes thy children young,
To dash their bones against hard stones that lie the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxxxviii. N.

Thee will I praise with my whole heart,
my Lord my God, alwayes:
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankfull mouth thy holy name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindnesse sake,
and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy name hast by thy word advanced over all.

3 When I did call thou heardest me, and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength within my soul to grow.

4 Yea, all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord :
For they of thy most holy mouth have heard the mighty word.

5 They of the wayes of God the Lord in singing shall entreat :
Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high, and yet he doth behold the lowly spirit :
But he ( contemning ) knows afarre
the proud and lofty wight.

7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand Renewed by thee : O my Lord, thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes, and saved shall I be By thy right hand : the Lord God will performe his work to me.

8 Thy mercy, Lord, endures for ay,
Lord, do me not forsake :
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

Domine, probasti. Psal. cxxxix. N.

O Lord, thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting thou dost know

2 And rising eke, my thoughts afarre thou understand'st also

3 My paths, yea, and my lying down thou compass'st alwayes :
And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee :

5 Thou me behind hold'st and before, thou lay'st thine hand on me.

6 Too wonderfull above my reach,
Lord, is thy cunning skill :
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain untill.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go ?

Or whither shall I fly away thy presence to scape fro ?

8 To heaven if I mount aloft, lo, thou art present there :
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.

9 Yea, let me take the morning wings, and let me go and bide
Even there where are the farthest parts, where flowing sea doth slide :

10 Yea, even thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide :
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, The darknesse shall yet shroud me from thy sight :
Lo, even also the darkest night about me shall be light.

12 Yea, darknesse hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day :
To thee the darknesse and the light are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou posses'sed hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,
When I within my mothers wombe enclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully and wondrously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formlesse, then thine eye saw me : for in thy book Were written all, nought was before that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God, how dear are they to me !
And of them all how passing great the endlesse number be !

18 If I should count them, lo, their summe more then the sand I see :
And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloudy men
O that thou wouldest slay !
Even those, O God, to whom, Depart, depart from me, I say.

20 Even those of thee, O Lord my God, that speak full wickedly :
Those that are lifted up in vain, being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord, and that in earnest wise ?
Contend I not against them all against thee that arise ?

22 I hate them with unfeigned hate, even as my utter foes.

23 Trie me, O God, and know my heart, my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Con-

24 Consider, Lord, if wickednesse in me there any be:
And in thy way, O God my guide, for ever lead thou me.

Eripe me. Psal. cxl. N.

Lord, save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight:

2 And from all those which evil do imagine in their sprite,

Which make on me continuall warre, their tongues lo they have whet

3 Like serpents; underneath their lips is adders poison set.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from wicked hands, preserve me to abide

Free from the cruel man, that means to cause my steps to slide.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and they have spread a net

With cords in my path-way, and gins for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:

Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.

7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the strength that saveth me:

My head in day of battel hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have the end of his desire:

Performe not his ill thoughts, lest he with pride be set on fire.

9 Of them that compasse me about,
the chiefeft of them all,

Lord, let the mischief of their lips upon themselves befall.

10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast them in consuming flame,

And in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.

11 For no backbiter shall on earth be set in stable plight:

And evil to destruction still shall hunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor:

13 The just shall praise thy name: just shall dwell with thee evermore.

Domine, clamavi. Psal. cxli. N.

O Lord, upon thee do I call,
Lord, haste thee unto me:

And hearken, Lord, unto my voice
when I do crie to thee.

2 As incense, let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:

And the uplifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth set thou a watch before:

And also of my moving lips,

O Lord, keep thou the doore.

4 That I should wicked works commit incline thou not my heart:

With ill men of their delicates,
Lord, let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord,
for that is good for me:

Let him reprove me, and the same a precious oyl shall be.

Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall

When I shall in their misery make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stony places down their judges shall be cast:

Then shall they hear my words, for then they have a pleasant taste.

7 Our bones about the graves mouth lo scattered are they found:

As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth up the ground.

8 But, O my Lord my God, mine eyes do look up unto thee:

In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.

9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord, keep me from the snare,

And from the subrill gins of them that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets together let them fall:

While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

Voce mea. Psal. cxlii. N.

Before the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my crie:

And with my strained voice unto the Lord God prayed I.

2 My meditation in his sight to pour I did not spare:

And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:

In way where I did walk a snare
 they slyly laid for me.
 4 I look'd and view'd on my right hand,
 but none there would me know :
 All refuge failed me, and for my soul none cared tho.

5 Then cry'd I, Lord, to thee, and said,
 My hope thou onely art :
 Thou in the land of living art
 my portion and my part.

6 Heark to my crie, for I am brought full low, deliver me
 From them that do me persecute, for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy name, my soul from prison, Lord, bring out:
 When thou art good to me, the just shall presse me round about.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. cxliii. N.

Lord, hear my prayer, heark the plaint
 that I do make to thee:

Lord, in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgement with thy servant, Lord,
 O enter not at all:

For justifi'd be in thy sight not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul, my life to ground hath thrown :
 And laid me in the dark, like them that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexitie was mine accumbred sprite:
 And in me was my troubled heart amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate :

Yea, in thy works I meditate that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands :
 My soul desireth after thee,
 as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fail, hide not thy face me fro :

Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindnesse in the morning hear and know :
 For in thee is my trust, shew me
 the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
 O Lord, deliver me

From all mine enemies : for I have hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
 thou art my God, I say :

Let thy good spirit unto the land of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake with quickning grace alive do thou me make :

And out of trouble bring my soul
 even for thy justice sake.

12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
 O Lord, destroy them all

That do oppresse my soul, for I thy servant am and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Psal. cxliv. N.

Blest be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight :

The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battel by his might;

2 He is my goodnesse, fort, and tower,
 deliverer and shield:

In him I trust ; my people he subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him thou holdest so in price ?

Or son of man, that upon him thou thinkest in such wise ?

4 Man is but like to vanitie, so passe his dayes to end

5 As fleeting shade. Bowe down, O Lord, the heavens and descend.

6 The mountains touch, and they shall smoke, cast forth thy lightning flame

And scatter them : thine arrows shoot, consume them with the same.

7 Send down thine hand even from above,
 O Lord, deliver me :

Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtil mouth of vanitie and fondnesse doth entreat :

And their right hand is a right hand
 of falsehood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God, and singing will I be

On viol and on instrument ten-stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings :

Unto his servant David help from hurtfull sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save and shield, whose mouth talks vanity :

G

And

And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtilty.

12 That our 'sons may be as the plants whom growing youth doth rear:

Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones,
like to a palace fair:

13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry sorts be found:

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade:

There be no goings out, nor cries within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:

Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Psal. cxlv. N.

Thee will I laud, my God and king,
and blesse thy name for ay:

2 For ever will I praise thy name, and blesse thee day by day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach:

4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious majestie
the beauty will record:

And meditate upon thy works
most wonderfull, O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acts declare:

And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great:

And I aloud thy righteousnesse in singing shall repeat.

8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also:

Of great abounding mercy, and to anger he is slow.

9 Yea, good to all, and all his works his mercy doth exceed:

10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord, and do thy honour spread.

11 Thy saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glory show:

12 And blaze thy powe, to cause the sonnes of men thy power to know.

The second part.

And of his mighty kingdome eke to spread the glorious praise:

13 Thy kingdome, Lord, a kingdome is that doth endure alwayes:

And thy dominion through each age, endures without decay.

14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall, their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee:
thou dost them all relieve:

And thou to each sufficing food in season due dost give.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand, and bounteously dost fill

All things whatsoever do live with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his wayes, his works are holy all.

18 Neare all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

19 He the desires which they require that fear him will fulfill:

And he will heare them when they crie,
and save them all he will.

20 The Lord preserves all those, to him that bear a loving heart:

But he them all that wicked are will utterly subvert.

21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speak
the praises of the Lord:

All flesh to praise his holy name for ever shall accord.

Lauda, anima. Psal. cxlvi. J. H.

MY soul, praise thou the Lord alwayes,
my God I will confesse:

2 While breath and life prolong my dayes,
my tongue no time shall cease.

3 Trust not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth:

Nor in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why? their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall:

And then the counsels of their heart decay and perish all.

5 O happy is that man, I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid,

And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.

6 Which made the earth and waters deep,
the heavens high withall:

Which doth his word and promise keep in truth, and ever shall.

7 With right alwayes doth he proceed for such as suffer wrong:

The poore and hungry he doth feed,
and loofe the fetters strong.

8 The Lord doth fend the blinde their fight,
the lame to limbes reftore :

The Lord, I fay, doth love the right and iuft man evermore.

9 He doth defend the fatherlefse, and ftranger fad in heart,
And quit the widow from diffrefle,
and ill mens wayes fubvert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion, ftill fhall reigne,
In time of all pofterity for ever to remain.

Laudate Dominum. Pfal. cxlvii. N.

PRaife ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to fmg :
For it is pleafant, and to praife
it is a comely thing.

2 The Lord his own Jerufalem
he buildeth up alone :
And the difperft of Ifrael doth gather into one.

3 He heals the broken in their heart, their fores up doth he binde :

4 He counts the number of the ftarres, and names them in their kinde.

5 Great is the Lord, great is his power, his wifdom infinite.

6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praife, unto the Lord rejoyce :

And to our God upon the harp advance your fingmg voice.

8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain :

And on the mountains he doth make the graffe to grow again.

9 He gives to beafts their food, and to young ravens when they crie.

10 His pleafure not in ftrength of horfe
nor in mans legs doth lie :

11 But in all thofe that fear the Lord
the Lord hath his delight, And fuch as do attend upon his mercies fhining light.

The fecond part.

12 O praife the Lord, Jerufalem, thy God, O Sion, praife :

13 For he the barres hath forged ftrong, wherewith thy gates he ftayes.

14 Thy children he hath bleft in thee, and in thy borders he

Doth fettle peace, and with the floure of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon the earth he fendeth out :
And eke his word with fpeedy courfe doth fwiftly run about.

16 He giveth fnow like wooll, hoar-froft like afhes he doth fpread :

17 Like morfels cafts his ice, thereof the cold who can abide ?

18 He fendeth forth his mighty word, and melteth them again :
His winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow a main.

19 The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth fhew :
His ftatutes and his judgements he gives Ifrael to know.

20 With every nation hath he not fo dealt, nor have they known His fecret judgements, ye therefore praife ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Pfal. cxlviii. J. H.

Give laud unto the Lord,
From heaven that is fo high :
Praife him in deed and word,
Above the ftarry fkie.

2 And alfo ye,
His angels all,
Armies royall,
Praife him with glee.

3 Praife him both moon and fun,
Which are fo clear and bright :
The fame of you be done,
Ye gliftering ftarres of light :

4 And eke no leffe,
Ye heavens fair,
And clouds of the aire,
His laud exprefle.

5 For at his word they were All formed as we fee :
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,

6 Which he fet faft :
To them he made
A law and trade
For ay to laft.

7 Extoll and praife Gods name
On earth ye dragons fell :
All deeps do ye the fame,
For it becomes ye well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, fnow,

And storms that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitfull are,
The cedars great and tall
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and cattel,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All kings both more and lesse
With all their pompous train,
Princes and all judges
That in the world remain,
Exalt his name.

12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his name shall we prove To be most excellent,
Whose praise is farre above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The horn of his,
And help them all.

His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse,
The children of Israel
Each one both more and lesse :
And also they
That with good will His words fulfill,
And him obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. cxlix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God
a new rejoycing song :
And let the praise of him be heard his holy saints among.
2 Let Israel rejoyce in him that made him of nothing :
And let the seed of Sion eke be joyfull in their king.

3 Let them sound praise with voice of lute unto his holy name :

And with the timbrel and the harp sing praises of the same.

4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set :
And by deliverance he will raise the meek to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now let all his saints rejoyce :
And now aloud upon their beds advance their singing voice.

6 And in their mouths let be the acts of God the mighty Lord :
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double-edged sword :

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands :

8 To binde their stately kings in chains,
their lords in iron bands :

9 To execute on them the doom that written is before.

This honour all his saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cl. N.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his sanctuary :

And praise him in the firmament, that shews his power on high.

2 Advance his name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes :
According to his excellencie of greatnesse give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise of sounding trumpets blow :
Praise him upon the viol, and upon the harp also.

4 Praise him with timbrel and with flute, organs and virginals :

5 With sounding cymbals praise ye him, praise him with loud cymbals.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord.
To praise the name of God the Lord agree with one accord.

The end of the PSALMES.

VENI CREATOR.

Come holy Ghost, eternall God, proceeding from above,
Both from the Father and the Sonne,
the God of peace and love.

Visit our mindes, and into us thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godlinesse
we may have true desire.

Thou art the very comforter
in all wo and distresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse:

The fountain and the lively spring of joy celestiaall:
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Christs church doth stand:
In faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.

According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God may stand in every place.

O holy Ghost, into our wits send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weaknesse,
so feeble and so frail:
That neither flesh, the world, nor devil, against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies farre from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or disdain.

And grant, O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide,
We may eschew the snares of sinne,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord, grant we thee pray,
That thou mayst be our comforter at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and dissention,
O Lord, dissolve the bands;
And make the knots of peace and love throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Sonne
we may attain the sight:

And that with perfect faith also we may acknowledge thee,
The spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Sonne equall,
And to the holy Spirit also,
one God coeternall.

And pray we that the onely Sonne vouchsafe his Spirit to send To all that do professe his name, unto the worlds last end.

The humble suit of a sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I do depend,
behold my carefull heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.

Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me;

But onely thou whose aid I crave, whose mercy still is prest To ease all those that come to thee for succour and for rest.

And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous grone;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord, mark well my plaint and mone.

For sinne hath so enclosed me,
and compassed me about,
That I am now remedilesse, if mercy help not out.

For mortall man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God, who for my sinnes was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye:
Yet do thy saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.

Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him, and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine angels and thy saints
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy name.

But whilst I live here in this vale where sinners do frequent, Assist me ever with thy grace
my sinnes still to lament.

Lest that I tread the sinners trace, and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickednesse, whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy church and house of saints sing psalms to thee alwayes.

Venite, exultemus. Psal. xcvi.

O Come and let us now rejoyce,
And sing unto the Lord,
And to our onely saviour
Also with one accord.

O let us come before his face
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former finnes,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits
Alwayes distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In psalmes now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where,
And doth behol'd the tops of all
The mountains farre and neare.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord, and King,
And we his people are,
His flock and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart,
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your fathers tempted me
And tri'd me every way:
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These fourty yeares I have been griev'd
With this same generation:
And evermore I said, They err'd
In their imagination:

Wherewith their hearts were sore cumbred
Long time and many dayes:
Wherefore I said, Assuredly
They have not known my wayes.

To whom I in my anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestially,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patri.

All laud and praise be to thee, Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Father, and the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was for ever heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The song of saint Ambrose, called Te Deum.

WE praise thee, God, we knowledge thee
the onely Lord to be;
And as eternall Father, all the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all angels cry, the heavens and all the powers therein:
To thee cherub and seraphin to cry they do not lin,

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of sabaoth Lord the God;
Through heaven and earth thy praise is spread and glory all abroad.
Th' apostles glorious company yield praises unto thee:
The prophets goodly fellowship praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee alwayes.

Father

Father of endlesse majesty
they do acknowledge thee :
Thy Christ thine honourable, true, and onely sonne to be.

The holy Ghost the comforter;
of glory thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Sonne everlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclos'd in virgins wombe thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might, Thou heavens kingdome didst set ope to each believing wight.
In glory of the Father thou dost sit on Gods right hand :
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.

Lord, help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood,
And in eternall glory set them with thy saints so good.
O Lord, do thou thy people save,
blesse thine inheritance :
Lord, govern them, and, Lord, do thou for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy name : O Lord, vouchsafe us to defend
From sinne this day : have mercy, Lord, have mercy on us all;
And on us, as we trust in thee,
Lord, let thy mercy fall.

O Lord, I have reposed all my confidence in thee :
Put to confounding shame therefore,
Lord, let me never be.

The song of the three children.

- O All ye works of God the Lord, blesse ye the Lord, praise him and magnifie him for ever.
- 1 O ye the angels of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
  - 2 O ye the starrie heavens high,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
  - 3 O ye waters above the skie,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
  - 4 O all ye powers of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
  - 5 O ye the shining sun and moon,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

- 7 O ye the glistering starres of heaven,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 8 O ye the showres and dropping dew,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 9 O ye the blowing windes of God,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 10 O ye the fire and warming heat,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 11 Ye winter and the summer tide,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 12 O ye the dews and binding frosts,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 13 O ye the frosts and chilling cold,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 15 O ye the nights and lightsome dayes,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 18 O let the earth eke blesse the Lord,
yea blesse the Lord, &c.
- 19 O ye the mountains and the hills,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 20 O all ye green things on the earth,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 21 O ye the ever-springing wells,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 22 O ye the seas and eke the flouds,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 23 Whales and all that in waters move,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 24 O all ye flying fowls of th' aire,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 25 O all ye beasts and cattel eke,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 26 O ye the children of mankinde,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 27 Let Israel eke blesse the Lord,
yea blesse the Lord, &c.
- 28 O ye the priests of God the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 29 O ye the servants of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 30 Ye spirits and souls of righteous men,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 31 Ye holy and ye meek of heart,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.
- 32 O Ananias, blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.
- 33 O Azarias, blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.
- 34 And Misael, eke blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THe onely Lord of Israel

Be praised evermore :

For through his visitation

And mercy kept in store,

His people now he hath redeem'd,

That long have been in thrall,

And spread abroad his saving health

Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servant true,

According to his minde,

And also his anointed king,

As we in scripture finde.

As by his holy prophets all

Oft times he did declare,

The which were since the world began,

His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be delivered

From those that make debate,

Our enemies, and from the hands

Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised

Our father to fulfill,

And think upon his covenant made

According to his will.

And also to perform the oath

Which he before had sworn

To Abraham our father dear,

For us that were forlorn :

That he would give himself for us,

And us from bondage bring

Out of the hands of all our foes,

To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,

And eke in righteousnesse :

And also for to lead our lives

In stedfast holinesse.

And thou, O child, which now art born,

And of the Lord elect,

Shalt be the prophet of the Hig<sup>h</sup>t,

His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face

For to prepare his wayes,

And also for to teach his will

And pleasure all thy dayes.

To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is near :

And that remission of their finnes

Is through his mercy mere.

Whereby the day-spring from on high

Is come us for to visit,

And those for to illuminate

Which do in darknesse sit,

To lighten those that shadowed be

With death, and eke opprest,

And also for to guide our feet

The way to peace and rest.

The song of blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord,

My spirit eke evermore

Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,

Which is my Saviour.

And why? because he did regard,

And gave respect unto

So base estate of his handmaid,

And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations

And generations all,

From this time forth for evermore

Shall me right blessed call ;

Because he hath me magnified,

Which is the Lord of might ;

Whose name be ever sanctified,

And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace

All men he doth inflame,

Throughout all generations

To such as fear his name.

He shewed strength with his great arm,

And made the proud to start,

With all imaginations

That they bear in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones

From their supernall seat,

And did exalt the meek in heart,

As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished

With all things that were good,

And through his power he made the rich

Oft times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance

His mercy every deal,

Hath holpen up assistantly

His servant Israel.

According to his promise made

To Abraham before,

And to his seed successively,

To stand for evermore.

The song of Simcon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord, because my hearts desire

Hath wished long to see

My onely Lord and Saviour,

Thy Sonne before I die :

The joy and health of all mankinde,

Desired long before,

Which now is come into the world

Of mercy bringing store :

Thou sufferest thy servant now

In peace for to depart,

Accord-

According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,
Of thine abundant grace,
In open sight and visible
Before all peoples face,

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan overquell,
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

The symbole or creed of Athanasius, called Quicunque vult.

Vhat man soever he be that salvation will attain,
The catholick belief he must before all things retain.
Which faith unlesse he wholly keep,
and undefiledly,
Without all doubt eternally
he shall be sure to die.

The catholick belief is this,
That God we worship one In trinity, and trinity in unity alone :
So as we neither do confound
the persons of the three;
Nor yet the substance whole of one in sunder parted be.

One person of the Father is,
another of the Sonne, Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
Of Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost, but one the Godhead is :
Like glory, coeternall eke
the majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree :
And such also we do believe the holy Ghost to be.
Uncreate is the Father, and uncreate is the Sonne,
The holy Ghost uncreate, so uncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Sonne, And comprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so,

And in like sort eternall is the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we believe that each of these eternall be :

Yet there but one eternall is and not eternalls three.

As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet uncreate three,
But one incomprehensible, one uncreate hold to be.

Almighty so the Father is,
the Sonne Almighty so,
And in like sort Almighty is the holy Ghost also.

And albeit that every one of these Almighty be ;
Yet there but one Almighty is,
and not Almightyes three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also :

Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God and no moe.

So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Sonne,

And Lord the holy Ghost : yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compell'd to grant
by Christian verity,

Each of the persons by himself both God and Lord to be :

So catholick religion
forbiddeth us alway,

That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three to say.

Of none the Father is, ne made,
ne create, nor begot :

The Sonne is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got :

The holy Ghost is of them both the Father and the Sonne ;

Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three,
one Sonne also, not three :

One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.

None in this trinity before nor after other is :

Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves of all the persons three, Together coeternall all,
and all coequall be.

So unity in trinity,
as said it is before,
And trinity in unity
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soever that salvation will attain,
This faith touching the trinity of force he must retain.
And needfull to eternall life
it is, that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe and eke do know That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God is God and man also:
God of his Fathers substance got before the world began;
And of his mothers substance born in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soul
and humane flesh subsist.
Touching his Godhead, equall with his Father God is he:
Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not personstwo.
One, not by turning of Godhead into the flesh of man;
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one;
But onely by the unity that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soul and flesh but one man is:
So in one person God and man is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to save us all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose again from death,
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God
ch'almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick and dead again he shall appear.

The lamentation of a sinner.

At whose return all men shall rise with bodies new restor'd,
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord,
And they into eternall life shall go that have done well:
Who have done ill, shall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the catholick belief:
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt he saved cannot be.
To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord, turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting fore his sinfull life
Before thy mercy gate.
Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sinne.
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account,
How I have lived here:
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.
I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell:
What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou knowst it well.

O Lord, thou knowst what things be past,
And eke the things that be:
Thou knowst also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.
Before the heavens and earth were made,
Thou knowst what things were then,
As all things else that have been since
Among the sonnes of men.

And can the things that I have done
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou knowst them all, O Lord,
Where they were done, and when.

Wherefore with tears I come to thee
To beg and to intreat,
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound,
Requiring mercy for my sinne,
To heal my deadly wound.

O Lord; I need not to repeat
What I do beg or crave:

Thou

Thou knowst, O Lord, before I ask,
The thing that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the totall summe:
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit,
Lord, let thy mercy come.

The Lords prayer, or Pater noster.

Our Father which in heaven art,
Lord, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same In heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free.
For kingdome, power, and glory thine both now and ever be.

The x. Commandements. Audi, Israel, Exod. xx.

Heark Israel, and what I say give heed to understand;
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst in thraldome live a slave.
None other gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee;
Nor any figure like by thee shall countefeited be,
Of anything in heaven above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in the waters beneath the earth:
to them thou shalt not bow,

Nor shalt them serve: the Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I,
That punish parents faults unto the third and fourth degree, Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love, and my precepts obey.

The name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use:
For him that takes his name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holý keep the sacred sabbath-day:
Six dayes thou labour shalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The seventh day is set by the Lord thy God to rest upon;

No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy sonne,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse, Nor stranger that within thy gates hath his abiding place:

For in six dayes God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make,
And after those his rest he did upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain,
And sacred to himself alone appointed to remain.

Yield honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land the which the Lord thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt not covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his man-servant, nor his maid,
nor ox, nor asse of his,
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The complaint of a sinner.

VVhere righteousness doth say,
Lord, for my sinfull part,
In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert:
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confess
How that continually Thy laws I do transgress.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinnes not in thy sight
Full oft and every day?

The scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth:
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and then
In danger of thy wrath.

Then

Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise;
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteoufnesse none have,
Whereto then shall I trust
My sinfull soul to save,

But truly to that post Whereto I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most?
Lord, let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart so drie,
That I with sinne replete,
May live, and sinne may die:

That being mortified
This sinne of mine in me,
I may be sanctified
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into such mortall sinne,
That my foes infernall
Rejoyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keep
From those infernall foes,
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercy grows.
And I shall sing the songs Confirmed with the just,
That unto thee belongs,
Which art mine onely trust.

A song to be sung before morning prayer. T. B.

PRaise ye the Lord, ye gentiles all, which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right,
For he is full determined on us to pour out his mercy:
And the Lords truth be y' assured abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
and to Jesus Christ his true Sonne, With the holy Ghost in like manner
now and at every season,

A song to be sung before evening prayer.

BEhold now give heed, such as be the Lords servants faithfull and true:
Come praise the Lord every degree, with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our own Gods mansion, Praise ye the Lord so bounteous, which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea, and that in the time of night:
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace, for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven and earth by his power,
Give to you and your nation his blessing, mercy and favour.

Glory be to God the Father, &c.

The ten Commandments of God. Exod. xx. W. W.

ATtend my people and give care,
Offerly things I will thee tell:
See that my words in mind thou bear,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy sovereign Lord and God,
Which have thee brought from carefull thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod:
Make thee no gods on them to call:

2 Nor fashioned form of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sinne will smite.

3 Take not in vain Gods holy name, Abuse it not after thy will:
For so thou might'st soon purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hefts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long dayes and good mayst live
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruel hate,

7 All filthy fornication fear.

8 See thou steal not in any rate.

9 False witness against no man bear.

10 Thy neighbours house wish not to have,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine:
His field, his ox, his ass, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A prayer.

A prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us, O Lord,
To keep these laws our hearts restore:
And cause us all with one accord
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will:
Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy names sake grant us this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ:
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Coxe.

Our Father which in heaven art,
And mak'st us all one brotherhood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God:
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh and grone.

Thy blessed name be sanctifi'd,
Thy holy word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide
To magnifie thy holy name.
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdome come even at this hour,
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into us poure,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Satans rage and filthy band
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, bloud, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from warre, and from bloud-shed,
Also from sicknesse, dearth, and pine:
That we may live in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefulnesse.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull conscience;

As we forgive both great and small
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us, Lord, for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord, into temptation
Lead us not; when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion
Give power and strength to every age.
Arm and make strong thy feeble host
With faith, and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord, from evil deliver us,
The dayes and times are dangerous:
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A blessed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our souls receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universall.

Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have pray'd with one accord.

The twelve articles of the Christian faith.

All my belief and confidence is in the Lord of might;
The Father which all things hath made,
the day and eke the night:
The heavens and the firmament,
and also many a starre:
The earth and all that is therein, which passe mans reason farre.

And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Son, Coequall with the Deity,
and man in flesh and bone:
Conceived by the holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary born,
yet she a virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was for sin in bond and thrall:
He came and offered up himself to death, to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being judge,
Was crucified on the crosse,
and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the sprite:
His body then was buried,
as is our use and rite.
His soul did after this descend into the lower parts:

A dread

A dread unto the wicked sprites, but joy to faithfull hearts.
 And in the third day of his death
 he rose to life again,
 To th' end he might be glorifi'd,
 out of all grief and pain.
 Ascending to the heavens high,
 to sit in glory still O Gods right hand his Father dear,
 according to his will;
 Untill the day of judgement come,
 when he shall come again With angels power (yet of that day we all be uncertain)
 To judge all people righteously, whom he hath dearly bought:
 The living and the dead also,
 which he hath made of nought.
 And in the holy Spirit of God
 my faith, to satisfie,
 The third person in Trinity believe I stedfastly:
 The holy and catholick Church that Gods word doth maintain,
 And holy scripture doth allow,
 which Satan doth disdain.
 And also I do trust to have by Jesus Christ his death Release and pardon of my sinnes, and that onely by faith:
 What time all flesh shall rise again before the Lord of might;
 And see him with their bodily eyes,
 which now do give them light.
 And then shall Christ our Saviour
 the sheep and goats divide,
 And give life everlastingly to those whom he hath tri'de:
 Within his realm celestially in glory for to rest,
 With all his holy company
 of saints and angels blest;
 Which serve the Lord omnipotent obediently each houre:
 To whom be all dominion and praise for evermore.

A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the sermon.

Come holy Spirit the God of might, comforter of us all:
 Teach us to know thy word aright,
 that we do never fall.

O holy Ghost, visit our coast,
 defend us with thy shield:
 Against all sin and wickednesse,
 Lord, help us winne the field.
 Lord, keep our king and his counsel, and give them will and might
 To persevere in thy gospel, which can put sinne to flight.
 O Lord, that giv'st thy holy word,
 send preachers plenteously:
 That in the same we may accord,
 and therein live and die.
 O holy Spirit, direct aright
 the preachers of thy word,
 That thou by them may'st cut down sin
 as it were with a sword.
 Depart not from thy pastours pure,
 but aid them at their need:
 Which break to us the bread of life,
 whereon our souls do feed.
 O blessed Spirit of truth, keep us in peace and unitie, Keep us from sects and errors all,
 and from all papistrie.
 Convert all those that are our foes,
 and bring them to thy light:
 That they and we may well agree,
 and praise thee day and night.
 O Lord, increase our faith in us,
 and love so to abound;
 That man and wife be void of strife,
 and neighbours about us round.
 In our time give thy peace, O Lord,
 to nations farre and nigh:
 And teach them all thy holy word,
 that we may sing to thee.
 All glory to the Trinity that is of mighties most:
 The living Father, and the Son, and eke the holy Ghost.
 As it hath been in all the time that hath been heretofore:
 As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem, Domine.

Give peace in these our dayes, O Lord,
 Great dangers are now at hand:
 Thine enemies with one accord
 Christs name in every land
 Seek to deface,
 Root out and race
 Thy true right worship indeed.

The Lamentation.

Be thou the stay,
 Lord, we thee pray,
 Thou help'st alone in all need.
 Give us that peace that we do lack Through misbelief and ill life:
 Thy word to offer thou dost not slack,
 Whith we unkindly gain-strive.
 With fire and sword
 This healthfull word
 Some persecute and oppresse:
 Some with the mouth
 Confesse the truth
 Without sincere godlinesse.
 Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send,
 With grief and repentance true
 Do pierce our hearts, our lives to amend
 And by faith in Christ renew:
 That fear and dread,
 Warre and bloodshed,
 Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
 May from us slide:
 Thy truth may bide,
 And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord, in thee is all my trust, give care unto my wofull cry:
 Refuse me not that am unjust:
 but bowing down thy heavenly eye, Behold how I do still lament
 my sinnes wherein I do offend:
O Lord, for them shall I be shent, sith thee to please I do intend?
 No, no; not so thy will is bent to deal with sinners in thine ire:
 But when in heart they shall repent,
 thou grant'st with speed their just desire.
 To thee therefore still shall I cry to wash away my sinfull crime:
 Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry but that it may help me in time.
 Hast thee, O Lord, haste thee, I say, to poure on me thy gifts of grace,
 That when this life shall flit away
 in heaven with thee I may have place:
 Where thou dost reigne eternally with God which once did down thee send,
 Where angels sing continually:
 to thee be praise world without end.

A thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords supper.

THe Lord be thanked for his gifts and mercies evermore

A thanksgiving.

109

That he doth shew unto his saints:
 to him be laud therefore.
 Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord
 as he doth right deserve:
 Our hearts cannot of him so think as he doth us preserve.

His benefits they be so great to us that be but sinne, That at our hands for recompense
 there is no hope to winne.
O sinfull flesh, that thou should'st have such mercies of the Lord!
 Thou dost deserve most worthily of him to be abhorr'd.

Nought else but sinne and wretchednesse doth rest within our hearts:
 And stubbornly against the Lord
 we daily play our parts.
 The sunne above in firmament that is to us a light, Doth shew it self more clear and pure then we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein more holy are then we:
 They serve the Lord in their estate,
 each one in his degree.
 They do not strive for mastership, nor slack their office set:
 But serve the Lord and do his will,
 hate is to them no let.

Also the earth and all therein of God it is in aw,
 It doth observe the formers will,
 by skilfull natures law.
 The sea and all that is therein
 doth bend when God doth beck:
 The spirits beneath do tremble all,
 and fear his wrathfull check.

But we (alas!) for whom all these were made them for to rule,
 Do not so know or love the Lord as doth the ox or mule.
 A law he gave for us to know, what was his holy will:
 He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that seeketh out the Lord of life to please:
 Nor doth the thing that might us lead to Christ and quiet ease.
 Thus are we all his enemies,
 we can it not denie:

And

And he again of his good will would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedie was none to bring us unto life,

The son of God our flesh he took to en hour mortall life,

And all the law of God the Lord
he did it full obey:

And for our sins upon the crosse his blood our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget what good he to us wrought;

A signe he left our eyes to tell that he our bodies bought.

In bread and wine here visible unto thine eyes and taste,

His mercies great thou mayst record
if that his Spirit thou hast.

As once the corn did live and grow,
and was cut down with sith,

And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive:

And as the mill with violence did tear it out so small,

And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all:

And as the oven with fire hot did close it up with heat,

And all this done that I have said, that it should be our meat:

So was the Lord in his ripe age
cut down by cruel death:

His soul he gave in torments great,
and yeelded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread,

With much reproch and troubles great on earth his life he led.

And as the grapes in pleasant time
are pressed very sore,

And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more;

Because the juyce that in them is as comfortable drink

We might receive, and joyfull be when sorrows make us shrink:

So Christ his blood out pressed was with nails and eke with spear:

The juyce thereof doth save all those that rightly do him fear.

And as the the corns by unity into one loaf are knit:

So is the Lord and his whole church, though he in heaven sit.

As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one

In faith and love in Christ above, and unto Christ alone:

Leading a life without all strife
in quietrest and peace:

From envie and from malice both our hearts and tongues to cease.

Which if we do, then shall we shew that we his chosen be:

By faith in him to lead a life as alwayes willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:

Then after death we shall be sure with him to have a place.

A prayer. R. W.

PReserve us, Lord, by thy dear word;
From Turk and Pope defend us, Lord:
Which both would thrust out of his throne
Our Lord Jesus Christ thy dear Son.

Lord Jesus Christ, shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of lords by right:
Thy poor afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God holy Ghost our comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:
Give us one minde and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in persons three,
Thy name be prais'd in unity:
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

FINIS.

A forme of prayer to be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majestie, trusting in our own merits, or worthiness, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers and grant our requests, which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who also hath commanded us to assemble our selves together in his name, with full assurance, that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our mediator and advocate to thy Majesty, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee, sweet Father, to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we most justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment, but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy grace and mercy we have quietly passed this night: grant (O heavenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds may redound to the glory of thy name, and good ensample of all men, who seeing our good works, may glorifie thee our heavenly father. And forasmuch as of thy mere favour and love, thou hast not onely created us to thine own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear son Jesus Christ, of that immortall kingdome, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to encrease our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy spirit, that we may in the mean-time live in godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons and such like, shall not inherit the kingdome of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, and for them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thy heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderfull works, that thou art God over all,

so they may be instructed by thy holy spirit, to believe in thee, their onely Saviour and Redeemer: but forasmuch as they cannot believe, except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except he be sent; therefore (O Lord) raise up faithfull distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrarily confound Sathan, Antichrist, with all hirelings, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schismes, heresies and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because, O Lord, we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Sathan by his ministers seeks by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel: we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening Wolves, & strengthen all thy servants, whom they keep in prison & bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion, either to encrease their tyranny, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our finnes and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies, but with speed (O Lord) consider these great miseries. For thy people Israel many times by their sin provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgement; yet though their finnes were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivedst them to mercy. We therefore most wretched sinners bewail our manifold finnes, and earnestly repent us of our former wickednesse, and ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us dear Father these our requests, and all other things necessary for us, and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee as he hath taught us, saying,
Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting, and full of pity, we acknowledge and confesse that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much lesse to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers and grant our requests; if we consider our own deservings: for our consciences do accuse us, and our sinnes do witnesse against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which doest not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgresse thy commandments: yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us, when we feel our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flie to thy soveraigne bounty as our onely stay and refuge; beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sinnes and wickednesse, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us, neither our negligence and unkindnesse, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us; but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sinnes. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thy holy spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same. And so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name, but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull mind, the conscience oppressed, hungering and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creatour, and we be the work of thine hands: yea thou art our Father, and we thy children: thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock: thou art our Redeemer, and we thy people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know, at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sin, from the bottome of his heart, thou wilt put away all his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thy holy Prophet.

Finally, for as much as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in; grant O dear Father, that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortall life; and in the mean season, that we being not overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our mindes upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee. Furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive, or overmuch, after the unsatiable desires of our flesh, but onely sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thy holy name, & profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies and loving kindnesse shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnes, freely and of thine own accord to elect and chuse us to salvation, before the beginning of the world. And even like continuall thanks be given to thee for creating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son when we were utterly lost, for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit in the revelation and knowledge of thy word, for helping and succouring us in all our needs and necessities, for saving us from all dangers of body and soul, for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations & persecutions, for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most mercifull Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy onely goodnes, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christs sake, grant us alwayes thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all adversities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventnesse and love towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake: suffer us not (most dear Father) to receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy spirit, that in heart, word, and deed we may sanctifie and do worship to thy name, help to amplifie and increase thy kingdome, and whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing, O Father, without the which we cannot serve thee: but blesse thou so all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpfull unto others. Be mercifull O Lord to our offences, and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more: be thou our Father, Captain, and defender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy mercifull hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy name, through Jesus

Prayers.

Jesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour. Let thy mighty hand and outstretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence, thy mercy and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son our salvation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end and in the end. So be it.

O Lord increase our faith.

A confession for all estates and times.

O Eternall God and most mercifull Father, we confesse and acknowledge here before thy divine Majesty, that we are miserable sinners, conceived and born in sin and iniquity, so that in us there is no goodnesse. For the flesh evermore rebelleth against the spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandments: and so purchase to our selves through thy just judgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding, O heavenly Father, for as much as we are displeased with our selves, for the sinnes that we have committed against thee, and do unfainedly repent us of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christ his sake, to shew thy mercy upon us, to forgive us all our sinnes, and encrease thy holy spirit in us; that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts our own unrighteousnesse, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will, not for the worthinesse thereof, but for the merits of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our onely Saviour, whom thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our sinnes, and for whose sake we are certainly perswaded that thou wilt deny us nothing that we shall ask in his name, according to thy will. For thy spirit doth assure our consciences that thou art our mercifull Father, and so lovest us thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and favour from us. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Son and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

A prayer to be said before a man begin his work.

O Lord God most mercifull Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travell, that we may relieve our need, we beseech thee of thy grace to bless our labours, that thy blessing may extend unto us, without the which we are not able to continue, and that this great favour may be witness unto us of thy bountifullnesse and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast over us.

Moreover (O Lord) we beseech thee that thou wouldest strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travell in our estate and vocation, without fraud or deceit, and that we may endeavour our selves to follow thine holy ordinances, rather then to seek to satisfie our greedy affections, or desire to gain. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labour, give us a mind also to help them that need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shalt give us: and knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selves to our neighbours, and not by any means lift up our selves above them which have not received so liberall a portion, as of thy mercy thou hast given unto us. And if it please thee to trie and exercise us by greater poverty and need then our flesh should desire, that thou wouldest yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nourish us continually, through thy bountifull liberality, that we be not so tempted that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently wait till thou fill us, not onely with corporall graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spirituall treasures, to the intent we may alwayes have more ample occasion to give thee thanks, and wholly to rest upon thy mercies. Hear us O Lord of mercy, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.
